WHEELWRIGHT DRIVE LEADER Community Contributes $1,502.31 to Polio Fund To Lead Floyd Campaign

Wheelwright has recently completed the community's annual drive for the March of Dimes. The campaign was sponsored by the Inland Foreman's Club, a chapter of the National Association of Foremen, under the direction of Ota Munn.

This year's campaign proved highly successful and exceeded all expectations. The total receipts amounted to $1,502.31, as compared to approximately $1,200.00 collected in Wheelwright last year, the next highest amount. This is also the highest amount contributed this year by any community in Floyd county.

The fine response in Wheelwright is attributed largely to Mr. Munn's own enthusiasm, initiative and aggressiveness, who inspired the support of the Foreman Club's members and, in turn, the support of the members of the community and surrounding areas.

The club, at the regular monthly meeting of the Inland Foreman's Club, stated it is confident that next year the drive can be still more successful as the people are realizing more and more the dire need for funds to fight the dreaded infantile paralysis. He added that he wishes to extend his sincere thanks to the Foreman Club members and to all the generous contributors who helped him conduct so successful a campaign for so worthy a cause.

It wasn't the Good Government Taxpayers League who last week was charging the four magistrates and the County Judge of knowledge, willfully, failing and refusing to take proper action to recover the several thousand dollars due Floyd county from Woodrow Burchett and that a request from the citizens and taxpayers would have been futile and useless.

It wasn't a learned lawyer, an experienced, an able Judge from Louisville, appointed by the Kentucky Court of Appeals, which last week handed to the Clerk of the Floyd Circuit Court such an indictment after many months of examination of sworn evidence from honest and upright citizens and from open and public records of our governmental units.

What other indictment could be expected when one of the Magistrates, M. C. Wright, was asked question 16 on page 13 of the July 26 depositions? Q. 16. "Have you made any effort or investigation, as magistrate and a member of the Fiscal Court, to find out if Mr. Burchett, or any other public official, has been receiving excessive salary or compensation?"

Here is the answer of this officer charged by law and sworn to protect the interests of Floyd county in this matter. Answer: "That wasn't any of my business."

Justice Lawrence F. Speckman, from Louisville, appointed by the highest court in Kentucky, has this to say about the situation in Floyd county, and quote:

The Court of Appeals of Kentucky holds "that where the members of the Fiscal Court are made parties defendant to the suit wherein the correctness of their official acts is impugned, and like these defendants they do not answer and do not defend, nor do they offer in good faith to take charge of and duly prosecute the cause of action asserted, it would be a denial of justice for courts to say an aggrieved resident taxpayer could not go on with the litigation merely because he had begun it, without making demand of the Fiscal Court that it begin it."

Justice Speckman quotes from the language of the opinion. "It would have been a futile thing for these taxpayers to ask this Fiscal Court to sue to right a wrong it had deliberately done, when it is apparent such a demand would have been fruitless."

Justice Speckman holds, and quote: "If the facts charged in the petition are true, and as amended are true, and for the purpose of this hearing they must be considered as true, then it would be futile to expect the Fiscal Court of Floyd County to take action against the County Attorney. In fact up to this very moment they have not assisted the plaintiffs (The Tax League) in the prosecution of this action (against Burchett) as the Kentucky Court of Appeals said they should have done, and which failure to so act is evidence of their condoning the alleged illegal acts of their servant, the County Attorney, and the continual payment to the County Attorney of excess compensation with knowledge of the charges contained in this action amounts to the transfer of the funds or property of the taxpayers to a purpose other than that permitted under the Constitution or the statutory laws of the Commonwealth and is the overt act condemned by the Court of Appeals."

Justice Speckman writes, and quote: "In the (Burchett) case the record consisting of pleadings, exhibits and proof show conclusively that not only has the Fiscal Court of Floyd county failed to join in this action as prosecutors, but has shown by its pleadings its opposition to it."

Justice Speckman writes further, "It is argued by the defendants including the present members of the Fiscal Court that four of them were not members at the time of the alleged acts, however, it is admitted that Wright, Howell, Martin and Harris took office January 1st, 1950 and were serving as such when this action was filed, and all individually and collectively are parties and have failed to lend a helping hand in this case."

Justice Speckman writes that the Magistrates, Judge Stumbo and Woodrow Burchett "attempts to bring in issue the fact that the Fiscal Court has acted since the filing of this action. The steps alleged to have been taken are the employment of an auditor and the authorization of counsel to take action. It appears that the employment of an auditor is unnecessary in the prosecution of this action, as the records which would support the claim of the taxpayer are all public records, are easily obtainable and proven. Furthermore, the mere authorization to employ counsel has evidently never been carried out."

Justice Speckman says, "The authorization to employ counsel has never been carried out. This action has been pending since June 12, 1952, and up to this very moment no counsel has appeared." Judge Speckman says, "The only counsel that has appeared are those who have filed demurs and pleas in abatement which are obstructive pleadings rather than constructive and it reveals the close relationship existing between the officials who the plaintiffs (taxpayers) charged have drawn compensation from the public funds in excess of that authorized by our Constitution."

Here is what Judge Speckman says about Magistrates Wright, Howell, Martin and Stanley and Judge Stumbo, and quote: "It is further evidenced that it would be futile to expect these officials to take any action calculated to serve the best interests of the taxpayers of Floyd county."

This is what a fair, impartial judge says who knows none of the parties to the suit, who has no axes to grind, no political ambitions to further, who sits only as the judge appointed by the highest court in Kentucky, to dish out the law and hand down justice based on the sworn evidence and certified records before him.

This judge says no audit was necessary. So the six thousand dollars of the taxpayers' money has been thrown to the four winds. Yes, the days of the great "Whitewash and Cover-up" are about over. This smoke screen will no longer be of avail and it is to be hoped that the thousands of honest, hard-working taxpayers will come forward, show their true colors, and denounce and disavow those who have failed them. Many good citizens have been unquestionably duped into believing the propaganda of the magistrates, Judge Stumbo and Woodrow Burchett and their close friends and relatives, that these suits were political, smear campaigns, and for personal vengeance, but it is to be hoped that in the not far distant future it may be in order for those who have been criticizing to remember that Christ was nailed to the cross for preaching the truth, and further remember the words of the great poet which begins, "Truth forever on the scaffold, wrong forever on the throne."

Justice Speckman holds, and quote: "If the facts charged in the petition are true, and as amended are true, and for the purpose of this hearing they must be considered as true, then it would be futile to expect the Fiscal Court of Floyd County to take action against the County Attorney. In fact up to this very moment they have not assisted the plaintiffs (The Tax League) in the prosecution of this action (against Burchett) as the Kentucky Court of Appeals said they should have done, and which failure to so act is evidence of their condoning the alleged illegal acts of their servant, the County Attorney, and the continual payment to the County Attorney of excess compensation with knowledge of the charges contained in this action amounts to the transfer of the funds or property of the taxpayers to a purpose other than that permitted under the Constitution or the statutory laws of the Commonwealth and is the overt act condemned by the Court of Appeals."

Justice Speckman writes, and quote: "In the (Burchett) case the record consisting of pleadings, exhibits and proof show conclusively that not only has the Fiscal Court of Floyd county failed to join in this action as prosecutors, but has shown by its pleadings its opposition to it."

Justice Speckman writes further, "It is argued by the defendants including the present members of the Fiscal Court that four of them were not members at the time of the alleged acts, however, it is admitted that Wright, Howell, Martin and Harris took office January 1st, 1950 and were serving as such when this action was filed, and all individually and collectively are parties and have failed to lend a helping hand in this case."

Justice Speckman writes that the Magistrates, Judge Stumbo and Woodrow Burchett "attempts to bring in issue the fact that the Fiscal Court has acted since the filing of this action. The steps alleged to have been taken are the employment of an auditor and the authorization of counsel to take action. It appears that the employment of an auditor is unnecessary in the prosecution of this action, as the records which would support the claim of the taxpayer are all public records, are easily obtainable and proven. Furthermore, the mere authorization to employ counsel has evidently never been carried out."

Justice Speckman says, "The authorization to employ counsel has never been carried out. This action has been pending since June 12, 1952, and up to this very moment no counsel has appeared." Judge Speckman says, "The only counsel that has appeared are those who have filed demurs and pleas in abatement which are obstructive pleadings rather than constructive and it reveals the close relationship existing between the officials who the plaintiffs (taxpayers) charged have drawn compensation from the public funds in excess of that authorized by our Constitution."

Here is what Judge Speckman says about Magistrates Wright, Howell, Martin and Stanley and Judge Stumbo, and quote: "It is further evidenced that it would be futile to expect these officials to take any action calculated to serve the best interests of the taxpayers of Floyd county."

This is what a fair, impartial judge says who knows none of the parties to the suit, who has no axes to grind, no political ambitions to further, who sits only as the judge appointed by the highest court in Kentucky, to dish out the law and hand down justice based on the sworn evidence and certified records before him.

This judge says no audit was necessary. So the six thousand dollars of the taxpayers' money has been thrown to the four winds. Yes, the days of the great "Whitewash and Cover-up" are about over. This smoke screen will no longer be of avail and it is to be hoped that the thousands of honest, hard-working taxpayers will come forward, show their true colors, and denounce and disavow those who have failed them. Many good citizens have been unquestionably duped into believing the propaganda of the magistrates, Judge Stumbo and Woodrow Burchett and their close friends and relatives, that these suits were political, smear campaigns, and for personal vengeance, but it is to be hoped that in the not far distant future it may be in order for those who have been criticizing to remember that Christ was nailed to the cross for preaching the truth, and further remember the words of the great poet which begins, "Truth forever on the scaffold, wrong forever on the throne."

Superintendent Turner did not make an estimate of the number of new teachers or replacements which will be needed next year. He did say, however, that the teacher-shortage situation is just its crisis for this year and that, judging from the number of applications being received from young men and women now in college, the situation can be expected to be better next year. "If all those now applying don't change their minds, I would say we will not have to employ an emergency teacher in the whole district," he said.

Of the new teachers added to the teaching staff this year, 23 had no previous classroom experience while 17 had teaching experience. The average number of pupils per teacher in the county is 40, the questionnaire reported, with the largest number taught by one person being 60 and the smallest 6.

The basal salary for county teachers is $192 a month, with 10 cents additional paid per college hour and $3.50 added for 10 years of teaching experience up to eight years.

Other questions in the questionnaire were submitted to county committee members at their meeting Friday night at Martin. The first question was asked of committee members for the Prestonsburg independent district, Tuesday evening. And that last question is a hulu. It reads:

"Would you advise outstanding young people in Kentucky, under present conditions, to prepare themselves professionally to enter a teaching career?"

THEY NEVER HAD IT SO GOOD. Both bass and crappies were striking like mad at Lake Yale, near Rankin, Fla., recently as this first-day catch of 23 held by Mrs. J. D. Francis, left, and Mrs. J. D. Rankin, Jr., both of Prestonsburg, indicates.

Bob Francis belonged in this picture somewhere—he caught some of the fish, anyway—but somebody had to operate the camera. Largest of the string was a 3½-pounder. The bass were hitting Lake and Johnson spoons.

Joe M. Hall, 80, Beaver, Dies at Pburg Hospital; Rites at Reynolds Church

Joe M. Hall, 80, Beaver, died Feb. 27, at 4:15 p.m. in the Prestonsburg General Hospital. The cause of death was said to have been pneumonia.

He was the son of Riley and Rebecca Hall. His wife, Mary Darius Hall, preceded him in death 18 months ago. He had no surviving children. One brother, Dock Hall, Wheelwright, survives.

Funeral rites were conducted Monday, March 2, at the Reynolds church at Beaver, the Rev. George Hull was in the Reynolds cemetery at Beaver under the direction of Turner Funeral Home.

Continuing a three-year trend, the number of students applying for admission to U. S. medical schools declined again during the 1952-53 term.

Asked in a question-and-answer period at the conclusion of his talk what specific benefits might be realized for this section, Mr. Brown said, "If the right people talk to the right people, a pilot plant for this section might be possible."

He mentioned the interest of the Signal Corps in germanium and in the deposits found near here. He also pointed out that one firm may be contacted about such a plant, but declined to name the firm. This information was passed to Mr. Asher, of the Industrial Foundation.

A lengthy history of the discovery and development of germanium for use in electronics and other fields was given.

The U. S. Bureau of Mines has estimated that from the average coal vein with its one-thousandths of one per cent germanium content the recoverable germanium would be worth about $7 to the ton of coal.

One plant, now reported by the Bureau, would cost $10 million to build and would produce 100 tons of germanium per ton of coal. Germanium sells for approximately $800 a pound.

Mr. May said following the meeting here that a new process for extraction of germanium from coal is being patented and that the whole field of opportunity through this resource is being explored for this section.

"Until I get more complete information and know definitely what we can do and what needs to be done, I will not call on local interests for assistance," he said. Mr. May added that this information is expected within the next few weeks.

Tom Kaney, Pikeville, international board member of the United Mine Workers, has endorsed canalization, and many consider this as a result of Mr. Lewis' change of mind on the project.

Re-elected to the Association's board of directors were these old directors from Floyd county: N. M. White, Jr., Martin Moore, Ben Seay, Jack W. A. Malone, A. J. May, Curtis Clark, A. B. Meade, C. L. Hayslip, and J. D. Harlow. J. E. New director from Floyd is Ed at Saturday's meeting are: R. De Frances, Edging Mope, Paul C. Jones, Homer Wright, Norman Allen, Jarvis Allen.

Ballard Goble, Duale, died Wednesday of this week. Cause of death was not given. He was the son of Alex and Mary W. Goble, deceased and was never married. He was a member of the Methodist church.

Surviving brothers are the late and Oliver, Jr.; Columbus, Richard and Leonard. Sister: Raymond, Frank.

Funeral rites will be conducted tomorrow evening at the Baptist church, the Rev. Lewis Barber and the Rev. W. D. Harlow officiating. Burial will be in the cemetery at Carter Creek under the direction of Carter and Frazier Funeral Home.

DECEASED IN FLORIDA
Barnesville Ky.—America DeCoursey of Washport, Ky., will be one of the Union College students to attend the Southern Regional Conference of the Society of Phi Sigma and Religion to be held at Florida State University, Tallahassee, Fla., from March 3 to March 7.

Dr. Horace Weaver, head of the Religion and Philosophy Department, will accompany the group.

The Tax Commissioner said he had asked for a recent opinion handed down in a recent tax case and said this would fully justify the court's action in allowing the payment of assistants.

The Tax League petition claims the fiscal court in violation of the statute cited appropriated and paid to the Tax Commissioner, first, $125,000 more than is allowed by law; in 1950 paid $100,000, or in excess of the legal limit; and in 1951 to date, $900,000.

It also is contended in the petition that on or about August 10, last, the League by registered letter called on the fiscal court to take prompt and immediate action against all public officials who have received excess pay. The petition adds that this request was ignored.

Named as defendants in the suits were these parties:

E. S. Pratt, surety for Tax Commissioner Akers; the Fidelity Guaranty Co., surety for Judge Shumbo; G. C. and Lewis Burbeck, sureties for Magistrate J. E. Harris; Ben and Charlie Martin, sureties for Magistrate Bill Harlow; L. O. Frasier and Charlie Oulley, sureties for Magistrate M. C. Wright; and Paul Hamilton, surety for Magistrate Edgar Howell.

Although Magistrate Bill Stanley, successor to J. E. Harris, is a defendant in the suit, his bondsmen were not named.

Henry P. Smith, a member of the Tax League's board of directors, announced this week his resignation from the board, effective March 3. He gave as his reasons for resigning that the press of business did not permit him to give proper attention to League activities and that he often was unable to attend board meetings because he resides some distance from Prestonsburg.

Lessons on home care of the sick, studied by county home-masters, included making the bed with a patient in it, giving the bed-patient a bath, taking temperatures and keeping a daily record of the patient's progress.

Kentucky River Data Compiled by State

"Kentucky River," a new booklet compiled by the Division of Flood Control and Water Usage, will be available for free distribution this week according to O. W. Chinn, division director.

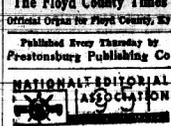

The 50-page volume containing technical data on all phases of the watershed is directed primarily to those interested in the river from an economic viewpoint.

Previous booklets have been assembled on the Green, Licking and Cumberland rivers. Work will begin soon on the Salt and Tennessee rivers.

Chinn did not say when similar work will be done on the Big Sandy.

The First National Bank of Paintsville bonds $100 worth of certified tobacco seed for farmers of Johnson county.

The Floyd County Times Official Organ for Floyd County, Ky.

Entered as second class matter June 18, 1927 at the postoffice at Prestonsburg, Ky., under the act of March 3, 1879.

The Faithful Were There

LAST Saturday's reorganization meeting of the Big Sandy Valley Association at Pikeville was a reunion of old friends and old associates in the year-long fight for canalization of the Big Sandy and its two tributaries, the Levisa and the Top.

There were few new faces. And that is one of the weaknesses in the organization, although it does reflect an unquenchable determination on the part of the veterans. There should be new interest in canalization; new blood should join in the fight.

Conspicuous by their absence were the coal operators of the region whose canalization would benefit. The miners, too, were without representation. These two groups should be in the thick of the fight, disregarding the pressures and joining in a movement on which the future of the coal business of this section depends—a business on which, by and large, we all depend.

The wait, this time, for a decision will not be long. The work to be done must be achieved soon. The support of the public, financially and by our presence, is a necessity. Let us all play some part in this struggle which can be called nothing short of one for survival.

Thoughts for the Tired

TIRE D of giving? Have you grown tired as week after week of fund drives have continued? Getting a bit surly when somebody calls?

Well, you shouldn't. We who give are lucky. Our position is among the fortunate. When you have a slackening of the spirit of giving to those funds which mean something, perhaps the difference between life and death, to others, think of how mortally tire some grows the sick-bed.

Now the Red Cross fund drive is next. If you are tired of giving, consider this:

Two of the main items of the Red Cross program this year is concerned with the very two groups of humanity in which we all are, or should be, most interested—our children who at home are threatened with polio and our children who, now grown to manhood, are facing death in Korea.

The Red Cross this year will reach the children with its gamma globulin stores which are necessary for the production of the new immunization against polio.

And the blood program of the Red Cross is designed to meet the needs of the "boys" whose own blood will pour out through their wounds. It also will meet the needs of civilians in the hospitals of this country, but, somehow, we have an idea that the needs of us who yet are at home are secondary.

We mention these two items in a stupendous program of mercy which the Red Cross undertakes, aware of the other Red Cross services. But surely these should suffice to impress on us all the need for our dimes and dollars.

Tired? Brace up—think of children's faces. Give—think of what others are giving.

WORK SHOP AT WHEELRIGHT

The Floyd county teachers held a two day work shop, March 23 at Wheelright. Dear Taxpayers:
There are two kinds of people—"THE FOR'S" and "AGAINST'S". I, Clive Akers, am one of the "FOR'S" and stand for honest and efficient GOVERNMENT.

In the year of 1952 a representative of The Department of Revenue at Frankfort, Kentucky came to my office and asked that I set up a PERMANENT ASSESSMENT CARD RECORD of all the real estate, tangible and intangible property in Floyd county. I informed him that it was humanly impossible without additional help and that the salary of the Tax Commissioner is only enough for an average living.

The representative asked that I go to the Fiscal Court and ask for an assistant. I went to the Court and asked for this help and it was granted. It was pointed out to the court, that under the Ky. Revised Statutes, section 1 K.R.S. 134.605, the Fiscal Court had the right to furnish the Tax Commissioner

Mrs. Robert H. Marshall Dies at Ashland Hospital; Formerly of This County

Mrs. Nevada Martin Marshall, 72 years old, wife of Robert H. Marshall, died Saturday at an Ashland hospital, victim of an illness of several months following a paralytic stroke.

She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Martin, of Eastern, and until about eight years ago when she and her husband moved to Samaria had resided on the Auxler road, near here. She leaves many relatives and friends in this section.

Surviving are her husband, who for more than 40 years was a teacher in this county, four daughters and five sons: Mrs. Monroe Patton, Alger, O., Mrs. Norman Akers, Iron Hill, Ky., Mrs. Oleta Snedegar, Lexington, Mrs. Troy McKenna, Auxler, Oliver H. Marshall, Davis, Winfield, L. J. Morle, Townsell G. and Robert H. Marshall, Jr., all of Ashland. She also leaves 28 grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. D. C. Stephens and Mrs. H. S. Arnett, both of Salyersville, and two brothers, E. F. Martin, Cleveland, O., and Lee Martin, Salyersville.

The funeral was held Sunday from the Iron Hill Christian Church, the Rev. C. Phillips officiating. Burial was made in Grayson Memorial cemetery. Active pallbearers were eight grandsons, W. W. Patton, Wheeler Patton, C. Eugene Akers, Donald Akers, Roger and Joe Lee Marshall.

conditions of the banking with bottled gas and the classroom themselves with individual stoves.

Plans for the Beaco school building are in the hands of Gordon Moore, superintendent of the public instruction, but are expected to be returned here in two weeks at the latest. County Superintendent Wirt G. Turner said.

The Board voted unanimously not to employ Gordon Moore, of Prestonsburg, in any capacity during the 1953 school year. This action, it was explained, was taken because Moore is now teaching and claiming pay for 12 months at the rate he was paid while employed in a supervisory capacity during the previous school administration. Moore was his suit for payment in the lower court and the case is now in the Court of Appeals.

If the latter should decide the county should not pay him as ordered by the lower court, his continued employment would create the situation of one teacher receiving more pay than he is being paid for the full 12 months, than another teacher with the same qualifications would receive. It was explained.

The Board took the position that Moore is not under teacher tenure and that motion of his intention would if filed before March 31, eliminate a situation which could not be continued indefinitely.

Investigation: Add-on equipment—Grabshots—equipment to speed up payroll and other record work was ordered. The Board also signed right way deeds on the Jack's Creek road and paid bills.

"One teacher was hired? This was Vernon Hamilton to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of G. L. Akers at Ashloch.

The federal government is eager to co-operate with the State in establishment of a park at Deree Lake, Col. Columbia said, as that is the policy of the Corps of Engineers.

The government, however, must control the dam so as to be able to turn the spout off and on in the regulation of flood control.

"The regulation, however, belongs to the people locally," he stated, "and we want to get into their hands."

Harry Pockras of the Huntington office said it was the right of the federal government to turn the area over to the state.

"If Kentucky is ready to take it over," he declared, "the United States is ready to turn it over."

He explained that the state already had supervision over fish and wildlife conservation in the lake and surrounding federal land.

He pointed out that the government's prime interest in the lake is that of flood control. However, if the state develops a park there, Pockras declared that concessions would have to be considered, but wouldn't tolerate any honk-tonks there," he said.

Floyd County Historical Notes

By HENRY P. SCALF

A letter from Emory L. Hamilton of Wise, Virginia, in regard to the Hamilton family, is quoted in part:
"In the early days of Wisconsin (then Russell) there were living in this section Schuyler, Nelson, James, David and Richard Hamilton, all of whom are believed to have been brothers. I am a direct descendant of Schuyler Hamilton 1787-1861."
The above mentioned Nelson Hamilton married Mary Nolin in Russell county, Va., about 1813, and had one son, James Nelson died in Norfolk, Va., in the War of 1812. Date of death, Oct. 6, 1815. His widow removed to Kentucky and later married a Mr. Jacobs. In 1820, Mary Jacobs and her son, the estate of Nelson Hamilton and James Hamilton, appeared in Russell county, Va., in connection with stated they were residents of Floyd county, Kentucky. I am interested in locating the descendants of this James Hamilton, or any other of the name who trace their ancestry back to Wise and Russell counties, Virginia.

"Also Robert Hamilton who married Malissa Whitley and settled either in Floyd or Montgomery county, Ky. This Robert was a son of the above mentioned Schuyler Hamilton and also had a son named Schuyler."
Floyd county records show several Hamilton marriages. One by David Hamilton to Sally Fitzpatrick, July 27, 1813. Again on Aug. 7, 1823, a David Hamilton is mentioned as being present in the Shelby News (Shelbyville, Ky.), entitled "Down Memory Lane" a historical interest exists that all three were of the same Brown family. The excerpt from Mrs. Brown's memoirs follows:
"Another story of the early history of Shelbyville came to me through my husband. His grandfather, Thomas Brown, emigrated to America from Ireland when a young man and, entered the mercantile business in the city of Philadelphia where he remained several years. While there he became acquainted with several 'western' merchants. From them he obtained such glowing accounts of Kentucky and the large profits to be made in selling goods in that 'western' state that he left Philadelphia for Kentucky with a stock of goods which was hauled in wagons to Pittsburgh and from thence transported in keel or flat boats down the river to Westport, Kentucky.

"In 1810 he moved his goods back thirty miles to the village of Shelbyville. While living in Shelbyville he met the spot for a young man (I forget his name) engaged in a life and death struggle with a debt, a two year old back which he had with feet and horns cut the man so badly that he could render no help to Brown. Brown backed the debt. He was a miser and obstinate. During the struggle, however, the back got so close to the man lying on the ground that he grabbed it by the tail. This delayed the fight until Brown could open his knife with which he succeeded in killing the animal."

TO THE PEOPLE OF FLOYD COUNTY:
This is to announce my candidacy on the Democratic ticket for County Judge of Floyd County.

I have worked hard to do a good job for the people. None of us succeed in everything we attempt to do, there are none who do not make mistakes along the way. But I submit in all earnestness that I have succeeded in doing many needed things for our county, such as the improvement of roads, paying off of much of the outstanding debt and teaching out to the ordinary citizen who needs help, and I also say that whatever mistakes I may have made, they have been errors of judgment and not mistakes prompted by any intention at any time to do wrong.

Try to picture yourself a defendant before a judge and a jury who would get a portion of the sum involved if they decided against you and nothing if they decided in your favor. Oh, say you are charged with a penal law violation and the judge and jury get a percentage of the fine if you are convicted and nothing if you are acquitted.

If such an outrage against basic law and justice should happen in a circuit court, individuals and newspapers would raise such a howl of protest that in all probability the governor would call a special session of the legislature to repeal the law. Or the Attorney General would ask the Court of Appeals to declare the statute unconstitutional.

But there is no protest against that kind of outrageous procedure in magistrates' courts, where hundreds of motorists and truck drivers are fined by judges of the people who get a percentage of the fines they assess and nothing if defendants are dismissed. That such outrageous procedure should be allowed in a state that boasts of its respect for justice is unthinkable.

Most individuals picked up on technical traffic violations are fined often on the uncorroborated testimony of a single patrolman, accept justice rather than ask for a change of venue to a county court where they can demand a jury. An innocent victim of unfair court procedure idles bitter toward the law, but he has no legal recourse to it.

Frequently the accused are from outside areas. People from a distance find it more likely to submit to fines than to hire a lawyer and wait over from one to four days for a jury in a county court. Truckmen can't wait for county court trials. Their cargoes must be delivered on time.

I'm sure the Court of Appeals would knock out the statute giving trial officers a percentage of fines on the grounds that the court is prejudiced, but I certainly don't want to pay a thousand dollars in fees to make a test case. Nobody should have to do that.

I jump to the present legislature to change the law. That law-making body should not adjourn with an outrageous law left in the code.

Toward the end of the 1952 session of the legislature I asked my assemblyman why the unfair law should not be repealed and justices of the peace be paid commensurate with each magistrate's duties. His reply was that everybody had before justices of the peace had a right to demand a jury in the county court which was worse than no answer at all, because in nearly all cases a lawyer's fee would be more than the fine in the magistrate's court all.

Ferrous who have been victimized in magistrates courts should clip this article and send it to their state senator and their representative at Frankfort, along with a note asking for repeal of the unfair law. For as long as you have been fined unjustly or not, do it for the sake of justice to your fellow Kentuckians.

Many farmers in Carlisle county grew 2,800 to 2,000 pounds of dark-fired tobacco an acre, with prices of 40 to 48 cents a pound.

BETSY LAYNE
WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS
The Betsy Layne Woman's Club held its regular monthly meeting Thursday night, Feb. 19, at the home of Mrs. T. J. Chandler. Mrs. Beecher was the speaker. Rev. W. O. Patton, pastor of the Betsy Layne Methodist Church, who had as his topic, "I've Patented Our Lives Spiritually." Rev. Patton first pointed out that men and women should pattern their lives after Christ and then discussed points whereby this can be done.

Mrs. Harwick presided at the business session. Miss Alice Williams, club chairman of the Heart Fund drive, gave a brief review of the Heart Fund association's work. Among other things, she reminded the group that 75% of the funds remain in Kentucky, that an allotment of $1,000 has been made to establish a chair of heart research at the University of Louisville Medical School. The association plans to continue the schedule of program activities now in progress. Club members present made contributions to the Heart Fund along with the club as a whole. Mrs. Harwick read a letter from Dr. Marvin Randall, of the Floyd County Health Department and Tuberculosis Association, announcing the proposed return of the X-ray trailer unit to conduct clinics in Floyd county. He asked the club to sponsor the unit at Harrod, on May 1. It was voted to sponsor the clinic, as requested. A letter was read from Mrs. T. C. Carroll, commander of the Kentucky division of the American Cancer Society, announcing cancer district meetings to be held in March. A letter was also read from Mrs. Green Rose, chairman, Health Council, Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs, announcing that the KYFWC had entered the General Federation of Women's Clubs Health Contest, a contest to give the state having the largest number of clubs having 100% of the membership having complete physical examinations and she urged each club to participate. Mrs. Harwick made a check at this time and she found that over one-half of the club membership has had complete physicals during the past year. Family solidarity week, February 18-21, was observed by members.

David Watson has just completed a gorgeous throne for Harold and Herodias O. P. May's hard at work on the balcony for the high priest. The signs by Frank Rayburn, of Hazard, are truly professional, and he furnished all the materials. An Egyptian harp by W. O. Goff is an eye-catcher. Thomas Patzsch offers to make some lamps. Vivian Short made her veils and even pieces of jewelry from her store. Margaret Peckle is going to have a party being called "for everyone" and has been making art objects of plywood, cardboard and tin cans. All you do to get in is bring a paintbrush. She plans to serve shingles to apply to all these things for future use. Bright idea!

Somebody asked why the Christian Church is not represented on the board. It has been from the start. W. J. Reynolds was their member. He was replaced by Dennis Taylor. Dennis Albert of the American Legion, resigned recently because someone objected to his not being a church member. If more Christians did half the work Mr. Albert has done in such a grand spirit, it would not have been needed. Fortunately, plenty all over the state can. Persons who think the plight of the state is due to lack of leaders are mistaken. You can find twenty-five first-rate leaders in any community in our country. But where are the followers? The required percentage is sometimes not hard. Prejudice, tradition, etc., prevent many, not always of progress. If the situation improves much in this generation a program of adult education may prove the only answer.

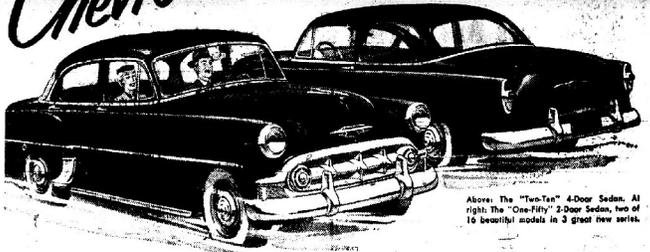

Another solution was made clear in The Times last week by Sylvia Perrell, of Ohio, formerly of Betsy Layne. In her letter to the editor she said Kentuckians will not stick together. If we do hope to achieve the Mountain Foundation Program we must view ourselves critically and do it gladly. If Kentucky were not educationally sick it would not be next to the foot in a class of forty-eight. No pneumonia patient ever recovered by saving the shoe was worn; that he did not have pneumonia in the first place. If we want Kentucky pulled out of the mire, we are going to have to have more humilitarians tell us what is wrong and why, and most of all WHAT to do about it and HOW. Moreover, we may have to stop pointing out the scintillating minds who have acquired Ph. D., Th. D., and Master's degrees, as if the mere fact in itself excuses us from further achievement or obligation. And luckily some folks in Kentucky do stick together. A prominent example of this is the Pecourt in Martin. It has its ups and downs but by one means or another, hard money is achieved. A majority of the Board actually believe it is wise to charge this year, since future development to any extent demands huge sums. But many oppose it. A commendable thing is the fact that there are no hard feelings. Everyone who disagrees does so agreeably.

A part of the agricultural extension program in every county in the state, there were 294 clubs the past year with an enrollment of 64,810 boys and girls. "BEAR" FACTS

By PAUL BRYANT U.K. Football Coach

A weekly column of opinion and personal observations on football and other sports topics of current interest by the successful mentor of University of Kentucky "Kentucky" Wildcats whose unique "Kentucky" recruiting policy has gained national-wide attention.

General R. B. Neyland's retirement from active coaching at Tennessee comes as no great surprise to those of us in the "trade." At 61, he has enjoyed an exceptionally full professional life. How many coaches can you think of in the "over 50" bracket who are still active in this hazardous profession? He alone still alive and kicking?

Ever wonder why there are so few? The fact is that a successful coach is not only a human being with great pride and competitive spirit, but also is subjected to the pressures of a unique public attention to his every plan and technique. The coach also realizes an obligation to both the individual athlete and his family, as well as to the institution he represents, and considers the success and welfare of each individual entrusted to his supervision as a personal project.

It has been said that the people of Kentucky are rejoicing because the General has retired. I hardly believe that—At least, you can count me out of such a group. He is one of football's truly great coaches and not only wish him a rapid recovery, but sincerely hope that he will be back in the "driver's seat" when the Vols come to Lexington in November and for many seasons to come.

And that's a "Bear" fact!

UNFORGETTABLE MOMENTS THAT

I'll never forget Emmel Allen (now a U. K. assistant) spinning 55 yards of Kentucky's end zone in the 1966 game with Concombs... Two days before the game, Emmel had managed to trip himself up as he ran off to school by spewing both ankles and we had planned that George Blanda (then a comparatively unknown sophomore) should do all of our kicking... Imagine how you'd have felt, with this secret knowledge, when the crippled Allen lined up in his customary kicking spot and managed, despite the sprained ankle, to boot us completely out of danger... That's what I wish in football and the game of life.

And that's a "Bear" fact!

UP GOES THE POWER OF EVERY BUICK—Special Super and Roadmaster!

It's more than pride that makes a man want a lot of horsepower beneath the hood of the car he owns. For the real point in reaching record horsepower and compression ratios goes beyond miles per hour. It steps up performance and economy in normal driving.

That's what Buick engineers did when they upped the power and compression of each 1953 Buick—SPECIAL, SUPER and ROADMASTER—to the highest figures in Buick's fifty-year history.

In the SUPER and ROADMASTER, they put a new kind of V8 Engine—first passenger-car V8 with 8.5 to 1 compression, and a long list of other major engineering advances.

For the SPECIAL, they redesigned the famed F-263 Fireball 8 Engine—gave it shorter flame travel, faster firing, higher horsepower and compression.

And to these spirited engines they coupled the new Twin-Turbine Dynaflow Drive* that adds flash-fast, quiet getaway to utter smoothness.

Just to give you an example of what all this means: The 1953 Buick SPECIAL with Dynaflow can beat the mighty 1952 ROADMASTER on getaway—can reach 30 mph (when the law allows) with a combined speed and jerk-free smoothness no other car can equal.

Of course, there's far more to these new Buicks for 1953—some seven dozen new features alone.

But why not come in and see for yourself that these are the greatest Buicks—and the greatest values—in fifty great years.

If You Remember . . .

He did not want to watch the TV enemy from rooftop and room and flushed them from every hiding place. The man's mother remembered that one of these men was Mrs. (She made a query who he noticed his head and continued to watch. The audience remembered, too. Suddenly a picture of a group of Americans climbing around the ledge of a Normandy beach appeared. He became quiet and intense.

The barriers near the beach appeared in the picture—the barb wire, the concrete structures and the steel beams the Germans thought would stop the landing craft. Some in the audience explained the things, told the purpose of the things at the water's edge.

The soldiers landed and moved inland. The veteran, standing near the doorway, watched silently. When the GIs entered a town and galled their heels in the room.
