MARAMAN ELECTED ASSOCIATION HEAD Smith, Campbellville, first vice president; Uncaas Peacock, Louisville, secretary; and Mrs. Ruth Gilbert Louisville, field secretary.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 9.—Conrad Maraman, of Shepherdsville, was elected president of the Kentucky Retail Merchants Association for the coming year at a meeting of the Association held at the Brown Hotel in Louisville on Nov. 5.

Other officers elected at the meeting were: Bernie Eberman, Covington, chairman of the board of directors; Shirley E. Haas, Louisville, treasurer; James W. Smith, Campbellville, first vice president; Uncaas Peacock, Louisville, secretary; and Mrs. Ruth Gilbert Louisville, field secretary.

In addition to the above elected officers, several directors and one vice president were named in each of Kentucky's nine districts.

The Association went on to record as opposing, and favoring the immediate repeal of the Omnibus tax law in the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, the Kentucky Retail Merchants Association in meeting assembled at the Brown Hotel in Louisville on November 5, 1938, unanimously resolve that the Omnibus Tax Law, passed by the recent session of the Kentucky Legislature and signed by the Governor, works a hardship on both consumers and retail merchants alike; and

"Whereas, it places an unbearable burden of competition on Kentucky merchants and favors to a large extent all out of state distributors such as mail order houses and retailers in bordering states and cities;

"Therefore, Be it Resolved that the Kentucky Retail Merchants Association, request the Governor and members of the Legislature to repeal this unfair tax at the earliest opportunity.

"Be It Further Resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to Governor A. B. Chandler.

Dr. C. H. Parsons, Ashland, vice president of the Association, addressed the meeting regarding the advisability of the University of Kentucky adding to its curriculum a course in retailing. Dr. Parsons expressed the belief that such a course would be very valuable to many students and at the same time would be of immeasurable value to the merchants of Kentucky and other states.

Vice presidents of the Association in the Seventh District include:

John A. Webb, Whitesburg; R. G. Wells, Pikeville; James H. Nunnery, Prestonsburg; L. H. Stiles, Hazard.

Children
The paramount interest of every true mother is life, eyes, that her children, from the day that she knows they are coming into the world, until she lays her earthly burdens down, and goes to her long home.

During the formative years she should make their welfare her chief consideration. She should study not only to understand them, but should gain control over her own nerves and emotions in order that she may guide them along the road of life.

Mothers should endeavor to cooperate with those who teach their children. If her child is lazy, mischievous, impudent and dull, she should endeavor in every possible way to get at the cause of the trouble. May be his eyesight or hearing is defective, maybe he is undernourished. No mother should be content to scan a child's unsatisfactory card each week, without finding out why he is lagging behind in his work. Perhaps she herself is to blame. Maybe she has permitted him to fall into bad habits. All children require about 10 hours of sleep, and should be required to go to bed early and get up in time to bathe, dress and eat a nourishing breakfast before leaving for school in the morning.

When permitted to go to a picture, it should be in the afternoon.

Some mothers begin to criticize the teacher as soon as their children fail in school. Nothing could be more unfair or shortsighted. It is often the fault of the mother, herself. She indulges in ill temper, vituperation or abuse of a teacher and child when she should encourage and help at home in the pursuit of his studies?

Has she allowed him to poison himself on tea or coffee? Has he had a sufficient amount of sleep each night, has he gone to school after a proper breakfast? Has she seen that lunch was wholesome? If lunch is served at school, does she know that the money she gave him was spent for milk or fruit soup or vegetable and bread and butter? Did she find out that he was loafing and up his system at lunch time on candies and sweets to the neglect of wholesome foods? She must see to it that he is kept in as good physical condition as possible. That his intellectual and spiritual training will not prove so difficult.

HAYS RECEIVES THANKS OF CHAIRMAN FARLEY
Col. Douglas Hays, of McDowell, this county, is in receipt of the following telegram from James A. Farley, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, anent the functioning of the Floyd county organization:

"Please accept my most sincere and grateful thanks for the effort put forth by you on election day. I received the returns from your county very promptly and they were most encouraging to me at headquarters. Every county chairman in the nation performed his task faithfully and well. I want to thank you personally and I wish you would express my thanks to all the men and women who are members of your organization."

SUGGESTS VARIETY IN THANKSGIVING DINNER
With Kentucky's traditional Thanksgiving dinner is famous and scarcely to be improved upon. Miss Laura Deephouse, of the University of Kentucky home economics department, suggests that squash with buttered asparagus, broccoli with Hollandaise sauce, and pumpkin cake may be welcome.

Select a large Hubbard squash, remove the seeds and steam until tender. Remove from skin, season well with salt, butter and a little cream. Place in a buttered mold and just before serving reheat. Place on a chop plate and surround with asparagus tips over which have been poured brown butter.

The broccoli should be washed and dried, leaves removed. Cook in an uncovered pan in boiling water 25 to 30 minutes. Drain carefully, as it breaks easily, and dress with Hollandaise Sauce. Make the sauce by creaming 1/4 cup butter with yolks of 2 eggs, adding egg one at a time and beating well. Season with 1 teaspoon salt, a dash of pepper and a dash of paprika. Sauce: Add slowly 1/2 cup of boiling water, stirring constantly. Simmer over hot water until thick. Remove from fire, and add two tablespoons lemon juice. If the sauce is thin, to curdle, beat with a rotary beater and it will become smooth again.

Ingredients for the pumpkin cake are as follows:

1 cup light brown sugar
1 1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/2 cup fat
2 yolks of 2 eggs
3/4 cup sifted pumpkin
1 1/2 cup sour milk
2 tablespoons caramel (may be omitted)
1 1/4 teaspoon soda
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 1/4 teaspoon salt
2 cups flour
3 cups chopped floured walnuts or raisins.

Cream the sugar and fat, add other ingredients in the order given. Bake in a loaf in a moderate oven. When cool cut in half, spread between and cover all over with a frosting made of 3 egg whites, 1 1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar, 1 and 1/2 cups of granulated sugar and 1 1/2 cup boiling water. Cook the sugar water and cream of tartar until syrup spins a thread three to five inches long. Pour on stiffly beaten whites and when cool add 1 teaspoon of vanilla.

THE FARM AND HOME
(Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station)

Dairy farmers know that the lack of protein in clean, bright, non-leguminous hay can be compensated for by adding a little cotton seed meal or soybean meal to the ration. Protein is said to be relatively cheap in these feeds at present prices.

Eats are the most concentrated body fuels and contain more energy than sweets and starches. For this reason, children need butter every day. In addition to a pint to a quart of milk both can be used in soups and other dishes.

Erosion and leaching are said to account for two-fifths of the annual loss of humus from the soil, crops accounting for little more than a fourth. Nature requires 400 to 1,000 years to make an inch of topsoil which may be lost in a year on steep cultivated land.

If so milk is available, a dry, milk containing animal protein is necessary for high egg production, especially in winter, when egg prices are high. Many farmers make a fifth of the mash, a good grade of tankage by weight.

When an individual gets very important you might as well pass him up.

OFFICIAL ORGAN FOR FLOYD COUNTY, KENTUCKY

Entered as second class matter June 18, 1927, at the postoffice at Prestonsburg, Ky., under the Act of March 3, 1879

ROAD SAFETY

Every citizen, especially the automobile driver should give serious consideration to the need for more caution on the public highways...

The pity about the increasing number of wrecks is that very often careful, considerate drivers are wrecked by careless reckless drivers...

Drivers who violate simple rules of safety should be arrested regardless of whether there is an accident or not...

The only way to decrease the heavy toll of auto accidents is to make drivers more careful. Safe drivers should have some way in which to report careless driving on the roadways...

Speed is not necessarily in itself dangerous. It becomes deadly when it coincides with some unusual event or if some defect in the car or the road suddenly develops...

EDUCATION SHOULD BE PROFITABLE

The people of this county have been liberal in their attitude toward taxation intended to support the public school system...

the part of taxpayers, however, can be lost if the schools fail to deliver the goods. Such a conclusion may shock those citizens who are inclined to worship education as an end in itself...

With this in mind, many of the schools of the country have inclined their courses of study toward practical development of the talents of the classics in our school system...

This does not necessarily mean the scrapping of tested principles of education, although it implies efforts in directions not comprehended along classical or literary lines...

LABOR SHOULD HAVE PEACE

There is no way for us to tell whether there is a fair chance for the warring factions of organized labor to settle their differences and work together in the interest of workers...

While labor unions have not always enjoyed the complete confidence of the public and, occasionally, as almost every one admits, there have been excesses committed in the zeal for unionism...

Even admitting this much, it is not implied that there is a lack of faith in the value of labor unions...

Triplett Victim

Continued from page one fired and returned to the hall to arrest Castle after being requested to do so and then started for Prestonsburg...

Sunday night within a few hours after the shooting at fair, Sheriff Henry Sturgill, Judge Ernest Moore and County Attorney Jimmy Burnett of Knott county...

Funeral services for Cashie Triplett, who has been staying at the home of a sister, Mrs. Ada Collins of Wayland, was held at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday...

A fire prevention sign we like reads: "An ounce of prevention is worth a ton of water."

CHILD DIES

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Russell O'Grady of Garrett, this county, died at birth Tuesday morning...

The difference between bankers and farmers is that they have different ideas in regard to surpluses.

QUILTS

What Mrs. W. A. Obenchain did several years ago for the home woven coverlet in her "Handbook of Home Woven Coverlets" ought to be done for the equally valuable and much more widely distributed quilt quilts go back far into the past so far that no one I know of has yet traced them to their origin. One reason for their existence is the simple cloth of any kind was expensive hard to make or to buy. Scraps left from making garments had to be saved. These were easily combined into coverlets which, with color, hatching and a lining, became quilts. This saving of pieces quite outlived its usefulness as I have seen many a yard of goods bought to be put into quilt pieces.

ent colors in certain patterns our ancestors found a way to express artistry. Opportunities for aesthetic enjoyment were poor enough in those days. Only the exceptional houses had musical instruments; painting and sculpture were virtually unknown; and the very desire for beauty was negated by most of the religionists. By combining the useful and beautiful, these mothers of ours were able to satisfy the soul while providing for the comfort of the body. A few women in each neighborhood quilted also to embroider a quilt made of silk scraps for a covering for the bed in the parlor or front room. This was a dangerous proceeding in some instances, as it might have drawn down on the maker the thunders of the church for such worldliness. Quilts like all other human institutions had degrees of respectability. There were quilts that were used only when company came. There were others that were a part of the "mother room." Jeans quilts made purely for warmth and not for show, made their way into the "office" or the attic or wherever the boys slept. And as quilts began to wear out they went through a whole gamut of respectability. Just as did the scraps of a lame made rug carpet. A quilt that had in its brand new life been honored by a place in the front room came in its old age to be used to cover a load of tobacco, or to make a saddle blanket, or to provide a bed for the dog or the cat. Mrs. Obenchain tells how some of her most famous coverlets were brought right off a load of tobacco. "I wish I knew the name of all the patterns that delighted our ancestors from 'Nine Patch' the simplest of them all and the one on which most quilt makers started to some thing as elaborate as the 'Lone Star,' which might have taken all the time of a seamstress for a whole season. But the standardized names are passing away. As associated in memory with the quilt is the quilting, one of the numerous customs people had of making work seem a form of amusement. A whole book might be written on ways of quilting; not to mention the 'putting in' of the quilt and the shaking of the cat when the quilt was taken out. If the quilting and shaking with a pary so much the better. This was almost as good as a party following a log rolling or a house raising, when men were in the fore ground and women were at the quilting. Comforters bought at the store or from the mail order houses even lamb's wool comfies, those aristocrats of coverings have about routed the old home made quilts. Before they are entirely gone, let us hope that some antiquarian will give them the belated justice for their part in the life of the days before our age.

CANEY COTTAGE SERVES FLOYD COUNTIANS AS AN UNIQUE DWELLING

(By James Cable)

Living at the Caney Cottage one of the most uniquely managed dwelling houses in Lexington, five Floyd countians all graduates of the Caney Junior College, are attending the University of Kentucky as they, with masculine hands help manage all the details of housekeeping and achieve the comforts of home at a low individual expenditure.

The Floyd countians are: Palmer Hall of Prestonsburg, former Floyd county supt. of schools, who is enrolled in the College of Law; Marcus Owens of Lacey, enrolled in the College of Education; Charles Clark of Alpharetta, enrolled in the College of Education; Oscar Belcher of Garrett, enrolled in the University Training School; Mrs. Oscar Belcher of Garrett, the group's purchasing agent and supervisor, enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences.

Founded three years ago by the Caney Creek Community Center of Hippasus, Ky., the Caney Cottage serves as living quarters for selected graduates of the Caney Junior College who desire to complete their professional training at the University of Kentucky.

A total of 13 Caney graduates from the counties of Floyd, Knott, Perry, Letcher and Breathitt are living at the Cottage while attending the University. The professions of law, medicine, engineering and teaching are represented.

Admission to the Cottage is based upon conduct, attitude and scholastic standing maintained by the cottage's white students at Caney Junior College. When desired and needed, scholarships to the University of Kentucky are included with admission to the Cottage. By this system the Caney Creek Community Center returns to Eastern Kentucky's hill counties education as in various professions. Among other Floyd countians, previously admitted to the Cottage while attending the University were: "Floyd" Hall, present Floyd county supt. of schools and Mr. Towne Hall, Wayne Ratliff, principal of Wheelwright high school; Mrs. Wayne Ratliff, Wheelwright high school teacher; Boone Hall, principal of Wheelwright high school.

LOCAL CONTROL PLAN FOR WCMI STATION

Morehead State Teachers College will have a radio station through WCMI within a comparatively short time if present plans culminate in results.

For some months the college has had under advisement the placing of this station to broadcast at least one program a week besides possibly some of the athletic contests and leading social functions at the institution.

The music room in the basement of Fields hall will probably be used for the broadcasting room if the station is put in this room is already practically sound proof.

Last fall WCMI carried a number of Morehead programs but it was necessary that a trip be made to the Ashland studios for each appearance. Under the plan that may be adopted the broadcast would go over telephone lines into radio block at Ashland where WCMI studios are located. This is the same manner in which the station last Saturday carried the Morehead Tennessee football game.

Officials of WCMI which is the radio show of the Ashland Daily Independent have always desired to carry the Morehead programs. The college officials have always been aware of the great amount of publicity that a local control station would afford at an expense that is not exceptionally high.

The complete plan is somewhat indefinite except that it is known that President Babb is considering the matter, and it is believed that the plan will be adopted some time during the present school year.

The power of WCMI has recently been increased to 600 watts and may be found at 1310 kilocycles. - Morehead Independent.

GREATEST GAS FIELD IN THE WORLD

(Paintsville Herald)

Eastern Kentucky is fast becoming the greatest natural gas field in the world. This is admitted by geologists and geologists throughout the country. Drilling tests show that the field is far ranging and that this natural resource is found in varying quantities from 100,000 cubic feet capacity to several million feet daily.

This territory of which the Big Sandy valley is practically the center is one vast reservoir of oil or natural gas. With shallow drilling enormous reservoirs have been tapped and vast fortunes are being made by the exploiters of the territory.
