This Town-- That World

I liked this paragraph in a stray number of The Tennessee Conservationist which worked its way into my hands, a few days ago:

"This is God's country. Don't set it on fire and make it look like hell."

Speaking of names, which we weren't, a guy named Profit operates a cash store near London, Ky.

ME AND A GUY NAMED JOE

There are a few hard-boiled fellows about who, with the record "staring them in the face, still dare to ask me to go fishing with them. Notably C. H. Smith, Russell Peirce, Romer, Dyer, Ed and Ray Stephens, Neil Allen & Co.

The record, which looks very much like a page straight from the Sunday Book, would indicate that I am a second Joe with the unappealing name out of L. H. Abner, the little guy who goes about with the dark coat hovering over his head, and with bridges falling right and left behind him. My fishing record, that is.

For instance, I only pulled one Saturday afternoon over the last six weeks of the season (as you'll ever see). Thirty minutes later, the fish are scarce. Late that afternoon, rain begins falling. And does it stop after a right of it? You know it didn't--it was there all day the skies leaked. The sun never for a moment peeked through.

And next morning, though the wind had died and the rain had stopped, dark clouds hovered without a break.

Along drifted this guy from Lexington who with another caught those two big strings of bass in Dale Hollow, a few weeks ago. Right before he did, the poor innocent, casting a spoon and pork rind right where they should have done the most good.

"Any luck?" we called. And he answered: "Not a bit. Can't understand it. I was afraid I did but wisely kept a quiet tongue."

Then Monday noon, with the last bit of paraphernalia going into the car for the homeward trip, what'd you suppose? That's right--blue skies appeared. In a few moments the sun was shining. And it's been shining ever since.

And I'll lay you, those durned bass are striking down there, with me up here.

The churches pretty well leave this newspaper alone as to its policies, and we reciprocate. Yet we would point to a lesson the recent local opinion election teaches.

It is this. If the churches of this and all other communities will forget their differences arising from what the layman would call technicalities, or rivalries, work together with righteous fervor in the battle on the common foe, his Satanic majesty, as they would and ought to, they would have a chance to win.

A church of this kind, which would do more of comradeship in a common cause, neighborhood, unselfish devotion to a service bigger than any individual, this world would be less worldly, its inhabitants less confused about which direction to turn to reach the ultimate goal, and the soul of humanity, in some degree, instinctively aspires.

PRICE PLANT IS BIG ITEM

In Huge Inland Steel Improvement Program, Annual Report Shows

A big item in Inland Steel's outlay last year of $32,024,871 for expansion and improvement of manufacturing facilities and the acquisition of new material properties is the huge coal processing plant being constructed at Price, this county.

This company's annual report, which was released for publication, shows its overall output of steel ends to have risen 100,000 tons.

When the huge Price plant is completed, the only evidence of coal mining remaining in Wheelwright will be the company's publicized model of a mine, which will be the dark opening into the mountain and the diaphragm accumulated over the years.

The plant, which will be the coal dust, clanking of machinery, the machine to Price, there processed, cleaned and treated before loading on railroad cars.

Scheduled for completion late this year, the plant is designed to handle the product of the old operation and also of new mine openings. It will have a capacity of 750 tons of raw coal per hour.

The new plant is part of a big expansion program of Inland Steel which was announced last year, approximately 28,000 acres of coal lands in this section. Use of mechanized mining equipment is also being extended at its operations in this field.

Maytown Pupil Dies At Martin Hospital

FLOYD MINERS RESUME WORK

New Holiday Begins
Friday, Ahead Looms
Contract Negotiations

Floyd county miners joined others over the country in resuming work Monday wherever their places of employment were in operation after the appointment of Dr. James B. Lewis, UMW president, ended.

The shutdown which ended with last Saturday was called in protest of the appointment of Dr. James B. Lewis, UMW president, ended.

In this county all rail mines were back in operation, but the truck mines, which were not, are not. One source estimated no more than one-third of these operations were back at work.

Friday of this week begins a long week-end for the miners, since that day is observed as John Mitchell Day. Work will not be resumed before Monday.

Advising ahead is the end of the present wage contract, the bickering over a new pact and another possible walk-out. Men employed in the county mines were anxious to work every day possible before that possible idle period.

The four men were the only persons working in the mine at the time of the explosion, which was attributed to a powder charge.

Two of the four were killed. His two brothers and Sisco were trapped behind the powder car, source of the explosion, and they made their way to an air course approximately 150 feet distant.

These Mitchell Vanhosse saw his elder brother and Sisco die, apparently from asphyxiation. He was rescued by relatives who had become involved when the four failed to return home from work.

Bodies of the three victims were taken to a Paintsville funeral home. Funeral arrangements were incomplete this afternoon.

Other officers are Frank H. Layton, vice-president, Wm. Arrows, treasurer, and C. E. Wright, secretary.

THURSDAY

MINE BLAST CLAIMS TRIO ON TOM'S-CR.

Lone Survivor of Four
Trapped by Explosion
Sees 2 Brothers Die

Three workmen in a Johnson county coal mine died today (Thursday) and a fourth was severely burned as the result of a powder explosion.

The dead: Ivan Vanhosse, 19, his brother, William Vanhosse, 28, and Anse Seese, 21, all of Stika in the Tom's Creek section of the county.

Scene of the tragedy was a truck mine on Tom's Creek, approximately five miles from Paintsville, which is operated by McIntire Vanhosse, father of the three brothers figuring in the tragedy.

The four men were the only persons working in the mine at the time of the explosion, which was attributed to a powder charge.

Two of the four were killed. His two brothers and Sisco were trapped behind the powder car, source of the explosion, and they made their way to an air course approximately 150 feet distant.

Collins Elected Head Of Floyd Election Post

Ray Collins, Prestonsburg policeman, was named commander of the Floyd Post, American Legion, at the Post's annual election of officers Friday night. He succeeds Alvin Taylor, also of Prestonsburg.

Other officers elected Friday are: C. E. Hutton, first vice-commander; Ray Short, second vice-commander; W. H. Hamilton, adjutant; Rev. E. R. Miller, chaplain; J. M. Shaw, finance officer; Len S. Miles, historian; Arvie Burchett, sergeant-at-arms.

All officers of the Post are veterans of World War II, with the exception of the Reverend Miller and Mr. Miles.

Prizes totaling $300 will be awarded winners of the state meet in the discussion division. Topic for discussion will be "The Conservation of Kentucky's Natural Resources."

The F.B.I. was assigned to the case shortly after tabulators found 254 forged ballots in scattered Bourbon county precincts in the Presidential election. The votes favored Democratic candidates.

Counters were started to look for illegally cast votes when a ballot box was found to contain several ballots before voting started.

In his statement, Stephens said the F.B.I. completed its investigation without delay.

"An United States attorney," he said, "I should like to make it clear that at no time has there been any suggestion of obstruction of the investigation."

"It has come to my attention that certain elements have felt the investigation before a grand jury of this case has been delayed. This is not true."

Cassius M. Clay, leader of a Bourbon county committee pressing vigorously for prosecution of the case, has issued several statements attacking the slowness of the investigation.

Clay said this week that he gathered an inference in an exchange of letters between him and Stephens.

James P. Harahan of Frankfort and Attorney General Clark's office in Washington that the case would reach the federal court.

Stephens flatly declined to discuss the nature of the F.B.I. findings.

Growing of strawberries by Floyd County Future Farmers of America and veterans' agricultural project is the establishment of a milk route in the county. A ready market is being sought for the product.

During the day three sections of the music work will be in action at the school auditorium, another in the school's band room and the third in the grade school music room.

The first adjuged band will be featured in The Floyd County, school annual.

The Prestonsburg chapter of Future Farmers, led by Mr. Shepherd, recently completed fertilizing and seeding the playground here to grass. Next improvement they plan for the playground is an open-air oven at either end of the field for the convenience of picnickers.

Three of the six murder cases already docketed for trial at the April term of circuit court which convenes here Monday will be continued and a fourth, the Dan Davis case, will not be indicted but held in jail without bond. It will be brought to trial later as the result of the arraignment of the prisoner.

Edward L. Allen, Prestonsburg, who represents either the defendant or the Commonwealth in these murder cases, will enter a nolle prosequi in the case of the Dan Davis case next week. In addition to the murder cases, his absence will cause the continuance of 12 other cases.

Murder cases in which Mr. Allen was to appear as counsel are those of Beulah Hager, Beatrice Hager, and William Hughes. The fourth case in which an early indictment is expected is that of George Daniels, accused of the hampering of Dan Collins, railway employee.

To avoid expense to the Commonwealth, Circuit Judge Edward P. Stephens, is expected to grant a writ of habeas corpus to the prisoners.

Prestonsburg To Remain Dry

BOURBON VOTE BEFORE JURY

In Lexington U.S. Court;
Charges Hurdled In Case
Cause Suit Filed Here

The Bourbon county vote fraud case which resulted in sharp criticism of U. S. District Attorney Claude P. Stephens, of Prestonsburg, by Cassius M. Clay, Clay, and in a $50,000 civil suit filed by Stephens against Clay, this week is reaching the federal grand jury at Lexington.

Mr. Stephens announced the federal jury probe in a short, formal statement to the effect that he had concluded "a thorough grand jury investigation should be made."

Clay assailed the Prestonsburg man in newspaper statements as the investigation failed to materialize as quickly as expected.

The F.B.I. was assigned to the case shortly after tabulators found 254 forged ballots in scattered Bourbon county precincts in the Presidential election. The votes favored Democratic candidates.

Red Cross Fund Drive In County Hits $5,000; $6,400 Is Quota Sought

Floyd county's 1949 Red Cross fund drive this week hit the $5,000 mark, and workers viewed chances of exceeding the $6,400 quota allotted the county with optimism.

Several workers yet are to report from their communities, and they were being urged this week by J. R. Hurt, Prestonsburg, county Red Cross drive chairman, to report on their work at once.

If the county's quota is met or over-subscribed, Floyd chapter, American Red Cross, will be saved from a possible merger with the chapter of another county. It is said, Floyd county has not met its Red Cross quota since 1945.

March Meeting Hears Pleas for Cancer Drive

The Wheelwright Woman's Club met for its March meeting with Dr. Ralph W. Allen, of Pikeville, as its guest speaker. Dr. Allen spoke about "Cancer, Its Early Symptoms, Diagnosis and Treatment." He reported that the number of deaths from cancer is second only to heart disease and listed deaths in the state from cancer as 4,200 last year. This shocking fact was lessened in its effect when Dr. Allen informed the club members that the state of Kentucky is leading all the states of the nation in its treatment of cancer. Informative to the club, also, was Dr. Allen's explanation of the cancer clinic in Pikeville which serves this entire area. Well staffed and equipped, the clinic is served by physicians of the Pikeville Methodist hospital, who donate their services. The equipment is furnished by the American Cancer Association and any indigent patient can receive treatment free, along with the usual advice of patients who have shared with the clinic. After the lecture he conducted a round-table discussion with members of the club and residents and Dr. Allen answered and discussing the questions.

A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Stephen W. Clark, president, after the lecture. A committee for the nomination of officers for the next year was appointed. This committee was composed of Mrs. H. N. Wilkins, Jr., chairman; Medesmes J. H. Cantrell and E. R. Price. Mrs. Anna B. Smathers reported a profit of $75.12 realized from the community party she and her dormitory held in Community Hall. This money was used toward the purchase of a kitchen range for the Wheelwright Woman's Club kitchen.

Mrs. Stephen W. Clark, as town chairman for the American Red Cross, asked the club for a donation to the Red Cross. A donation of $20 was made. Announcement of plans for the banquet to be held in May was made with Mrs. Harry Cantrell as chairman of the committee on arrangements. Mrs. Harry Cantrell reported that a gross of pencils and paper had been sent to our adopted school in the American zone of Germany.

A letter was read from Mrs. Alice G. Lloyd of the Caney Creek Community Center, thanking the club for its donation of $20 to the school. Word was also received from the Pine Mountain Settlement School that they were in receipt of a donation made to them by the Wheelwright club.

At the conclusion of the business meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mesdames Wayne Radloff, W. E. Rose and John W. Ruge.

HAPPY SMILES
Jackson, Miss.—There's nothing like a nice, warm bed to put a snore in an ascribable mood, in the opinion of Clifford S. Unkrich, of Jackson, who raises reptiles for commercial purposes. He had snoreless of the Minneapolis-Honeywell Regulator Co. fix up a control system to turn on the heat at 82 degrees and turn it off at 84. "You have no idea how the snakes respond to that treatment," Unkrich said.

Farmers Are Warned Of Declining Business By Co-Op Store Head

A warning of declining business activity and farm income was posted for local board members of Southern States Cooperatives attending the annual mid-winter regional conference at Paintsville.

"While there is no fear of any deep depression in the near future, the danger signals are out and it is necessary that we as individuals and as an organization adjust our operations to take into account these changing conditions," Tait statement was made in a report on Southern States for the first half of the fiscal year, by George C. Deems of Richmond, Va., manager of seed distribution for the Cooperative.

"In the years ahead," he continued, "farmers will need their cooperatives as never before if they are to protect their economic welfare in a society dominated by big business, big government and big labor."

Attending the conference were local Southern States representatives from the following communities: Prestonsburg, Blaine, Paintsville, Saltsville, West Liberty, and Pikeville, Ky., and Williamsport, W. Va.

Our Role—Temporary Or Permanent?

UNTIL a modern gymnasium of suitable proportions is built in Floyd county, the county's days of playing host to the fifteenth regional basketball tournament are past.

That became obvious recently when an estimated 11,000 persons in four night sessions saw the 1949 regional at Pikeville in the new Pikeville College gym.

Time was when tournaments were held at Pikeville under the most hazardous and uncomfortable conditions in an old, frame gymnasium, with a pot-bellied stove for a heating system, and fans stacked to the rafters, hoping and praying to escape fire almost as devoutly as they hoped and prayed to escape defeat. But all that passed with Pikeville College supplying a new and commodious gymnasium.

remains without a gym adequate to the throngs which attend major sectional basketball events. Until a modern gymnasium, fireproof and capable of accommodating in comfort in the neighborhood of 5,000 fans is built, there is no right to ask that the youngsters and their elders of this section undergo physical discomfort and actual danger of life to attend a regional tourney in this county.

Prestonsburg's old frame gymnasium is one of the worst of our poor crop. For years out of the district tournament picture by an agreement through which the winning Floyd county team or teams in the district gave Prestonsburg its support in the voting for the regional, it now has no chance of consideration for the big tournament before the "state." Recently, it got back in line with other schools in the district for a place in the district tourney picture; yet it lacks the space and the safety features it should have for even that.

This county needs at least one gymnasium which will at least compare with that of Pikeville's. The longer we wait without one, the longer we play a losing game. And we understand it. Floyd county's role, — never changing, never without hope of winning.

No Substitute for the Original, Please!

WITH public buildings over the state crowded by growing records, many Kentucky counties and cities are proposing that the General Assembly enact a law which would permit them to microfilm their records and then to destroy the originals.

This legislation would amend to a 1948 Act which permitted the handling in this fashion of state documents.

The accumulation over the years of great masses of records makes this bit of legislation a necessity in some instances, but it could result in a very real loss to the state and its counties.

Floyd county THE TIMES would recommend, instead of microfilm, the construction of additional storage space for its oldest records, some of which are of deep interest to the student of local and state history and genealogy. The consign some of the records in the Floyd county courthouse, dating as they do back to the earliest days of the Commonwealth or even prior to the separation from Virginia, to the flames after their record on microfilm would be an act of vandalism, no less.

Microfilm recording of a document written by a genealogist, it has as much life and warmth as the marble of the statue has to the breathing original.

We prefer our old records in the original, time-yellowed and bearing the genuineness of age so that when fingered them or scanning them we think of the hands who wrote those words of men in buckskin, lindsey-woolsey, moccasins and the like. We do not want to think while looking on them of a bright, shiny new camera and twisting yards of film.

Please, let's not destroy these old records. Rather, let us preserve them. Even if we have to spend some money on a building.

Store Observes 80th 'Birthday'

The L. Richmond Company here recently observed its 80th year in business with a "Birthday Sale." The "birthday party" at the close of the sale, when prizes were awarded, was a big one, as this photograph of the crowd indicates.

OF INTEREST TO VETERANS

Veterans planning to resume interrupted G.I. education and training should await receipt of a supplemental certificate of eligibility before going back to classes, Veterans Administration advises.

VA urged veterans to wait until they are sure their certificate has been issued before actually entering training unless they can afford to pay costs of tuition and expenses themselves.

Trainees certificates are issued VA assumes no financial obligation for the payment of tuition or other expenses. Collection for unaffordable training is strictly a matter between the school and the veteran, VA said.

Application for supplemental certificates of eligibility should be made to the VA Regional Office having custody of the veteran's file.

National Service Life Insurance operations are not affected by the recent order of the Administrator of Veterans Affairs eliminating Veterans Administration Branch Offices and establishing 13 district offices in the same locations.

Veterans of Michigan, Ohio and Kentucky who have National Service Life Insurance will continue to be served by the VA District Office, 22 State Street, Columbus, Ohio. Premiums for GI insurance should be paid in the premium notice enclosed with VA. Veterans need not make any alterations in the printed address on the premium notice received as before at those offices having NSLI collection units.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. Shortly last year I received an adjustment check on my compensation from the Veterans Administration. Do I have to pay income tax on this payment?

A. No. By law, all payments made under laws relating to veterans are exempt from federal tax payments.

Girl Scout Movement Planned at Meeting

Plans for starting the Girl Scout movement in Prestonsburg were made Friday afternoon when Miss Fay Barrett and Mrs. Marie Bonner, of Pikeville, met with a committee from the Prestonsburg Woman's Club and other interested women in the home of Mrs. Fred Francis.

Miss Barrett outlined the work of Boy Scouts and explained how Girl Scouts are sponsored and organized. Mrs. W. S. Harkins, who was selected Prestonsburg district chairman, has called a meeting in her home on Wednesday, this week, when the committee chairman and further plans will be made.

Parents of girls from seven to 17 years of age who are interested in the movement are requested to contact Mrs. Marshall Mahan, organization chairman, for information.

Mrs. Francis served refreshments to Miss Fay Barrett and Mesdames Marie Bonner, Chalmers Francis, E. S. Collins, Max Burns, Winston Ford, Harold Black, W. S. Harkins, N. L. May and Marshall Mahan.

BETSY LAYNE

On the evening of March 7 the P.T.A. met in the auditorium of the new grade school building with a large number attending. The vice-president, the Rev. Clyde Layne, May, an instructor from Pikeville College. During the business session a nominating committee composed of Willard Battist, Ted Albers and Ed Blankenship was named to nominate officers for next year's P.T.A. Before and after the meeting, the patrons enjoyed inspecting the new building. The next regular meeting will be the first Monday of April.

Last Thursday night, the P.T.A. sponsored the "Dusty River" radio stars from WLST, and on Sunday, "The Silver Trumpets," colored choir from Wheelwright. The latter group was well attended and will be called the Community Service program of the year. It was very inspirational and was a real treat. We are grateful to our president, Mrs. Becher Hardwick who arranged for this program, the proceeds from which will go toward the purchase of a piano for the new auditorium.

Among those attending the state basketball tournament last week were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Blackburn, Rodie Crum, Frankie Crum and Walter Gearheart.

Revels were also being sponsored at the Preswell Baptist Church with large crowds attending. Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Hall are the parents of a son, born at the Pikeville hospital last Saturday night. Mrs. Elizabeth Spears, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mullins, Mr. and Mrs. Soule Hall and Jacky Burke were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. James George.

David Boy Scouts Hold Annual Father-Son Fete Here Wednesday Night

The annual Father and Son dinner for the Daniel Boone Boy Scout Troop No. 145, of David, was held at the Brown hotel in Prestonsburg on Wednesday evening, March 23, in honor of the advancement ceremony made by the troop. Since January the troop has had as scoutmaster, Ray Stambaugh, assistant Scoutmaster, introduced 30 Scouts, their fathers and the troop committee members were present.

Rev. J. E. Durham, Scoutmaster, gave a short talk on the accomplishments of the troop during the past year.

Woodrow Burchett, the principal speaker of the evening, counseled the boys and the fathers to be temperate in their activities and not to overdo any factors of study, play or work, but to strive to do a fair share of all.

ENDORSEMENT

East McDowell, Ky.
March 18, 1949

Mr. Ellis Martin,
Minnie, Ky.

My Dear Friend:

I saw in The Times that you had announced yourself a candidate for Magistrate in District 3, and that night I had a very serious vision of my pen and my fingers in your behalf I request that you answer this letter.

If you fail to answer I will know in politics, and I think everything a person ever did is much on me. So getting down to your letter and questions, Eva, you know I need your prayers and help, and I want you to know that I will appreciate, and long remember, anything you do for me. You tried to teach me right when I was a schoolboy, and I know you won't let me down now.

As to the questions you ask me, you are a sensible and reasonable person, and you know enough about elections, that I have to run my own race, and it would be suicide for me to come out and oppose myself now to come out for other offices, but I will tell you one thing, I would like to see good men elected, and that would be best to serve our people of Floyd county, and I will work for this to be.

I will give you more light along the way for the election in the campaign. I remain your friend, regardless,
ELLIS MARTIN

Mr. Ellis Martin,
Drift, Ky.

Dear Friend:

In reply to your letter received yesterday, I am pleased to let you know that I appreciate your interest in me as a candidate for Magistrate. I want to have a personal talk with you along this line later. I was thinking the other day, and you teaching me about that, and you were singing, I am different now, and it has been two years, last October since I have indulged in any strong drinks.

This is the first time I have been in politics for myself, and I think everything a person ever did is much on me. So getting down to your letter and questions, Eva, you know I need your prayers and help, and I want you to know that I will appreciate, and long remember, anything you do for me. You tried to teach me right when I was a schoolboy, and I know you won't let me down now.

As to the questions you ask me, you are a sensible and reasonable person, and you know enough about elections, that I have to run my own race, and it would be suicide for me to come out and oppose myself now to come out for other offices, but I will tell you one thing, I would like to see good men elected, and that would be best to serve our people of Floyd county, and I will work for this to be.

Dear Friend:

In answer to your letter, you can have any letter of mine printed in The Times as that is about my only way to telling my friends and foes what I stand for.

I am interested in Banner Meade for High Sheriff, Henry Stumbo for County Judge, Woodrow Burchett, County Attorney and Ellis Martin for Magistrate in Dist. 3. As for other officials I must wait for an answer from God.

Sincerely and prayerfully,

- the churches for their fine co-operation in giving the use of their facilities for meetings, and for their support in every way to our efforts culminating in the election March 26;
- the citizens who labored earnestly and unflinchingly to retain the protection we now have from the inroads of the liquor traffic;
- the officials who co-operated so splendidly to make possible a very fair and honest election.

Now, let us all co-operate in the enforcement of our dry laws by refusing to buy or use intoxicating drinks, and by working for the salvation of those who are victims of this terrible evil.

Lack of Discipline Cited As Cause of Delinquency By Club's District Head

Mrs. Millard Tolliver, district governor, and Mrs. Steven Combs, corresponding secretary, of the Seventh District of Kentucky Federation of Woman's Clubs, were guests of the Ladies-Garden Club at a meeting here Friday night, March 26, at the home of Mrs. M. M. Collins. Mrs. Toliver's session was co-hosted with Mrs. Collins.

In an interesting and informative talk to club members, Mrs. Tolliver stressed the importance of Youth Conservation, stating that parents, teachers, and the entire community are responsible for the acts of youth. "Do not talk about seeing young people in places they should not be," said Mrs. Tolliver, "unless you have provided the right kind of place for them to go."

According to Mrs. Tolliver, parents should give their children love, attention, understanding, an example of religious faith, and a firm but fair discipline. Lack of discipline was cited as one of the main factors in juvenile delinquency. "Psychologists," Mrs. Tolliver, "have shown us to death about warning our children's personalities with too much discipline, and lest we go too far with our discipline, we don't even start."

The club program on the topic, "Reading Shakespeare for Recreation," was presented by Mrs. Fred A. Martin. The most common objections to Shakespeare were cited by Mrs. Martin and arguments presented to refute them. Shakespeare's life, the outstanding qualities of his work, the period in which he lived, and the theatres of his time were briefly described, and the play, "Macbeth," was reviewed.

At the conclusion of the meeting the hostesses served refreshments to three guests, Mrs. Millard Tolliver, Mrs. Steven Combs, and Mrs. Hazel Parsley, and to the following members: Mesdames F. M. Rasmick, W. T. Hatcher, Willard Castle, C. S. Hornsby, Earl Castle, Melvin Hays, Noah Howard, A. E. Quinlan, Jr., E. G. Coburn, Felix Coburn, George Evans, Jr., J. E. Miller, J. Ottendine Wells, Roy Souleyrette, Rudolph Spencer, Thomas Hatcher, Fred A. Martin.

Native of Virginia Victim Wednesday In His 86th Year

Infirmitudes of advanced age claimed George Gilliam, 85, who died Wednesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Hunt, Minnie, after an illness of five years. He was a retired farmer and a native of Scott county, Virginia, who, until a month ago, resided near Coal Run in Pike county.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. Louise Walters Gilliam, 10 children, Harmon, Tom and Zach Gilliam, of Pikeville, Palmer Gilliam, Detroit, Mich., George Gilliam, Coal Run, Mrs. Myrtle Hunt, Minnie, Mrs. Hattie Brown, Salisbury, Mrs. Bevin, Nellie Lee and Sophia Edwards, all of Coal Run, two sisters, Mrs. Ellie White, Mossy Bottom, Mrs. Minnie Walters, Prestonsburg, three brothers, Louis and Wilson Gilliam, Coal Run, Blaine Gilliam, Freeburn, 57 grandchildren and 50 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 3 p.m. Friday at the home of his son, Harmon Gilliam, Pikeville, with the Rev. Carl Layne and Orson Claffins officiating. Burial took place in the Walters cemetery at Coal Run under direction of the Baker Funeral Home.

Suit Assails Value Placed on Property Of Koppers Company

Second suit attacking heavier coal company assessments, that of the Eastern Gas Associates (Koppers Coal Company at Weathersburg), was filed in circuit court here last week, seeking restoration of the firm's original valuation of machinery and equipment. Earlier the Inland Steel Company at Wheelwright filed a similar action.

The Koppers action alleged that Tax Commissioner Clive Akers had "wrongfully and illegally" increased the valuation of its machinery and equipment from $28,000 to $100,000. This last figure, the suit contended, is in excess of the fair market price of the property and is "unusual, unfair, discriminatory, unjust and illegal," in that the valuation fixed by the Tax Commissioner is greater than that fixed on other similar properties.

KNOTT MEDICAL VETERAN SAYS SANITATION NEEDED

Dr. John W. Duke, for 33 years a physician at Hindman, and Knott county health officer over that long span of years, declared last week in Louisville that sanitation remains the chief health need in the rural areas of Kentucky.

Dr. Duke views the story of his work in Knott county was told in a Courier-Journal feature by Fred Minshall.

He said about half the families in Knott county have sanitary privies. The remainder have the unsanitary open privies.

He would like, if he had the money, to add a sanitarian who could aid all families, financially and otherwise, in building the kind of toilets that would protect health. Many of the present sanitary-type privies in Knott county were built by WPA workers.

Dr. Duke and a clerk make up the health department personnel of his county. But, he said, if he had two health nurses besides the sanitarian he believes he could conduct a good health program in Knott. He added that his county is one of those which offer even fewer local health services than in the past.

Knott, at least, has a full-time health department in the past, but now has no health workers at all. Knott spends 40 cents a person for health services. This is about the same as appropriated in the past. But the money does not go as far.

Dr. Duke has been trying to obtain a nurse to replace one on leave of absence. But the nurses prefer private duty because they do not wish to take the smaller pay the job offers, Dr. Duke said.

When he had a nurse on his staff up to seven months ago, she visited families and schools and assisted in immunizations and pre-natal clinics that are held in Knott. He gives these services daily.

The State Health Department lends him workers from time to time for special services such as surveys. Dr. Duke is an ardent supporter of Dr. Bruce Underwood, state health commissioner, in his efforts to revitalize health work in Kentucky.

Dr. Duke started his career as a schoolteacher when he was 13 years old. And he almost remained a teacher instead of becoming a doctor.

Two Weeks' Search Fails To Disclose Any Traces Of Man Thought Drowned

Pikeville, Ky., March 30—Nothing has developed in the two-week search and dragging of the Big Sandy river for 20-year-old Junior Smith, believed to have been wounded and drowned on the night of March 17 in flight from a constable and his deputy.

Constable W. Talmadge Jones, of Grapevine, 10 miles west of here, and the deputy, also named Jones, attempted to place Smith and his brother-in-law, Junior Keene, under arrest on charges of being intoxicated.

Smith fled on College street and jumped a steep cliff to the flat along the river. Four shots were fired, and he was seen to break stride, but he leaped into the water and started to swim downstream.

The constable, from the bank, saw him hold momentarily to a bush in low water along the shore, and then lose his grasp.

Sheriff D. T. Moore said that a search on the shore failed to show any footprints where Smith might have left the water.

A Pikeville man paid Keene's nominal fine on the drunkenness charge today, and he was released.

Officers Report Finding More Prisoners Armed With Deadly Weapons

County enforcement officers said this week they are finding an increasing number of deadly weapons concealed on the persons of men arrested on various charges.

Two were jailed last week on the charge of carrying concealed deadly weapons—Ned F. Salisbury and Bill Wright.

Wright, a man in his sixties, was reported by officers to have created a disturbance in the outskirts of Martin on the preceding Monday night. When arrested, they said he was carrying a .32-20 revolver.

A reign of terror on a small scale was reported from Stephens Branch where R. B. Fitch, 26, armed with a shotgun, allegedly "took over" until an unidentified citizen disarmed him and administered a sound beating. Wright said he was still armed with what was described as two Bowie knives. He was jailed for reckless use of a deadly weapon.

COMPANY ANNOUNCES ALLEN APPOINTMENT

Millard Salisbury, 66, retired barber and onetime Floyd county peace officer, died Monday at the home of a son, Tracy Salisbury, following an illness of over three months.

He was a son of Farm and Mary Tracy Salisbury and a member of one of this section's pioneer families.

His wife preceded him in death 12 years ago.

Among the survivors are three sons, Stacy and Tuley, both of Wayland, Tracy, Edith, and one daughter, Mrs. Roy Souleyrette, Wayland.

Funeral services were held Tuesday in the Garrett Methodist Church with the Rev. Green Allen officiating. Burial was made in the Tom Martin cemetery near Garrett under direction of the Ryan Funeral Home.

160,363 State War Vets Get 'Rockin'-Chair' Money

Totalling $74,969,473.00

More than half of Kentucky's estimated 315,000 war veterans have drawn "Rockin'-Chair" money, the unemployment benefits under the Servicemen's Readjustment Allowance program, O. B. Hannah, Unemployment Insurance Division, Department of Economic Security, said recently. The veterans' unemployment benefit program, though financed entirely from federal funds, is administered through the state's U.I. divisions.

Of the estimated number of veterans in the state, 160,363 have drawn benefits totaling $74,969,473 since September, 1944 when the national program was instituted. Average time and amount drawn has been 23.4 weeks and $499.70, Hannah said.

Veterans who have exhausted their benefit rights, having drawn $30 for 12 weeks, total 25,606 or 16 per cent of the total number drawing, according to Hannah. Exhaustion rate for the United States as a whole is less than 10 per cent. He explained that the figures are on unemployment alone and do not include self-employment allowances.

A graduate of Caney Junior and Tusculum Colleges, Mr. Allen received his Master's degree from the University of Kentucky. After having been connected with the Knott county school system, he came here, a few years ago, to be associated with the handling of the Industrial department of the company's business in this section. Mr. Williamson will continue his present connection with Commonwealth but will establish offices in Pikeville, it was said.

The banquet, to begin at 7 p.m., in the school lunchroom, will be the occasion for awarding letters, sweaters, jackets and basketballs to the Purple Plush performers who have just completed the most successful season in the history of the school. Reservations for the fete, Halbert stated, may be obtained either at the Martin high school or at The Coach's Sports Shop.

YMCA Tournament at Ashland Takes On Floyd Characteristics

The thirteenth annual Eastern Kentucky Invitational basketball tournament sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. at Ashland took definite shape as Monday night of becoming another Floyd county basketball meet.

Monday night semi-finals saw Wayland shade the home Ashland team, 45-33, and Maya, strengthened by five Prestonsburg performers, eliminate the defending champion, Carrolls of Ashland 40-38. Wayland and Maya, charged to bring home a goodly share of the trophies and awards, earned the right to vie with each other last night Wednesday for the championship honors in the Ashland high school gym.

Representing the cream of the crop of Eastern Kentucky's independent, the 40-man tournament began on Monday night, March 21 with Wayland blasting Scott's Drums of Russell, 40-27. Shelby of Pike county topped the Ashland Crusaders of God team, 49-45. Clark City's teaming the Ashland National Guard, 40-14 and 46-74 in quarter rounds.

Tuesday night's opening rounds found Maya disposing with South Portsmouth, 32-47. Louisa dismissing Mechanics of Russell, 64-41. Carrolls' victory of Central Christian, 40-38, and Morehead's All-Stars won over numbers Ashland telephone, 51-35.

In Thursday night's quarter-finals, the Wayland Lions obliterated Shelby 76-39. Maya hit the 40-38 mark in the first half end game Morehead, 36-38. Carrolls' one-pointed South Louisa, 46-45 and Arline masters of Carrollsburg, 48-37.

SEVEN CHURCH FIVES TANGLE ON WEEK-END

Pairings and Schedules Announced for League of Junior Basketeers

The Floyd county church league of seven Sunday School basketball teams held their first annual tournament at the Martin high school gym on Friday and Saturday.

The schedule and pairings of the tournament participants engage the Allen Baptists and the Martin Christians at 7 p.m. Friday followed by the Methodists at 8 p.m. In the double bill opening rounds, Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, the Wayland team squared off with the Dinwiddie Baptists.

The Saturday afternoon semi-finals set under way at 3:30 o'clock. The Martin Baptists and the Allen Christian winner tangle with the Allen Methodists who drew a bye into the semi-finals. The second round saw the Wayland team square off with the Dinwiddie Baptists and the Methodists and the Martin Christians at 4:30 p.m.

The Saturday night championship final "comes to town" at 8 o'clock. The meet climaxes a season of vigorous sports activity among the junior basketeers in the county and may offer a preview of some budding hardwood artists. It is planned to award trophies to the winner and runner-up of the tournament management staffs.

FLOYD STARS IN ALL-STATE MENTION LIST

Six County Boys Named From 4,880 Men; First 10 Rates All-State; Prater 18

Six Floyd county high school basketball stars, of the state's approximate 4,880 players, received the approval of coaches and sportswriters in the national Kentucky Sports Journal's annual all-state honor selections. They were Gene Boyd, Gene Frasure, both of Maytown, Curry, Wheelwright, center, junior; Wendell Jones, Maytown forward; senior; Doug Lafferty, Martin center; junior; James Mullins, Garrett guard; junior; Bill Stumbo, McDowell forward; senior.

One of the best natural shooting "eyes" in Kentucky during the past season is credited with gaining Dickie Prater, six-foot-two guard and Pikeville player, a place on the all-state first ten. Dickie, nicknamed "Chew," is the son of Lou Prater and a "transplanted" Garrett school boy.

The second team named Albert White, Meade Memorial, along with Dan Swartz, Owensboro, Linda Case, Clark County, Bob Mulvey, Leake, and others. Tom Butcher, Meade Memorial, Bill Fairchild, Inez, and Don McGuire, Hazard, were listed with others on the third team.

Of the others who made the honorable mention, the following are familiar: Lloyd Bailey (Pike County), Bailey (Lyon County), Jack Bradford (Hitchcock), Charles Boulware (Cahoon), Jim Crace (Caldwell), Arthur Combs (Hindman), Tom Durrell (Whitesburg), Don Daniels (Painville), Mark Dobson (Hindman), Billy Griffith (Webbville), Wm. Green (Hazard), Charles Hickman (Vincennes), Doc Holbrook (Olive Hill), Winford Miller (Carr Creek), Jim Walters (Viper), Don Frazier (Frankfort), Jim Hefner (Ashland), Bob Smith (Ashland), Nino Murr (Ashland Catholic), Bill Peirce (Ashland Catholic), and Charles Lusk (Owensboro).

Camper Finds a New Friend

Here's good news for campers. You can throw away those smoke-covered, bulky pots and pans. The open fire cook has a new friend in the form of pure aluminum rolled into thin, flexible sheets. All you have to do is lay the food in the foil and place it on the coals to cook.

Practically anything you have been cooking in the open can be handled by this new method—meat, fowl, fish and vegetables such as potatoes, carrots, sweet potatoes, turnips, onions, and fruit such as apples and bananas.

There's nothing to it. Merely slice the foil in the larger vegetable season, wrap in three thicknesses of foil, place on the hot coals for about 10 minutes. The foil cooks rapidly and can be shaped into a variety of shapes.

If you prefer to cook the vegetables or larger pieces of meat, whole, about an hour's cooking time. Even eggs can be wrapped in foil and cooked to suit your taste. But, but the foil can be shaped into a variety of shapes.

ALL-TOURNEY

Named to the all-tourney team, selected by three anonymous members of the press, the performance in the Floyd county annual benefit basketball tournament at Martin were Bill Stumbo, McDowell, Frankie Crum, Donald Hobson, both of Betsy Layne, Doug Lafferty and his brother, Elmer, of Martin, Wendell Jones, of Maytown, and Alton Reed, of Maytown, Gene Boyd, Prestonsburg, Ronald Curry, Wheelwright, and Doug Casle, Wayland.

ALLEN STARTS DIAMOND CLUB

Locates Baseball Field; First Team in Six Years Begins with 32 Tryouts

The Allen baseball club, the community's first representative in league play for the last six years, was organized last Sunday. Team manager Ben Westfall reports, with 32 tryouts.

The team, with designated membership in the currently re-organizing Big Sandy League, has been secured community support and the enthusiastic interest of a good following.

Cooperation of Riley Hall, Allen landowner, has made a new diamond and ball park possible for the new team. Westfall, on the diamond, Westfall announced, will begin next week. The park will be located near the right side of the Allen bridge approach on state highway 80 in the Hall addition.

Burnside, Capt. March 25—The St. Louis Browns have cut Jim Busch, their star pitcher, from their three young pitchers. Don Larsen was sent to the Browns' training camp at Pottsville, Ark. John Cerezo goes back to San Antonio and Bud Schwartz was optioned to Portland of the Pacific League by Baltimore, which has a working agreement with the Browns.

Twelve Fall Months To Catch Your Fish

Frankfort, Ky., March 27—Earl Wallace, director of the Division of Game & Fish, today reminded Kentucky sportsmen that they will have a full 12 months of fishing in Kentucky this year.

Until last year, it was illegal to fish in Kentucky waters during the winter months. But the 1948 Legislature enabled the Game and Fish Commission to remove this restriction.

Inasmuch as a 90-day period is required before the rulings of the commission become effective, most of May had passed last year before this law was permitted in navigable streams.

Wallace said that previously fish were protected in May to safeguard them during the spawning period. In addition, however, that investigation by the Division have disclosed that fish may spawn in any of the several months depending on weather conditions.

When the U.S. basketball team dropped a 46-40 encounter to Washington after winning six straight, the Bruins just failed to set a new school mark. Instead they tied the 1933-34 quints' six straight record.

SPORTS SPOTS

AMAZING LEVINSKY Battling Levinsky was his ring name. He fought 500 boxing matches in his 19-year ritz career and once held the world's light heavyweight championship. He was named out by the hand of Time in his book, "Deaths at his Philadelphia home on Feb. 12 at the age of 59."

The Battler's real name was Barney Lebowitz. He started his ring career in 1910 under the name of Barney Williams and three years later adopted the famous name of "Battling Levinsky." He lived up to it by meeting all challenges. He was knocked out in his last ring fight in five rounds by O. G. Van Port at Grand Rapids, Mich., in 1929.

Net Gain $1641.73

Over 3,000 fans paid a total of $1,641.73 in gate receipts at the $1.00 annual benefit basketball tournament at Martin to aid The Floyd County. Net proceeds gained the yearbook $1,641.73. The nine schools and teams donated their services.

The winners garnered 145 points in three games for an average of 47.7 points per game. Maytown's boys was individual scoring runner-up with 41 and his teammate, Frasure, accumulated 40 points.

Palmer Hall, Floyd county school superintendent, awarded the trophies to the winner, the runner-up, the sportsmanship trophy to Wheelwright and the cheerleading award to the Martin girls. Georgiana Adams, Jean Spencer, Pat Allen, Billie Jean Flannery and Roberta Flannery. Individual basketball awards went to all-tourney selections, members of the winning team and the runner-up.

On Saturday afternoon, with their semi-final opponent, McDowell, leading them, 16-16, the Wildcats opened in the last half to out the Devils, 41-31. W. Jones, Maytown, coppered 14 points and J. Boyd hit 11. Stumbo was high for McDowell, with 13 points.

The margin of foul shooting enabled the Betsy Layne Bobcats to claim the Martin Purple Flash, 45-42, in the other Saturday semi-final. The Bobcats hit 16 field goals while Martin tabbed 18, but in the foul department the winners dominated, 26 to 23. While the Flashers got eight of 17 Martin suffered 28 personal fouls while Betsy Layne was penalized 14.

Sophomore Frankie Crum, Betsy Layne forward, was high pointner with 21 tallies rang 100 pct. In his first shot after a hitting streak of 10 in five tries and six for six in foul shooting.

Twelve-point margins measured victory in the Friday night contests as McDowell retired the Prestonsburg Blackcats, 48-36, and Martin repulsed the Wheelwright Maroons, 40-23. In the Martin-Wheelwright game both teams fought so hard that neither succeeded in denting the basket for the first four minutes and 50 seconds.

Maytown's Wildcats withstood the last half onslaught of a mighty Garrett. Black Devil Dave Moore a third-round crowd in Thursday night's first rounds to win, 48-43.

The score was tied at 43-43 in the first half. In the last three minutes to play, the Wildcats put on steam as Jones hit two points. Martin cracked the net for two more and Frasure, who was high point man for the night with 20 markers, tallied a free shot for the five-point margin.

Maytown led at the first quarter, 15 to 8, and were still leading, 29-21, at the half. The Black Devils rallied in the third as the period closed with Maytown lead 30 to only one point, 36-35. The fourth quarter proved an all-out scrap between the two fives.

To Thursday's first game, the Betsy Layne Bobcats bottled up the Auxler Hornets, 59-29, as sophomore Frankie Crum gathered up 19 points for the game's high point honors. The Bobcats demonstrated undisputed supremacy over the hapless Hornets of little Auxler in prime time for the game's high point honors. The Bobcats demonstrated undisputed supremacy over the hapless Hornets of little Auxler in prime time for the game's high point honors.

Wednesday night's journey came after saw the Martin substitute, Campbell, with only 10 seconds to go, rise to a bench-warmer's glory with a two-point field goal and give his team a one-point decision over the fighting Wayland wasps, 44-43, that put the cash customers on the register.

The Martin Purple Flash, trailing six points with two minutes left of the game, put on a burst of scoring speed to pull within reach of the Wasp at 41-39 in one minute. In the last hectic minute, Paulman Hefner Lafferty tabbed a two-point shot, his brother Doug hit a foul shot and teammate Campbell sank his clincher while Wayland cashed in two points.

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

I am proud to be an American, I am proud of my country, my state, and my county. I am glad to live in our Great Democracy where a young man can grow up and with the help of God and his fellow man receive an education and a chance in life no matter how meager his materials and means might be. I am a firm believer in government for the people and not government for some politician or group of politicians.

If you nominate and elect me your County Court Clerk, I will be there to faithfully, honestly and diligently serve you and the good people of Floyd County. No job is too important, office will be too small or too great for me to overlook my duties and obligations to you and our fellow citizens.

The office of County Court Clerk is yours. You must select a custodian. Place me in charge for the next four years and I will guard it for you. During that time I will give to you and your office all that is in me.

Every voter in Floyd County has his or her interests, rights, and privileges recorded, filed, or registered in our County Court Clerk's office. Give me the opportunity to serve as your clerk and I will make it a pleasure for you to come into your office to transact business. I will faithfully and accurately keep and protect your interests, rights, and privileges in a cheerful and excellent manner.

Your Friend,
DURAN MOORE

We are authorized to announce WILLIAM D. (Bill) HENEGAR of Wayland, as a candidate for CONSTABLE, Dist. 2 subject to the action of the Democratic party at the August, 1949 primary.

We are authorized to announce BUDDY BRYANT for Constable, Dist. 3, Floyd County subject to the action of the Democratic party at the August, 1949 primary.

I hereby announce my candidacy for County Court Clerk. I am a minister of the old REGULAR BAPTIST CHURCH, and have been a coal miner for 30 years. Fellow Democrats, nominate me and I will be faithful and true to all the people.

Yours to win,
BERT NEWSOM

RE-ELECT
WOODROW BURCHETT
COUNTY ATTORNEY

Qualified, Dependable, Accommodating

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

I believe that the time has come in Floyd County for the voters to work and elect a working man for our future. After all, it is the working man that pays all the bills. The only time the politicians are for the working man is on election day.

I am a Christian man and trying to lead a good life and all the citizens know that they will be treated fairly if I am nominated and elected.

I call upon the good Christian people and the working people to give an old working man a chance by nominating and electing me Jailer of Floyd County. I am 58 years old and have been a Democrat all my life. I will try and see all the voters that I possibly can between now and the primary election, but being a crippled man, I may not be able to see all and I take this method of asking for your support and influence.

Subject to the action of the Democratic primary.
