PRESTONBURG, KENTUCKY

THURSDAY

This Town... That World

WHAT IS SO RARE? ... As a day in June; Or a day in May when the wind is quiet; Or any day when the fish will bite.

WE'RE NOT PROUD OF THIS

If our people do no better than they've done this year in the Red Cross fund drive, we will fairly well establish a reputation for ingratitude. While the Red Cross is spending a hundred thousand dollars to help those who lost their belongings during the recent flood, we have been giving to the same Red Cross a measly $200.

WHY WE STAY PUT

We have lost our newspaper clipping which recorded certain opinions as to why Eastern Kentuckians insist on staying in their hills, come flood, fire, plague or pestilence. But we have some mental notes of it.

TO SPIKE A FALSE RUMOR

Last Sunday, my opponent, Hollie Conley, and some of his supporters spread a false rumor pertaining to my nomination papers. They rumored that I would not be on the ballot on account of a defect in my papers. These rumors are false and without foundation in law or in fact. The County Court Clerk, possibly through unintentional oversight, did not sign my papers on the proper line after administering an oath. This oversight is unimportant, and can be and will be corrected in the time. In fact, the law does not require an oath at all.

My opponent did not believe these rumors himself. Otherwise, he would stop campaigning if he thought he was getting elected your judge that easy.

What do you think about a crowd that will resort to false rumors in an effort to get the highest and most important judicial office in our county?

I ask my friends to spike these false rumors, and continue to wage the good fight against the forces of evil.

Faithfully yours,
EDWARD P. HILL

TIDBITS of KENTUCKY FOLKLORE

By GORDON WILSON, Ph. D.

Western Kentucky Teachers' College Bowling Green, Ky. I have earlier mentioned the forty years that I had lived in a member of the Kentucky Folk Society and mentioned, too, the gradual change in attitude on the part of many people in that time I would like to continue the same general idea in today's article.

Forty years ago it was nearly impossible to see any collection of folk things except in a few old mansions where every effort had been made to restore things to the condition in which they were in the time of a great historical character, and needs still further development. But many of us went to see Mount Vernon or the Hermitage, for example, and wondered how the ordinary people lived in the days of Washington and Jackson. My folks and most of yours did not live in mansions, did not own expensive stuff, did not cut very big shins in national politics and social life. But they were folks, and often pretty highly respected ones, too. Maybe they lived like the people in Gray's poem, "Far from the madding crowd's ignominious strife," but there were so many of them that they had an influence that the historians long ago began to discover. If they did not wear fine clothes and live in mansions, what did they wear and in what sort of houses did they live? History and folklore alike have the responsibility to tell us the truth. Not all the soldiers in the Revolutionary War were gentlemen; some of them were not even those who fought a hundred years ago bore high rank. And it is nothing short of comic to be forever trying to attach an official title to one long dead. But, assuming that there were as many officers as historians claim there are generals in the Mexican army, find out about them and tell the truth, without a lot of glorifying people who are at present known very little about. Without trying to overemphasize the importance of the common man, let us realize how most of our great leaders in all spheres had their origins in the plain folk. And if that is true, then how did those ancestors of the great and think what did they eat, how did they work, what did they do with their "spare" abilities? The folklorist, as well as the historian, wants to see the general level of thinking and acting of a given period of history as well as the exceptional personalities of a few great souls. It is a delight now to visit the ions among commercial and industrial customers using electric space heating, with the average reduction in the neighborhood of 20%. Further, it will encourage many other customers to adopt the total-electric concept in their operations. The proposed rate would apply to virtually all of the AEP system's electrically heated commercial and small industrial establishments, such as office buildings, stores, motels, restaurants and small industrial plants, and would also include schools, churches, and businesses.

In its application the company asked that the rate be effective May 23. The new rate called the Electric Heating General rate is the same and rate reduction for these customers in the past two years. Also it is similar to a reduction in all electric residential rates put into effect throughout the AEP System on March 1.

COUNTIES TO GET RECORD $20.3 MILLION ROAD FUNDS

Frankfort, Ky., April 23—A record $20.3 million will be made available next fiscal year to the state's 120 counties for the 2-cent gasoline tax for rural roads.
And for the first time, Highway Construction money, which was announced Monday, programs for spending the funds in each of the counties have been completed three months before the start of the fiscal year.

As a result, the counties will be able to plan their rural and secondary road work in an orderly manner. They will know specifically the amount they should expect from state gasoline tax collections.
Under a 1948 law, two cents out of each seven cents a gallon the state collects from gasoline sales goes into the rural road fund. For the first time, however, a formula for equitable distribution exists.

"Prior to the adoption of this formula, the rural secondary funds were distributed among the counties on the basis of political favoritism," Ward commented.
The Highway Department was able to save up considerable sums for spending in key areas in the counties, he said. Those who controlled the distribution were able to undid spend most of the fund in their home counties.

Ward introduced a formula which gives each county a percentage of the total funds based two-thirds on population, one-fifth on population, one-fifth on road mileage, and one-fifth equally divided. The 1962 Legislature enacted his formula into law.

In addition, the counties share a $5 million direct appropriation from the state, one-third on population, and one third on equal division.

Miss Graye Is Bride Of Mr. Allen F. Coker
In a candlelight service, Saturday, April 20, at 7 p.m., Miss Zona Pauletta Graye, of Ypsilanti, Michigan, formerly of Prestonsburg, became the bride of Allen Franklin Coker, of Ypsilanti, at the Ridge Road Church of Christ in Ypsilanti. The minister, C. Arthur Peckol, officiated at the doubling ceremony in a setting of chrysanthemums and lilies of the valley.

The traditional songs, "Because and I Love You Truly," were sung by the Church of Christ chorus. The bride approached the altar on her father's arm to the strains of the Wedding March. The bride and groom knelt at the altar while the Lord's Prayer was said.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Brov, of Ypsilanti, formerly of Prestonsburg. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Honeycott, of Ypsilanti.

The bride wore a dress of Chantilly lace, featuring a brim neckline and long, tapered sleeves. Alternate rows of lace and crystal pleating fell from the waist in the back to form a chapel train. A diamond drop necklace, a gift of the groom, matched her headpiece with a dropped jewel which secured her fingertip veil of illusion. Her bouquet was of sweetheart roses, centered with a white orchid, on a white Bible.

Wearing a gown of spring lilac taffeta, with lace bodice and bouffant skirt, and carrying a bouquet of white carnations, Mrs. Ann Anderson, aunt of the bride, performed the duties of matron of honor. Bridesmaids, Carol Meyer and Carol Guthrie, wore ruffled veils of pastel green and pastel pink taffeta in the same style as the matron of honor. They also carried white carnation bouquets, and all wore matching headpieces.

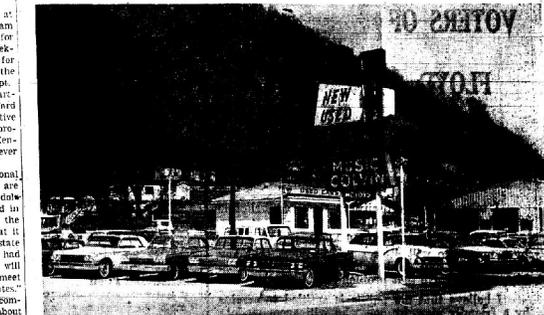

Zona Gale Anderson, cousin of the bride, was flower girl, and wore a dress in miniature of the senior attendants. She, too, carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink lily-of-the-valley blossoms, while her headpiece was formed of pink and white tulle. Master Mark Honeycott, brother of the groom, was ring bearer. Performing the duties of best man was Russell Millspaugh Jr. Ushers were Walter McCoy and Randall Phillips.

Gifts were exchanged at Friday's rehearsal dinner, which was given by the groom's parents.
The centuries-old Ladies' Literary Club was the scene of the wedding reception, immediately following the ceremony.
Mrs. Coker is a 1962 graduate of Willow Run high school, and plans to attend Mrs. Allen School of Practical Nursing. Her husband, also a 1962 graduate of Willow Run high school, is employed by the Dura Corporation Motor State Products. They are making their home on Duncan Street in Ypsilanti.

DeROSSETT APPEALS TO VOTERS

To the Young . . . To the Old . . . To the Veterans:

I am a son of John Derossett and Anna Calhoun Derossett of Bull Creek, a lifelong resident of this county. My father is now 82 years old. He is a former teacher and former employee of the Kentucky-West Virginia Gas Company. He is a lifelong resident of the county and a life member of the Regular Baptist Church.

I was born in 1922, attended our local schools, served in the U. S. Army 5 years in the European Theatre.

I do not make any hero's claim but I was awarded the Bronze Star and five Battle Stars, one for the Normandy Invasion. I am a member of the Free Will Baptist Church.

My family connections include many well-known Floyd county names, to mention a few: Calhoun, Lafferty, Robinson, Rowe, Mayo, Rorer, Wallen, Shepherd, McGuire, Sizemore, Meadow, Miller, Stone, Warrix, Tussey, Parrott, Wells, Thornsberry, Webb, Montgomery, Flannery, Sprigg, Hall, Mosley, Peters, Anderson, Sammons, Sheans, Smith, Ellis, Prater, Moore, Nelson, Ousley, Patton, Sparlock, Baisden. Baldrige, Banks, Hicks, Bingham, Blackburn, Burchett, Conn, Crisp, Cram, Davidson, Dingus, Dotson, Ford, Figgart, Howard, Hubbard, Bays, Campbell, Clifton, Scutchfield, Barnett, Yonace, Gannell, Merritt, Ramey, Garrett, Goble, Gray, Harmon, Hayes, Herald, Holbrook, Hobson, Layne, Horn, Jarrell, Marshall, Osborne and Clark.

This is my first time to ask for a public office and I do now, knowing that I can perform the required duties, and I will go beyond that call and establish a Driver-Training Program in every Floyd county high school. I believe Floyd county owes this to our younger generation. It will eliminate many highway accidents. I trust your good judgment and beg to remain your friend.

SAVE OUR SCHOOLS

What will the college at Prestonsburg mean to our children?

What does an education mean to them today?

Can we deprive our children of the opportunity to get that education?

Can we as parents and teachers, the ones who know and love them most, conscientiously vote for candidates for public offices who would take away from our sons and daughters the opportunity to earn success?

There is one fact that we all know—IN THIS MODERN AGE OUR CHILDREN MUST HAVE AN EDUCATION. They have a right to study and to learn in modern schools taught by qualified teachers.

NED BREATHITT says, "Kentucky's children deserve the best education we can possibly give them, they are our most precious resource for the future."

Let us each work to continue the progress of education.

FLOYD

I take this opportunity to state my belief in regard to the issues in this campaign.

I believe that the public is entitled to be served by a man who will discuss any problem that any citizen might have and who will do everything in his power to solve that problem.

I believe that the public is entitled to service by a friendly man, by one who will accommodate a man in need of service from a public official.

As your Trial Commissioner I did everything that I could possibly do to discourage serious violations of the criminal law. Violators of the criminal law have criticized me vigorously for my actions against crime, and in particular the crime of breaking and entering.

I say to you, again and again, I will not use the power of my office for corrupt means or to seek personal revenge.

I am a married man, with four children to educate within Floyd county, and for this reason, plus many others, I will always meet my responsibility as a man and as a public official.

I will appreciate your support of my candidacy for Commonwealth's Attorney and will render honest, faithful service to all.

Combs Proclamation Closes Timberlands In Eastern Kentucky

Governor Bert Combs issued a proclamation Monday, closing timberland in Floyd and 24 other Eastern Kentucky counties until the forest fire threat is past.

The proclamation does not affect state parks, but closes timberland to all except owners of the land, their agents and work crews. Meanwhile, showers, overcast skies and cool weather lessened the fire threat. High winds continued, however, and new outbreaks are possible with a day's sunshine.

Since April 2, said State Fire Control Chief H. W. Berkman, 1,970 fires have burned over more than 100,000 acres, with practically all this acreage in the 25 counties affected by the Governor's proclamation.

Firefighters in this county found the situation beyond control, with the fire index at 120, the explosive stage, and winds whipping the flames across fire lanes and clearings made by fire crews. Rainfall became their only hope.

FLOYD WOMAN TELLS HOW CLEANUP PROGRAM WORKED

The 200 city, county and civic leaders who have attended cleanup meetings at Frankfort, Ky., heard a Floyd county woman, Mrs. Elmer Stumbo, discuss the program and tell how it has been done in her community and county.

Mrs. Elmer Stumbo represented the Drift Women's Club, which was the first second-shore winner in the KFWC Community Development Contest, and her report of the work done in that small community got it spread through Floyd county, drew applause from the audience. Referring to her trip to Frankfort, Mrs. Stumbo said, "The Main Parkway may be the Road to Nowhere, but I want to thank Governor Combs for it. I traveled it only to get here for this meeting."

The Drift Women's Club made an abiding effort in 1953 toward cleanup with a garbage collection system. In May, 1956, the effort was renewed, community interest was created, jobs were collected from the county, and the program got under way. A site for dumping was leased, an unemployed man was put

AN OPEN LETTER

Mr. Charles Clark, Superintendent of Schools and John M. Stumbo, Chairman of the Board Prestonsburg, Kentucky

Numerous parents are complaining that they are not going to send their children to school on Wednesday and Thursday because a proposed candidate is scheduled to speak during class hours in various schools of the County.

After consulting with members of the legal profession, their opinion is that any time used in our schools during class hours by a political candidate is illegal, for the reasons: It amounts to conversion of public property for political purposes. It compels our student body to become a "captive" audience since they have no choice by permitting their leaving the school premises without being counted absent.

For these reasons, as Assistant Superintendent of Floyd County Schools and being interested in our school system both as an employee, former teacher, and parent, I ask that you not permit this unlawful act of unnecessary interference with school children during school hours, especially since they are now required to attend school on Saturday to make up loss of time due to winter weather and recent flood waters.

Therefore, I respectfully urge you to take appropriate action immediately for the sake of our schools.

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER FRASURE
Assistant Supt. of Schools

In an attempt to get sympathy, my opponent has been telling the people of this county that I have attacked the legality of his filing papers. He repeated this accusation in last week's paper and on the radio. I say to you as I would say to him, I HAVE NOT DONE SO. Yes, I would not be entirely correct in this county, if I failed to tell them that in truth my opponent PAID TO HAVE HIS SIGNATURE NOTARIZED on his nomination papers to run in the Democratic Primary. This is a matter of public record for all to see.
Whether this mistake is serious enough to keep him off the ballot is of little concern to me, because I do not intend to take any legal action in this direction. In fact, I am willing to go with my opponent to the Clerk's office and allow him to correct his mistake. I say this because I want to serve the people of this county in public office in the future. I do not want the office of Circuit Judge given to me on a technicality. I believe the voters have had their voice and elect their Judge. On the other hand, I do not appreciate my opponent accusing me of spreading false rumors.

even before it gets to the President, the plan will have to be cleared by the legal staff of the Commerce Department, by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, and by the White House staff.

A.R.A. has authority to make the grant, under a section which permits it to purchase facilities which appear to be in danger of closing and thus causing additional economic distress.

But that section of the law has never been used. Roosevelt and that is wondering if federal grants to keep the Kentucky hospitals open would be followed by requests from hundreds of other hospitals that are having financial difficulties.

Combs and Perkins assured the two that the medical society in Kentucky has taken a jocular attitude toward the proposal to keep the hospitals open.

Although the Hill-Burton Act has for years authorized the federal government to match funds with states and local communities for construction of new hospital facilities, there is no provision for the purchase of existing institutions.

Combs and Perkins conferred also with Josephine Roche, one of the trustees of the welfare fund. The trustees are hoping to have an offer from the Presbyterian board after its meeting in New York Wednesday.

But the Presbyterians are reported to be waiting on word as to what financial grant A.R.A. can make.

to let the people of Kentucky judge him on his past performances. I challenge him again to meet me on grade-wide television to debate the issues of this campaign.

"The basis of my opponent has been made apparent. In Floyd County he has brought a lawsuit, attempting to stop our successful campaign. My campaign is successful because I'm taking my program to the people of Kentucky—young and old alike. I have nothing to hide. All Kentuckians have an opportunity to judge me. I have never refused to answer questions submitted by a fellow Kentuckian. I charge here today, once again, that my opponent is joining another political boss in an attempt to divide the people of Kentucky of this state to make their own free choice of those who govern them.

I ask that all Kentuckians join in a crusade to end boss rule which Earle Clements and A. B. Chandler have imposed for too many years upon the people of this great Commonwealth."

discussions we've heard on the subject. Some remind us that we have the mountains in our blood, that we're a different race of people. They point out that nobody stopped our forefathers here, that they could have gone on with others to the Blue Grass if they had wanted to.

Many of these posters were of Scotch Highland stock, we are reminded, and they were not looking for high pasture but found the misty glen and the farthest inlet most alluring.

Here, others have said, a different language is spoken, the air is softer, the old customs linger, the people are friendlier. The roots of generations have sunk deeper and refuse to be torn from the old, home soil.

Branch. Opening of the sluice gates was strongly recommended by the Engineers when the river stage reached 46.8, but the gates were kept closed and heavy water damage was prevented in portions of Prestonsburg south of the flood-wall.
Mr. Johnson pointed out that the partially completed John Flannagan Dam saved the valley heavier loss. But for it, the river stage here would have been two feet higher, he said, which would have brought it to a fifth of a foot of the destructive 48.7 level.
With Flannagan and North Fork of Pound reservoirs all completed and in operation, the river stage here last month would have been only 39.2 feet, the Corps of Engineers points out. And, they add, if all three had been functioning when the January, 1957 flood came, the stage here would have been even lower—only 34.5 feet.

Jest Among Us...
By Jack Wild

Mrs. Mahaball McDowell, who lives in Cynthia, has a problem. "Where," she asks, "can we go to find the true and correct origin of the name of the Licking River?"

Cynthians from the South Licking, Mrs. McDowell points out, and the folks thereabouts "have always surmised that the name came from the numerous salt licks in this part of Kentucky. These, as you know, were used by herds of creatures even in prehistoric times."

Well, about all the information I was able to come up with on the Licking River, on a busy day and without budging out of the office, was the fact as noted in University of Kentucky Reports in Anthropology and Archaeology, Vol. II, that "if the banks of the (Licking) River were ever occupied by prehistoric people, all evidence of this occupation has long since disappeared."

Our Cynthia correspondent reports that strangers in her town often inquire about the origin of the river's name, and all you know how embarrassing it can be when you know you should know something but just plain don't. So if any reader can tell Mrs. McDowell how the Licking River got its name, please write to her or drop me a note at UK.

And while you're at it, you might say how Sure-Hel Creek, Parched Corn Creek and Lilwell Creek got their names. Don't some of our Kentucky streams have the apt appellations though? There's Hell-fer-Sartin Creek and Troublesome Creek and Barbone Creek. One that especially intrigues me is known by Montgomery countians as Lulebe-grub Creek, Lulebe-grub, which has the lilt of a lullaby. (Hen Pen, Skull, Possum Trot and Brandy Keg be long somewhere in this list—Ed.)

Some other dandies that imaginative settlers came up with include Greasy Creek, Cushman Creek, Dollar Branch, Big Leath-wood Creek, Pup Creek, Gunpowder Creek, Paw Paw Branch and Pigeonroost Creek.

As an anti-sleazebag, would someone be good enough to let me know how the popular Kentucky term "branchwater" came into being?

It has been brought to my attention that one of the candidates for Circuit Court Clerk has been advising and telling a lot of people that they could get their drivers license without taking a test before a State Police examiner, which is false and untrue. The law requires these tests to be taken under the direction of men sent here by the state of Kentucky and the clerk has nothing to do with such tests in any manner.

It is shown by the records of this office that the Sheriff Henry Hale, Norman Allen, Dr. John Archer and even the Governor, Bert T. Condes, were compelled to take a written test, since their license had expired longer than the law allows for a renewal.

It has also been reported to me that one of the candidates has been telling various people over the county that I am ninety years old and bearing the one hundred mark and that I am unable to perform the duties of the office, and any such statements are false and untrue. I will plainly appear that I am younger than the one making such statements. Any one who knows anything about politics or the political trend predict my nomination for a landslide, and I have no doubt of it either.

It is a well known fact by all the people who know me that I am the only dedicated public servant ever elected in Floyd county who stays on the job all the time—not just part of the time. All lawyers who practice here consider STEPHENS as being one of the outstanding clerks in the state of Kentucky.

The moves here some to me are... I have no doubt that some of the candidates are making all-kind of promises to certain people to make them Deputy Clerks and so many of these promises have been made that the courthouse would be filled with Deputy Clerks and any man with horse sense will know that these promises mean little or nothing. I have never made promises in my life that I could not fulfill, and it is my candid opinion that very few people will honestly believe such empty promises.

Some of the candidates talk about their splendid qualifications to fill this office, and I know these talked about qualifications are false as I know by experience. I was trained to do the work in this office by William C. Goble, a son of Judge James Goble, and I can truthfully say that William C. Goble was one of the most brilliant men under whom I ever worked, and with his help and assistance I was almost six years in learning and knowing how to operate this office and I am of the opinion that I have as much common sense as any of my opponents who seek this office.

I extend to each of the candi-

MCDOWELL CAGERS
Four of this past season's McDowell cagers are expected to receive college scholarships for next season. Pikeville College is hopeful of landing center Ronnie Moore, forward Curtis Little and guard Keith Howell.

David Turner, the team's leading scorer, has been offered a basketball scholarship by Morehead State College. Bobby Laughlin, Morehead's head coach, was the speaker at the McDowell cage banquet, Saturday night.

The McDowell baseball team has a 2-1 mark thus far with 12 games yet to be played prior to the District tournament at the Drift Park on May 14, 15 and 16. McDowell won last season's district tournament.

This Friday the Prestonsburg Blackcats travel to Oil Springs for a return game with the Wildcats, who were a 12-4 victim in early season. Saturday morning at 10:30 the Blackcats will meet Huntington East high in the West Virginia city, then at 1:30 p.m. the Cats will return to Coalfield-Kenova to meet the Wonders, who are the Class A defending state champions.

Last Saturday, the Blackcats won their two biggest games of the season in downing Williamson (West Virginia) high 2-1 and 6-0 behind the five-hit pitching of Mike H. Wells and left-hander Wayne DeBoard. The Blackcats have now won 13 and lost 2. Wheelwright is 6-5 and Maytown is 4-2, while Martin has yet to see action.

Youth Baseball Meet Slated at Garrett

Garrett, Ky., April 22 (Sp.) — Shelby Drauzin, president of the Floyd County Babe Ruth League, has called a meeting of 31 persons interested in Babe Ruth and Connie Mack baseball for Thursday night (tonight) at 7:30 in the Garrett school building.

League Rule A, Paragraph 2b, of the 1963 Babe Ruth League Rules and Regulations states:

"Leagues competing in tournaments April 1, 1963 must submit their Declaration of Continuation of Charter on or before May 1, 1963, and must subsequently fulfill tournament eligibility requirements as outlined under tournament rules."

The annual registration fee is $7.00 national and $4.00 state per team. Insurance will be $25.00 per team this year. Each team represented this year will need to pay at the meeting a total of $19.00.

Babe Ruth Baseball is for 13, 14, and 15-year-old boys. During the first two seasons of the Floyd County Babe Ruth program, the boys were divided into two divisions; however, this season only six teams with one division will be competing.

Connie Mack Baseball will be introduced this season in Floyd and adjoining counties. It is for boys 16, 17 and 18 years of age and will be sponsored by the same group that originated Babe Ruth in this county. Registration fees for Connie Mack total $11 per team, and insurance will be purchased locally by the individual teams.

McDowell High Wins Over Wheelwright In Season Opener

The McDowell Dare Devils opened their 1963 baseball season, April 11, with a 7-4 victory over Wheelwright. David Turner started on the mound for McDowell and never needed any help as he pitched the full seven innings, allowing the Trojans only four hits. The Dare Devils jumped off to a quick 2-0 lead in the first inning as McDowell and Howell dominated the bases with a home run. In the second inning, McDowell scored two more on hits by Starnes and McCoy. McDowell had a perfect day at the plate with a two-for-two record. David Turner, Keith Howell and Gerald Starnes had one hit each.

Last Friday afternoon McDowell brought its record up to three wins and no losses with a double victory over Martins at Drift. Wade Blackburn and Danny Dawson received credit for the wins.

This year's baseball schedule for McDowell is as follows:

April 11, Wheelwright at Drift; April 12, Martins at Drift; April 13, Wheelwright at Drift; April 22, Prestonsburg away; April 26, Martins at Drift; April 28, Martins at Drift; May 2, Martins at Drift; May 7, Martins at Drift; May 9, Prestonsburg at Drift; May 10, Martins at Drift; May 14, 15 and 16, district tournament at Drift.

Parents and Taxpayers PROTEST

USE OF SCHOOL TIME FOR CANDIDATES

Not too far in the past we would not have envisioned the time when our children would be compelled to take up their class room hours to hear a political speech by any candidate running for office, be he Democrat, Republican, or Independent.

Schools are the training centers for our youth and should not be used to foster prejudice, ridicule and malice toward any individual, party, group or association to the advantage of any other person, party or group.

Do you as a parent and taxpayer believe our schools should be used during class hours for any candidate to impose his views upon the student body? Do you want your children from the first grade up to be subjected to one line of thought during each election year in the future—POLITICS—POLITICS—POLITICS???

What kind of leadership do we have in our State and local school system that permits waste of the students time, the teachers' time, and the taxpayers' money, to serve the interest of a few politicians to the detriment of our school children???

We proudly advocate that our young people of today must be properly trained and counseled. Will they be able to overcome the impact of today's happenings in our Schools or will it set them back in their thinking, that we have failed in having a State Government that stoops to impose its will upon the young voters of our student body in behalf of its "hand-picked" candidate, by turning our schools into a "political arena."

Listed below is what we oppose during the regular school class hours.

SCHEDULE OF SPEECHES OF ADMINISTRATION'S CANDIDATE

Wednesday	Thursday
Betsy Layne High School 8:30 a.m.	Martin High School 8:30 a.m.
Wheelwright High School 10:10 a.m.	Maytown High School 10:00 a.m.
McDowell High School 11:05 a.m.	Garrett High School 11:15 a.m.
	Wayland High School 1:30 p.m.

NOW is the time to put an end to these "High Handed" tactics and rid your State of these self-imposed, would be leaders.

NOW is the time to let the politicians know they can't take over our schools and use the Teachers and Students time and Taxpayers money to set up high salaried jobs without rendering any service to the people.

Samuel Stephens' Descendants Participated in Public Affairs

(This is the fourth article on the Stephens family compiled from data gathered by Henry Stephens and his son, Edgar P. Stephens.)

In the century and half since Samuel Stephens, the progenitor of the Big Sandy family, was born in Virginia several thousand descendants have lived, carved out their destinies and either passed on or live today to claim him as ancestor.

Many engaged in business or went into the professions, notably the law. Others sought public office and served in various official capacities in local or district government. There were physicians, a number were teachers.

David Stephens, son of Samuel and Florence Stephens, who married Margaret Daniels, was elected county judge and also served as county surveyor of Floyd county.

John Stephens, a Water Gap, son of Morgan Green Stephens and Malinda J. Hale Stephens, taught school for many years and was elected to the office of County Superintendent of Schools, succeeding Harry N. Cooley.

Three of Samuel Stephens' descendants were physicians. Orris Gearheart, Dr. O. T. Stephens, and his son Dr. Raymond Stephens.

Andrew Stephens married Rebecca Cornett, and they were the parents of 10 children: John, Wilbur and Lockhart, triplets, died infant.

Betty, married George Stephens; Jerry married Wanda Soto, later Jenny Bunting; Emma married George Herbert, Lesly, B. married Ernest Aiken, William R. married Bird Wedington and upon her death married Chas. Dillon; Bertha M. married John Butler; Retha married Doris Snapp.

100 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK

The Civil War in Kentucky

By JOE JORDAN
(Kentucky Civil War Commission)

One hundred years ago this week, Col. D. W. Chenault's Eleventh Kentucky (Confederate) Cavalry, a part of Brig. Gen. John Hunt Morgan's cavalry that was on scouting duty in May 15, On July 6, all Union Army captives held in prison at Richmond, Virginia, were made to draw lots to determine which two should be killed in retaliation. Capt. John Finn of the 15th Indiana Infantry and Capt. H. W. Sawyer of the First New Jersey Cavalry were the two unlucky ones, and they died before a firing squad the same day.

On the day after the Magraw-Corbin court martial, another such court tried Sampson D. Talbot, of Bourbon county, a civilian, on a charge of harboring and concealing Confederate soldiers. He was fined $1,000 and sentenced to serve three months in the military prison at Johnson's Island. For being at Talbot's house, Thomas Sullivan was sentenced to 60 days at Johnson's Island.

Thomas M. Campbell, of Nicholas county, a Confederate soldier, was condemned as a spy and was sentenced to be hanged May 8 at Johnson's Island. He was sent there in iron, but the sentence was not carried out. It was announced that "he had signified his willingness to inform on other spies."

All these trials were at Cincinnati, where Gen. Burnside had his headquarters.

During the same week Gen. Burnside countermanded an order which the Union Army commander at Lexington had issued, forbidding the circulation of the Cincinnati Enquirer in Lexington and vicinity. Joshua F. Bell, whom the "Union Democrat" party convention had nominated for governor at its state convention at Louisville more than a month before, announcing he would not make the race. This was not the pre-war Democratic Party, which the Lincoln Army had nominated to hold a state convention. It was a party supporting the Lincoln Administration, which had assumed the name "Union Democrat."

A Confederate raiding party turned the courthouse at Tompkinsville, Monroe county, in retaliation for the burning of Celina, Tennessee, by Federal raiders.

One hundred years ago this week two Confederate States Army officers, Capt. T. O. Magraw and Capt. William P. Corbin, tried by Major Gen. A. E. Burnside's recently issued Order No. 38, were convicted in a court martial of recruiting in Kentucky for the Southern army and were sentenced to be shot to death by a firing squad at Johnson's Island. For being at a camp in Sandusky Bay of Lake Erie, the sentence set May 15 as the execution date. The offense of which the two were convicted had not been a capital crime until Burnside had designated it such in an order issued a little more than a week before the court martial. (The Confederate government declared the execution of Magraw and Corbin would be in violation of the rules of war and threatened if the two were killed to retaliate by killing two Union officers of similar rank, from among those held as prisoners of war. Magraw and Corbin nevertheless were executed. On July 6, all Union Army captives held in prison at Richmond, Virginia, were made to draw lots to determine which two should be killed in retaliation. Capt. John Finn of the 15th Indiana Infantry and Capt. H. W. Sawyer of the First New Jersey Cavalry were the two unlucky ones, and they died before a firing squad the same day.

Living Memories

In memory of our loving husband and father, Green Turner, who passed away April 26, 1962:

Your gentle face and patient smile with sadness we recall; You had a kindly word for each And died beloved by all. The voice is mute and still For the heart that loved us well and true.

Oh, bitter was the trial to part. From one so good as you. You are not forgotten, loved one. Nor will you ever be As long as life and memory last. We will remember thee. We miss you now, our hearts are sore;

As time goes by we miss you more. Your loving smile, your gentle face. No one can fill your vacant place.
