On New Court Rules

Effective July 1st; Changes Explained

Prestonsburg attorneys who attended the briefing on the new rules of practice in civil actions, at Lexington, recently returned with at least a rudimentary knowledge of the new procedure.
The full changes in practice will not be known until the rules are published and furnished attorneys by the Court of Appeals March 15.
Attorneys: S. Clarke, W. W.
Burchett, Joe Hobson, Kline and Paul C. Conner and Robert S. Welman, all of the Floyd County bar, attended the Lexington conference.
Also attending were members of the Court of Appeals, John L. Davis, Lexington, who instructed the attorneys, along with Grant F.
Knuckles, Pineville, and Glenn Denham, Middletown.

Clarke released a statement to The Times this week clarifying for the general public the major changes in practice that are of interest to it follows:

"A great measure of the new rules of practice follows the federal code of practice. Designations of sections are changed from ordinary and equitable actions to complaint. In other words, there are to be no other designations are equitable and ordinary actions."

"The court is given more discretion under the new rules and has a greater burden of work. Since all civil actions are tried by the court, unless a jury trial is requested, at the time of filing, or, I believe, 10 days prior to the trial date, there will be more cases tried in open court by the court than formerly and less disposition work. Actions stand for trial or pending 30 days after service of summons."

"In strict, our court will be in continuous session in the same place after issues are made up the action stand for trial, whether there is a designated term at that particular time or not. The only trial term which we must designate as terms of court, will be the period when the court sets down jury cases for trial. This is left largely to the discretion of the court. You will see it will save a lot of unnecessary jury expense."

"The apex of appeal is greatly reduced in value. In fact, it is as well as in the Court of Appeals and will be greatly expedited."

"Another thing, the liberality in pleading removes a lot of technical procedure which saddle lawyers used to win cases rather than upon the merits of the case."

"The new rules are effective July 1."

MARTIN WINS NET TOURNAMENT

McDowell Is Runnerup At Wayland; 2 Teams In Regionals Tonight

Floyd county's two representatives in the regional net tournament at Pointsville, the Purple Plash, winner of the district tournament, and McDowell, the runner-up, will be their first action tonight. (Thursday) in making a regional champion to carry the hopes of the 18th region at the state tournament next week in Lexington.

Martin will play Betty and is regarded as the favorite in this encounter, but McDowell will play against a tough proposition in the form of the Pikeville high school Panther.

The regional net began Wednesday night with Baysville meeting at Springs and Meade Memorial pitted against the host school, Pointsville. There is no top-heavy favorite in the net.

Martin won the district tournament which ended Saturday night at Wayland with the greatest of ease. The Plash downed Lexington Maytown, 85 to 62; Betsy Layne, 85 to 68, and McDowell in the finals, 90-62.

The double McDowell team, the other hand, had no easy time of it in the way to the finals. Coach Ed Hall's boys defeated Prestonsburg, 42 to 22, before being held on even terms, were more than half the game, and in the semifinals Friday night contributed the largest upset of the tournament.

The all-tournament team named by the coaches of the 18 regions is composed of three Martin players, two from McDowell, and one each from Wayland, Prestonsburg, Betsy Layne, Wheelwright and Maytown. The honored 18 are:

Tackett, Clark and Frazier, of Martin; Tackett and D. Stumbo, of McDowell; Polly, of Wayland; D. Hughes, Prestonsburg; Wallen, Wheelwright; Caudill, Maytown and Wallace, of Betsy Layne.

Grady Wallace, of Betsy Layne, was high scorer of the tournament with 28 points in three games. Tackett, Martin's best scorer, was close behind with 25 points, and close behind him was another Tackett, that one McDowell's high-scoring forward.

Wallace won the foul shot flight with a near-perfect 27 out of 28 attempts. The sportsmanship trophy was awarded to Wayland by McDowell, Polly, of Wayland, D. Hughes, Prestonsburg; Wallen, Wheelwright; Caudill, Maytown and Wallace, of Betsy Layne.

The tournament, played Tuesday night at last week with a host of spectators, was a success. The championship trophy was won by Martin and McDowell, respectively, the first net trophy sportsmanship cup and miniature basketball to the all-tournament team and members of the championship and runner-up flow, were made by County Superintendent Virgil O. Turner.

The tournament, played Tuesday night at last week with a host of spectators, was a success. OH, BOY!

I got quite a kick out of a newspaper clipping sent me by The Paintsville Herald this week. The thrill came when I found that some other section of the grand old glorious Commonwealth is envious of us of the Big Sandy Coast!

This clipping was from the Cincinnati Enquirer, written by Bob Rankin in which Northern Kentucky sportsmen were wanting to know why in the Sam Hill there weren't any state parks in that state park at Prestonsburg. The boys up there seem a bit bitter about Conservation Director Henry Wadsworth's statement that this area is badly in need of a park.

They say all of the 48,000 people in Kenton and Campbell counties are in need of recreational areas. We don't include the Lookout House and other places of—er, diversion, and so we agree, they need recreation. But why jump on us? Kenton and Campbell counties have many the opportunity provided by urban areas. Chalmers is just across the river. They have their boat clubs and year-around sports. They may be shy on fishing, but we folks up here have done our part of creating a state park in the rather elusive bass.

When they begin telling how much money they spend and how much they pay, etcetera, etcetera, I quit thinking about sports and begin looking for a good reason. Ours, fellows, they're subject, we'll argue with you, year in and year out. And when we get through you'll either be laughing at our pitiful plight or you'll break down and enjoy a good cry.

As far as The Floyd County Times and the people of Eastern Kentucky are concerned, we would like to see any step if Northern Kentucky had one of two or even three state parks. When we hear of Kentucky's going to us when we think we have a chance to shake a little of our despair from us, we get riled up and ready for battle.

We'd be angry now, but we're so thrilled to have somebody envious of us. Gee!

STILL AN ENIGMA

The man who stood for every horror we Americans have of Communism is dead and buried, and we are not wondering how much more of an international ope, octopus or plain black assassin of humanity his successor will be.

For that matter, we are wondering how much of an ope Joe Stalin himself was. We were told that he was a cunning, crafty Oriental who would cut his own mother's throat to gain his personal objectives. Back when he was consorting with the late and unlamented Adolf Hitler, he had exterminated; how many he had banished to a living death in the wastes of Siberia; how he lay like a spider, waiting for his prey.

prey, and how every decent individual and principle on earth was threatened.

Then Hitler jumped Russia, and this guy Stalin was on our side and we read about another kind of this chameleon-like character. Lo, he turned noble! He was brave. He was masterful in his defense of his homeland against the Hun. He was the valor of the Spartans. He was our partner.

But Joe fell to low estate again after the war. As we saw him as a master puppeteer, pulling this string or that to make his subjects and satellites jump and to his bidding against the peace of the world.

What was this man Stalin? Saint or devil, or just a guy named Joe with a job to do?

We read in the newspapers this week of a 10-mile-long string of mourning Russians standing in line to pass his last. Last week we read of women and men praying before he died and weeping bitterly after his passing.

We read, too, of the heads of the major Russian churches—Jewish, Moslem, Baptist and Russian Orthodox—calling on their believers to pray for Stalin's recovery.

Did this man have qualities in which these churches believed? Or was the prayer that God spare Stalin "for the good of the Russian and all people" exacted on threat of reprisal if the church-people did not pray for the God leader? Do churches agonize to such threats and blasphemously call on God for something they neither want nor expect?

Mind you, we have no admiration for old Joe now—no more than we had before he got sick and died. We're not among those who are trying to find some good to inter with his bones. We want naught of this business of Communism.

But we would like to know the truth. We should like to know what is propaganda, what is truth and what is plain lies. The most enlightening of free writers—and which would make the greatest contribution to world peace, would be in one in which the whole story is laid bare, wherein all peoples could see each other and world politics as they actually are.

Maybe, somewhere between the lines, we might find peace.

CAR LOADINGS SHOW DECLINE

In Floyd Last Month, Alto Slight Gains Noted in Last Week

Although the last two weeks of February were wet periods in car loadings of coal by the operations associated by the Big Sandy-Kenton Coal Operators Association, there was a slight increase near the end of the month, data learned this week shows.

The second week of the month was the best in February, but was only slightly higher than the last week. A total of 4,205 cars of 30 tons each were loaded the second week, or to 2,520 the third week was recovered to 3,900 in the last week. Cars loaded in the first week were somewhat lower than the peak figures of the second week.

One thing that has fluctuated a great deal more than the total number of cars loaded is the number of men working a full week. Sixteen mines worked full time, the first week of February, but this figure dropped to four mines in the third week. The last week showed an increase to eight mines working five days.

The number of mines loading tonnage equal to the corresponding period of last year shows slight variation. Mines equaling or surpassing last year's tonnage for February were, for each week, P. T. 7 and 7 and in that week-order, Floyd county mines offering full schedule employment during the last week of February were Clear Branch Mining Company, Kathryn Elkhorn, Turner-Elkhorn and Sizemore Mining Company. Truck mine operations hit a low of one week-order, Feb. 14, only 100 cars of 30 tons each were loaded that week. The situation with these mines has improved until the last week of the month saw 37 cars loaded. But this loading leaves them with only 390 cars loaded this year as against 1,200 cars for the same period last year.

Captive mines belonging to the Association seem to be holding their own better than other mines. Still, their better production record cannot do much to overtake the 798,780 tons of coal lacking to equal the group's lag behind the corresponding period for last year.

SOIL CONSERVATION

By L. R. JOHNSON

Soil Conservation Service

Recent inspection shows Floyd county is becoming dry, yet some may ask, "Does it pay to tile wet soil?" You can decide that if you inspect some of last year's work. On Left, about where Scott's Prairie put in 500 feet of tile. Blackwater put in 620 feet and Gilbert Ray 310 feet. On Right, H. B. Patrick installed 1,125 feet of tile. Ramsey Greer, 224 feet; Gale Mott, 775 feet.

In the Sugar Loaf community Joe Wheeler Burdett used 500 feet of tile. Forrest Burdett used 500 feet. On Main Creek, Barrett Thompson used 220 feet of tile and Ben Maynard 525 feet.

Don't guess the lines have them staked in with a level.

Lunches Are Provided For 204,000 Children In Kentucky Schools

Frankfort, Ky., March 6 (Sp.)

The mid-day school lunch program in Kentucky benefited 204,000 school children for the last school year, more than three and a half times the number benefited in 1943-1944, when the program was started, the State Department of Education disclosed today. That year 56,000 children participated.

State Superintendent of Public Education, Wendell P. Butler, said the number of meals served last year was an increase of 314 per cent over the first year. The jump—up from 7,700,000 to 22,400,000. This percentage of meals with milk last year was 15 per cent.

A lunch complete with milk, known as Type A, is one which provides from a third to a half of a child's daily nutritional needs.

Butler estimated the cost of the school lunch program in Kentucky last year at $10,100,000, of which about $3,000,000 came from the federal government, in the form of either cash or commodities. State and local governments and private groups provided $800,000 and $6,000,000 came from parents of participating children.

Kentucky has exceeded its minimum matching fund requirements by a good margin for several years, Butler reported.

The fiscal year 1949-1950 was the first year in which federal cash assistance became available to the state for the school lunch program, though it had provided support and assistance since 1945.

HEALTH NOTES

DR. MARVIN RANDALL

INFLUENZA

"What's that you say about influenza? It's sweeping the country this year?"

Those are Kentuckians conversing about a leading topic these days. Here are some tips, not idle rumors but basic, good-sense facts on how to try to prevent influenza reaching your family.

G. R. Jones, M.D., Director of the Division of Preventive Medicine, Kentucky State Department of Health states that influenza, or the flu, is caused by a virus, a very small but highly infectious germ. It passes right through the air from the noses and throats of other flu victims. So be wise:

(1) Stay out of crowds. Flu goes from one community to another. It spreads rapidly. Don't try to contact the virus.

(2) Avoid direct contact with anyone who sneezes or coughs suddenly.

(3) Build up your body resistance by eating properly. Eat those foods that make you strong. Perhaps you can counteract any flu germs that enter your direction.

(4) Avoid chilling the body. Be careful of sudden weather changes. Stay out of drafts.

(5) Wear, outside clothing that's warm and dry. Bundle for the breeze.

(6) Get enough sleep. Rest. Don't overdo when you are tired.

(7) Exercise, and inhale a little pop-ping fresh air. Influenza in itself is not dangerous but it opens the channels for more serious complications," added Dr. Jones. It is strengthening, it weakens. If influenza becomes an unwelcome visitor to your home, call your family physician, go to bed and rest until he says you are again well.

Centre's Phi Delta chapter is the second oldest in the nation.

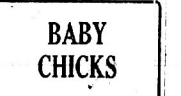

CARD OF THANKS

The family of James S. Cook, of Lancer, wishes to extend to all of their friends sincere thanks and appreciation for their visits to the home, sending of flowers and valuable assistance rendered. Without this sympathetic assistance the family's hours of grief would have been hard to bear. The beautiful flowers, with the fine arrangements, contributed to make a wonderful expression of respect and devotion to "Jim" by his friends. Such display of respect and devotion had a most comforting effect upon his family.

To our friends whom we have not been able to personally contact we express our heartfelt thanks. To Rev. Shapard and Rev. Adam O'Connor, we appreciate your spiritual advice and sympathy, and the efficient and sympathetic services of the Turner Funeral Home have been extended as the best of friends.

CLUBS D'ARTS MEETING

"Bessy Layne" Women's Club held its regular sewing meeting, Feb. 26, at the home of Mrs. Edward Lykins. The afternoon was spent working on items for sale to raise necessary funds for proposed club work. A quilt top to be sold was outlined for that project.

At the close of the sewing session, the Fine Arts objectives of the General Federation of Women's Clubs were presented. Among these were: The program of the Art division to promote art activities in communities, art classes for adults, art exhibits, and to encourage art in schools. The music division seeks to promote a better knowledge and greater appreciation of American music. The drama division encourages club members to enter the play-writing contests. The Fine Arts chairman also brought out the fact that the general theme of the Fine Arts department is to study the American heritage in arts, and as an illustration a group of pictures, "Landmarks in American Painting," was presented. This group of pictures covered the period 1670 through 1890 and it was noted that in art, as in other phases of life, America has been a melting pot.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames O. J. Williams, T. J. Chandler, Beecher Hardwick, Glenn Blackburn, Mrs. Alice Williams, the hostess, Mrs. Lillian and guest, Mrs. Clyde Blackburn, Lancer, Ky.

growing in Pike county: County

Agent H. F. Dewey, Home Agent

Sally A. Newell, Production and business concerns.

An insurance company and frost-proof bank will provide plants and take their pay after strawberry harvest in 1954. At first, berries will be grown for local sales and home use.

Farmers reporting on berry growing last year include Fred Cox, whose tenth-acre returned $249, and Jack Flannery, who sold 1460 worth of strawberries from an eighth of an acre.

W. W. Magill, fruit specialist for the U.K. College of Agriculture and Home Economics, assisted in launching the strawberry program in Pike county. He advised new growers to try plots of 5000 feet up to an acre. Tennessee Beauty and Blenheim were recommended varieties.

BEAR FACTS
By PAUL (Bear) BRYANT
U.K. Football Coach
Lexington, Ky.—Michigan State's most-publicized troubles with the Big 10 over the University of an alumni leader QED to finance widespread recruiting of athletes brought up an interesting point.
Such leader organizations are a "must" for those schools which secure the country in search of athletic talent. Most prospects insist on having their expenses paid and want to travel first class. At least that is true in the case of about 20 Kentucky boys who have been lured out of their homes within the last few weeks.
No intention is intended that these schools are violating the letter of NCAA rules prohibiting schools from directly paying for a prospective athlete's visit, but it is very probable that the spirit of the rules is being broken by allowing booster clubs to "pay the freight" and that's wrong.
Let me assure you that no organization of this type exists in the interest of the University of Kentucky's program. We find no need of such an assistance group since we have demonstrated all recruiting outside the state of Kentucky.
It is our belief that this "Kentucky first" program is the sanest and soundest in football today.

PUNTS AND PASSES
When football styles get back to the "rugged individualist" era next fall, you'll want to keep an eye on a lot of good Kentuckians as they come into their own. In the veteran category, check the performance of Sonny's Ray Cowell as guard. He's been overlooked except when he was named to the all-time Cotton Bowl team. Among the youngsters, which for tough Duke Circumstances, another top-flight guard who promises to give Ashland a good reputation in Kentucky football. His younger brother, Brian, will enroll at U.K. in September.

ATLANTA — Georgia's lawmakers backed off from creating a new word. The House of Representatives had voted to make "and/or" a legal substitute for "and" and similar phrases. Let the Senate balked. The senators voted to postpone the issue till indefinitely.

HALE ANNOUNCES FOR CO. CLERK

For three terms, I have been selected by the citizens of the 1st and 2nd Magisterial Districts to serve Floyd county as one of its Representatives in the state legislature. Although the office of State Representative offers no financial gain for the strenuous and nerve wracking service one performs, and although my best efforts are often misunderstood, I can say at a clear conscience that at all times I did my very best.

There is no one in public life whose record is more fully recorded or more open to the public than that of a member of the legislature. The record will reveal that while I served in this position my action and votes were at all times governed only by my sincere belief in the needs and further the progress of Floyd county and its people. In performing my duty in this manner, I have never been controlled or influenced in my actions by any person or group of persons seeking their own selfish interests to the detriment of the people of Floyd county.

I feel that it is this record of service, and the honesty and integrity in the performance of my duties, which has endeared me to the people of Floyd county.

I, W. M. Turner, would like to announce myself as a candidate for CLERK OF FLOYD COUNTY on the Democratic ticket.

I am 70 years old and have lived on a farm in this county most of my life. This is the first time I have ever asked for an office in this county and I would like for the voters to come forward this election. Your votes will be highly appreciated.

Most sincerely your friend,
W. M. TURNER

Wins Century Club Award for Victories

Chicago—Coach John D. Campbell, of Wayland high school, has been named an award winner and member of Sports Trail Country Club for his record of 123 victories in basketball.

The honorary organization is open to any college or high school coach whose athletic teams have won 100 or more contests in any sport.

William Matthel, coach at Bayview high school, Milwaukee, received the first award. He qualified by coaching cross country teams that had won more than a total of 100 meets.

Matthel originally suggested the idea of a country club in a letter to Sports Trail, a monthly newsletter edited by Arch Ward, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, and published by the Bille-Web Co.

It was Matthel's hope that perhaps some unknown coach who had done an outstanding job in school sports might get a justly deserved break from this type of recognition.

The Century Club award, a framed certificate, is presented to a qualified coach whose record is submitted to Sports Trail in care of Bille-Web Co., 310 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago 6, Illinois.

Former P'burg Net Star's Scintillating Performance Noted by Sports Writer

Charles Pike, the former Prestonsburg high school basketball star, played his Miami (Fla.) high school net team to the city championship and an undefeated season recently.

His performance against Bolton high which Miami high clinched the title with an undefeated season when the city was featured in the Miami Herald.

Besides scoring 21 points, Pike played a scintillating floor game, both offensively and defensively, and sparked his team to victory after it had lost two of its stand-out performers on bulls.

His loss to the Prestonsburg team last year was a severe blow to basketball hopes here.

Wilkinson Is Chairman Of Easter Seal Campaign

Chairman of the 1953 Easter Seal campaign in Floyd county will be H. M. Wilkinson, Jr. It was announced last week by State Chairman, Briggs Lawson.

The campaign, which began today (Thursday) to continue through April 3, will raise money to provide medical care and other needed services for crippled children throughout Kentucky.

The campaign, Mr. Lawson said, will be conducted largely through mailing of Easter Seals, but additional means of raising money will be devised in most communities. No definite goal has been set for money to be raised in the state as a whole or for any county, the chairman pointed out. But the Kentucky Society for Crippled Children, this state's Easter Seal Society, already is committed to a service program expected to cost about $115,000 during the next fiscal year.

4 MEETINGS ARE SLATED

Town Hall Gatherings Of Industrial Group Held This Week

The recently organized Eastern Kentucky Industrial Foundation, Inc., comprised of 14 counties in this section of the state, has initiated a series of Town Hall meetings in each of the member-counties for the purpose of informing business people of its plans to develop industrial growth in the area.

The first of these county-wide Town Hall meetings was held at Pikeville, March 9, in the circuit courtroom at 7:30 a.m. Three additional county meetings were scheduled for this week, with one at Salyersville on March 10, at Vanceburg on March 11 and at Grayson on March 12th. Other meetings are now being set up for the following weeks and will be continued until a Town Hall meeting is held in each of the counties.

A Town Hall meeting in Prestonsburg, March 25 is being planned, but the date has not been definitely set. A. Joe Asher, executive director of the Foundation, said.

Cooperating with and assisting the new organization in these meetings was a representative from the Kentucky Office of Commerce and one from the Agricultural and Industrial Development Board, a state agency at Frankfort.

Each Town Hall meeting is being patterned after the first which was held at Ashland, November 21, at which more than 450 persons heard Gov. Lawrence Wetherby pledge the full cooperation of his administration to aid Eastern Kentucky and also heard testimonials read from both Kentucky U. S. Senators pleading their support of plans for aid to our section. There was a short period of discussion upon assigned topics by representatives of these organizations and also by a member of the new Foundation, and these talks were followed by a panel session with questions presented to these taking part in the program by the audience.

No solicitation of funds was to be made at any of these meetings and no membership campaign will be conducted. Each Town Hall meeting is devoted entirely to a discussion of such county area problems and what may be done to answer them.

GRUBBS — Mrs. Fred Truckett and family, Augustine Hall, Made and Proule Hamilton were visiting in Ashland, Friday.
