PERKINS HITS FUND-CUTTING

At Coal-to-Oil Plants; Asks Operating Funds For Year Be Restored

Washington, April 27 - Representative Perkins took another offensive at the House today when he introduced a bill to restore the coal-to-oil plants at Louisiana, Mo.

The Hindman, Ky., Democrat addressed the House in favor of an amendment offered by Representative Cannon (D. Mo.) which would restore the annual $2,000,000 operating funds for the plants.

Perkins charged two weeks ago that McKay, in ordering the plants closed, was making a "double pay-off" for campaign contributions from the oil lobby and the chemical industry.

Perkins said the Interior Department plans to put the plants on a standby basis pending sale to private companies.

He said the Department had reported to the House Appropriations Committee that the coal-to-oil process has been improved so that cost of production is within a few cents of prevailing costs of selling gasoline and other products from petroleum.

"You will note that this has been urged as a reason for discontinuing Government research program and to let private industry take over the studies when and if they are ready," Perkins declared.

"But why stop at this point? Since these scientists have greatly reduced costs, isn't it possible that if they go on they may be able to cut these costs more?"

Perkins said he could see why the oil companies would like the Government research halted, but he doubted they would stop a program that would benefit all of the people.

Perkins said that there are other competing new ways of producing research into synthetic fuels from coal rather than stopping it. He said cost was not the main reason for closing the plants.

"By continuing this program, we may soon make economic and convenient energy fuel available at all times," Perkins said.

"This program is a long-range program that the one now before us does not take into account," Perkins said.

Perkins recalled that it was only last term Congress had authorized General investigation of foreign supplies by perfecting coal-to-oil liquid fuel processes that are available to all," Perkins said.

If allowed, the program would be a major step in the development of a new energy source, which our petroleum industry is opposed to the task," Perkins said.

Perkins said that the Committee also is accepting their research program.

These Roads Are Our Job

WHATSOEVER THE U. S. Corps of Engineers may be blamed for, the access roads built to various parts of Deyve Lake cannot be entered on the bill of complaints. When the Engineers got this job off their hands and contrived to get Floyd County to accept the responsibility for the construction and maintenance of these roads, they drove a hard bargain.

How hard a bargain it is becomes increasingly evident each year as the access roads rot off at the shoulders and become more and more hazardous. The government saved itself the cost of construction and has no regrets about upkeep.

Since the roads are ours, the county should, and surely will, make an honest effort to keep access roads open and in such condition that they will not be a hazard to the thousands who drive over them. These points in many places overlook the lake, and if they were broad and smooth there would remain the hazard arising from the attraction of water to the motorist. Attention of the driver is often diverted to the lake.

The roads should be made wide enough to admit of parking for two cars to pass with feet to spare.

These roads are specially mentioned when perhaps a score of others need improving as badly, because of the week-end traffic they accommodate and because of the one traffic tragedy and many near-tragedies which have occurred there.

FOR COUNTY CLERK

I, Hazel Dameron George, want to be your County Clerk. Most of my life I have been a member of the U. S. Army.

Three years ago, I decided I would run for the office this time. I have been a member of the U. S. Army for 22 years and I would go to my husband who was stationed in Florida with the navy.

Since then he has been with the navy and it seems impossible for the children and me to go with him now. Therefore my thoughts turn to the office of clerk.

I have my A.B. college degree and sincerely believe I can take care of the office effectively. I wish to serve you people as I have served your boys and girls.

If for some reason, I cannot see each of you personally, your support will be greatly appreciated.

Layne bond will be called as of Sept. 10, this year.

"Naturally, we would have liked for our local contractors to have had all this work, but we could not in honesty and good faith with the people do anything other than what was done." Superintendent Turner said in a discussion of the work awards.

"We must get the greatest amount of service for the smallest outlay of money."

The bid of Chas. H. Hagen, Huntington, was second to Henry's on the building contract with an offer of $41,450, and that of R. C. Dyer, of Allen, was third at $41,287.50.

On plumbing, Dyer was selected to Henry with a bid of $44,628. Henry's bid contained a stipulation that the firm would deduct $621.24 from the total if it was the successful bidder on both the heating and plumbing.

Some complaints were registered because Henry's bid was not signed when opened. It was pointed out, however, that the bond covering the bids and attached to them was signed and that a representative of the firm immediately signed the bid itself in the presence of the court.

"Contracts as awarded cover construction, wiring, changing hot water without change in the plans as submitted to the competing bidders. If any changes are made later, they will be made by Henry's office, assisted by the Superintendent of Public Instruction."

EVENT FOR EAST KENTUCKY - Eastern Kentucky Day, May 4, will climax the Ashland Javaz Festival. The show at the National Guard Armory at 10 a.m. will be held Saturday morning.

Due to mild weather, cattle in Henry county came through the winter in fair condition on third-class hay and little grain.

TIMES WANT ADS PAY - TRY THEM TODAY!

JOE H. COOLEY Democratic Candidate for SHERIFF of Floyd County

At the outset I shall give you a platform upon which I intend to conduct my campaign. If elected, it will then serve as a bond between me and the people.

- 1. My administration will be orderly and realistic. Efficient and honest operation of the office will mean the difference between a crime wave and isolated incidents of law violation.
2. I will select deputies that will be a credit to a great county, who will execute their duties impartially and efficiently.
3. I will cooperate in every possible way with the school authorities so as to promote a better school system.
4. I pledge cooperation with the city police forces of the Floyd county towns, the city councils and the citizens.
5. A statement of taxes collected, of expenses and disbursements will be made, sworn to and published.
6. No chance of 70 per cent will be made for the serving of court papers. No illegal collection of fees will be exacted but only the fees set out on the statute books as being legal.

In the cause of honesty in government I make this proposal: I will let the legal arrangements be worked out, turn into the Fiscal Court of the County Treasurer (whichever may be designated) ALL fees, commissions or other earnings of the Sheriff's office, and let the County pay me the flat $7,000 constitutional salary allowed the Sheriff, plus deputies' salaries and legal expenses of the office. Let's Rid Ourselves Of This Pernicious Fee System!

Barba, Lone Student From County To Win

Bill Baker Barba, Prestonsburg high school junior, was the only Floyd county high school musician and one of the two from the Big Bendy valley, who won a superior rating last week at the State Music Festival held in Lexington. The Prestonsburg student, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Barba, won honors with his Lantana horn solo. Earlier this year, he won the district Woman's Club scholarship for the Dyrham Music Camp in Illinois.

What appeared, originally, to be a rather liberal rule with reference to the taxpayers' right to maintain the action, without making a demand, where the taxpayers claim the demand would be futile, has, in the very recent cases been narrowed and is now somewhat restricted. Under the most recent cases the rule has been announced by the Court of Appeals that as to the primary duty of the fiscal court to manage the county's affairs and to bring all suits on behalf of the county, an individual has no standing to bring the suit on behalf of the county until there has been a demand and a refusal by those whose primary duty it is to bring the action, but that the exception to this rule is where it would be futile to make a demand and under such circumstances no demand will be required. The Court of Appeals recognizes the fact that to hold otherwise would seriously hamper fiscal courts in their duty of managing the county's affairs.

One of the most recent cases is that of Bennett v. Whitley County, 24 S.W. 2d 457, decided on Oct. 10, 1947, wherein the court took note of the fact that the members of the fiscal court, at the time the alleged payments by the taxpayers, were in office at the time the alleged payments were voted in October, 1947, the action being brought in October, 1947. In reversing the judgment of the Whitley circuit court for failing to sustain a special demurrer to the petition because there were no allegations to excuse the failure to make a demand on the fiscal court, the court said: "There is no allegation that the members of the fiscal court, or members of them in office at the time the action was brought, were the same as those in office at the time the alleged payments were voted, although perhaps it would be assumed that the members who voted the payment in October, 1947, was still in office when the action was brought in 1948. With respect to the latter payment, there was no allegation that the members of the fiscal court knew they were voting illegally or that their action was deliberately wrongful."

Administrators' Notice Administration has been granted by the Floyd County Court on the following estates, and all persons having claims against these estates should file same, proven according to law, with the administrators whose names and addresses are here listed on or before August 1, 1953: Susie Crayner, Weebury, Ky., admx. estate of Millard Crayner; Jose Prater, Bonanza, Ky., admx. estate of T. Barba, Lone Student From County To Win

Bill Baker Barba, Prestonsburg high school junior, was the only Floyd county high school musician and one of the two from the Big Bendy valley, who won a superior rating last week at the State Music Festival held in Lexington. The Prestonsburg student, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Barba, won honors with his Lantana horn solo. Earlier this year, he won the district Woman's Club scholarship for the Dyrham Music Camp in Illinois.

What appeared, originally, to be a rather liberal rule with reference to the taxpayers' right to maintain the action, without making a demand, where the taxpayers claim the demand would be futile, has, in the very recent cases been narrowed and is now somewhat restricted. Under the most recent cases the rule has been announced by the Court of Appeals that as to the primary duty of the fiscal court to manage the county's affairs and to bring all suits on behalf of the county, an individual has no standing to bring the suit on behalf of the county until there has been a demand and a refusal by those whose primary duty it is to bring the action, but that the exception to this rule is where it would be futile to make a demand and under such circumstances no demand will be required. The Court of Appeals recognizes the fact that to hold otherwise would seriously hamper fiscal courts in their duty of managing the county's affairs.

One of the most recent cases is that of Bennett v. Whitley County, 24 S.W. 2d 457, decided on Oct. 10, 1947, wherein the court took note of the fact that the members of the fiscal court, at the time the alleged payments by the taxpayers, were in office at the time the alleged payments were voted in October, 1947, the action being brought in October, 1947. In reversing the judgment of the Whitley circuit court for failing to sustain a special demurrer to the petition because there were no allegations to excuse the failure to make a demand on the fiscal court, the court said: "There is no allegation that the members of the fiscal court, or members of them in office at the time the action was brought, were the same as those in office at the time the alleged payments were voted, although perhaps it would be assumed that the members who voted the payment in October, 1947, was still in office when the action was brought in 1948. With respect to the latter payment, there was no allegation that the members of the fiscal court knew they were voting illegally or that their action was deliberately wrongful."

DMW Trial Set Ahead For June 1; Probers Hear Wetherby Testimony

Trial of 19 Pike and Letcher county mine workers charged with using threats as a means of organizing non-union miners in Virginia was continued in U. S. district court at Pikeville, Monday, until June 1.

At the same time a federal grand jury in Lexington heard Governor Lawrence W. Wetherby and other prominent men in its investigation of labor-operator troubles in Clay and Letcher counties.

The grand jury about half an hour before the trial heard testimony from Charles P. Osham, of the Kentucky State Police.

The jury returned its inquiry Monday afternoon, the most recent. It is expected to hear 30 or more witnesses before it completes its work and reports to Federal Judge W. C. H. Miller, presiding.

Among the other witnesses Monday, were John Ed Pearce, editorial writer for The Courier-Journal; State Police Detective E. L. Cleveland; and U. D. Byrnes, Hazard, a former State mine inspector and now general manager of the Woodcock Coal Company.

The jury inquiry was ordered by U. S. Department of Justice after numerous reports of violations in the area. The jury heard close to 150 witnesses in three weeks of investigation.

All evidence Judge Mac Swinford said the case which had been scheduled for the term opening Monday after a jury failed to reach a verdict last January, completed in calling witnesses and charges in schedules of attorneys were given as reasons for the continuance.

Eight of the defendants are from Pike county, four from Letcher. The charge against 19th U.M.W. members was dropped last year. The men were accused of intimidating a group of unorganized Virginia miners on a mountain along the Kentucky-Tennessee border May 16, 1946.

PRICE SLATED AS SPEAKER AT AMERICAN MINING MEET

Officials of coal-producing companies from Kentucky will address the 1953 Coal Convention and Exposition of the American Mining Congress at Cleveland, Ohio, May 11-14.

This meeting will feature discussions of all phases of coal mine operation with a view to achieving constantly greater efficiency and safety and in lowering production costs to improve coal's competitive position in the fuel and energy market.

Slated for consideration at this meeting, which will attract more than 10,000 mining men from all parts of the United States, are such subjects as the latest developments in mechanical mining, progress in mine safety, present trends in coal strip mine operation, labor relations in the anthracite industry, stream sanitation problems in the Ohio River valley, bolt and rail salvage.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS
The Allen-Martin Woman's Club met April 30, with Mrs. Marie Martin as hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Virginia Short.

Mrs. T. J. Allen led a round table discussion on "Safety." The importance of this topic was emphasized by the fact that more Americans died in traffic accidents the past year than ever before, when more than 40,000 pedestrians were killed just stepping from behind parked cars. Driving carefully and observing all the rules of traffic were stressed.

Members of the club furnished the food and Mrs. Stambaugh, mother of the club president, prepared a dinner for the doctors and nurses when the Bloodmobile unit visited Martin, Tuesday. A rummage sale is being planned for May 9.

GROUPS BACK TAX ON SALES

Poll of Committees Shows They Prefer Sales Tax Method
Kentucky politicians who have shunned the subject of income tax may be flying away from just what the people want.
Folia of members of the Advisory Committee on Education Policy at meetings in Prestonsburg and Martin have resulted in a unanimous vote for a sales tax as a means of raising needed funds to improve education in Kentucky.
These committee members, civic leaders but representing no particular profession or trade group, preferred the sales tax to any other money-raising method of taxation. Among the methods suggested for the sales tax were increases in excise, state income, and state and local property taxes.
A deeper study of Floyd county sentiment on the subject of income tax was made through the various clubs, it was said this week.
Since the days of Gov. Ruby Luffton and his state sales tax, every state administration and assembly to the Governorship has shunned the sales tax question. It has been reported here recently, however, that former Governor and U. S. Senator A. B. "Happy" Chandler is considering a sales tax, no income tax platform in next year's gubernatorial race.

Youth Evangelism Movement Launched In High School Here

The spreading Youth Evangelism Movement has gained a strong foothold in Prestonsburg high school and pupils of the school began last Monday their own morning devotions to precede the day's classroom work.
The movement grew out of a meeting held at the school during March. At this meeting a group of high school students gave enlightening answers to such questions as: "Why do I go to church?" "Do you think parents should force children to go to church?" "Do you think that moral character is enough to make a rich, full life?" and "What is a Christian?"
Conducted wholly by pupils of the school, and with adults appearing only as visitor-worshippers, the devotional are held for 15 minutes, beginning at 8:15 a.m. Attendance is purely on a voluntary basis. Fourteen students attended Monday's initial devotional.
Freshmen have their classes at the grade school, but City School Superintendent Chester Frazer has noted that they will be regarded as tardy if belated arrival at school results from attending the devotions each morning at the high school.

HOG URGES MEN UPWARD

A recent hog-trade between Glenn Burchett and Jack Moeley, up on the creek, got more people up in the air than anything that has happened in a long while.
This particular porker, you see, was wild and long past their transfixing eyes over to be earthbound as they shrank up, tree, never stopping for a long breath till they had a hree' long over a limb well beyond reach of the porcine pursuer.
This hog Burchett sold to Moeley started off by hitting the man who delivered it to the new owner; but Moeley wasn't convinced it was wild till he attempted to feed it and the hog took off, almost running him down in the process of departure. Thereafter, he kept long hours hunting the hog, seeking to lure it home, even attempting to feed it a Mickey Finn consisting of corn treated with a sleeping poison. But the critter eluded him to make dog work for home and freestone it dispersed hunting groups like quail during for cover.
Finally, despairing of ever capturing the animal alive, Moeley organized hunters for the kill. He was tired of climbing trees, 12' had plenty of hunters. They had a grudge against the hog, too; they were tired of climbing trees.
We regret we were not there with a camera while all these mad citizens were playing unwilling tag. But on second thought, I doubt if I regret it so keenly. I'm certain I could climb a tree with a camera in my hand.

Portsmouth, where Lemaster picked up a 20 caliber target pistol he had hidden there.
They then drove to Oak Hill, Butler, where Lemaster, in the car, while the others entered Dutch's Restaurant, bought coffee, then at gunpoint, took approximately $100 from Andrew Armstrong, the proprietor. Some eight patrol, all women, were in the place at the time.
The handle sped off toward Iron. Sergeant Russell, alerted by police radio, drove from fronton toward Oak Hill and intercepted the car at Pedro. He turned around and gave chase. Between six and 10 shots were fired from the car at him. At Reola, the car turned off State Route 73 onto State Route 141, then crashed over an embankment at Aid.
State Highway Patrol Sergeant L. L. Russell was fired on and Patrolman Bob E. Trukey of Chiles' outfit was injured when his car went over an embankment near Ohio Route 73 during the chase. The runaway car, officers said, went over an embankment at Aid, Lawrence county. Two of the suspects were captured near the car while at a struggle. The other three were found later in the heavy brush area nearby.
IMPROVING FROM ILLNESS
John Brancham, of the Auker road, has been very ill. He is in the Pulpinville hospital under the care of Dr. Paul B. Hall and is showing improvement.

NEWS & NOTES

By ROGER TURNER
Did you folks catch the recent news release concerning a mid-western judge, age 76, running for re-election? It seems the good judge, a scintilla septuagenarian, was nettled by critics who questioned his worth on the grounds of infirmity. Among other things the judge offered to don boxing gloves and step a few fast rounds with his critics. This could lead to something!
If this vote-getting approach should catch on, future years will see our office-seekers sharpening up their tuming, developing a potent left hook and learning to ride with the punch. Candidates opposed might be measured by the sportscast tin ear and the biggest gob of spay tissue over the eyes. Actually, folks, we're only kidding; we have nothing but a lot of admiration for a youngster of 76 who doubtless has the cumption to actually get at through the ropes and prove that a citizen who has knocked about for three quarters of a century is still able to carry his own weight. More power to him!
We earnestly hope that you can move under your own power, but if you do require ambulance service, you may phone 3422 at any time of day or night. We are yours to command, at the Turner Funeral Home.

 HENRY HOWARD
 4-23-53

TO THE CITIZENS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

I am in the race for COUNTY JUDGE to win and I expect to cover the county before the election. I hope I can talk to every voter and explain my plans and policy, giving each of you an honest, straightforward view of my intentions. I will not be making wild promises which I do not intend to try to fulfill. I realize that my opposition has in the past, and will from now until election day, make you promises which are impossible to fulfill. I ask you to judge those promises from what has been done in the past. The county road machinery has suddenly quickened its pace and the election will be over roads that it has not touched in four years. There will be promises that certain roads will be started just any day.

Sincerely,
JARVIS ALLEN

The men and women of Southern Bell have the skill to do the big job of furnishing more and better telephone service to the growing South. But it takes more than skill.

The millions of dollars required and used for constructing buildings and lines and installing central office equipment must come from investments—people who put their money into the telephone business with the expectation of a reasonable return.

This is why it is so important that earnings of some Telephone Company be kept at a high level.

COUNTY ATTORNEY

THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY

Since announcing for the office of County Clerk on the Democratic ticket some few weeks ago, my wife and I have visited practically every precinct in the county. From what the voters have told me, I feel more and more confident that I can win this race.

Already my opposition has, for lack of better campaign material, attempted to smear and undermine the favor I have with the voters by telling people that I am not an independent candidate but am being run in this race by particular persons or special interest groups.

At the very outset, I want to assure each and everyone of you that my candidacy is an independent one. I am thirty-three years of age, married and have two children. I believe that you can easily believe that I am capable of making up my own mind and of running my own campaign.

If any of my opponents who are circulating this rumor would take the trouble to check my record during the three terms I have served in this county in the State Legislature, they would find that my record has been independent. My voting record has been established by looking directly at each Bill and determining whether or not it would serve the best interests of the people of Floyd County.

State Has 150,000 To Fill Factory Jobs

Kentucky has a current potential labor supply of more than 150,000 workers who would accept factory jobs if available, according to a study of the Bureau of Employment Service of the Department of Economic Security.

"Kentucky remains a state with more potential industrial workers than jobs, despite sharp employment gains during the last few years," L. P. Jones, director of the service, said. "Total non-agricultural unemployment was 611,000 last September (the last month for which this is available)—compared with 590,000 in September 1951 and 561,000 in September 1948—previous records for comparable months.

The potential labor supply in Kentucky is seen as a great aid to the drive now being launched by the State Agricultural and Industrial Board and the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce for more industry in Kentucky.

"Before large investments are made in plant expansion, industrial workers are available to man the new facilities," Jones said.

representative last year was Willis Dean Frasier. Miss Frasier spoke many times on her week at Girls State with the Unit members as well as the Junior Class. She was most especially when the Garrett Unit entertained the Martin Unit to a luncheon. She reported an attendance of 158 girls representing every district of Kentucky.

Members present at this meeting were Roberta Sloan, Ellen Horvath, Helen Scott, Della Goshart, Bernice and Edna Coaley, Patty Collins and Virginia Draughn.

Pike County To Vote On Legalized Liquor; Tentative Date Set

Pikeville, Ky. — Local-option elections have been tentatively set for June 27 in Pikeville and rural Pike county.

Separate petitions asking a vote on the question of alcohol-beverage sales were filed Saturday with County Court Clerk Beale Riddle. One-hundred and thirty-five, about 8,200 voters living outside the corporate limits of Pikeville and Elkhorn City, Pike's only two cities. The other bore about 200 signatures of Pikeville residents.

Elkhorn City is the only wet area in the county. Residents there voted April 11 to retain the sale of whiskey, beer and wine.

The law says that local-option petitions must bear the signatures of 25 per cent of the total vote in the last general election. That total in Pike county last November was 24,000. The total number of names by the law petitions would be about 39 per cent of that.

Pike county last voted on the local-option question on a county-wide basis October 4, 1947. Prohibition forces won then by 910 votes. The petitions filed—and the election will be subject to approval by the County Judge.

GARRETT

LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS

The George S. Owsley Unit 254 of the American Legion Auxiliary, Frankfort, Ky. held its regular meeting at the Post home in Garrett, Wednesday, night.

The regular meetings are the first and third Wednesdays of each month and it was decided at this meeting that the unit meet in members' homes instead of the Post home. The next meeting will be at the home of the Unit president, Mrs. Roberta Egan, Wednesday, May 6. At this meeting the members will organize their program for Forty Day, May 23.

A film of the activities of junior girls on the U.K. campus was shown. Each year Girls from all over Kentucky send many girls from the Junior class to Girls State. The girls represent the Unit are selected by the Unit's girls state chairman, the school principals and teachers and by popular vote of the junior class.

Representatives of the unit are character, leadership, courage, honesty, ability to get along with others, a scholastic standing in the upper third of her class, have good health and be able to take back to her community the interest and sense of responsibility in government which it is expected she will gain.

The Girls State film in color took the viewers through each phase of the week-long Girls State activities from registration to Frankfort where the girls were actually allowed to elect their own Government—organize, debate and vote bills on the girls' agenda.

The film was shown to the Junior class of the Garrett high school. The narrator was Miss Bessie Conley, Garrett Unit plans to continue to show this film this year. Their report will be in the next issue.

MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN FLASH!

FORD BEATS ALL IN ECONOMY!

MILEAGE MAKER "6" WINS SWEEPSTAKES!

Save a Amazing victory for Ford's dollar-saving gas economy! Ford's high-compression Mileage Maker "6" with Overdrive beat every car entered in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run, regardless of size or weight, to sweep the sweepstakes! Ford's winning average was 56.70 ton-miles per gallon.* And Ford's high-compression 110-h.p. Strato-Star V-8 with Overdrive was right up there in economy, too, with a record of 48.55 ton-miles per gallon!

The winning Ford was a regular production car, just like thousands of other '53 Fords you see on the road today. This 1,206-mile trip from Los Angeles to San Valley covered all types of driving conditions. The route threaded through city traffic, where stop-and-go driving tests an engine's fuel economy under the toughest conditions... and out along the highways of four western states.

The Ford Mileage Maker "6" took all this in stride, maintaining a speed above the required 44.25 m.p.h. minimum, to finish last in the class of all! What better way to show why Ford is worth more when you buy it... worth more when you sell it!

See... Value Check... Test Drive the WINNER

TO THE PEOPLE OF FLOYD COUNTY:

Since my recent announcement for the office of County Attorney on the Democratic ticket I have received from friends in all parts of the county voluntary pledges of loyalty and support which are more heartening to me than at any other time in my life.

Most of you who know me well can readily understand why such encouragement means so much to me now. You know out of your own experience that, some time in the lives of us all, we reach a crossroads and that if we are not wise and thoughtful at that very moment the time will come when we will have to fight our way back to the point where we should be.

Such a fight I have for many months waged. It is a fight for the big job ahead. I know you are all hard at work. I have never despaired, and one of my greatest sources of strength I have found in the wisdom and good will of the friends of my fellow citizens. I am sure that the people of this county will give me their support and help me to do my duty as County Attorney. I give you all this solemn promise—to work with you without again thanking all those county and its people for good government, honesty in and out of office, and the conduct of the business of the county to the end that the taxpayers will get the full benefit of his or her tax dollar.

RESEARCH REVEALS RECORD OF REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER

By HENRY P. SCALF

Lovelady Gap is a pass in the mountains separating the counties of Lee and Boone in Virginia. Tradition and meager knowledge of the early settler and Revolutionary War soldier Thomas Lovelady indicated that the pass was named for him. He lived for some time in the section where the Gap bears his name. The record of his life lived for years in the vast area of early Floyd county, Kentucky.

Years, decades and even a century or more may pass for the record of a man and his passing lie buried in the archives somewhere, somewhere. It is the indefatigable search of descendants, of historians, of institutions of the DAR and others that bring to light the musty records. This is the story of the record of Thomas Lovelady, Revolutionary War soldier and settler of Southwest Virginia and early Floyd county, Kentucky, and how it was recovered and made known.

James Taylor Adams, of Big Laurel, Virginia, is a descendant of Thomas Lovelady Adams, himself a man of high standing and a prominent genealogist and historian, and author of innumerable feature stories on the Southwest Virginia section. The book "A Few Lines to Mary," a follow-up by Mr. Adams will soon be issued. He is president of the Adams Family Association and chairman of the Adams Family Library at Big Laurel. Despite all his knowledge of history and genealogy except to the records of a section he knew little of his ancestor, Thomas Lovelady.

Henry L. Hamilton, a teacher in the Wayne (Virginia) high school, was an associate in research with Adams. Hamilton, who has spent years in research, knew of Mr. Adams' interest in Thomas Lovelady but thought that perhaps the record would never be recovered. Something in it is his interest in one phase of research that brings to light knowledge of something else wanted. Hamilton was interested in the "Piper" story which says it was this that brought out the Lovelady record.

RHEUMATIC VICTIM THROWS AWAY CANE

Thanks to AR-PAN-EX Tablets "I have had terrible pain in my knees for over two years and couldn't walk without a cane," writes Mrs. Mary Green, 37, Louisville, Mo. "About two months ago a friend suggested AR-PAN-EX Tablets. I took one bottle and the pain left my legs and by the time I finished my third bottle my cane was of no use at all."

The big reason why AR-PAN-EX works best is because it combats several special conditions — works on the very cause of pain — speeds long-lasting relief to chronic deep-seated aches — loosens every old rheumatism and Arthritis system. Sensational new formula of a pioneer Eastern Scientist, coupled to present methods, delivering relief in the stomach. "Famocinoid" dissolves in the small intestine where all poisonous rheumatic acid is easily released into the blood stream — speeds relief possible.

Fastly Known Like AR-PAN-EX
Thousands of men and women suffering from crippling torture of deep-seated rheumatism, arthritis, acute and chronic, are finding relief by taking AR-PAN-EX Tablets. Be guided by them. If your druggist has not a full stock he will be glad to order it for you.

WELLMAN FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY

On February 5 of this year, I announced my candidacy for the office of County Attorney, subject to the Democratic primary. Since that time I have been informed that the rumor is being passed about that I am a stranger to Floyd county. Let me take this opportunity of presenting the facts about myself so that you may know the truth.

I was born on Middle Creek, in Floyd county, on June 10, 1924. My father was then a coal miner, my mother a school teacher. My father is F. D. Wellman, my mother is Ella Harris Wellman.

My father came to this county before World War I, and worked here as a miner. Some of his mother's people live here. She was Narcissus Bradley Wellman. His father was Silvers Wellman. They are both dead.

My father left Floyd county, with many other young men, as a volunteer for military service. He served overseas with many men of this county and after World War I returned to Floyd county to work in the coal mines. He met and married my mother, Ella Harris Wellman. The first three of five children were born here. I was one of them.

When I was a small boy my parents moved to Pike county where father worked for a coal company. When the mining business became bad he moved to Lawrence county where he farmed and ran a small grocery store. During the depression father moved to Morehead, so that he could give his children a better education.

In 1942 I graduated from college and returned to Floyd county to teach school. I taught at Wheelwright and McDowell high schools until early 1943, when I volunteered for military service. I served in the U.S. Army three years and two months, two years of which were overseas in Europe.

I was honorably discharged in February, 1946, and entered law school at the University of Kentucky. While attending law school I worked as a carpenter and laborer and was a member of their unions. I was graduated from law college in 1949, received a license and returned to Floyd county to practice my profession. I have been safely and continuously engaged in that practice ever since and maintain a law office at Prestonsburg. In August, 1949, I shall have been actively practicing four years.

My mother, Ella Harris Wellman, is the daughter of Bob Harris and Kate Leslie Harris, Grandfather Harris was once privileged to have been the elected Sheriff of Floyd county. His brothers, James P. Harris and Joe Harris, were also elected sheriffs of this county. My grand-mother, Kate Leslie Harris, is my only living grandparent. She lives at Prestonsburg. Her brothers were C. B. Leslie, of Emma, Bunker Leslie, of Emma, and William P. Leslie, of Blandin, Texas. Her sisters are Ann, wife of Mahone Hall, of Allen, Lulu, wife of Ben Berlin, of Emma, and Victoria, wife of Pete Burchett, of Woods, Minnie, wife of Wesley Harris, of Prestonsburg.

My mother's brothers were Henry Harris, whose widow, Jane, lives at Prestonsburg; and James Harris, a railroad and preacher before his death. His sister, Mrs. Sally, wife of Ernest Langley, now dead, Martha, wife of J. R. "Burr" Allen, of kind-mother, Fannie, widow of William Martin, of Prestonsburg, Minnie, Grace, wife of John W. Sutherland, of Charlestown, Va., and Alice Harris, of Prestonsburg.

I am married to the former Betty Jean Martin, daughter of Sam Martin and Nora Newsome Martin, of McDowell. Her father is the son of Sam Martin and Martha Robinson. Martin. His brothers are Ben Martin, of Drift, Charlie Martin, of Mine and Wayne Martin, of Mine. His sisters are Myrtle, wife of Joe Foster, farmer, of McDowell; Marie, wife of Roy Cooke, of Drift; Verdie, wife of Ella Martin, of Drift.

Betty's mother is the daughter of Wiles Newsome and Betty Hopkins Newsome. Her brothers are Milton Newsome, Ellis Ramsey (deceased), of McDowell; Levi Hall (deceased), of McDowell; Ben Newsome, of McDowell; Philip Newsome, of McDowell, and Andy Hall (deceased), of McDowell. Her sisters are Oren Priley, wife of George Priley, of Maxton, daughter of Mildred Newsome, of McDowell, and Winn Newsome, of Virginia.

By blood my wife is directly related to the following Floyd county families: Martins, Newsomes, Hopkins, Robinsons, Frasures, Hales, Halls, Ramseys, Hamiltons, Bentleys, and Greers.

It is natural that many of you are not personally acquainted with me. I have spent several school years in college, three years and two months in military service, and about five years here in Floyd county as a teacher and as a lawyer. I hope to meet most of you so that you can find out anything else about me that you desire to know.

I proudly claim Floyd county as my home by virtue of birth, marriage and choice. I shall conduct myself in such a manner that Floyd county shall always claim me as her son.

ROBERT W. WELLMAN

If You Remember . . .

The first place of the Duwall home adopted state. In 1882 the President in Virginia was a huge operation in the end of the house, surrounded, and encased in stone carved by Florida. It had been 20 years since he had left his Virginia home.

He rode horseback through the forest, and, near the old house, tied his horse to a tree near the woodlot. Chasing at the horse he saw smoke coming out of the house chimney. Near was a pile of split wood, the axe that had disintegrated it, stuck into a glowing block. Picking up a heavy piece he carried it towards the house.

When he entered his father and a few neighbors were sitting around a dying fire. They started at him as he approached the fireplace and put it in place at the back.

"Father, there is the buckle you sent me for," he said, turning towards a man, now aged and gray. Recognition came into the old man's eyes and he arose with an extended hand. "Well, son, you were long enough getting it."

The boy went out toward the woodlot, musing on the reprimand, smothering under the whiplash of the tongue that said he was "good for nothing." Arriving at the woodpile, he paused to look at the barn, heard the neigh of his horse. He went on to the barn, saddled and was away into the sunset woods.

In the low land of Kentucky he grew to manhood, studied law, and was admitted to the bar. In 1816 he was elected to Congress from his home.

Insurance Agents
Must Be Licensed

Traveling representatives of mutual and reciprocal insurance companies must cease soliciting and selling insurance unless they also qualify as licensed insurance agents, Commissioner of Insurance R. H. Goebel has ruled.

"It is the position of the Department of Insurance that the law does not contemplate that selected traveling representatives of mutual and reciprocal insurers shall sell or sell insurance," observed Goebel. "Rather, the traveling representatives are a type of liaison between the insurer and policyholders. Their functions are basically administrative."

Goebel said that reports have been received that some representatives have been engaged in the active solicitation and selling of insurance in addition to their duties.

The law does not require the traveling representatives of mutual and reciprocal insurers to be licensed as insurance agents.
