Communism Does Not Change At Borders, Speaker Says Here

"Chinese Communists are not different from the Russian brand—the only difference is, they are across the border from each other," declared the Rev. C. V. Reeder, a man who should know whereof he speaks, in a lecture at the Presbyterian Church here Tuesday evening.

The speaker is a Presbyterian missionary who has spent 33 years in China, and who left there only when Communist advances forced his evacuation. He has watched Communism at work and wants no part of it.

Although admitting that the Red ideology "wins converts easily and spreads like wildfire," he expressed the belief that Communism will defeat itself. He explained:

The Communists allot one acre of land for each mouth to feed. One man owns a large farm. He is halted into court, all his land taken except an acre for himself and one acre for each member of his family. The remainder is divided among others without land, thereby gaining new converts. The same procedure applies in the distribution of money.

But, pretty as the scheme works at first, eventually community production falls, taxes mount, dissatisfied factions grow. The leaders convert property to their own use. The communal plan totters and falls.

"The people of China have come out of heathendom into Christianity," he declared, adding: "But before the advance of Communists church congregations have scattered, their church buildings used for propaganda purposes."

Two From Lackey Free under Bond In $600 Robbery

Samuel Hancock and James Fitzpatrick, Lackey youths, were released here Monday under $1,000 bond each after they had been jailed in the reported robbery of Floyd Napier's store at Lackey.

Napier, who was not at the store at the time it was entered, was quoted as saying $600 in cash was taken from the business. The two were arrested by Constable Rich Hall.

Definite identification of the two as the robbers has not been made, and several of their relatives told authorities they know neither could have been at Napier's place at the time.

HOUSE GROUP OKEHS FUNDS

To Complete Dewey Dam;
Cuts Overall Total Asked
For Work over Country

The House Appropriations committee Wednesday approved a $558,000,000 navigation and flood control program, including remaining funds necessary for completion of the Dewey dam in this county.

For the Dewey project $1,030,800 was approved. The work on the dam stands 92 per cent complete as of this week, and July 11 has tentatively been set as the date for the contractor to finish the job. Clearing work in the reservoir area, resumed recently after a strike, is approximately two-thirds finished.

Because of declining construction costs, the committee told the House it expects the army engineers to accomplish for $558,000,000 total work which the engineers originally estimated would cost $736,000,000.

The committee said the estimates submitted to Congress in the President's budget did not allow for a decrease in construction costs which began last October.

"It seems most likely," the committee said, "that a downward trend will continue and become more pronounced during the fiscal year 1950 (beginning July 1, 1949)."

Therefore, the Appropriations group reduced budget estimates for waterways projects by 15 per cent. But it did not apply the cut to individual projects. The committee said it felt that the engineers could accomplish their entire contemplated program within the reduced funds allowed except for a few specific deletions.

Among six projects added to the approved list, without specific allotment of funds, was the Russell, Ky., floodwall.

Projects approved by the committee include $5,500,000 for the Louisville floodwall and $2,000,000 for the New Albany wall. Another Kentucky outlay approved $20,200,000 for Wolf Creek reservoir. The list includes these other projects recommended in the President's budget:

Ashland, $1,000,000; Covington, $1,400,000; Hawesville, $758,100; Maysville, $1,000,000; Newport, $2,733,000; Toylovsville, $50,000; Uniontown, $130,000.

COMMISSION HEARS FIRM IN GAS CASE

'Show Cause' Hearing
Held As Floyd Group
Denied Gas Service

Kentucky's Public Service Commission heard at Frankfort Tuesday the Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company's reasons for denying gas service to individuals of this county where much of its gas is produced, and there to counter with arguments of their own were individuals affected and their representatives.

The hearing was held on a "show cause" order of the Commission after it had received numerous letters from this county protesting the company's refusal to render service. More particularly, the gas company was ordered to show cause why it did not give requested gas service to L. G. Frazier and others, of Price, this county.

Gas company representatives contended the firm is not a public utility and that it does not have a gas supply sufficient to fill the demands of its two affiliates, the Louisville Gas & Electric Company and the Pittsburgh-West Virginia Gas Company. Moreover, they argued, those applying for gas service have available either, or both, bottled gas or coal.

County Attorney W. W. Burchett, representing the Price group, was joined by State Senator Doug Hays in protesting the refusal of the company.

The coming festival became more sharply envisioned this week as plans were being completed, school beauty queens were named and arrangements were being made for the big parade here on the morning of April 2 of floats, bands and Boy Scouts.

The instrumental and vocal solo events, with possibly some ensembles, will be held on April 1 at Martin high school. The parade, coronation of the Festival queen, band, glee club and instrumental and vocal ensemble work will be held here

JUDGE JAILS MOTHER, BABE

Bates, Irked by Woman,
Rules Her in Contempt
Of Court at Hindman

Hindman, Ky., March 21—A Hindman woman and her year-old baby spent about six hours in jail on contempt-of-court charges today after a run-in with Knott county Judge C. B. Bates.

Mrs. Riley Hicks, 50, and her three sons were principals in a case concerning property rights.

County Attorney Afton Smith said the judge was talking with Mrs. Hicks' three sons and others in the case when Mrs. Hicks walked up to the bench, thrust a piece of paper at the judge and said:

"Judge, I want to show you this paper."

Somewhat put out at being interrupted, the judge told the woman to keep quiet and sit down or he'd send her to jail.

When she persisted, the judge instructed the jailer to take her to jail.

"What are you going to do with my baby?" the woman retorted. The judge turned to the jailer and was quoted as saying:

"Take it to jail, too. Six hours won't hurt it."

Mrs. Hicks and her baby were released after six hours, the legal limit on a contempt charge.

Smith said he didn't know what was in the paper Mrs. Hicks attempted to show the judge. He said she was carrying a medical certificate excusing her husband from appearing in court, and the paper may have been that.

Girls Win Way to Tri-State Spelling Bee

Left to right—Nancy Spurlock, Prestonsburg spelling champion; Magalene Howell, winner of the Floyd county spelling bee; Wade Stone, teacher of the Clear Creek school, who has coached his spellers to three consecutive county championships.

Thirteen-year-old Nancy Spurlock won, last Friday, the spelling championship of the Prestonsburg grade school and with Magalene Howell, 10-year-old Clear Creek pupil who won the countywide bee here recently, will represent Floyd county in the Tri-State spelling bee in Huntington.

Spelling Bee editor of The Herald-

Dispatch (Huntington, W. Va.), which is sponsoring the Tri-State meet as a preliminary to the national finals, announced this week that champions of independent school districts, as in the case of the Prestonsburg winner, will be permitted to enter the Huntington bee along with county champions.

The Prestonsburg champion won out over Joy Waddle on the word "descriptive." A member of Miss Anna Martin's home room, she is a daughter of Mrs. Garnett Fitzpatrick Spurlock and the late Wendell Spurlock. She has been on the honor roll of the grade school here from the First grade on through the Eighth, having an "A" standing for her entire school career.

SUICIDE MAY BE MURDER

Knott Officials Hold;
Victim's Wife Accused;
Smith Is Bullet Victim

One Knott countian is reported as having committed suicide and another, previously reported a suicide, this week became considered a murder victim.

Robert Smith, 21 years old, was reported to have ended his life Sunday night at the home at Four Mile, on Jones Fork, of his mother, Mrs. Adam Smith.

When Kermit Ritchie, 30, war veteran, died of a gunshot wound March 13 at his home at Talcum, the death was declared a suicide. After a Hazard undertaker had examined the body, a coroner's inquest was held and it was declared he could not have shot himself.

After the burial of Ritchie Tuesday at Talcum his father, Jink Ritchie, swore out a warrant, charging his son's wife, Mary Ann, and her brother, Leslie Miller, with the murder of Kermit.

At the examining trial before County Judge C. B. Bates bond of Miller was set at $10,000 and he was jailed for failure to execute bail. Wife of the victim was released under $1,000 bond but it was decided Monday to have her before the court again for further questioning.

Smith, who had returned home from Indiana only last Friday, was said to have been despondent. The report received here from Hipdman stated that he and a young brother were in a room apart from other members of the family when he placed a .22-calibre rifle against a door-facing and fired a bullet through his heart.

Surviving Smith are his mother and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Louise Campbell, Grady, Sylvia, Merlin, Monnie and Mrs. Maude Stephens, all of Mousie, Pvt. Herman Smith, Camp Breckinridge, Ky., Turner Smith, Huntington, Ind., Manis Smith, Grundy, Va., Misses Marie and Virginia Smith, both of Radford, Virginia.

The funeral was held Tuesday from the school building at Four Mile, the Revs. M. M. Chaffin and Alex Coburn officiating. Burial in the family cemetery was under direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

KNOTT MAN NAMED AS CATTLE RUSTLER

Trail of an alleged Knott county cattle rustler, first of his breed to become active there in years, led to the Estill Livestock Market in this county last week, resulting in the arrest Monday night at his home on Carr's Fork, Knott county, of Howard Taylor.

Simon Johnson, of Carr Creek, missed from his farm a milch cow and a heifer, last Wednesday. Friday, he learned his animals had been sold at the Estill market, after which he began tracing the truck which brought them there. That done, he swore out a warrant.

RAPE-KILLER IS IDENTIFIED

Pike Woman's Slayer
Former Virginia Man,
Authorities Announce

The man charged with the rape-slaying of a 19-year-old Pike county woman was identified Saturday by state and county authorities as Blaine Edgar Jones, 31, formerly of Richlands, Va.

State Police Detective Arch Thompson, working with County Sheriff D. C. Moore and Trooper Blake Billiter on the case, said that Jones had been traced as far as Bluefield, W. Va., where he stole a car March 21, the day after the murder.

Thompson added that an extensive search for Jones is being conducted in Kentucky, West Virginia, Virginia and Tennessee. A reward of $500 had been offered for his arrest.

10th and Last Round of Fight For Locks, Dams Now Coming Up

"We have already fought nine rounds of a 10-round bout. We have won eight rounds, lost one. Round 10 is coming up."

Thus Dr. O. W. Thompson, Pikeville, president of the Big Sandy Valley Association, described the battle for river canalization and pointed up the importance of the coming fight in Congress for the program in his talk before the Prestonsburg Junior Chamber Tuesday evening.

Canalization prospects were never brighter but a strong and concerted finish fight yet is needed to bring the 11-year-old campaign to a successful conclusion, he told the Jaycees.

He turned to U.S. Department of Commerce figures to emphasize the importance of canalization and used two similar coal fields in West Virginia as examples. These figures for 1945 showed:

The canalized Kanawha valley shipped six and a half million tons of coal and 8,100,000 tons of other products. The uncanalized Tug river valley in the same state, the same year, shipped only 228,000 tons of coal and 1,541,000 tons of other products.

"An authority," he said, "has predicted that coal marketed this year will be from 50 to 80 million tons less than last. The high-cost mine will be the mine this hits, and we not only have high-cost operations but, once the coal is loaded, there is the freight differential on top of that." The Kanawha field, using the river, ships coal to Cincinnati, he pointed out, for 80 cents a ton while Big Sandy coal is shipped to Cincinnati by rail at a cost of $2.48.

Calling for full support of businessmen over the entire section, Dr. Thompson described locks and dams as the salvation of the area. "The government can do this for us. It took only a few hours to get planes and bulldozers and other relief machinery to work feeding sheep and cattle, out West this winter. Gentlemen, right here there are human beings to feed," he concluded.

Dr. Thompson was introduced by Ex-Congressman A. J. May, long a leader in the canalization movement.

'Tis St. Patrick's Day, and, Faith!-- 'Irishman' Brings Message of Peace

An Irishman from Morehead, one whose Celtic spirit was anything but warlike on St. Patrick's Day, told the Prestonsburg Parent-Teacher Association last Wednesday evening that the supreme task of the world and parents and teachers "is the creation of new men and women."

The speaker was Dr. William J. Baird, president of Morehead State College.

His was a sermon suggesting that the world cast aside its "shillalans" of destructive force and turn to the ways of peace, expending its material resources on education and proper training of youth rather than upon the things that are calculated to make nations mighty in the physical sense.

Speaking before the year's largest P.-T.A. crowd locally—an estimated

400—Dr. Baird spoke of the creation of new men and women on the world scale, as a "must" for the future of the world. "Each year," he said, "I become more conscious of this fact; this nation of ours empties itself and refills itself very rapidly. We occupy our space here for only a little time. When I think of the world situation today, I am more firmly convinced that to us it is vitally important we create new men and women for this world of ours."

"A world government," he continued, "is going to come if there is to be a world. Unless we can have a generation with spiritual motives along with the material, there is not going to be much of a world."

A native of Garrard county, Ky., and born to neither luxury nor learning, Dr. Baird spoke of his own mother in his discussion of the need for creating new men and women through training and education in the worthwhile things. "My mother," he said, "was illiterate but she was not ignorant. Mother knew how to make a home where there was love and respect and reverence. I know some college graduates who are ignorant. The lessons of honest toil, taught in the home and in the schools, are important—they should never be neglected."

The educator's address was preceded by a program in which Mrs. Chalmers H. Frazier presented the Rhythm Band, with the First grade pupils of Mrs. Robert Hughes presenting "Goldilocks and the Three Bears," both features drawing the acclaim of the audience.

Red Cross Workers Find Encouragement In Liberal Responses

Although the Floyd county Red Cross fund drive remained little past the halfway mark toward the $6,400 goal, incomplete reports at hand are encouraging to workers; it was said this week.

More immediate and more liberal responses to solicitations provided one of the bright spots of the drive. One group in particular, the teachers of the county, had responded well, with their quota almost complete. County Superintendent Palmer L. Hall, chairman of the special group division, reported to J. R. Hurt, county Red Cross drive chairman.

STATE POLICE BEGIN SEARCH

For Floyd-Co. Official,
Overdue Home; Wife
Discounts Concern

A Kentucky State Police alarm broadcast this morning (Thursday) in an effort to learn the whereabouts of County Jailer Everett Collins was premature, the official's wife indicated at the Collins residence here.

She expressed the belief that her husband may be visiting former army comrades with whom he has maintained contact since end of the war. These veterans are scattered over a wide area and some reside in sections which are without telephone facilities, she said.

Jailer Collins left here two weeks ago. State police, The Times learned, have ascertained that he cashed a check in Frankfort last Monday.

Mrs. Garfield Collins, mother of the official, became alarmed when he failed to return home, and it was she who asked that a search be instituted. She suspected her son had met with foul play.

Sgt. Chester D. Potter, brother-in-law of Collins, is a member of the state police.

FLOYD NATIVE WRECK VICTIM

Shepherd Killed Monday
In Indiana Road Tragedy,
Cousin Seriously Hurt

Today (Thursday) the funeral of 19-year-old Owen Shepherd, Indiana automobile victim, is being held on Salt Lick, near Hueysville, of which he was a native.

The youth, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Pen Shepherd and a worker in a Kendallville, Ind., factory, was instantly killed Monday afternoon when a car driven by his cousin, Isadore Bradley, 25, struck a bridge abutment on a country road near Garrett, Ind. Bradley's condition is critical, it was reported here. He, like Shepherd, is a native of the Salt Lick section and is a son of Kendall Bradley.

The car crashed through a railing and dropped 15 feet into a stream. A steel beam fell onto the car, struck Shepherd in his throat and crushed his skull. Several hours elapsed before the body could be extricated by men using acetylene torches, it was said.

Surviving, besides the parents, are three brothers and four sisters, Coy and Alex Shepherd, both of Hueysville, Claude Shepherd and Mrs. Norma Garrett, both of Kendallville, Ind., Mrs. Kelly Stephens, Fay and Phyllis Ray, all of Hueysville.

The funeral was conducted by the Revs. Ed Howard and Henry Mullins. Burial in the family cemetery was directed by the Ryan Funeral Home.

LIQUOR VOTE DRIVE HERE STILL QUIET

Heavy Vote Seen
As Many Register;
State Law Quoted

Saturday's voting here will end Prestonsburg's own local option campaign to determine if the town as a fourth-class city shall remain in the dry column or if the sale of alcoholic beverages here shall be legal while remainder of the county is dry territory.

The drive for votes, even this election week, continued to be a novel one, with only one side in the fight, the Drys, making an all-out effort to corral votes. Wet forces only this week resorted to advertising, and their work has to date been on the quiet side.

Yet a heavy vote is expected. County Clerk Jarvis Allen said several new voters are registering and changing their precinct registration, apparently with the intention of voting Saturday. Drys today circulated a leaflet citing the law: "Any person who knowingly or fraudulently causes himself to be registered in a precinct other than the one in which he is a legal voter . . . shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary for not less than one year nor more than three years."

They did not indicate they had knowledge of any intended violations. The leaflet urged all voters to register immediately in the precinct in which they legally vote.

Both sides expressed confidence of victory.

ROAD URGED UP JACK'S CR.

Stumbo, Other Officials
Says Knott-Floyd Route
Should Serve Most

If Left Beaver in this county is to be connected with Right Beaver Creek in Knott, the connecting highway should go up Jack's Creek on the way to Knott county. Magistrate Henry Stumbo declared here Monday.

He said all members of the fiscal court with whom he had discussed the proposed highway agreed with him. His statement grew out of last week's Floyd County Times story telling of the Frankfort conference of highway, Floyd and Knott county officials. None of Floyd's four Magistrates attended the meeting.

Consensus of official sentiment here, headed by that of Magistrate Stumbo, in whose district the road will be located over one of two proposed routes, was that the highway should be built up Jack's Creek where it would serve the most people. "The road up Wolf Pen at Buckingham would be of practically no benefit to Floyd county people," Mr. Stumbo said. "Up Jack's Creek there are perhaps 500 persons and a road that way would be of use to the people."

Highway Commissioner Keck was quoted as saying the State Highway Department does not have sufficient funds to build the road via Jack's Creek into Knott county. Mr. Stumbo and other officials indicated a strong effort will be made to persuade the department to follow the Jack's Creek route, anyhow, even if only half the road can be built this year.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW—

About How The Alcoholic Beverage Business Will Be Handled In Prestonsburg Under The New Law

CITY ADMINISTRATOR--

The City Council must create by ordinance the Office of City Alcoholic Beverage Control Administrator. The Council may either delegate the duties of City Administrator to a presently established City Office or if the Council does not do this the Mayor must appoint a City Administrator.

LICENSE QUOTA--

The State Board at Frankfort will conduct an open hearing as to the license quota for Prestonsburg and any person or group of persons may have his say regarding how many licenses should be issued. The present State Board has co-operated fully with local citizens in setting quotas.

ZONING--

The City Council may, or may not, zone the area in which alcoholic beverages will be sold in Prestonsburg. When zoning does not seem advisable, the law still provides ample means for restricting the location of licensed premises in accordance with community welfare and the wishes of local citizens.

APPROVAL OF LICENSES--

The City Administrator must approve every applicant for a license before his application must be sent to Frankfort. THEN the State Alcoholic Control Board will thoroughly investigate the character and fitness of the applicant. Only local persons of good reputation will be considered for licenses by the State Board.

ADVERTISEMENT OF NOTICE TO APPLY FOR LICENSE--

Each applicant for a license will be required to advertise in local newspapers for at least two weeks, his intention to apply for a license. (Any person with reasonable grounds may protest the issuance of such license.)

NO SALOONS--

Contrary to continued statements and rumors of the Drys—There CANNOT be any saloons in Prestonsburg—Under the NEW LAW ONLY PACKAGE STORES will be permitted to operate. (Kentucky Revised Statutes 243.230.) Liquor cannot be sold by the drink or consumed on the premises. It will be sold only by the package.

NO ROADHOUSES--

Contrary to continued statements and rumors of the Drys—There CANNOT be any roadhouses in Prestonsburg. License will be issued only within the corporate limits of the city, and only in locations and premises approved by the City Administrator and the State Board.

STATE BOARD WILL CONTROL--

All licenses come from Frankfort. They are issued only by the State Alcoholic Beverage Control Board. The present State Board, appointed a little more than a year ago, has already demonstrated its purpose to improve conditions in the liquor business throughout the state. Liquor retailers who violate the law are having a very rough time, and many of them have already lost their licenses. We feel that the good people of Prestonsburg will appreciate these assurances of more vigorous law enforcement.

JUST AS I SUSPECTED
I am greatly encouraged this week after reading that the State Board of Education has admitted that maybe we ought to go back to using McGuffey's Reader again and forget this stuff about "sight reading."

This business of learning to read by getting a faint idea of what a word looks like, associating that word with a picture of a cow or a mule or something else, as the case may be, then hauling off and calling the word something, isn't so good, after all, educational leaders apparently have decided. So doing, they have justified an idea I've entertained for years.

Until I saw what these folks had to say, I feared I was just being an old fuddy-duddy about the matter. Somehow, I have always been afflicted with the quaint idea that you don't start running until you learn to walk; and that it follows, you don't start reading until you at least have a nodding acquaintance with those queer characters which in down-to-earth circles are known as the ABC's.

One educator deplored this "sight reading" because, to paraphrase his remarks to suit our taste, the alleged reader fails to understand what he's reading. Moreover, he said, readers of this type can't spell worth a darn.

So it's back to fundamentals where, we are told, you seldom go wrong. Good!

I know of only one good thing this newfangled system of teaching reading achieved. It helped me make up my mind to quit trying to teach, and it removed that much dead wood from the teaching body polities years ago—at the very time it should have happened.

AN-UDDER ITEM
The wide interest in farm animals getting themselves in such a fix by straying into the newspapers and magazines via silos and barn lofts causes one to wonder if there isn't a future in manufacturing silos with built-in cows.

READ THIS ABOUT THE GREAT GULF TIRE

This Gulf Tire can stand up to rough roads and take real punishment. Here's why:
The Gulf Tire has a considerably stronger carcass. It's built with a new-type cord and has more cord per inch in every ply. Then vulcanizing welds all plies together. They work as a unit to resist bruises. And they're interlocked around high-tensile steel wire beads.

- Less chance of blowouts and carcass failures with this tire because a double breaker strip cushions shocks.
- The tire lasts longer—wears more evenly, edge to edge, for its flatter tread design spreads the wear over a wider contact area.
- The 7 zigzag ribs of the Gulf Tire fight skids. Their flexing action breaks up water film on wet roads.
- The 7 ribs mean there's a "riding bar" down the center of the tire. Right at the point of greatest pressure, the load rides on rubber, not on a groove!
- At high speeds, the tire runs cooler (and safer) because of a special ingredient in the rubber.
- Sidewall shields protect tire against curbstone bruises.
- Warranty accompanies every Gulf Tire—is honored by Gulf Dealers everywhere!

With each passenger tire purchased we give a tube, installed—FREE! All truck tires at contract dealer's price.

pany to sell to Floyd county residents gas produced in Floyd county. "Our people are as good as the people of other states where this gas is going—they should not have to starve in a land of plenty," argued Mr. Burchett.

Before that, Senator Frays had declared "these are the best people in the world, and most of them Democrats."

The company contended the Public Service Commission has nothing to do with the matter, basing this argument on the statement that it is engaged in interstate commerce and is governed by the Federal Power Commission as to 98 per cent of its product.

Mr. Burchett countered with the argument that the company's delivery points are its compressor stations in this county and at Sitka, Johnson county, from which points on the gas is conveyed in lines owned by the two main consumers, the Louisville Gas & Electric and the Pittsburgh-West Virginia, thus removing Kentucky West Virginia from interstate business.

The company has 608 meters located in Floyd, Knott, Pike and Johnson counties for service to individuals, the Commission was told. Burchett argued that it could not act as a public utility for these 608 individuals without being a public utility for all.

He pointed out that, exclusive of Prestonsburg and Paintsville, all but 2 per cent of Kentucky West Virginia's gas volume is going to two companies. The gas company, it was stated, is a subsidiary of these two firms, 40 per cent of its stock being owned or controlled by Louisville Gas & Electric and 60 per cent by Pittsburgh-West Virginia. The record, he said, showed that gas from this field is sold to Louisville Gas & Electric for 17½ cents per thousand cubic feet and to Pittsburgh-West Virginia for 15½ cents. At the same time, it was shown, gas sold by the company to individuals is at the rate of 40 cents per thousand.

At that, company officials stated, sales to individuals is less profitable than to the companies. It has no connecting lines to serve homes and this service would be hazardous, it was claimed, since facilities are lacking for notifying such consumers when gas would be off.

To the company's claim that it has not enough gas to divert part of its supply to private sources, Mr. Burchett countered with the argument that the Inland Steel Company's contract for 1,500,000 cubic feet a day has been cancelled and thus made available for diversion elsewhere; also, that only one-third of the company's Eastern Kentucky acreage has been developed.

The Commission was told that the 608 meters placed for homes where the company is selling gas to individuals does not represent the actual number of consumers. One of these individuals, Former State Representative J. F. Howell, of Price, said 25 of his neighbors get gas through his meter. "The same thing is being done elsewhere, it was said, upon refusal of the company to sell gas. As of December, 1948, 600,000 cubic feet of gas was passing through these 608 meters daily.

Kentucky West Virginia stated it is accepting no new gas applications and indicated it may, upon notice, cancel service to those permitting others to get gas through their meters.

The Commission withheld its decision. Pending that, the company has been directed to produce any existing contracts it may have for its gas.

Miss Gail Chaffins, 42, Discovered Dead in Bed, Heart Seizure Victim

Death of Miss Gail Chaffins, 42 years old, who was found dead in bed early Wednesday morning at the home on Rock Fork Creek, near Garrett, of her father, Robert Chaffins, has been attributed to a heart attack. She had shown no indications of illness when she retired, it was said.

Conley, Newport News, Va., Mrs. Brack Craft, Mrs. Orville Eastery, Mrs. Theodore Sparks, all of Garrett, and Mrs. Bill Terry, of Moutse.

The funeral will be held from the graveside in the family cemetery on Rock Fork Friday, the Revs. M. M. Chaffins, Alex Coburn and Mitchell Chaffins officiating. Burial will be directed by the Arnold Funeral Home.

Well-Known Prestonsburg Restaurant-Owner Dies At Home Here Friday

Richard D. Ball, Prestonsburg restaurant-owner and well-known business man, succumbed to a heart attack at his home on the Mayo Trail here, early last Friday morning, at the age of 53.

Mr. Ball's passing came suddenly and as a shock to a wide circle of friends, relatives and business associates. He and Mrs. Ball had returned on the preceding day to their home here from a motor trip to Texas, and at that time he apparently was in his usual health. During the night he was stricken ill, and he suffered three seizures before he died.

Mr. Ball was a son of the late James H. and Katherine Branham Ball and spent practically all his life in Prestonsburg. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Alice Vaughan Ball, four sons, Richard D. Jr., Donald and Printiss Ball, all of Prestonsburg, and Lafon Ball, Detroit, Mich., one brother, J. E. Ball, Prestonsburg, one sister, Mrs. Chick Kelly, of Detroit, and four grandchildren.

Funeral rites were conducted Monday afternoon from the Methodist Church here, the Rev. Isaac Stratton and the Rev. M. C. Yates officiating. Burial in the Mayo cemetery near here was under direction of the Carter & Callihan Funeral Home.

STILL A DEAD ISSUE

The beautiful tomb of Iman Riza, Moslem shrine in Iran's holy city of Meshed, which contains some of the finest examples of Persian architecture and decorated clay tiles, could be entered by outsiders only at risk of death as late as 20 years ago.

CITIZENS OF THE CITY OF PRESTONSBURG:

In a few hours you, the voters of your city, will be marching to the polls to cast your vote for or against the return of intoxicating liquors to your fair city. I have visited Prestonsburg twice in the past few weeks, looking at your homes and your business, the peace that seems to prevail there, see the beautiful girls and boys of your homes and schools. I was made to wonder how any one could vote for the return of such a thing as a saloon, and all the evil that comes back with the return of same. With love and humbleness I ask you a few questions:

To the Christians, to all good church members, there is no question about how you will vote. The only question is, Will you go vote? Will you be wide-awake on this trying day? The dry side is God's side, do not fall him. Now, Mr. Business Man, do you want the dollars you are getting now to start falling into the liquor channel? Those dollars that go there never bless any one. If your vote should be the deciding one in a close race, would you be glad you voted wet?—that your town would have more liquor, less for the children, less for the homes, and the tables of those homes?

Now to you who do not drink liquor, will you vote wet because you think the drunkard does not get enough? The man who drinks heavy will, most likely, vote dry. He wants relief from drink. Why help him to more drink? Why vote wet? Drinking leads to increased crime. Are you in favor of more crime in the county seat?

Do you want the roughs and toughs from six counties to be on your streets every day? Will Prestonsburg be first on the river to step backward? I am thinking that a good majority of you people know what is best, and that you will go forward. To each voter may I say, do the good thing, follow your good consciences—vote dry. Only a dry vote will please God. You who are not Christians—Will you vote with the church or will you vote for crime, wrecked homes, more divorces, more aching hearts, destruction of more boys and girls? Surely you won't.

Your friend, J. DAVID TUFTS (Wayland, Ky.)

HURT HIS FEELINGS, TOO! Pittsburgh, Pa.—Edward McGilray, 25, accidentally fell backward through a third-floor window and 40 feet to the ground below. He landed on his feet and, composing himself, walked away—his nose was bleeding.

In your pharmacy you see many things that are important to you and your community.

You see a wide variety of attractive merchandise . . . shelves lined with important drugs, chemicals and other medicinal products.

You see the pharmacist himself, a friendly person, a reliable merchant, a good citizen.

But there's one thing you'll never see—and, in a sense, it's the most important of all.

What is it? It's your pharmacist's professional knowledge and technical skill.

To get his college degree and to pass the state examinations required of all pharmacists, he must have a knowledge of many sciences.

He knows thousands of different drugs—their dosage, usage and properties. And he has the practiced skill to compound them into the medicines your doctor prescribes, the medicines needed to help you guard your health.

by J. D. Anderson, grandfather of the slain woman. On Tuesday, total reward money reached $1,100 when the victim's father-in-law, J. B. Collins, offered an additional $610.

The body of the victim, Mrs. Lois Collins, was found in her home on Robinson Creek, 18 miles from Pikeville by her husband. Coroner John Call said she had suffered a fractured skull and had been strangled and criminally assaulted. She was a bride of six months.

The detective said Jones, a navy veteran, had posed as a census-taker for several days in the Robinson Creek area. He added that he assaulted Mrs. Collins, took her jewelry, and then hitchhiked into Pikeville where he disposed of an engagement ring, a wedding band, and a watch for a total of $17.

From there it is believed Jones entered West Virginia at Williamson. He also was traced through Matewan, W. Va., to Bluefield, where, Thompson says, he stole a blue 1948 Chevrolet from a used car dealer.

The detective said Jones previously had been arrested in Beckley, W. Va., for a misdemeanor, and that he had served one year in a Virginia reformatory for forgery.

State police believe Jones will remain in coal-mining areas. They said he was a coal-machine operator and that he carries a scar on his right index finger where he once injured his hand on a machine. He has used the aliases "Freeman Kelly" and "Freeman Whitt."

Jones was described as being 5 feet 9, weighing 160, having blue eyes and black hair, and being of medium build.

Thompson said the hunted man is the father of a five-year old girl, but that he and his wife were separated two years ago.

An Explanation of Facts

"Let's Get This Straight" as endorsed by the Prestonsburg Dry League I contend is misleading of facts, contributes to ignorance, stimulates crime and retards prosperity.

This so-called dry league did not publish political differences that arose in some of those mentioned wet towns. They didn't tell you that the city council voted each of the councilmen a whiskey store and ordered no more licenses to be issued. They didn't tell you that the council voted to reduce the license fee to the minimum. They didn't tell you that these whiskey stores were to be placed to suit political property owners and that the revenue was to be cornered by the politicians. A. B. C. stepped in, in behalf of the taxpayers, and no was the answer to the politicians. It zoned the towns to suit the majority and will co-operate with the council on the square. The taxpayers ARE trying to publish the facts, not trying to tell any one how to vote. Uncle Sam says to drive whiskey and Communism underground is to lose control.—X.G.I. (Advertisement)

Nine Team Tournament Underway To Benefit County-Wide Annual

Eight Floyd county high school teams and supporters, this week, invade the backyard playpen of the ninth school's basketballers, the Martin Purple Flash, to bid for a share of the host team's supremacy, recently established in the 58th district meet at Betsy Layne, and aid in the common cause of defraying expenses of the Floyd County annual yearbook of the schools.

Disputing the Flashmen in their own balliwick is a difficult task and pointing out a capable contender in exclusion of the other power-laden five is even more difficult. Polling the most likely to succeed among the "surprising" Floyd squads is like calling roll on "all present" day.

The schedule of the meet shows Wayland's Wasps tackling the Flashers in the Wednesday night curtain-lifter. Martin holds two season wins over the Wasps. However, Martin bowed to Wheelwright in two season ties and an improving Wayland five stomped the Wheelwright Maroons with a 16-point margin in a late season test.

An accompanying list of tourney games is carried on this page.

Three team trophies, for winner, runner-up and sportsmanship, and 30 individual player awards will be made. The all-tournament team will be selected, tournament manager James Salisbury said, by the three competent anonymous judges, not connected with competing schools and who will remain unknown.

FISH AND GAME NOTES

The Floyd County Fish & Game Club announces that eight turkey shoots held prior to Christmas of 1948 realized a neat profit of $1,275. Using .22-caliber rifles with open sights and shooting at regular targets from 50 yards, the competing marksmen were awarded a total of 255 turkeys for their best efforts during the past season.

During an eight-year period more than 2,000 turkeys, weighing an estimated 34,000 pounds, have been given as prizes by the club while contestants spent approximately 102,000 shots in quest of the awards.

Expected to be ready for use some time in 1950, priorities have already been granted to the Kentucky Division of Game & Fish for choice spots along the 16-mile lake front of the Dewey dam reservoir as sites for a Junior Conservation Club camp, says an announcement originating in Frankfort.

The proposed new camp, very similar to the one under construction at Kentucky Lake near Monticello, will eliminate the long trip necessary for boys from this section of the state to Dale Hollow for the Junior camping sessions. It is also planned to hold short week-end camp meetings at the Dewey dam site for the benefit of boys who are unable to be away from home for a full week.

No umpire will officiate in a game in which a team from the town of his residence is a participant. Gambling will not be tolerated in any league park this year. Persons found placing wagers on games will be ejected from the park and later prosecuted.

The league will begin its schedule Sunday, May 8, with the following schedule: Wheelwright at Drift, Elkhorn City at Weeksbury, Pikeville at Wayland.

The regular staff of umpires consists of Earl Blackburn and John Rupe, of Wheelwright, Dan Shelton, Weeksbury, Gardez Dingus, Martin, Teddy Stumbo, McDowell, Ted Deskins, Elkhorn City. Alternates are Ora Curmutte, Auxier, George W. Newman, H. Hat, Ray Collins, Prestonsburg, Melvin Imes, Allen.

With equipment at hand, Weeksbury officials are hopeful of having their park lighted by opening date. Drift's will be the only unlighted field in the league this season, and all that team's home games will be played on Sundays.

GAMBLING BAN FOR LOOP PLAY TOLD SUNDAY

Season To Open May 8th For Six Member-Teams; Umps Get Instructions

A six-man staff of umpires, to officiate at this year's Elkhorn Baseball League games conferred Sunday with Bob Miller, Wheelwright, loop president, on rules and regulations established to govern play of the league's six teams.

The umpires were told their handling of games can make or break the league. President Miller asked each arbiter to maintain a firm grip on each contest, to brook no rowdiness and to lend the sport the dignity it deserves.

No umpire will officiate in a game in which a team from the town of his residence is a participant. Gambling will not be tolerated in any league park this year. Persons found placing wagers on games will be ejected from the park and later prosecuted.

"George" and Poker Pals Gradually Drift Away Leaving 2 Inez Men Alone with Losses—$920, During Visit To State Basketball Tournament

THEY TELL POLICE

An early Thursday morning poker game at the Henry Waterson hotel in Louisville, during the state basketball tournament, cost two Inez men, Luther Horn, 30, and Jack Kirk, 27, the sum of $920, they told Louisville police in filing disorderly conduct charges against William Stocker, 34, Bardstown, George Hereford, 63, and Raymond Sharp, 33, both of Louisville. They said two other men were in the game.

Horn and Kirk said they met "a man named George" shortly before midnight Wednesday. "George" took them to the hotel room, where several other men, including Stocker, were playing poker.

One by one the men drifted away, and at 4:30 Horn and Kirk found they were alone with their losses. Horn lost $500 and Kirk $420, they said. They identified Hereford as "George."

The charge against Stocker was dismissed Friday after six Bardstown businessmen testified that he was playing in a poker game at Bardstown early Thursday morning. Hereford and Sharp admitted being in the Louisville game but told the court that Stocker was not present.

The Inez men said Hereford, Sharp and a couple of other players in the game seemed to be "reading" the cards. Trial of the two Louisville men was continued to April 1 (April Fool's Day).

Louisville police, after investigating, said they found no gambling at the Jefferson County Armory, scene of the Kentucky High School Basketball Tournament.

FRISCO DONS BEST IN NIT

Final Sees West Quint Lop Off Loyola, 48-47; Substitute Makes Good

A free throw by Ross Guidice, substitute guard, in the last 58 seconds of play gave the San Francisco Dons victory over Loyola of Chicago, 48-47, and possession of the National Invitational Tournament crown in New York Saturday night.

Loyola's big Jack Kerris, nemesis of Kentucky on the foregoing Monday and who had a three-game average of 21.3 points, was held to only one field goal for the first half and wound up with only seven points for the whole game due to the close guarding of Joe McNamee.

Don Lofgran, San Francisco, high pointer with 20 points, even scored two points for Loyola—accidentally. Going up in front of the basket to intercept a Loyola shot, he touched the ball just enough to deflect it into the opponent's basket.

The Dons, the first West Coast team to enter N.I.T., succeeded the St. Louis Billikens as reigning big-wigs. St. Louis was a Monday upset victim along with the University of Kentucky, Western Kentucky and Utah.

Bowling Green's Falcons (O.) defeated the Bradley Braves, 92-77, in the Saturday night consolation for third place honors.

Belfry's Pirates Booked For Tomcat Opening Tilt

The Ashland Tomcats open their 1949 football season with Belfry's Pirates on Labor Day night, Sept. 5 at Ashland. The second Tomcat tilt comes two weeks later with Charleston, W. Va.

The Tomcats' prospects are brightened by a star-studded returning line-up from the 1948 squad. Belfry had a disastrous meeting with the Ashland gridders about 12 years ago.

Bears Sign Blanda

George Blanda, 21-year-old kicking and passing quarterback of the University of Kentucky, has been signed to play with the Chicago Bears of the National Football League, George Halas, coach and owner of the professionals, announced in Chicago this week.

Blanda, named as the ninth rookie to be signed by Halas for the 1949 football year, is credited with winning the North-South all-star post-season football game at Miami, last December, with a 43-yard field goal. His home is in Youngwood, Pa.

OWENSBORO WINS CROWN ON 13TH TRIP

26th State Meet Game Successful; Red Devils Lams Lafayette, 65-47

"Keeping everlastingly at it brings success."

The old motto may be applied to the Owensboro Red Devils who are back home this week from the basketball wars in the 32nd annual Kentucky high school basketball tournament at Louisville with the state crown neatly tucked away for the first time after several forays into the field of hardwood competition.

Led by high-scoring Cliff Hagan, twice an all-state selection, who broke the tourney and the Armory record with 41 points, Coach Lawrence "Big" McGinnis' Red Devils played the devil with the crown hopes of Lafayette's Generals of Lexington, 65-47, in the championship tilt Saturday night.

To become 'king of the high school quints, the Red Devils scored 220 points in four tourney tests for an average of 55 to their opponents who accumulated 168 points for an average of 41.5 per game. Lafayette, 1942 state champ, was no final game equal to the Red Devil scoring machine—more simply identified as Hagan and Cohors. At the first quarter Owensboro led the Generals 14 to seven, at the half they continued in front, 30-17, and the end of the third quarter found the Devils ahead at 46-26. From there on, it was a well-controlled breeze to victory.

Celebration!

Six thousand wildly cheering fans greeted the Owensboro Red Devils Sunday afternoon and paraded them in a 50-car procession for over two miles through town. The procession arrived at the city's 6,000-seat Sportscenter where dignitaries congratulated the champs for bringing the big championship trophy into Western Kentucky for its second consecutive trip westward. Citizens immediately formed a "Red Devils Appropriation Fund" approaching $2,000 for purchasing gifts for players and coaches.

Since 1920, the Western Kentucky lads have participated in 26 state

Floyd County's Oldest Sport Now Comes of School Age

Baseball, one of the oldest sports in Floyd county, though neglected to some extent locally in recent years, comes of school age this year by being put on an organized competitive basis among high schools of the county.

"Pollution Can Be Eliminated"

Sportsmen form the largest single public group actively interested in remedying pollution in this country. Unfortunately, sportsmen tend to concentrate their arguments on the harm pollution does to fish and fishing. The general public doesn't care whether your fishing is good or not. More emphasis should be put on the vital health argument. It is the only angle to pollution that can be understood by the average individual.

Actually, two things only are necessary to clean up pollution. One is general public support of basic anti-pollution programs, and the other is money. There are no serious technical obstacles to remedying almost any kind of pollution; therefore, if public backing and money are secured, pollution can be eliminated.

To get the backing, Outdoor Writer Bill Wolf has outlined the following program for sportsmen's clubs. The plan is the result of Wolf's recent coast-to-coast survey of pollution.

Put your sportsman's club up to its neck in the fight for pollution abatement. Organize an educational program that will tell the folks in your community, in the most fundamental terms, what pollution abatement means to them.

Organize the sportsman's clubs in your county into a county fight-pollution group. Appoint a county committee which will consult with local public officials and industry on overcoming local pollution problems.

Organize the county groups into a state fight-pollution organization. Appoint a state committee which will consult with the state legislature and is appointive committees on overcoming state pollution problems.

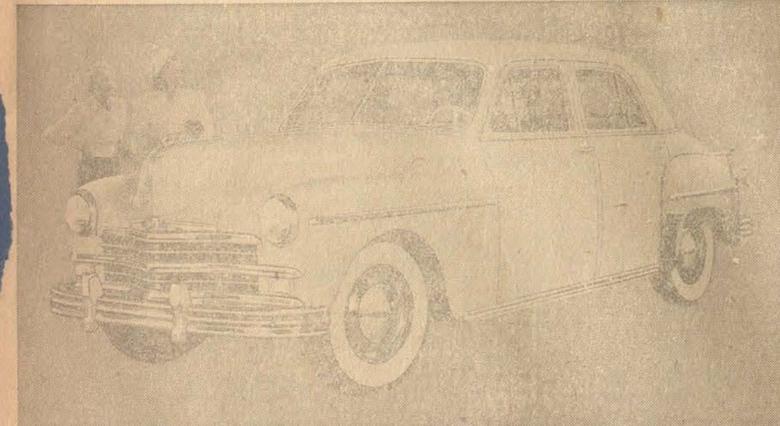

Seek the complete cooperation of the various businesses, professional, rural, political and other organized groups in your community and state, and invite them to be a part of your anti-pollution organization.

Action from this point will depend on the pollution situation in your region. If your state does not have a strong anti-pollution law, then a good law based on one that is working well elsewhere should be your primary objective. If your state has a good law, but actual abatement progress is slow, the fight should be on these points. The fight on the local level can be pushed continuously, regardless of the state situation.

Appoint a committee from the state group to consult with the state's Congressional delegation on overcoming pollution in interstate waters. Have them meet with administrators of the new Federal Anti-pollution Act. Instruct them to explore the question of cooperation with neighboring states.

Study practical methods of pollution abatement in your community, but leave the specific solution of any pollution problem up to the engineers and experts. Be fair. Old pollution problems should not be expected to be eradicated overnight.

New Plymouth on Display

Plymouth's new special deluxe four-door sedan (above). Throughout the new Plymouth line beautifully streamlined bodies are lower and narrower, seats are wider and headroom greater. At the same time overall exterior dimensions are reduced, but wheelbase has been lengthened to 118 inches and glass area is increased. Horsepower is raised to 97. Although fenders flow gracefully into the body they are detachable for ease in repair.

New Plymouth Features Beauty, Performance, Safety and Comfort

Brilliant new styling is combined with outstanding riding comfort, increased roominess, and sweeping mechanical improvements in the new line of Plymouth automobiles.

Completely redesigned, the new Plymouth has a longer wheelbase for a better ride and more road stability, but less front and rear overhang for easier parking and garaging. While the silhouette has been lowered and the width decreased, there is more head and leg room and seats are wider. Typical of Plymouth's many refinements is the ignition-starter combination, with which a turn of the key starts the engine.

The new Plymouths are sleek in appearance. New rear-end styling provides a graceful balance with the horizontal grille lines which emphasize the broadness of the front. Fenders which blend perfectly into body lines are nevertheless separate and detachable, thus avoiding sheet metal panels so costly to repair or replace.

The new Plymouth line includes nine distinct automobiles. Special deluxe and deluxe types are on a 118-inch wheelbase, one inch longer than last year's. Special deluxe models are: four-door sedan, club coupe, convertible club coupe and station wagon. In the deluxe group are the four-door sedan and the club coupe. In addition, Plymouth will build three deluxe models on a brand new 111-inch wheelbase, a two-door sedan, a three-passenger coupe, and a new body type, the Suburban.

The 97-horsepower engine has improved performance and efficiency with a new design cylinder head which increases compression ratio to 7 to 1. A new chrome plated compression piston ring reduces cylinder wear and provides greater protection during the break-in period. There are improved oil rings for greater oil economy, while a newly-designed intake manifold induces quicker, smoother engine warm-up and produces faster throttle response.

Body styling which produces greater passenger room without excessive bulk also increases visibility. V-type windshield have 37 percent more area and provide excellent vision without distortion. Windshield wipers clear 61.5 percent greater area and the rear window is 35.4 percent larger.

Basketball Rules Under Fire In National Coaches' Meet

Basketball coaches will consider changing rules, in a meeting of the National Association of Basketball Coaches Saturday, March 26, to standardize the size of courts, the type of ball to be used and more or less clean up today's odd-lot mixture of equipment.

Preparing for the session, the association's research committee headed by Georgia Tech's Ray Mundorff, sent out a two-section questionnaire last month to 1,000 American and Canadian college and high school coaches. Discussions are being based on the answers to the queries which were presented in the form of an opinion poll. The first section dealt with personnel rules while the second contained five pertinent questions on equipment changes. Findings of this survey is under consideration and it is highly probable that many recommendations by the committee will be enacted into rules within two weeks after the Seattle meeting.

On tab for consideration is raising the basket to 11 feet instead of the now standard 10 because of the outcropping of tall boys and the possibility of painting the rims a bright color to contrast with the blackboards to promote a higher scoring game. Another query of the questionnaire up for discussion is doing away with all shapes of blackboards but one—two types, rectangular and fan-shaped, now in use.

The top question on equipment wants to know if: "The size of the playing space should be blank by blank" rather than stating approximate sizes by giving minimum by minimum dimensions as now is the case. A provision would be included in the new rule that floors now in use would not cause an "unofficial contest."

The possibility of limiting the ball to one type—either the leather, sewn ball or the moulded, rubber ball is on the meeting's agenda for debate.

Seven of the questions put to coaches were a check-up on new rules put into effect last year. They were:

Do you favor the rule that does not require players to report to officials?

Were you satisfied with the rule permitting two minute periods at the end of the second half and extra period?

Did you like the rule which states that a contact foul committed when ball was dead was a technical foul?

Do you favor retaining the rule that states all jump balls must be tossed in nearest circle?

Are you pleased with the rule that allows any player first touching ball after a jump ball to cause it to enter backcourt?

In your opinion did the rule requesting players to raise hand after committing personal foul add any improvement to the operation of the game?

tourney games in 13 trips to the meet. From 1920 to 1927 they had eight consecutive journeys that took them no farther than the quarter-finals. A 1931 trip netted only a first round loss. Beginning another series of campaigns for the crown in 1946, their four years of pounding at the door of opportunity finally resulted in the 1949 top glory. During the latter stretch, in 1947, they defeated Wayland, 56-46, in the first round.

Pikeville, the 1949 representative of the 16th region, eliminated Glasgow, 58-42, in their first round match but bowed to St. Xavier, 58-48, in the quarter-final tussle. It was Pikeville's first trip to the state classic in 23 years and, also, a similar pattern of their 1926 excursion. That year saw Pikeville's Panthers defeat Harlan (before the days of "Wah Wah" Jones), 21-10, in the first round and run afoul of the St. X Tigers, 24-17, in the quarter-final. The Panthers, suffering no graduation losses, are already being nudged as favorite to go back to the state basketball tangle-fest in 1950 for another crack at the title in face of stiff competition from Inez, Meade Memorial and several Floyd county teams.

Should the Pikeville Panthers successfully negotiate the route back to the state meet next year, they will very likely find this year's runner-up waiting for them. Lafayette, barring unforeseen mishaps, will be there with the starting line-up intact!

Results of the 1949 state meeting of Kentucky's best high school units are as follows:

THURSDAY NIGHT

(Opening Rounds)

Pikeville 58, Glasgow 42.
St. Xavier 49, Paducah 47.

STATE TOURNEY RECORD MAKERS!

17-year-old Cliff Hagan set four new tournament records in the '49 state-wide basketball eliminations.

Removed from the game with a full minute remaining of play, Hagan tallied 41 points against Lafayette to simultaneously set a new single game high and break the old final game record, 13 against St. Xavier, 23 against Clark County and 20 against Corbin for a new four-game total of 97 points, a new record for total tourney games, for an average of 24.25 points per game, which is a high average for three or more tournament appearances.

The total record was previously set by Owensboro's J. M. Gipe two years ago at 84 points when Hagan was his understudy. The old mark was also passed by Lafayette's Bob Mulcahy who aggregated 89 tallies. Harold Moberly, of Madison high at Richmond, established the previous tourney single game mark of 32 in the first round in 1947. Frank Pringle of Breckinridge, set the old final game record of 28 points in 1946.

Hagan beat the scholastic competition Army mark of U.K.'s Alex Groza who recently tabbed 37 points in the Southeastern Conference meet. His season's play totaled 765 points while his team won 29 and lost three, including tourney games.

THESE are the people who own your electric light and power company. Chances are you are one of this group, too.

They represent a cross-section of America—housewives, doctors, teachers—industrial workers, craftsmen, farmers—mechanics and milkmen. Yes, people from all walks of life have put their savings into companies like ours. They're direct owners.

But there are countless indirect owners, too—many who don't know they have a stake in the electric industry. They're people with life insurance policies and savings accounts. When banks and insurance companies accept your money, they must invest it wisely and productively. And because business-managed electric companies have a long record of successful service, much of that money is invested in utility securities.

So, you see, the electric industry is owned by the people it serves.

OUR CITY IS DEEPLY IN DEBT—cannot meet its financial obligations—cannot repair our streets, nor make other needed improvements (we hear that the electric bill is causing much embarrassment). Assessments on our property have been greatly increased—our taxes have zoomed sky-high—and still the city needs money, and more money.

Bootleggers are as thick as fleas! (Some of them just teen-age boys!) They do enormous business, but they pay no taxes, and they multiply the problems of law enforcement.

Lackey-Garrett Women To Sponsor Lunchrooms

The March meeting of the Lackey-Garrett Woman's Club was held at the home of Mrs. George Evans, Jr. with Mrs. Gorman Collins as co-hostess.

Election of club officers was held at this time with all of the present officers being re-elected to serve for another year. They are Mrs. J. C. Wells, president; Mrs. Richard Vinson, vice-president; Mrs. Gorman Collins, recording secretary; Mrs. Carlton Wrightson, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Rudolph Spencer, treasurer.

A report was made by the planning committee appointed to investigate the financial aspects of lunchroom programs in both the Garrett and Wayland schools for the 1949-1950 school year. Contributions of $5 each were made to Red Cross and the Crippled Children's fund. A theme on Jane Todd Crawford, written by Mary Ellen Williams, Wayland high school sophomore, was read by Mrs. Willard Castle. A $5 prize was awarded for this effort. Plans were made to hold a spring rummage sale at Garrett, exact date to be decided later.

Mrs. Wells, the president, announced that Mrs. Tolliver, the district governor, would visit the club on March 25, when it meets at the home of Mrs. M. M. Collins, with Mrs. Richard Vinson, co-hostess.

At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames Thomas Ferdinand Hatcher, Earl Castle, C. S. Hornsby, Bill Pettrey, Everett Blanton, Carlton Wrightson, Frank Rasnick, K. C. Beverly, C. B. Ison, N. D. Howard, Felix Coburn, H. J. Sherman, F. H. Cooley, S. M. Martin, Rudolph Spencer, J. C. Wells, Willard Castle, M. M. Collins, Richard Vinson, J. E. Miller, Bert R. Stapleton, Ellsworth Coburn, John Faull, Miss Marie Coburn.

LOTS OF LUNCHES

24,573,298 noon-time lunches is a lot of lunches. But that's what Kentucky school children got in the 1947-48 term under the national school lunch program. About 67 per cent of them were Type A meals—nutritionally balanced and including milk.

Vote for BUDDY BRYANT for

Constable, Dist. 3, Floyd County subject to the action of the Democratic primary, August 6, 1949. My father, A. B. Bryant, Sr., whom you all know well, served as an officer of Floyd county for 30 years. I promise you the same kind of service if elected. Elect me to this office—your trust will not be broken. 3-24-4t-pd.

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

I believe that the time has come in Floyd county for the voters to work and elect a working man for our Jailer. After all, it is the working man that pays all the bills. The only time the politicians are for the working man is on election day.

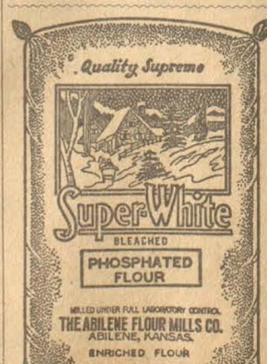

I am a crippled man, having lost a leg several years ago. I am a member of Local Union No. 7796, Drift, Ky. I am a resident of Arkansas Creek and am known all over Floyd county as "One-Legged Horse-Swappin'" Johnny Conn.

I am a Christian man and trying to lead a good life and all the citizens know that they will be treated fairly if I am nominated and elected.

I call upon the good Christian people and the working people to give an old working man a chance by nominating and electing me Jailer of Floyd county. I am 50 years old and have been a Democrat all my life. I will try and see all the voters that I possibly can between now and the primary election, but being a crippled man, I may not get to see all and I take this method of asking for your support and influence.

Subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

I am proud to be an American. I am proud of my country, my state, and my county. I am glad to live in our Great Democracy where a young man can grow up and with the help of God and his fellow man receive an education and a chance in life no matter how meager his materials and means might be. I am a firm believer in government for the people and not government for some politician or group of politicians.

If you nominate and elect me your County Court Clerk, I will be there to faithfully, honestly and diligently serve you and the good people of Floyd county. No job in that important office will be too small or too great for me to overlook my duties and obligations to you and our fellow citizens.

The office of County Court Clerk is yours. You must select a custodian. Place me in charge for the next four years and I will guard it for you. During that time I will give to you and your office all that is in me.

Every voter in Floyd county has his or her interests, rights, and privileges recorded, filed, or registered in our County Court Clerk's office. Give me the opportunity to serve as your clerk and I will make it a pleasure for you to come into your office to transact business. I will faithfully and accurately keep and protect your interests, rights, and privileges in a cheerful and excellent manner.

Your Friend,
DURAN MOORE

TO THE PEOPLE OF FLOYD COUNTY:

Upon the solicitation of many friends and good citizens, I have at last decided to seek county office, and this is to announce my candidacy for the Democratic nomination for County Judge.

I have served as Magistrate in District No. 3 for the last 10 years and during this time have tried to remember always that my duty is, first of all, to the people, rich and poor alike.

My record has been such that I have no regrets; I have worked to be of service without thought of enriching myself at the expense of others. And if elected County Judge, the same motives will be behind my every act in office. I pledge my efforts, in particular, to better rural roads.

Your help in the coming campaign will be deeply appreciated.

To the Voters of Floyd County:

Woodrow Burchett is a candidate for County Attorney on the Democratic ticket, and asks the support of the voters on the record he has made as a public official.

1. HE IS QUALIFIED. He was educated in the University of Kentucky Law School, and has been actively engaged in the general practice of law for more than fifteen years. During the time he has been County Attorney he has devoted his full time and attention to the performance of his duties, and it has not been necessary for Floyd county to spend one penny for extra legal services.

2. HE IS COURTEOUS AND FRIENDLY. Every day many people go into his office seeking legal advice and are always welcomed with a warm, "What can I do for you?" He is always willing to take time to discuss your problems and, to give to all matters, big and small, his undivided attention. He is never too busy to greet you with a kind word, a smile and a handshake, and you are always a welcome visitor in his office.

3. HE IS ACCOMMODATING. There has not been a day since the beginning of his term but what his office has been open for the transaction of business and a large number of people are given free and friendly service every day—service over and above that which is required as official duties.

4. HE IS HONEST AND COURAGEOUS. He believes in a fair, fearless, and impartial enforcement of the law; prosecutes without fear, favor or affection; big, little, rich and poor are treated alike. He has the courage to stand up and fight for what is right, and is not influenced or controlled by any person or group. His honesty and integrity are not questioned and those who have had business dealings with him know that he is absolutely trustworthy.

5. HE IS SOBER AND DEPENDABLE. He does not use intoxicants in any form, and is always on the job looking after the interests of Floyd county and its people. He can be depended upon for truthful, honest service upon any occasion and under any circumstances.

Upon this record, the name of Woodrow Burchett is brought before the voters and their support is earnestly solicited for a continuation of this type of service.

WHAT IS THE QUESTION

That You Will Answer With Your Vote?

Are You In Favor of the Sale of Alcoholic Beverages in Prestonsburg, Floyd County, Ky.?

Question: Would legalized, controlled sale of liquor and beer reduce drunkenness?

Answer: No. In 1946 when we had legalized sale of liquor the Police Court records show more than 900 arrests for drunkenness, against a little more than 300 arrests for drunkenness in 1948 when we were legally DRY.

Question: Wouldn't legalized sale of alcoholic beverages reduce bootlegging?

Answer: If it did in Floyd county and Prestonsburg it would do differently than it does in most other places.

Examples to prove the above. In Caldwell county when it was "WET" (60) sixty drunks were convicted in two months. In that wet county (50) fifty of the sixty drunks were drunk on illegal liquor. (Bootlegged.)

In Harlan county when it was wet-state revenue men found that 65 pct. of all liquor sold was illegal. (Bootlegged.)

In 1942 United States Revenue records of (50) fifty dry counties showed only 300 bootleggers. Average 6 to a county, while the same records showed (2,225) TWO THOUSAND, TWO HUNDRED and TWENTY-FIVE BOOTLEGGERS in (51) FIFTY-ONE WET COUNTIES.

THERE ARE MORE BOOTLEGGERS OPERATING IN WET CITIES AND COUNTIES THAN THERE ARE IN DRY COUNTIES AND CITIES, according to all available government records.

Question: Then if I vote to favor the sale of alcoholic beverages in Prestonsburg, I am really voting to add legal sales to the present illegal sales and really multiply the users and the amount of alcoholic drinks used, isn't that right?

Answer: Yes, that is right. You will be voting for a great increase in the sales of all kinds of intoxicating drinks and a great increase in drunkenness and all the poverty and pain and crime that goes with it.

Question: But wouldn't the city get revenue out of the licensing of the liquor business if we vote wet?

Answer: Yes, the city of Prestonsburg would get fees for licenses and probably a lot more fines from drunks and others arrested, but probably not as much as it would cost the city to take care of additional policing and care of persons arrested.

Evidence: Some years ago after legal liquor came back into Louisville the Mayor of the city appealed to the Legislative Council in Frankfort for more liquor tax because, he said, "Louisville was losing money." Said he, "... Outlays for the keep of prisoners, their medical care and the care of dependents of liquor addicts have increased steadily." In eight years arrests for drunkenness had climbed from 2,155 in a "DRY" year to 12,200 in a "WET" year. And the controlled "saloons" had been responsible for attracting 4,000 boys and girls under age to become their customers, and led them to be such good customers that the 4,000 had been arrested for drunkenness while still boys and girls "under age."

Question: But won't having liquors sold legally in Prestonsburg bring business to our city?

Answer: There is no doubt but that it would bring a lot of business to Prestonsburg. Every policeman would have more business, the jailer would have more business, the men who sold the liquor, both legal and illegal, would have more business. Repair men at garages and relief agencies all over the county would have more business. Hospitals and doctors might have more business and poorer collections. But there is serious doubt about getting "more business" of the sort that would benefit Prestonsburg.
