

HATCHER DIES BY OWN HAND NEAR P'VILLE

ILL HEALTH BLAMED FOR SUICIDE OF BANKER

Found dead at the roadside on Town Mountain, two miles east of Pikeville, Monday morning, Walter Hatcher, 43 years old, vice-president of the First National Bank, Pikeville, and son of a prominent Floyd-Pike county family, was declared by Pike county coroner W. P. Hall to have died by his own hand.

A 44-calibre bullet had been fired through his left breast, in the region of the heart. Notes to his wife and to George Greer, president of the bank explained that he was in ill health and that "this is the best way out," it was said.

A son of the late Richard Hatcher and Mrs. Tommye Worsham Hatcher, he was born in Pike county but had many relatives in this county and was the owner of a part of the old Elliott farm on Abbott Creek, near here.

Mr. Hatcher appeared at the bank early Monday morning, remained there a few minutes, then departed, driving his car. The auto was found turned back toward Pikeville on the mountain, and a seat cushion on which his head rested was a few feet from the edge of the pavement.

The body was found by Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Rowe and George Vanover, pedestrians passing by, who at first thought him to be having car trouble. The revolver lay within 18 inches of his hand.

Funeral rites for the victim were conducted Wednesday afternoon from the Pikeville Presbyterian Church, and burial was made in the Hatcher cemetery at Pikeville. Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Lillian Hatcher, one son, Walter, Jr., a student at the University of Louisville, and a daughter, Mrs. Betty Weddie, Pikeville.

HOPE THERE'S NOTHING MIS-SPELLED IN THIS

You youngsters who failed to win in the spelling bee here shouldn't feel badly about it—not at all. Isn't it something to be the best speller in your school?

Why, I, old as I am, well remember how thrilled I was when only poor, little me and the oldest and biggest speller in our country school were left standing and I thought I'd repeat the Little David act. But the word, "tobacco," got me—and I was so heart-broken I later took to using the stuff.

No, I didn't spell it, "terbacker," as most of us pronounced it. In all seriousness, our spellers hereabouts will never win a state championship till they begin reading more widely, practise the dictionary habit a little more (I would have said "assiduously," but I'm none too certain of the spelling and I don't want to have to consult the dictionary) and spend more time in expressing themselves on paper.

If you can't spell when writing, can't spell on paper, what good will your spelling ability do you, anyhow?—that's what I want to know.

Another thing: I wish these spelling bees for the county could be arranged so that the rural country spellers could compete. You town boys and girls might be surprised.

OLD LAW STILL PREVAILS

To "Interested" at Alphoretta: We would do as you request, re-print the law concerning marriage, but the law in effect is so old that everybody should know it. You see, that law you're interested in just ain't, and won't be till next January—thanks to the Legislature and a budget which provides nothing for the enforcement of the new law.

Mrs. J. D. Fitzpatrick Cancer Victim At Home Here

Long months of suffering from cancer ended for Mrs. Nelle Short Fitzpatrick, 46 years old, wife of J. D. Fitzpatrick, well-known Prestonsburg man, in death at 1 o'clock Tuesday morning at her home here.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Short, Mrs. Fitzpatrick was born April 19, 1893 and was reared on Abbott Creek. She was married January 23, 1915. A member of the Methodist Church, she held the high esteem of all who knew her.

Besides her husband, she leaves two children, Jewell D. and Lorraine Fitzpatrick; her parents, two brothers and two sisters: Mrs. Sherman Stanley, Russell, Ky.; Mrs. Henry Fitzpatrick, Jackson, O.; Bill Short and W. J. Short, both of Cliff.

Funeral rites were conducted Thursday morning at 10 o'clock from the Methodist Church here, the pastor, the Rev. W. B. Garriott, and the Rev. Isaac Stratton officiating. Burial was made in the Pruitt cemetery on Abbott Creek under the direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

MRS. SELLARDS IS CLAIMED

VALLEY INN OWNER PASSES SUNDAY, STROKE VICTIM

Stricken twice within a period of a few hours by apoplexy, Mrs. Maggie Clarke Sellards, 60 years old, died Sunday night at 9:30 o'clock at the Valley Inn, the hotel here which she and her husband, the late J. H. Sellards, founded almost a quarter of a century ago.

Her death came as a shock to friends and relatives throughout this section. Though suffering for several years from a heart ailment, she had been actively in charge of the hotel until a few hours before she was first stricken.

Probably more widely known than any other Floyd county woman because of her years of acquaintance with the traveling public, Mrs. Sellards was recognized as the county's "first business woman," having not only assumed full management of the hotel upon her husband's death in 1925, but also having added to the original structure a modern annex.

Her energy, courtesy to friend and stranger alike and an unquenchable public spirit were dominant characteristics.

Miss Stewart, a sophomore, and a graduate of Maytown high school, is an honor student at Morehead and a member of the Niwtori Club.

Miss Skaggs, in the same class and also a member of the Niwtori Club, is a member of the college band and orchestra and is secretary-treasurer of the campus Floyd County Club.

The winner will be "sworn in" on the evening of March 16, when the Carnival, a miniature Mardi Gras and the highlight of the college social season, is to be held.

REGIONAL TITLE WON BY INEZ

INDIANS DROP BELFRY, WEST LIBERTY AND PRESTONSBURG

For the sixth time in the past seven years the powerful Inez Indians will represent the 15th region in the state high school basketball tournament, which will be held in the University of Kentucky gymnasium at Lexington this week-end.

Running rough-shod over all opposition in the regional, the Indians defeated West Liberty, the host team, 34-18, Thursday night, Friday night they swamped the Prestonsburg Black-cats 50-21, and in the championship game Saturday night they scalped Belfry, the winner in the lower bracket, 47-16.

After losing two games during the regular season and another in the district final to Garrett, the Black-cats came back in the regional against the same team Friday night and handen the Black Devils a 28-23 defeat. The win put the 'Cats into the upper-bracket semi-final game against Inez.

In the lower bracket Belfry downed the Meade Memorial five and Crockett bowed to Pikeville. In the semi-final game of this bracket Belfry nosed out Pikeville, 21-18, to go into the final game.

The Inez sharp-shooters led Prestonsburg all the way in their game and were never in trouble. Led by West, Cooper and Harmon, who scored

BUSINESS MEN TO BE HOSTS

TO ATHLETES, OTHERS ON STATE TOURNEY JAUNT SATURDAY

Captains of all basketball teams in the county, the Prestonsburg basketball team and the Prestonsburg high school's cheerleaders will be given free transportation to the state basketball tournament at Lexington Saturday as guests of the Prestonsburg Co-Operative Business Association. It was announced following Monday evening's meeting of the club.

The club voted $25 for expenses of the trip, which will include hire of a driver, gasoline, oil and incidental expenditures. The Floyd County Board of Education is co-operating by furnishing a school bus for the trip.

The bus will leave Prestonsburg at 8 o'clock. Accommodations will also be available to a limited number of others, and the cost to these for the round trip will be only $1, it was said. Tickets are on sale at Hutsinipper's Drug Store here. Arthur C. Carter will accompany the group, representing the business association.

Discussion of the proposed construction of locks and dams on the Big Sandy to furnish water transportation in the valley resulted in the association voting its approval of the plan. The association designated April 6 as the next drawing date here, and appropriated 10 $5 bills and five $10 bills as awards.

'WOMAN WITHOUT A COUNTRY' IS REFUSED ASSISTANCE

"Aunt" Kate Wireman, of Abbott Creek, Wedded To a Patriotic Foreigner, Is Denied Old-Age Benefit

"If anybody needs help, I do," Mrs. Kate Neeley Wireman, 68-year-old life-long resident of Abbott Creek told THE TIMES Wednesday, while she was visiting sick relatives on the head of Meade's Fork of Abbott. "I have sold my beds and the rugs off my floor. I come up here today to sell my trunk for some corn to make meal," she continued, as the tears streaked her face.

Joint-owner with her husband, Mike Wireman, native of what was B.H. (before Hitler) Austria-Hungary, of an eight-acre rough hill-side farm, Mrs. Wireman has been trying to get old-age assistance. But it is ruled that since she was married to a man who was not a citizen of the United States, she has renounced her citizenship and is not eligible to be placed on the pension list. Then, too, before she could receive the assistance which she earnestly believes she deserves, it would be necessary for her to give up her farm, and she doesn't want to do that. "People love their children and want to leave them something," she added. She is the mother by a previous marriage of two daughters, both of whom are married, one of them a widow. Neither is able to offer her or her husband any support, and "are not able to keep themselves."

"We helped vote the old-age pension in, and the law was passed to help folks like us," she said in a quaking voice as her hands jerked continually, the result of a partial paralytic stroke suffered several years ago.

Although her husband is considered an alien, he was registered for war service during the World War and invested in Liberty Bonds and war-savings stamps. He was living in Magoffin county at the time, and his registration card was signed by the late Circuit Judge D. W. Gardner.

Coming to the United States in 1911 as Mike Napavarch, this modern "man without a country," who had worked on a farm in his native land, came to Magoffin. There he worked for Dan Wireman and subsequently he took the family name. After working there for six years he came to Abbott Creek, where he worked on the farm of Wiley Wireman. Several years later Wiley Wireman died and in 1921 Mike married his widow, "Aunt" Kate. They have no children.

Unable to make a decent living on the farm, the 53-year-old Mike has made repeated attempts to obtain WPA employment, and once he was successful. During the building of the Abbott Creek road, about three years ago, he worked on the project for a few months. But because of a "whispering campaign," he contends, he has not been given employment since. He was confined to the Eastern State hospital at Lexington for about two months for what he describes as a

Robert S. Friend, Jr., Hunter, Succumbs Sunday Night

Robert S. Friend, Jr., 20 years old, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Friend, Sr., of Hunter, and a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Friend, Prestonsburg, died at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, Sunday at 10 p. m., a victim of a ruptured appendix and pneumonia.

A member of Martin high school's Junior Class, young Friend was stricken March 3 and two days later was taken to the hospital. His maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Salisbury, Prestonsburg, died a few years ago.

Surviving him are his parents, two brothers, Al and James, and four sisters, Mrs. Fred Cochran, Misses Ann, Ethel and Ruth Friend, all of Hunter. The body was prepared for burial by the Arnold Funeral Home, here, and returned for burial in the family cemetery at Hunter Wednesday. Funeral rites Wednesday afternoon were conducted by the Rev. E. H. Howard, of the Regular Baptist Church.

CIRCUIT CLERK OF KNOTT DIES

BALLARD SLONE, 57, HINDMAN, PASSES AT PIKEVILLE

Funeral rites for Ballard Slone, 57 years old, who for 12 years had been Clerk of the Knott circuit court, were conducted Friday from the courthouse at Hindman as friends and relatives from a wide section of Eastern Kentucky gathered to do homage to the veteran official.

Mr. Slone died last Wednesday at the Methodist hospital, Pikeville, a day after he had entered the hospital for treatment. He had been in ill health since last spring when he contracted pneumonia.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Slone, he was a native of Knott county and was educated in Prof. George Clarke's school at Hindman. He was first elected clerk in 1927 and was twice re-elected, his last political victory being at the November polls, 1939. Prior to his entrance into politics, he had been a teacher of 20 years' experience.

Mr. Slone was married in 1903 to Miss Luraney Combs, to which union

CLUB TO SEEK HOSPITAL

FOR PRESTONSBURG; MEETING HELD THURSDAY

The Prestonsburg Woman's Club, at its meeting Thursday evening, named a committee to meet with the Prestonsburg Co-Operative Business Association for the purpose of discussing means of stimulating interest in a hospital here.

Mrs. J. D. Thomas, president of the club, Mrs. W. P. Mayo and Mrs. J. R. Hurt were named as a committee to confer with the business men on hospital plans. This action was taken since every other county seat town on the Levisa Fork of the Big Sandy — Pikeville, Paintsville, Louisa and Catlettsburg—has at least one hospital, while Prestonsburg has none.

Miss Vera P'Pool, of the Crippled Children's Commission, appeared before the club and outlined the activities and financial needs of the Commission. The need for funds to enable the Commission to continue its work in the face of the urgent need for such service, created by the infantile paralysis epidemic in this county, was cited. Seventy polio cases, she pointed out, were reported from Floyd county alone during the epidemic last year, 50 already having received treatment which, in many cases, resulted in complete cures. The club subscribed $25 to the fund.

The club adopted a resolution approving the plan embracing lock-and-damming of the Big Sandy river for the purpose of making water navigation possible and generally improving industrial conditions.

Reporting on the Garden Club being sponsored by the Woman's Club, Mrs. Winnie F. Johns, chairman, announced prizes to be awarded for the greatest improvement to homes, flower gardens and boxes, most attractive floral display for filling station surroundings. Plans for a stone portal at the north entrance to Prestonsburg were discussed.

Miss Naomi Goble gave a brief review of the new book, "Show Me the Land," by Clark McMeekin, (pen name for the co-authors, Isabel Mc-

COUNTY PLANS STRUCTURE AT ALLEN

BUILDING TO HOUSE WPA OFFICES, MACHINERY

Negotiations were begun by the fiscal court this week for the purchase at Allen of a one-and-a-half-acre tract of land on which to construct a building which will house the WPA offices now located here, the plant for manufacturing concrete culvert units and the county's road machinery.

The structure, it is estimated, will cost $15,000, with the work being done by WPA labor, the county contributing 25 per cent of the total cost. The building, as planned, will be 55 feet wide by 85 feet in length and will be constructed of concrete blocks.

Site for the building will be on the W. N. Martin farm on the right side of Route 80, approaching Allen.

The court also plans the purchase of three trucks for use by the WPA. Its two shovels are now being operated by the WPA and the county, as sponsor of projects, gains credit thereby on the 25 per cent contribution required of the sponsor on such work.

County Judge E. P. Hill, Jr., this week pointed out that the fiscal court's recent action in withdrawing as sponsor of the women's Professional and Service divisions applies only to sewing centers and not to construction work of the WPA. The action was taken as a protest against the Works Progress Administration's ruling requiring women to have had previous gainful employment and to possess certain educational qualifications, before being eligible for sewing project work.

W. A. Toney, county WPA supervisor, gave the following report on WPA construction activities in the county, as of this week:

Middle Creek road, six miles completed; Rough and Tough bridge, complete; Cow Creek road, half-way down hill at head of Home branch; lower Bull Creek road, within 1-4 miles of Big Sandy river; four miles of Little Mud Creek road, within 1,599 feet of completion; Big Mud road, three miles, within sight of Harold Branch; three miles on Toler Creek, complete; two miles on Branham's Creek, complete; Fed-Ligon road within a month of completion; Salt Lick road, within 1,500 feet of connection with Knott county project at Knott-Floyd line; Cliff-Auxier road being widened; approaches at Drift bridge being made, this to be followed by beginning of work on McDowell bridge; three miles of Brush Creek road; survey completed and deeds being procured for Turkey Creek road; Stephens Branch road planned this year.

"TREASURE ISLAND, SAN FRANCISCO BAY"
 Fully alive to the fact that, with 1940 a thoroughly "American travel year," California will be the mecca for millions of tourists, San Francisco is putting on its best bib and tucker and getting all set for a real party. In fact, the 11 western states, with their hundreds of recreational and scenic wonders, are getting all slicked up for the year of travel. National parks and monuments, such famous spots as Crater Lake, Oregon Caves, Yosemite, Yellowstone, Glacier National Park, the Grand Canyon, and scores of others will supply enthralling stops on westward treks to Treasure Island.

 World famous for its amusements, its restaurants of all nations, and its ample hotel accommodations, San Francisco, the host city for the Fair of '40, is making detailed plans to maintain its reputation for true Western hospitality.
 As a basic rule, adopted by all agencies involved, there will be absolutely no "price hiking" for the 1940 season. Hotel rates, restaurant prices, amusement cost, transportation fares—in fact every expense which will be involved in the entertainment of guests, will be maintained at regular low levels.
 Re-organization of the efficient housing bureau, which in 1939 eliminated all worries in connection with hotel reservations, has been achieved. Tourist bureaus and agencies, as in 1939, are fully prepared to render first-class and comprehensive service. Visitors will be enabled to visit the famous spots for which San Francisco has won world-wide fame, Chinatown, with its Oriental lure, Fisherman's Wharf, the famous beaches, Golden Gate Park, the hundreds of restaurants of every nationality, where visitors may literally "eat their way around the world." The regular Italian dinner with California vintages for anywhere from 40c upward, fish grottoes, French rotisseries, South Sea gardens, these are but a scant few of the famous types of restaurants available to visitors.
 San Francisco realizes that this season it must be at its very best—and it will be. It has a reputation as a city where the visitors receive a warm welcome, and one where there must be no "gypping" of its guests.
 Fair in '40 visitors will find the latch-string out, and a world of entertainment, a friendly welcome, and a new exposition on Treasure Island ready and waiting for them.

FLOYD'S REPRESENTATIVE
 Floyd county's Edward B. Leslie had the front pages last week by his bill to provide unemployment benefits for workers idle between the expiration of a work contract and the signing of a new one.
 Notwithstanding the fact that his efforts proved futile and his bill failed of passage, there are several thousand U. M. workers here who will be pleased to learn that they have a Representative down there fighting FOR them—instead of bellowing ABOUT 'em!
HARD TIMES!
 Talk about being "hard up," this one takes the cake. A certain citizen of Martin went home recently to find his wife pre-occupied with the Ivory Soap contest.
 "What are you doing, honey?" the husband inquired.
 "Well, I'm trying to win one of those Buick automobiles."
 "Lord, honey, don't do that!" he exclaimed, "we're not even able to pay the sales tax on it!"

GONE WITH THE WIND
 Recently a very pleased Prestonsburg housewife was telling intimates that a friend of her husband had promised them two passes to "Gone With the Wind."
 Then the friend sent word for the husband to call at Huts-n-piller Drug and get the passes which he'd left there in an envelope.
 The husband refused to call for the envelope—because "a little birdie" told him that it contained nothing except two small navy beans.

SHIKE'S POKES
 The views expressed in this column are those of the writer, and not necessarily those of The Times.

It seems that Louis Wilcox had a small accident. His car ran over a small embankment, and eye-witnesses are at odds as to how it happened. He had bought a calf in Drift and started home. Some claim the calf was driving and looked around at Louis and ran over the embankment. Others claim Louis looked around at the calf and—blooie! Anyway, the one that was driving looked around in the back seat at the other and "over we went."
 I heard Fred Allen say that the most lonesome man in the world is a Maine Democrat. Sorry, Fred, I disagree—what about a South Carolina Republican?
 Briar Buck: Just why did you stop talking about that Drift bridge being so slow—when you found out the county and not the WPA was building same?
 I also heard the "chief weed cutter" advise the boys to keep you working to offset "that Shikepoke." So go right ahead—I don't mind.
 I usually write what the miners in my locality want me to. They advised me at the local meeting Saturday to put it in my column that "if we could re-write anything we would re-write the law so that the Kentucky political slaves wouldn't be robbed of their political liberty, their money, their vote and their self-respect."
 Here's hoping the House of Representatives extends the "Hatch Act" to take in state employees.
 Mr. Editor, we agree with you in what you said about Senator Phillips' bill to eliminate advisory Highway Commissioners. But I guess you noticed that when "Lawyer Smith" (the fellow who drew $136,000 from the state for duties less than a "ward heeler") has disapproved the bill—so it won't be passed.

Fishing Season Opens With Reported Catch Of 18-Lb. "Muskie"
 Frankfort, Ky., March 11—The 1940 fishing season opened with a bang in Warren county, near Bowling Green, last week when B. J. Stewart hooked an 18-pound fighting "muskie."
 It was the first muskellunge caught in that section this year and was landed after a 10-minute battle. The fish measured 42 inches in length and was lured to its doom with a pin-tail spinner.
 Stewart was fishing at Graham Springs, a small stream fed by cold springs with a length of approximately one-half mile, and emptying into Barren river four miles from Bowling Green.
 Several other muskies broke water along the stream after Stewart landed his prize but he only had the one strike.
 Green River, Barren River and Drake's Creek in Southwestern Kentucky afford good fishing while Kiniconic Creek, North Fork of Triplett Creek, Little Sandy river, Tygart Creek, Red River and Upper Licking in Northeastern Kentucky offer splendid muskie fishing in that section of the state.

Mercury Test Car Will Visit P'burg

One of the most significant economy test runs in automotive history is being conducted throughout the Cincinnati branch territory of the Ford Motor Company, and Prestonsburg has been chosen as one of the principal points the test car will visit. The test car is a stock model 1940 Mercury 8 sedan.

According to Bass Howard, of the Howard Motor Company, local Ford and Mercury dealer, the purpose of the economy run is to demonstrate the progress of automotive engineering during the past decade, and more particularly to bring attention to the fact that, while the most economical speed for the average car 10 years ago was between 15 and 20 miles per hour, modern automobiles give their best performance at approximately 45.

"Mercury owners talked about getting 20 miles per gallon of gasoline," stated Mr. Howard, "but owners of other makes were skeptical and asked us for the facts. So it was decided to take a stock Mercury and let people find out for themselves just what mileage this car will give."

Mounted on the hood of the test car is a gasoline meter holding one-tenth of a gallon of gasoline. Local persons will be invited to drive the test car and their mileage results will be carefully checked.

M. F. CONLEY DIES AT LOUISA
NEWSPAPER FOUNDER, BANKER PASSES THURSDAY

Milton F. Conley, 71, founder of The Big Sandy News and for many years cashier of the Louisa National Bank, died Thursday, February 29, at the home in Louisa of his sister, Mrs. C. O. McDougle.

Mr. Conley, who in recent years had resided in Roanoke, Va., came to Louisa February 17 to visit his sister. He was stricken Friday morning with an attack of angina pectoris, a disease from which he had suffered for six years, and since Friday had suffered recurrent attacks. Death, which came Thursday morning at 5 o'clock, was ascribed to congestive heart failure.

A son of the late Asa J. and Elizabeth Leslie Conley, he was born in Louisa June 13, 1868 and had resided here practically all of his life. In September, 1885, at the age of 18, he and L. Boyd Ferguson bought from the late Col. W. O. Johnson the Lawrence County Index, a paper established in 1883, and changed the name to The Big Sandy News. Mr. Conley 18 months later purchased Ferguson's interest and continued as publisher of The News until 1935. He aided in establishing the Louisa National Bank in 1904 and served as cashier until 1934. Appointed by Governor W. J. Fields in 1925, he served as chairman of the state board of charities and corrections in Frankfort from 1925 to 1931, serving during the Fields administration and two years of the Sampson administration. He also served a term as postmaster in Louisa. He had been a member of the M. E. Church, South, for 60 years and served for many years as a member of the board of stewards of the Louisa church.

Surviving are the wife, Mrs. Willie Burgess Conley, two daughters, Mrs. B. H. Maben, of Roanoke, Va.; and Mrs. R. P. Wood, of Chicago, Ill.; a son, Niel B. Conley, of Plainfield, N. J., and a sister, Mrs. C. O. McDougle, of Louisa.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday morning at 11 o'clock from the McDougle residence on Lock avenue here with Bishop U. V. W. Darlington, of Huntington, W. Va., officiating, and interment will be made in Pine Hill cemetery overlooking Louisa. —Big Sandy News.

Beauty Contest Scheduled

Friday evening, March 22, on the stage of the Abigail Theater, a girl from this community will be chosen from a group of lovely young ladies to be Miss Prestonsburg, and will also be selected for a screen test. Miss Prestonsburg will have all expenses paid while attending the state contest and will receive a screen test there. This screen test will be shown back on the screen at a later date in your local theater, giving the public a chance to see the difference between screen tests and personal appearances.

The girl who wins the state contest will have the opportunity of competing in the national contest for Miss United States. This should mean much to some local girl, and United Cinema Productions feels that the girl will have one of the most enjoyable trips of her career.

In connection with this contest there will be a Junior Queen contest to select a winner to compete in the national Junior Miss United States contest.

Amateur acts will be secured from the county, giving some amateur a chance at radio broadcasting and a trip to the state contest.

SPELLING BEE FINALS HELD

WEEKSBURY STUDENT WINS COUNTY TITLE

Thirteen-year-old Vanda Meade, eighth grade student in the Weeksbury consolidated school, will represent Floyd county in the state spelling bee at Louisville, April 18.

She won this honor Saturday at the Floyd county spelling bee, held in the county courtroom as a crowd of 200 persons listened while spellers of 14 schools waged orthographic battle.

A fifth grade student from Prestonsburg, 10-year-old Doris C. Hall, was runner-up and furnished the winner worthy competition. Matching older youngsters, word for word, letter for letter, for two hours and a half, she was the bee's "dark horse" and lost only when she stumbled on the word, "occurrence." This word the Weeksbury representative correctly spelled, then negotiated the next word, "occurrence."

For her winning performance, young Miss Meade will be given an all-expense trip to the state bee at Louisville, the Floyd County Board of Education contributing $25 in this cause. The Board also gave each speller a dictionary. Winner of the state contest will be sent to Washington as the guest of The Courier-Journal and Louisville Times to compete for the national championship and a cash prize of $500.

Spellers competing in the county finals here and the schools which each represented follow:

Vanda Meade, Weeksbury; Ruby Jane Turner, McDowell; Doris C. Hall, Prestonsburg; Imogene Allen, Maytown; Dina Baldrige, Glo; Ada Allen, Lackey; Crawford Bradley, Garrett; Patty Prater, Betsy Layne; Phyllis Gibson, Wayland; June Turner, Drift; Vivian Ratliff, Martin; Sam Mullins, Bosco; Carnis Bates, Wheelwright; Harrison Sparks, Auxier.

Joe S. Ja-rell, veteran Floyd county teacher, was the spelling bee judge. Truman Damron, eighth grade teacher and Carl G. Ford, principal, Weeksbury, coached the winner. The runner-up was trained by Mrs. Robert Hughes.

NOTICE

All countersigned Floyd county fiscal court warrants Nos. 13143 to 13204 are hereby called for payment. Interest on same ceases March 16, 1940.

Beauty Contest Scheduled

Martin, Ky. (Spl.)—Tuesday evening, March 19, on the stage of the Martin Theater, a girl from this community will be chosen from a group of lovely young ladies to be Miss Martin, and will also be selected for a screen test. Miss Martin will have all expenses paid while attending the state contest and will receive a screen test there. This screen test will be shown back on the screen at a later date in your local theater, giving the public a chance to see the difference between screen tests and personal appearances.

The girl who wins in the state contest will have the opportunity of competing for Miss United States. This should mean much to some local girl, and United Cinema Productions predicts this girl will have one of the most enjoyable trips of her career. In connection with this contest there will be a "Junior" Queen contest to select a winner to compete in the national Junior Miss United States contest. Amateur acts will be secured from the county, giving some amateur a chance at radio broadcasting and a trip to the state contest.

LEGIONNAIRES MEET HERE

41 VETERANS RENEW MEMBERSHIP FOR 1940

Elbert Strong, Hazard, Commander of the American Legion in the Tenth district, met with Floyd Post at the courthouse here Saturday night and was a speaker in a program of much interest to veterans.

Martin Firm Appointed Kelvinator Dealer

Announcement of the appointment of the Cumberland Motor Company as dealer for Kelvinator electric refrigerators in Martin was made this week by John Roberts, manager.

Kelvinator, was pointed out by Mr. Roberts, is the oldest maker of electric refrigerators and the one which last year created a sensation in business circles by reducing prices $30 to $60 on high quality, big-size refrigerators.

"Despite rising material and labor costs," Mr. Roberts said, "Kelvinator electric refrigerators are priced as low as $110.95 for a six and one-quarter cubic-foot model delivered in the buyer's kitchen with a five-year protection plan. These enormous savings have been brought about by a new, revolutionary manufacturing and selling program which has been developed after two years of exhaustive study on how prices could be reduced."

"Featured in the 1940 Kelvinator line is the newest thing in electrical refrigeration—the 'Moist-Master' humidity system, which captures and preserves Spring conditions in the refrigerator."

"Kelvinator engineers recognized that everything that lives or grows is at its best in the Spring, and so they set out to approximate Spring-time conditions in a refrigerator. The result is the new 'Moist-Master' system, which provides exactly the right degree of humidity for the preservation of foods without increasing the use of electric current."

TIDBITS OF KENTUCKY FOLKLORE

Just a Little Taddeck

A remnant of something, like leftovers from dinner that should be consumed at supper, used to be called a "taddeck" in my neighborhood. I did not know for many a day that the word was hard to find in even the big dictionaries, and there it was labeled "Dialectal." Only a few years ago I ran across the actual meaning of the word as it was used in the years before our ancestors—English, Irish, Scotch-Irish, German—came over here and settled in Kentucky. It was the term applied to the toll-dish or cup used by millers to take out their part of the grain from the "turn," or quantity brought to mill. A variant form of it was "toddick." Leaving out the way we used it, to designate a remnant, I want to mention an old toll-cup that is still doing service in an old water-mill in the Jackson Purchase and will probably be used until the mill itself has to retire before the waters behind the Gilbertsville Dam.

Away back in the past, so far back that some people claim it was the first year of the occupancy of the Purchase, 1810, there was established a mill on Blood River by a man named Brandon. There the mill has been ever since, never very prepossessing in appearance but functioning steadily to the needs of the community. At various times there were enlargements made to the mill, so that in time it had a sawmill, a gristmill, a cotton gin, and a flour mill. Many of these functions long ago were dropped, but the grist mill persisted. The first mill stones, now in a private museum in Murray, were made by hand. The legend is that it took three men the better part of a summer to quarry these stones and put them into shape for use at the mill. Not long ago I examined these old stones and was surprised at the fine workmanship displayed in those early pioneer times. There were plainly visible many fossils in the old stones; in some ways the stones themselves seemed fossils of a long-ago time, almost as remote in some ways as the small sea-organisms that had left their skeletons in the limestone rock.

In the old mill the toll-cup, made over a century ago, has been used so long that it has acquired a polish that cabinet makers might envy. Think of the many bushels of corn and wheat it has been plunged into, of the years of good meal that it symbolizes! The Brandons, true to their profession as millers, literally had thumbs of gold because of the good meal they made. The old mill is a place not too accessible, became a center of part of the life of people or miles around. The old water mill, taking on a little more age and picturesqueness as the years have grown in number, still stands by the stream-side, giving its stamp to the basic life of the whole section. Good water-ground meal was, and is, a delicacy; the successive mill-stones have done their part in creating, and keeping the reputation that Old Man Brandon made so many, many years ago.

And the old toll-cup, just a little tad-deck, carries one back through all the time of the mill and its useful services and back to the old country where the word came from, already full of flavor of the ages of grinding meal on millstones turned by water falling over a dam or rushing thru a chute.

2 GAS WELLS COMPLETED

IN FLOYD, OPERATORS' MONTHLY REPORT DISCLOSES

According to the monthly report of Eastern Kentucky gas operators, two productive wells have been "drilled in" in this county recently. Several new locations have been reported and other companies are said to be ready to start as soon as spring weather arrives, giving an improved outlook toward drilling operations.

The Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company has completed well No. 5259 on the John W. Taylor land on Toler Creek, of a total depth of 3567 feet in shale. The well is making 327,000 feet of gas daily. The same company reported the completion of well No. 5261 on the J. P. Sturgill tract on Toler Creek last week. The well made 273,000 feet of gas daily on first test but has settled down to 189,000 feet daily from shale.

The Mid City Gas Company has a 342,000 daily gas production in well No. 1 on the R. H. Fields land on Parks Branch in Knott county with a completed log in at a total depth of 2820 feet in shale after being deepened.

In Floyd county the Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company is setting machine at well No. 585 on the A. C. Webb land on Sanson Fork of Prater Creek and is moving to location of well No. 586 on the Levi Mitchell tract on Mitchell Branch of Mud Creek.

The same concern is moving to location of well No. 525 on the George Hall farm on Jack's Creek of Left Beaver and has location for well No. 5263 on the James Sturgill farm on Keatley Branch of Toler Creek.

The same concern is moving to location of well No. 5253 on the George McKinney land.

Hamilton Gas Company is down 1950 feet in well No. E-17 on the Reuben Short land and is drilling at the 1680 foot level in well No. E-18 on the Lindsey Amburgey tract.

In Knott county the Warfield Gas Company is down 850 feet in slate in well No. 4867 on the T. A. Martin tract on Bates Branch and is drilling at the 1518 foot level in Maxon in well No. 4868 on the Lutitia Hays land on the right fork of Troublesome Creek.

The Inland Gas Corporation has reached the 1339 foot mark in well No. 212 on the W. R. Smith, et al, land on Perkins Branch.

The Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company has reached the 1710 foot level in salt sand in well No. 582 on the B. F. King land on the Joe King Branch and is moving to well No. 584 on the Jeffie Hall land on Isaac Fork of Right Beaver.

The Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company has location for well No. 5294 on the W. H. May land on Long Branch of Jones Fork.

"Common Household Insects" is the name of a new circular published by the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture. In it, Prof. W. A. Price, head of the department of entomology and botany, discusses the life history and habits and control of house flies, mosquitoes, carpet beetles, cockroaches, clothes moths, house ants, silverfish, bedbugs, and fleas. Copies of the circular may be had from home demonstration agents, county farm agents, or by writing to the College of Agriculture.

MASTER COMMISSIONER'S SALE

Floyd Circuit Court

Vina Hayes Plaintiff,
Vs.—NOTICE OF SALE
Garrett Hayes Defendant.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Floyd Circuit Court, rendered and entered at the February 1940 term, in the above-styled cause, I shall proceed to offer for sale at the courthouse door in Prestonsburg, Ky., to the highest and best bidder, at public auction, on the 25th day of March, 1940 at 1 o'clock, p. m., same being the first day of the Floyd County Court, upon a credit of six and 12 months, the following described property, to-wit:
A tract of land located in Floyd county, Kentucky, on the waters of Turkey Creek, and bounded and described as follows:

Bounded on the North by the lands of Felix Dudley; on the East by the lands of A. L. Turner; on the South by the lands of Ballard Martin; on the West by the lands of Car Hayes.

Or a sufficiency thereof to make the following sums and amounts: $1,300.00 with six per cent interest thereon from June 16, 1937, subject to a credit of $47.98 paid in the year 1937, and $104.99 paid in the year 1938, and the further sum of $150.00 approximate court costs herein; the interest is to run only on the unpaid installments of $15.00 each month from June 16, 1937, that have become due.

For the purchase price the purchaser must execute bond with approved sureties, bearing legal interest from the day of sale until paid and having the force and effect of a judgment with a lien retained upon said property as a further security. The purchaser or purchasers may anticipate the payment of said unpaid balance, either by paying the entire amount in cash at the time of the sale, or paying the balance due, at any time prior to the maturity of said sale bond by paying the amount of such sale bonds with accrued interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum to date of sale.

Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms.
Given under my hand, this March 5, 1940.

B. L. STURGILL,
Master Commissioner,
Floyd Circuit Court.
Cost of advertising $14.25.

So, “Interested,” if it's your daughter you're interested in, you'll just have to let her marry the boy—and both of you trust to whatever he possesses of inherent decency.

“CHASED” BY WEBSTER

These sound-alike words (homonyms, I believe they're called) are aggravatin'. A former Floyd county teacher, it is reported, had his troubles with the word while appearing as a character witness in a divorce suit. Asked, so the story goes, the meaning of the word, “chaste,” he let fly with this definition: “The act of being run...”

Mrs. Sellards Claimed

Members of the Prestonsburg Kiwanis Club, which she for years had entertained at their weekly meetings, were active and honorary pallbearers at the funeral Tuesday afternoon, conducted from the Methodist Church, the Rev. W. B. Garriott, pastor, officiating. A profusion of flowers bespoke the esteem in which she was held.

A daughter of the late Edmond and Mrs. Artie Clarke, Mrs. Sellards was a native of Buffalo Creek. She and her husband moved to Prestonsburg in 1916, founded the Valley Inn which she conducted until her death. She had been a member of the Methodist Church since girlhood.

Surviving her are her son, H. Grady Sellards, Lexington, and two daughters, Mrs. W. H. Brown, Prestonsburg, and Mrs. Courtland J. Riddler, Dayton, O.; and one brother, the Rev. H. K. Clarke, Catlettsburg.

Burial was made here in the Wednesday cemetery under the direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

nervous disorder. Since his return, he says, he has found it impossible to be placed on the WPA rolls because other workers are afraid of him. “But I like everybody and stay out of trouble,” he explains in broken English. He has been a member of the United Baptist Church for ten years.

When asked to state his preference of living in the United States or in the “old country,” Mike merely pointed to his war registry and receipts for Liberty bonds and war-savings stamps and his answer was obvious. He has been voting in Kentucky for the past 24 years and he became a registered voter soon after the present law was passed. He and his wife pay taxes on their little farm, from which they have been trying to make a meagre living.

But until something is done for their benefit, these needy people who are technically citizens of no country must remain in their dilapidated three-room house, gazing into a future that seems even more uncertain than it has in the past.

were born eight children. His widow, three sons, Gardner, Fred and Harry Stone, and three daughters, Mrs. Clara Young, Misses Oneida and June Stone, all of Hindman, survive. He also leaves his father, two brothers and two sisters; I. B. and Bryan Stone, Mrs. John Gayheart and Mrs. Bert Dyer, of Hindman.

One of Eastern Kentucky's leading citizens, a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the Junior Order of American Mechanics, Mr. Stone had the gift of acquiring and retaining the friendship of all with whom he came in contact.

Officiating at the funeral were the Revs. L. D. Mosely, Robert Combs, E. H. Howard, Dan Gibson and M. M. Chaffins. Burial was made in the Wallen cemetery at Hindman.

Active pallbearers were: D. H. Hall, J. C. Burnette, Afton M. Smith, Ex-Circuit Judge John W. Caudill, Circuit Judge Henry Stephens, Jr., Commonwealth's Attorney John Allen, Clarke Pratt, Beckham Combs, and Manis Stone.

Honorary pallbearers: Sheriff General Fugate, Henry Sturgill, Elijah Hicks, Dr. J. W. Duke, Dr. M. F. Kelly, Magistrate Milt Conley, R. L. Conley, D. W. Wallen, Green Stone.

WIDOW APPOINTED

Mrs. Luraney Combs was named Friday by Circuit Judge Henry Stephens, Jr., as Clerk of the Knott Circuit Court, to succeed her husband, Ballard Stone, who died March 6.

14 Schools Invited To Debate Rally Here Saturday

Fourteen high schools, represented by approximately 50 debaters, have been invited to participate in a debate rally at Prestonsburg high school Saturday, March 16, according to Mrs. Minnie Grace Harris, local debate coach. Schools expected to attend are Ashland, Russell, Salyersville, Pikeville, Paintsville, Dorton, Virgie, Belfry, Betsy Layne, Wayland, Elkhorn City, Phelps, Hellier and Jenkins.

The question being debated by Kentucky high schools this year is, “Resolved, That the Federal Government Should Own and Operate the Railroads.”

Prestonsburg will be represented by Misses Lois Stiles, Cassie Patrick, Lorraine Jarrell, Mary Lola Stanley, Messrs. Charles Holbrook and Joel Goble. These debaters have made a very creditable showing this year, winning two-thirds of their forty-eight debates.

On Tuesday of this week the Hazard high school met the local debaters here. Prestonsburg's affirmative team, Misses Lois Stiles and Lorraine Jarrell, defeated Hazard's negative team, Prestonsburg's negative, Miss Cassie Patrick and Charles Holbrook, tied with Hazard's affirmative. Judges were Rev. W. B. Garriott and Atty. Fred Francis.

March 22 and 23, the forensic tournament for District 17, which is composed of Floyd, Pike, Johnson and Magoffin counties, will be held at Pikeville College.
