

This Town-- That World

Floyd countians back home with fish stories to make even non-existent hairs stand on end: Gordon Moore, of Prestonsburg, from Maine; Dr. Claude Allen, of Martin, from Wisconsin. What these two guys have to tell their unluckier fellows!

Sombody said this column had deteriorated into a fishing column. Well, if that's true, you can't say it's gone to the dogs.

Vote Saturday--vote twice!

SOMETHING SHOULD BE DONE--NOW

All of us have been interested in the economic advantages which might accrue to Floyd county from Dewey Lake as an attraction to sportsmen from other sections.

That being true, we ask: How many sportsmen--that is to say, fishermen--do you think will drive a hundred miles or more to spend a week-end on this comparatively small body of water, with an armada of speed-boats roaring past every minute?

It's hardly likely that anybody will drive that far to this particular body of water just for a boat ride.

The U.S. Corps of Engineers should do something about the situation now. Local boating enthusiasts should have a restricted area in which to enjoy their sport. Remainder of the lake should be left to those who like to fish or take their wives and children out for a boat ride in safety.

This, The Times believes, is a solution to the problem to which a great majority of the people will agree.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME

I am seriously considering forming an organization bearing the forlorn name of Legion of the Lost. The boys are having a quite a time of it, over on Dewey Lake, of nights, in getting their bearings and limping into home port, it seems; and so they join me in that unhappy company of would-be homing pigeons who found no place to roost for a time.

I qualified for the Legion, several years ago, when I qualified Friday to

POPE IS ONE OF 3 VICTIMS

In Mine Tragedies Within Few Hours; Floyd Men Injured

The third mine accident victim in Eastern Kentucky to succumb within a few hours during the latter part of last week, John Pope, 33, of Robinson Creek, Pike county, died at 5 p.m., Thursday at a Huntington, W. Va., hospital from injuries sustained in a slatefall Tuesday, July 25, in the Inland Steel Company coal mine at Wheelwright.

Pope suffered a broken back when caught beneath a slatefall from the mine roof while he was resetting safety timber in the face of the mine workings.

The other of the three who were fatally injured in a 16-hour period, were:

Wayne Mounts, 53, shot firer and miner for 28 years, died from injuries received shortly after 6 a.m., Thursday in a slatefall at Majestic. Mounts is survived by his widow and 13 children.

About four hours later, Arvil Breeding, 35, supply man and a miner for 22 years, was killed in the No. 6 mine of the Elkhorn Coal Corporation at Jackhorn near Fleming in Letcher county. Breeding was riding a motor as he was taking a supply of oil into the mine. Approximately 3,000 feet from the entry, a large rock dropped from the mine roof, crushing his head against the motor. He is survived by his widow and six children.

The Wheelwright victim, a coal miner for eight years, is survived by his widow, Geneva Bartley Pope, three sons, Bobby Joe, Arnold Eugene and Leroy; and one daughter, Nancy Ann, all at home.

LOGGING JOB MISHAP FATAL

Hobart Gibson Crushed Friday by Rolling Log; Survives Four Hours

Hobart Gibson, 24, of Stone Coal, near Garrett, died at the Stumbo Memorial hospital at Lackey about four hours after being injured in an unusual logging accident at 4:30 p.m. Friday.

At the time of accident, he was working for Jeems Smith, logging contractor, on the J. B. Wicker branch of Jones Fork near Mousie. Gibson was cutting on a log which became dislodged on the sloping ground, rolled against him and crushed him internally.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Gibson, of Stone Coal. He was unmarried and lived with his parents. In addition to his parents, he is survived by one brother and five sisters.

Funeral services were held at the home Monday with the Reverends M. C. Wright and Alex Coburn officiating. Burial took place in the family cemetery with the Hindman Funeral Home directing.

FLOYD NATIVE CRASH VICTIM

In West Virginia Wreck; Wheels Locking on Auto In Motion Named Cause

Wheels "locking" on an automobile in motion along the highway was named the cause of an accident occurring at 5 a.m. Sunday near Barnabus, W. Va., which resulted in fatal injuries to a former Floyd countian.

Lester K. Turner, 29, Omar, W. Va., miner and formerly of Glo, passenger in the automobile, died at 9 p.m. Tuesday in a Logan hospital suffering injuries which included a crushed chest and a broken arm.

Bill Amburgey, driver of the vehicle, who is formerly of Abner Fork of this county, was not reported here as injured.

The automobile, with wheels locked, turned over on the road and plunged into the concrete porch of a house beside the highway, it was stated.

The victim, a resident miner at Omar for the past four years, was the son of the late Jim Turner and Mrs. Myrtle Wallen Roop, of Glo.

Besides his mother, he is survived by one son, Larry Joe, of Wayland, and the following brothers and sisters; Thurman Turner, of Baysville, Indiana, Ed Turner, of Holden, W. Va., Mrs. Cephus Noble, Lundale, W. Va., and Mrs. Alex Wicker, of Wayland.

LIGHT VOTE IN PROSPECT

Pre-Primary Campaign Fails To Stir Voters; Ballot Line-Up Listed

A light vote is in prospect in this county at Saturday's primary balloting for U.S. Senator and Seventh District Representative in Congress.

This prediction was made locally, Tuesday, as an often dull, never spectacular campaign drew within three days of its end. Less than 10,000 of the more than 20,000 ballots printed for this county will be voted, it was predicted.

See editorial, "Vote!"

On both the primary ballots, Democratic and Republican, names of candidates for U.S. Senator are twice listed, since the candidates are seeking nomination for both the unexpired and regular terms in the Senate. An attempt is being made to impress on the voters the importance of voting twice for the candidate of their choice for that office.

Results of all races will probably be known, late Monday.

The line-up on the ballots for this county:

DEMOCRATIC PARTY

For U. S. Senator--George Glenn Hatcher, Ashland; Dennis E. Mcquary, Lexington; Earle C. Clements, Morganfield; James L. Delk, Hopkinsville.

For Representative in Congress--Carl D. Perkins, Hindman; Dr. Paul B. Hall, Paintsville.

REPUBLICAN PARTY

For U.S. Senator--James William Brown, Seneca Village; Charles I. Dawson, Louisville; Charles F. Whitte, Brownsville.

For Representative in Congress--James M. Morrison, Stopover; Dr. O. W. Thompson, Pikeville.

PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY

AUGUST 3, 1950

THURSDAY

LOW GYM BID OF $169,598 IS ACCEPTED

Shepherd Gets Work On Wheelwright Project; Teachers Yet Unnamed

Contract was awarded by the Floyd fiscal court Tuesday to B. E. Shepherd, West Prestonsburg, for the construction of a fireproof building at Wheelwright to house the gymnasium, cafeteria, manual training and music departments of the Wheelwright consolidated school.

Shepherd's bid, low among four submitted, totaled $169,598.39 but may be reduced to $165,293.64 if the contractor is relieved of the cost of lockers and half the bleacher seats.

The court acted for the Floyd County Board of Education in the capacity of financial agent, since bonds issued to pay for the structure were the fiscal court's. The two bodies met in joint session.

The building, to be erected on sloping ground and constituting a story-and-a-half, will provide a gymnasium seating approximately 1,600 persons. The gym will be on the second floor. The first floor will contain the cafeteria and the music and manual training departments.

To be constructed of brick exterior and cinder block inside walls, the building will be 125 feet long by 90 feet in width.

Although consolidated schools of the county are scheduled to open Sept. 5, the Board of Education failed to name teachers for these schools. Tuesday's meeting was adjourned till August 12.

The Board voted to maintain a school for approximately 25 pupils on Goble Branch of the Dewey reservoir area by renting a store building.

VETERAN CLUB RAIDED HERE

Slots, Whiskey, Beer Seized; Man Admits Ownership of Still

Floyd county officers in a raid on the VFW Club at Lancer, near here, late Tuesday afternoon confiscated three slot machines, five 'fifths' of whiskey and 22 cases of beer and arrested Boyd Nuckolls, who was employed as manager of the club.

The raid, it was said, followed a statement made to authorities by an ambulance driver who had been arrested as drunk and in possession of whiskey and beer. Deputy Sheriffs Frank Parsons and W. J. Slone and Deputy Constable Ransome Marcum made the search of the premises. Nuckolls later was released under bond.

A week ago, a moonshine still was captured on Ivy Creek by Deputy Sheriff Frank Crum and Deputy Marshal Friend, Garland Garrett, who was arrested at the same time.

Experts Pick Dewey Reservoir To Be Famous Fishing Spot

Dewey reservoir will rapidly make a famous name for itself as one of the favorite fishing spots of the country, according to an immediate and conclusive opinion reached by Kentucky Division of Game and Fish experts after a recent pre-impoundment study of the Johns Creek section.

Referring to the Dewey survey in a Sunday summation in The Courier-Journal, Burt Monroe, League of Kentucky Sportsmen editor, observed as follows:

"Dewey reservoir rapidly will gain a famous name in its own right. Ever since the construction of the dam was started, great demands to stock this body of water with bass as well as many other kinds of fish have been made. Such a step would not only be unnecessary but would be unwise. Nine pairs of bass could, on successful spawning, stock the lake's acreage to its carrying capacity for that species. And the lake is already carrying a tremendous load of small bass, perhaps too many."

"Bluegill, which are needed in such bodies of water, are already present in adequate numbers. A small number of black crappie will be planted in order to provide fishing for that species."

"Of a similar survey over the Wolf Creek reservoir, in addition to the Dewey report, Monroe wrote: "Wolf Creek reservoir will offer the best fishing of any reservoir ever constructed in the United States!"

"Those were the enthusiastic words of Minor Clark, superintendent of Fisheries for the Division of Game and Fish, at the conclusion of a pre-

Three Taken to 'Secret' Jail

Polio-Stricken Man, Boy Scout Executive, Warm Springs Patient

Henry Marshall, 39, of Pikeville, a Boy Scout field executive of the Lonesome Pine Council in this area and well known here, who has been a polio patient eight months in a Pikeville hospital, will be flown Tuesday to Warm Springs, Ga., for treatment. It was announced in Pikeville this week.

Accompanied by Robert Sparks, of the Lexington Chapter of the National Infantile Paralysis Foundation, a physician and a nurse, Marshall will be flown to Georgia in a Kentucky Air National Guard plane.

Sparks said the patient was being taken to the Warm Springs center because facilities are not available here for the treatment Marshall needs.

"He has a wonderful attitude," said Sparks. "He wants to know what he can do for you rather than what you can do for him."

LEE HALL, 88, DIES MONDAY

Floyd-Co. Business Man And Wealthy Landowner Is Victim of Pneumonia

Lee Hall, for many years a business leader and wealthy landowner in this county died at 5:30 Monday afternoon at his home at Auxier, victim of pneumonia following almost five years of invalidism. He was 88 years old.

Mr. Hall suffered a broken hip in a fall, a few years ago, and had been confined to his home since that time. For more than 60 years he was engaged in the mercantile business, and he was recognized as one of the section's most astute business men. He was a member of the Baptist Church and for half a century had been a member of Zebulon Masonic lodge, Prestonsburg.

He was a native of Jack's Creek on Left Beaver and was a son of W. R. and Cindy Cook Hall. He was first married to Miss Martha Ellen Elliott, of Mud Creek, and to this union were born five children. His wife and three of his children preceded him in death. On Aug. 5, 1929 he was married to Miss Josephine Cooley, who survives.

His survivors include his widow, two sons, William Riley Hall, of the Auxier road, and Bruce Hall, Catlettsburg, two brothers, Joe Hall, of Beaver, and Dock Hall, Weeksbury. He also leaves 16 grandchildren and 37 great grandchildren. Mr. Hall had a wide circle of friends and relatives throughout this section.

TERM TO SEE $5 PAY RATE

For County's Jurors 277 Cases Docketed For Coming Session

When the Floyd circuit court convenes September 4, almost exactly a month hence, it not only will begin nine-months-a-year operation for the new single-county district but will for the first time be in session under the new $5-a-day pay schedule for jurors, it was pointed out here this week.

Although the law raising jurors' pay from $3 to $5 has been in effect for several weeks, there has been no circuit court session in this county since that time.

Circuit Judge Edward P. Hill is now at Inez presiding in his final session as judge of the Martin circuit court. The term, which began July 20, ended Wednesday.

The Floyd court will begin its annual grind of nine months a year in session with a "nest egg" of 277 cases on its criminal docket, data released this week by Circuit Clerk W. W. Cooley shows.

Among these 277 cases docketed for trial are five for murder, with a sixth man being held in jail here without bond to grand jury action in a murder case. Thirty-one of the cases involve use of guns, with seven of the 31 charging shooting and wounding.

The biggest increase in indictments in any one phase of criminal activity resulted from violation of the dry law in Floyd county. There are 53 listed for trial on liquor charges of one kind or another.

WAR VETERAN ELECTROCUTED

Dewey Campbell Is Fifth Floyd Countian in Week To Be Accident Victim

Dewey Goodman, 42-year-old Bull Creek war veteran, this morning (Thursday) became the fifth Floyd countian within the week to meet accidental death when he was electrocuted by a high tension wire.

Top of a small tree which he felled while clearing land for Wes Campbell on the Mutton Fork of Bull apparently came in contact with a line of the Kentucky & West Virginia Power Company carrying current of a reported 44,000 volts. From this the charge is believed to have passed into Goodman's body.

He met death only three days after attending the funeral of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Ida Carlton.

The tragedy occurred around 9:30 a.m., and the body was not removed from where it fell on the hillside opposite the Wes Campbell home until two hours later. Would-be rescuers were held back while power company employes hurried to the scene, and after their arrival requests that the power be cut off were made by radio. Finally, they were told it was safe to approach the body but to do so carefully and if any evidence of electric charge became evident to halt. One start was made toward the body, then the company employe returned to radio his office again. While he was on this errand, Dr. A. J. Davidson, John and Dick Branham and Ollie Ellis ventured to the body.

Upwards of a hundred persons of the community and from Prestonsburg watched this tense phase of the tragedy.

Mrs. Wes Campbell said she heard the crackling of the current while she was in the kitchen of her home and hurried to the front porch to see what caused the noise. She said Goodman was still standing when she reached the porch and did not fall until he apparently stretched out his hand and grasped a small limb. His hand was badly burned.

The victim was employed as a miner and at various times in the gas field of this county. He lived a scant 300 yards from the scene of his death. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Garnet McGuire Goodman, their three children, Luther Dewey, Jr., Taubee and Janie, two children by a previous marriage, Bud and Ronnie May Goodman, and three step-children, Georgia Ethel, Harold Richard and Pearl Jean Ousley.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed this afternoon, it was said at the Arnold Funeral Home.

Is Beauty Queen Married?-- That's Big Question Here

Has Miss Rita Lee Rose, Floyd county's Sesquicentennial beauty queen and Miss Kentucky for 1950, done a feminine version of the King Edward story?

Has she renounced the Kentucky beauty crown and her chance for the Miss America diadem for 1950 for the man she loves?

That was a question folks hereabouts, particularly Sesquicentennial leaders who had hoped to see her carry the name of Floyd county to the Miss America contest at Atlantic City, were asking about this week.

And as of Wednesday afternoon they had no answer.

The Times asked Cecil Rose, Campton merchant and father of the alluring Miss Rose, about the rumor to the effect that she is married. Mr. Rose regretfully admitted he didn't know. He added there had been rumors, but neither confirmation nor denial. His daughter, he said, is still visiting friends in the Blue Grass.

After the Wolfe county girl who only last week had been adjudged Miss Kentucky for 1950 and eligible for a try at the Miss America crown, had visited here briefly, Monday afternoon, word got out that she had married a young man named Farmer.

Now, Franklin W. Moore, general chairman of the Sesquicentennial celebration, and others are seeking the truth of the matter. If, indeed, the marriage report is true, rules of the Miss America contest (which also govern the Miss Kentucky contest) provide that she shall automatically forfeit her title as state beauty queen and also her right to entrance in the Atlantic City pageant of beauty.

And, if she has so forfeited her rights, cannot Floyd county present as Miss Kentucky the Wheelwright beauty, Mary Louise Osborne, who was runner-up in the Sesquicentennial beauty contest?

Services Held Yesterday For Mrs. Lavana Howell Who Succumbed Monday

Funeral services were held at 1 p.m. yesterday (Wednesday) at the home for Mrs. Lavana Howell, 68, of Justell, who died at 9:15 a.m. Monday at her home after an illness of several years. Death was attributed to cancer.

Wife of Hayes Howell, she was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Press Carr and a native of Floyd county.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Howell is survived by one son, Daniel Howell, of Detroit, Mich.; three daughters, Mrs. Sadie Burke, Mrs. Ada Heintze, both of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Emma Hobbs, of Justell; three brothers, John Henry Carr, of Allen, Jimmy and Frank Carr, both of Banner; three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The services were conducted with the Rev. Isaac Stratton officiating. Burial was made in the family cemetery at Justell across the Big Sandy river from Betsy Layne, with the Arnold Funeral Home directing.

PIKE SHERIFF ROY CONWAY GUN VICTIM

Authorities Reported Near Crime Solution; Victim Had Floyd Kin

Three men who have been questioned in connection with the assassination at Pikeville, late Friday night, of Pike County Sheriff Roy Conway have been removed from the Pike county jail and taken to an undisclosed prison for safekeeping, it was learned here Wednesday.

This was construed as lending credence to the report previously received here that authorities "believe they know who the killer is."

Those who have been under questioning are Tommy Vanover, 26, his brother, Hubert, 23, and Willard Damron.

A single rifle shot which shattered his spine and lodged in his right chest ended the life of the 40-year-old Conway whose eight-months tenure of office had been marked by forthright war on Pike county bootlegging. He fell, dying, a few yards outside his home.

Conway gasped a few times, en route to a hospital, but died without speaking.

Shortly before the murder, a telephone call to the Sheriff informed him of trouble at Happy Evening, four miles from Pikeville, and insisted the officer take action. Although warned by Mrs. Conway that the call might be a trap, the Sheriff started to the scene of the disturbance. He had walked only to the street corner, a few yards outside his home on Hibbard street, when the shot was fired.

State, city and county officers quickly threw out a cordon around Pikeville, and bloodhounds were hurriedly summoned from Jenkins. The dogs trailed the killer from the near-by Hudson garage to the river. There the trail was temporarily lost, then picked up at another point, the assassin apparently having waded into the stream, then back out on the Pikeville shore in an effort to throw off pursuers. From that point the trail continued to a short distance from the Pikeville Ice Company where it was lost.

A German rifle was later found approximately 90 feet from Conway's body. The shot is believed to have been fired from the garage roof. A piece of torn roofing from the garage was found near the outside grease rack, and investigators interpreted this to mean the slaver had torn the roof in pulling himself onto it. The badly shattered bullet which killed the officer was being compared ballistically with another bullet fired from the rifle.

The ambush-slaying, branded in Pikeville as "a cowardly thing," created high feeling in the community. A crowd estimated as in the thou-

PROBE THREE STORE THEFTS

Two Left Beaver Stores Entered Monday; Martin Store Robbed Saturday

Sheriff A. B. Meade and deputies investigated three store lootings in the county this week, and at the scenes of two of the breaks took fingerprints in an effort to identify the looters.

Burglarized were the L. L. Lynch store at Martin, Saturday night, the Top Hat Mining Company store at Orkney and the People's Store at McDowell, both on Monday night.

In the McDowell store case two youths were arrested. John Tackett and an Osborne boy were listed here. They were released on bond, Sheriff Meade said a boy told of seeing the two break into the store but County Judge Henry Stumbo said he gave varying versions of the robbery and would be quizzed again.

Approximately $25 in silver was taken from the cash register of Lynch's store, also some cigarettes. A clue was uncovered when George Pismus told of a resident of Martin borrowing a screwdriver from him "to get a tack out of his shoe." Officers found the same screwdriver beside the cash register over a creek bank.

Shoes, men's trousers, shirts and cigarettes were missing from the Lack of Orders Hurts More Than Car Shortage

The current shortage in railroad cars for coal shipment is a normal aftermath of a lay-off at mines, whether as a result of vacation or strike, it was said here this week.

Whatever the shortage, few mines in this county have been forced to shorten their work-week as a result, it was learned from this source. Only "captive" mines and perhaps one or two other counties have been adversely affected by the tie-up in cars.

But, said this authority, a lack of orders had several of the county's mines idle, one or more days this week. The market, strangely enough, The Times was told, is not improved, though improvement is expected soon.

The Harlan and Hazard Coal Associations produced figures showing that Eastern Kentucky coal mines failed to get almost 3,000 coal cars they needed last week. This would account, these sources said, to around 180,000 tons of coal which could not be mined because of curtailed shipping facilities.

The number of coal cars it could not place was not reported by the Chesapeake & Ohio, the nation's largest coal hauler. However, its mines loaded 3,000 fewer cars last week than the week before. The C. & O. serves the Big Sandy mines.

Various explanations of the car shortage were given:

1. Thousands of cars are tied up in ports of the lower Great Lakes, where they had hauled coal to be shipped by boat to ports on the upper Lakes.

2. Six-day operation at many mines and five-day work weeks at receiving points have caused many cars to be tied up over week-ends.

3. Cars are being used by mines for storing coal that is mined but not sold. This is done by loading without a shipping bill. Sometimes the cars remain on the mine tracks a week or 10 days.

The Interstate Commerce Commission put into effect Tuesday a new rule on demurrage. Heretofore, railroads were not required to count Saturdays and Sundays in figuring the three "free" days allowed to unload a car.

Now, receivers of freight must pay demurrage charges--$3 a day--for Saturdays and Sundays also if free time already has expired.

INFANT DIES AT MARTIN

Shelley Jean Sykes, six-months-old daughter of Eugene and Betty Marie King Sykes, of Martin, died Monday at 11:30 a. m., at the Beaver Valley hospital at Martin. Besides the parents, one brother, Alvin Lee, survives. Funeral services were held at the Freewill Baptist Church at Drift, the Revs. Douglas Burkett and Green Boyd officiating. Burial was made in the Lucy Hall cemetery at McDowell under direction of the Arnold & Hall Funeral Home.

School Superintendent Reappointment Rights Cited in Legal Opinion

FRANKFORT, Ky., July 23—An opinion that school superintendents do not have the same rights to reappointments that qualified teachers have was given here this week by Assistant Attorney General W. Owen Keller.

The letter went to Supt. Martin L. Roberts of Henderson County schools. He asked specifically about the status of Carl Vincent former county school superintendent there. Qualified teachers after four years of service have a right to reappointment to some school in their district, unless discharged for cause.

Keller pointed out Kentucky's constitution limits a state officer's term to four years. He explained that if a superintendent had tenure rights in his post, that would automatically assure him a longer term in office than the constitution permits, since he is a state officer.

FIGHT ANEW IS LAUNCHED

On Stream Pollution; Zimmerman Is Member Of State Commission

A new campaign against pollution of Kentucky streams has been launched through the organization of the State Water Pollution Commission, one of the citizen-members of which is H. O. Zimmerman, chief engineer of the Inland Steel Company at Wheelwright.

Chairman of the new commission is Henry Ward, state commissioner of conservation. F. Clarke Dugan, director of the division of sanitary engineering of the Department of Health, will serve as technical secretary and administrative agent.

Three other State officials are ex officio members of the Commission. They are Bruce Underwood, Commissioner of Health, A. E. Funk, Attorney General and Earl Wallace, Director of the Division of Game and Fish.

The other citizen-member is Newton Neel, city engineer at Henderson, representing municipalities. Mr. Zimmerman represents industry.

The Commission was created at the 1950 session of the General Assembly. Its purpose is to consolidate activities of State government and the control and abatement of water pollution and to center in one agency authority covering the subject which has been divided among three State agencies. Under the new law, plans for the construction of new disposal systems and treatment works must be submitted to the Commission for approval. The Commission is granted authority to take action against any person or company discharging anything into the waters of the State which contributes to their pollution. Commissioner Ward also is chairman of the Ohio River Valley Water Sanitation Commission, which is composed of eight states in the Ohio River basin and which seeks through interstate consolidation to combat pollution in this basin.

PRICE DOWNS MARTIN, 8-4

Frasure's Circuit Blast In Last of Ninth Unties And Doubles Tilt Count

Rightfielder Frasure proved himself a "right handy man" at bat Sunday when his homer in the last half of the ninth inning not only untied the ball game but handed his team victory by a doubled score as Price defeated Martin, 8-4, in a Big Sandy league baseball game at Price.

The end of eight innings found the host nine ahead, 4-0, but that was before the "hectic ninth." Littleton, Price pitcher, had lean whistling up to this point.

The top of the ninth saw Martin's timber swinging cut a wide swath aided by a Price error. Three singles disturbed the Price defenses and Martin registered a collection of four tallies to tie the score at 4-4.

Price batsmen, taking their turn at the plate, retaliated rather suddenly. I. Stumbo, first man to the plate, singled. Second batter Ward went to first on an error and Riley, third man up, walked to load the bases.

With a full deck on hand and two strikes and one ball looking him in the face, Frasure chilled his circuit clot to put the game on ice.

Other individual performances in the Price lineup credited centerfielder Ward with good hitting, two hits and two runs in five times at bat, and sparking defensive work in throwing out two men tagging at third from scoring attempts. Littleton, winning pitcher, contributed to his own victory by swatting two hits for three tries. Wolford fattened his percentages with two for three runs. Roy Martin's defensive play at third was notable.

An outstanding defensive play for the visiting team was the spectacular catch by Jones in the eighth inning which deflated a Price rally. McCarty, Martin centerfielder, thrashed Littleton's mound offerings hard for three hits in four efforts.

AUTHOR URGES HIGHER PAY

Standards and Training To Better Kentucky's Elementary Schools

Lexington, Ky., July 16—Increased salaries together with higher standards of preparation and training for principals are important steps along the road toward giving Kentucky elementary schools better administration and supervision.

This is the central theme of a report on elementary principalship in the state just published by the University of Kentucky Bureau of School Service. Author of the report is Dr. Lyman V. Ginger, chairman of the Division of Instruction and Placement of the U.K. College of Education.

In the report Dr. Ginger recommends that salaries of Kentucky's elementary principals be increased "to the point where in-service training and summer school preparation could be afforded without having to rely upon outside positions either during vacation time or after school hours."

Average annual salary of the state's elementary principals now is approximately $2,000 as compared with a national average of $3,622, according to the report. The U.K. educator recommends a beginning salary of $3,600 for full-time principals and one of $3,000 for part-time principals.

Other recommendations included in the report are: (1) that elementary principals be required to have at least a master's degree or its equivalent; (2) elementary schools with more than eight teachers should have a full-time principal devoting most of his time to administration and supervision; (3) schools of four to eight teachers should have principals who devote no more than half their time to teaching with the remainder being spent on supervision; (4) elementary school principals should be required to have at least three years' teaching experience in elementary schools; and (5) principals of 12-grade units should have at least two years' experience at both elementary and secondary levels.

Maytown Mine Inspection Report Indicates Safety Improvements, Proposals

While endorsing suitable blasting and other desirable features, including a dozen recent safety betterments, a coal-mine reinspection report released this week by the Bureau of Mines proposes additional precautions for the Nos. 8 and 30 mines of the Liberty Elkhorn Mining Company, about a mile and a half south of Maytown. The Floyd county mines employed 30 men and produced 250 tons of coal a day when they were examined in June by Inspector John H. Clawson. The No. 18 mine was formerly the No. W-8 and the No. 30 mine was opened nearby to replace the abandoned No. W-9.

Frequent roof tests were made and loose haulageway roof had been taken down, but the inspector said at least two safety posts should always be set close to each face. He advised offsetting the ventilating fan in a fireproof housing and providing it with specified safeguards, pairing a door to form an air lock in the No. 30 mine, and making preshift and weekly examinations with permissible flame safety lamps.

The mine was rock-dusted to within 25 feet of the faces and there were no coal dust accumulations, but the inspector proposed alloying excessive coal-dust effectively during cutting. He also recommended discontinuing needless car-pushing, using enclosed trip lights, equipping the locomotive with an audible warning device, eliminating remaining electrical hazards, discontinuing smoking and carrying flame-making devices in the mine, and using goggles for eye-hazardous work.

Other recent improvements included firing the permissible explosives with electric detonators and storing them safely on the surface. Installing underground transmission lines on insulators, frame-grounding certain electrical equipment, undercutting the coal before charging bore-holes, wearing protective hats and footwear, and using only permissible electric cap lamps.

The small vertical spars at the bow and stern of a U. S. Navy ship are the jack staff and the flag-staff respectively.

sands gathered Sunday for the funeral of Conway at the First Presbyterian Church, Pikeville, of which the Sheriff was a deacon. Burial was made Monday in Leitch county in the family cemetery of Mrs. Conway's father, A. C. Craft.

Immediately thereafter, County Judge Ervin S. Pruitt named Mrs. Conway to the post occupied by her husband.

Taking part in the mystery-probe are state police including State Detective Arch Thompson, Louisa, and J.E. Combs, Garrett, representatives of the FBI, and local and county officers.

The accused Vanover brothers and their father, John Vanover, operate the Rocky Gap tourist camp, near where a shot was fired, the bullet narrowly missing Sheriff Conway, less than two months ago. John Vanover and his son Hubert were named in warrants charging them with illegal transport of liquor and with resisting arrest but were released under bond. Damron, officers said, is believed to have loaned his car to the Vanover brothers on the night of the murder.

The slain officer has a brother, Dock Conway, who resides at Weeksburg. Other survivors, besides his widow, are his four daughters, Anna Ruth, Coleen, Judy and Nancy Roy; a brother, Deputy Sheriff Lora Conway, Shelbyana; one sister, Mrs. Roxie Sine, Puritan Mines, W. Va.

SAYS HIGH PRIORITY IS NEED FOR COAL TO SERVE NATION

The coal industry must be placed "high" on any priority list in the event that government begins allocation of war materials, the National Coal Association has stated in its latest official industry bulletin under the heading, "Coal Is Ready to Serve the Nation." The statement is presented as a "few fundamental facts that must be kept in mind" by those in government as well as by everyone else serving in pertinent capacities under emergency conditions.

The Association's statement reminds readers that there "cannot be any steel for any purpose without coal" and emphasizes the point by stating, "It is important to keep in mind that coal is the basis for steel."

"There can be no new cars, no utility maintenance, no locomotives and no guns," nor the "thousand and one things made from steel, unless there is coal to make the steel," the association asserts as it lists these fundamental points that must be observed in any national emergency.

1. There is plenty of coal in the ground to be taken out, and the reserves are ample.

2. The bituminous coal industry has all its plants and facilities ready now to produce all the coal needed.

3. Equipment and supplies must be kept flowing steadily to the mines in order to maintain productive capacity. The list includes mining machines, steel rails, rods, wire rope, mine cars, electric fans, motors, batteries, tires, timbers, and "dozens of every-day items for repairs and maintenance."

4. Manpower to operate these highly mechanized facilities, as well as a trained supervisory force, is "more important than the equipment itself."

5. Transportation is vital, and railroads must be given the cars and power to move the coal.

"The coal industry wants no favors for itself," the statement continues. "The interest of the country comes first, and in order to best serve that interest the coal industry must be kept strong. Management will do its part and cooperate in every way."

Dr. Palmer To Deliver Commencement Address At Pikeville College

Dr. Lowell H. Palmer will deliver the commencement address to the largest summer graduating class in the history of Pikeville College at the summer commencement exercises Friday evening at 8 o'clock. President A. A. Page, of the college, announced this week.

Five Floyd county residents are among the 47 students who expect to receive their diplomas at the exercises. All five finished their work during the term which ended June 30.

Dr. Palmer is stated clerk and executive secretary of the Cincinnati Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. (Northern Presbyterian.) A missionary to the Comanche Indians while a young man, he still speaks the Comanche dialect.

The Floyd graduates are C. L. Akers, Grethel; Magdalene Bentley, McDowell; Forrest E. Elliott, Weeksburg; Geneva Prater, Hueysville; and Clara Helen Reynolds, Allen.

Mrs. Maurice Clark, Lebanon, Ky., granddaughter of the late Mrs. May Stanley, of Tram, is also a member of the graduating class.

Five U. S. Navy civilian employees have submitted suggestions that will save the Navy and the taxpayers more than $220,000 in the first year of their application.

Mrs. Ida Carlton, 68, Resident of Auxier, Victim at Hospital

Mrs. Ida Banks Carlton, 68, of Auxier, died at 8 p.m. Saturday at the Paintsville hospital. Appendicitis was given as the cause of death.

A former resident of Allen and Prestonsburg, Mrs. Carlton was born at Water Gap, a daughter of Harvey and Laura Bingham Banks. She was first married in 1905 to Dick McGuire, and later to T. P. Carlton. Mrs. Carlton was a member of the Free Will Baptist Church.

Survivors, besides her husband, are three daughters, Mrs. Alton Campbell, Emma, Mrs. Dewey Goodman, West Prestonsburg, Mrs. Harold Williamson, Sidney, and two sons, Estill McGuire, Prestonsburg, Sgt. Richard McGuire, who is in Germany with the army. Also surviving are three sisters, Mrs. Lula Ratliff, Praise, Mrs. Charley Phillips, Ashcamp, Mrs. Charley Nolan, Manitoba, Canada; two brothers, Harve Banks, Wayland, Dick Banks, Ashcamp; and 13 grandchildren.

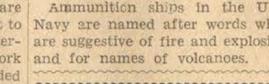

Funeral services were held Monday at the Horn Chapel, the Revs. Isaac Stratton, and Woodrow Branham officiating. Burial was made in the John Branham cemetery under direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

In contrast to the recent 5,200-mile submerged voyage of the snorkel-type submarine, USS PICKEREL, which traveled under water for 565 hours in her trip from Hong Kong to Pearl Harbor, the Navy's first submarine, HOLLAND, was capable of cruising submerged about 40 miles.

Ammunition ships in the U. S. Navy are named after words which are suggestive of fire and explosives, and for names of volcanoes.

Carl D. PERKINS

Deserves Your Support

In less than two years as Congressman from this district Carl D. Perkins has established a high record of endeavor and achievement which surely will earn for him the support of all thinking citizens.

His industry, devoted to the people of the Seventh Congressional district and to the nation, has been the subject of discussion by nationally-famous columnists. His faithful attendance at Congressional sessions cannot be overlooked. The record he has established in this respect is perhaps unexcelled among the 435 members of the House.

If you, as an individual voter, have ever called on Carl Perkins for a favor, you know as well as any other his ready willingness to be of assistance in any worthwhile cause. You do not have to be a member of a powerful group to gain his support, if you are in the right; Carl Perkins meets the people and their needs individually.

The teachers and all who are the friends of teachers know of his hard work in behalf of federal aid for education. In this he has been a national leader. It is a fight he hopes to continue until the ultimate victory.

Labor, the aged and the unemployed have found his support of various items of legislation most helpful. Again, Congressman Perkins is looking here to the needs of individuals, to helping men and women whose needs cry out for relief.

The coal industry of the Seventh district also knows of the quick action he and other members of the Kentucky delegation in Congress took to correct the situation in which coal was being destroyed by importation of oil from foreign countries and by its cheap sale in competition with our own American industries.

During his first term in Congress, Carl Perkins' advancement has been steady and sure, a tribute to the confidence in which he is held by national leaders. Of this phase of his career Majority Leader John McCormack wrote in an unsolicited letter (see elsewhere in this space):

"In my twenty-two years as a member of the National House of Representatives, there is no Member who has advanced more rapidly than you."

Farmer, teacher, miner, business man—whatever your place in life,—you can call on Congressman Perkins with complete confidence that you not only are being heard in Washington but that you have a friend there who will be working and fighting for you as long as you are right and are asking nothing detrimental to the future of the country.

Keep your friend, Carl Perkins, in Congress—go to the polls Saturday, August 5, and vote for him.

PERKINS CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE

(Pol. adv.)

The following unsolicited letter from Majority Leader McCormack is concrete evidence of the esteem in which Congressman Perkins is held by Congressional leaders:

JOHN W. McCORMACK
12th District, Massachusetts

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Office of the Majority Leader
Washington, D.C.

June 1, 1950

Honorable Carl D. Perkins
Member of Congress
Hindman, Kentucky

Dear Carl:

As Majority Leader, and as a Democratic colleague of yours, I want to convey to you the high regard that I have for you personally, and as a Member of the Congress. You are a credit to the people of your District. They are justified in feeling proud of you for the high and outstanding character of service you have rendered to them and to your state and to our country.

In my twenty-two years as a Member of the National House of Representatives, there is no Member who has advanced more rapidly than you. Your great ability; your sound, forward-looking as well as understanding and tolerant outlook of legislation and of life; your courage, as well as your devotion to the best interests of your people, have created in the mind of your colleagues the deep feeling of respect for you and confidence in you.

Speaker Rayburn and I have complete confidence in you.

Seniority means a great deal in the Congress to the people of the District. It is a powerful factor that the people of the District should not overlook.

When a Congressional District has a member like you representing them;—one who is honorable and trustworthy, who is so much respected, and who occupies a most prominent place in the council of the Democratic Party, it is an excellent investment for the people of your District to keep you in the Congress, thereby enabling you to obtain further seniority, which is a very important factor in the Congress.

My high regard and deep respect for you prompts me as an individual and as Majority Leader to convey to you by this letter the high regard I have for you, both personally and as a legislator, and to express the sincere hope that the people of your District will nominate and re-elect you.

With kind personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,
JOHN W. McCORMACK
Majority Leader

Counties Must Apply Directly to State Body For Needed Medical Aid

Belief that counties needing funds for medical centers must apply directly to the State Property and Buildings Commission has been expressed by Assistant Attorney General M. B. Holfield.

His opinion was given to W. H. Atterbury of the commission after Dr. Bruce Underwood, state health commissioner, requested $100,000 to match county and federal funds for the centers. Dr. Underwood said that would assure federal aid of $500,000.

Holfield commented that the Property and Buildings Commission needs the State Board of Health's technical advice as to needs of counties and groups of counties establishing centers for medical treatment.

But he added state law requires the commission to deal directly in each case and not to allocate funds to the Board of Health in such cases.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

On April 8, 1950, a meeting composed of the friends of Congressman Carl D. Perkins, was held in the basement of the Methodist Church in Pikeville, Ky. And at this meeting this group of citizens endorsed Mr. Perkins for re-nomination for Congress, on the Democratic ticket. The text of the resolution appears below. However, the most important factor is not the resolution itself but the signatures affixed to the resolution is indeed important, such county officials as Circuit Judge Edward P. Hill, County Attorney Woodrow Burchett, County Court Clerk DuRan Moore, Former State Representative Bill Biggers, State Representative John Milton Stumbo, County Judge Henry Stumbo, County Tax Commissioner Clive Akers, State Senator Saw Logging Doug Hays, Circuit Court Clerk W. W. Cooley, Sheriff Floyd County Banner Meade, and State Representative Henry C. Hale, and appearing on the resolution are several representatives from the various local unions in the district, and Sam Caddy, Tom Raney and Carson Hibbits, representatives of the United Mine Workers of America.

It is rumored that some of the honorable gentlemen's names appearing on this resolution from Floyd county are dishonoring their own signature or signed word of endorsement and are pulling a sneak attack against Congressman Perkins.

We call upon every miner in Floyd county to remember these men, and place them in your book as men to vote against in the future when they run for office.

Respectfully submitted
TOM RANEY
CARSON HIBBITS

RESOLUTION
(Adopted at Pikeville meeting April 8, 1950)

WHEREAS, The Hon. Carl D. Perkins, Representative to the Congress of the United States from the Seventh Congressional District, Commonwealth of Kentucky has demonstrated by his acts that he is truly an able and sincere representative of the people of his District, and

WHEREAS, Congressman Perkins has capably and efficiently represented the schools, the churches, and other civic organizations, and the predominant faction of organized labor, the United Mine Workers of America, within the Seventh Congressional District in the halls of Congress, and

WHEREAS, Congressman Perkins has demonstrated fearless leadership and outspoken courage, and untiring activity in defense of, and supported and sponsored legislation beneficial to the aforementioned organizations and his constituency and to the nation as a whole by these acts and examples, and

WHEREAS, Congressman Perkins has been dynamically active and persistent in his fearless and continuous efforts to secure repeal of the infamous and despicable Taft-Hartley Law; an act, which will if not repealed, enslave and destroy our free democratic unions in America and make a mockery of collective bargaining, and he has championed Federal Mine Safety for the miners of the nation, and

WHEREAS, Congressman Perkins has shown equally dynamic activity in his sincere and courageous fight of and for Federal Aid to Education, a measure drastically needed in our American school system, and

WHEREAS, Congressman Perkins holds the debt of gratitude from every laboring man and woman in these United States for his unstinting and active support culminating in the passage of the Federal Wage and Hour Law, which raised the minimum wages of the unorganized from 40c to 75c per hour, and

WHEREAS, Congressman Perkins has worked actively for, and sponsored legislation favorable to American War Veterans in effort to alleviate their particular and pressing problems, and

WHEREAS, Congressman Perkins has sponsored and supported remedial legislation to provide proper and adequate housing for the citizens of our land, and

WHEREAS, Congressman Perkins has demonstrated his understanding of the national and international problems that beset the democratic nations in this critical era in world history. He has played an outstanding and decisive part in the passage of legislation instrumental to world recovery and the extension of democratic ideals to other nations as opposed to the totalitarian oppression that seeks to encompass us all. He has, by word and deed, stood for all that is virtuous and honorable, true and far-seeing, and representing by heart and hand the trust he has pledged.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, THAT the representatives of the United Mine Workers herein assembled, the many county officials and outstanding friends of labor give their unqualified endorsement to Congressman Carl D. Perkins to receive the nomination and election as Congressman from the Seventh Congressional District and pledge their support in the coming campaign.

CRASH CLAIMS LIVES OF TWO

Mud Creek Men Die In Highway Tragedy; Pike Countian Injured

Two Mud Creek men were killed and a Pike countian was critically injured when a Model A Ford roadster in which they were driving crashed into a coal truck on a curve near East McDowell, late Friday afternoon.

The dead are Ernest Hamilton, 22, and his distant cousin, Paul G. Hamilton, 26, both of Teaberry.

The injured man, Delmer Kiser, of Penny, Pike county, was in an unconscious condition when taken to the Beaver Valley hospital at Martin.

Ernest Hamilton, driver of the car, died almost instantly of a crushed skull as the auto was reduced to a mass of wreckage. His cousin, who owned the auto, died en route to the hospital of a broken neck and a crushed chest.

State police who investigated the tragedy, said the car, which was in poor mechanical condition, apparently ran under the side of the truck-bed. The auto was being driven up Left Beaver Creek as the Hamiltons and Kiser were en route to Mud Creek via Ligon, McClelland Hall, 51, Bevinville, driver of the truck, was uninjured, although the truck was damaged.

Hall said the auto swung wide on the curve and that he drove the outside wheels of the truck off the pavement to avoid a collision. Police said the auto was reported as traveling at about 40 miles an hour at the time of the accident. B. H. Hopper, Floyd deputy sheriff, said he reached the scene, immediately after the crash and he corroborated Hall's claim the auto rammed into the truck. He said the car apparently had swung wide at the curve, that the driver then attempted to cut sharply back to the right and that the car then veered into the truck. He expressed the opinion that steering mechanism of the car had become fouled.

Paul Hamilton, a miner, was a son of the Rev. John B. Hamilton, well-known Baptist minister, and Mrs. Hamilton, of Teaberry. They had a widow, Mrs. Dolly Johnson Hamilton, and four children, John B., Ruby, Edgill and Plumaline, survive. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Ranold, John, Chester, Erasmus, Nadine, Palmer and Priscilla Hamilton, all of Teaberry, and Pauline Hamilton, of Betsy Layne.

Ernest Hamilton was a son of Thomas and Lizzie Newsom Hamilton, who survive. Other survivors include three brothers and seven sisters: Victoria, Andy, Fanny, Curt and Agnes Grace Hamilton, Mrs. Edna Bryant and Mrs. Walter Hamilton, all of Teaberry, Artie Hamilton, of Hi Hat, Hiram Hamilton, Rockwood, Mich., Lily Hamilton, Norton, Va.; and two half-brothers, Harrison and Freeman Hamilton, both of Virgie.

Rites for both victims were held today (Thursday). Officiating at the funeral of Ernest Hamilton were the Revs. Milford Adams, Ivan Hamilton, Bert Newsome, Jonah Isaacs and Trip Hall. Burial was directed by the Arnold & Hall Funeral Home. The funeral of Paul Hamilton was held from the home of his parents, the Revs. Frank Hopkins, E. V. Hamilton and Jerry Hall officiating. Burial was made under direction of the Ryan Funeral Home.

Both victims were buried in the A. J. Hamilton cemetery at Teaberry.

State Better's Quota For Bond Sales Drive But Floyd 23 Pct. Short

Kentucky's quota of $8,190,000 for the Independence Drive in the sale of Series E bonds has ended with the state 4.8 percent past its goal, N. L. Rockey, state director, announced last week.

Floyd county, however, attained only 77 percent of its quota. The bond sale goal for this county was $44,000. Purchases totaled $33,900. Counties in this section which exceeded their quota were Breathitt, Perry, Elliott, Lawrence, Rowan, Greenup, Magoffin and Morgan. Fifty-eight counties, in all, exceeded their quotas.

The Naval War College, Newport, Rhode Island, is the highest educational institution in the U. S. Navy and the oldest of its type in the United States. It graduated its first class of nine officers in 1885, the year after the college was founded. The mission of the college is to prepare officers for higher command by giving them an understanding of fundamentals of warfare, with emphasis on naval warfare.

Lancer Man Suffers Attack of Amnesia

A youth about 23 years old, dark hair and medium size, was brought to West Liberty hospital last Saturday evening and given treatment by Dr. Ralph Gullett. When brought to the hospital he was unconscious, but later regained consciousness and gave his name as Dallas Chapman. Dr. Gullett said there were no marks as to any violence, but reported that the youth was suffering from amnesia.

A Testament was found on the youth in which was found the name of Dallas Chapman, which seemed to corroborate the victim's statement.

Chapman said that he was born in Clinton, Georgia, and went to school at that place. He also said he was a member of the Bowling Green Baptist church and the last he remembered was going from Glasgow to Bowling Green.

Later he said his father was Johnny Chapman and that his mother was dead, and added that he was reared by foster-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Roberts at Lancer.

The victim was treated at the hospital until Thursday morning when he was sufficiently improved to be removed. The Rev. Drexel R. Hankins, pastor of the West Liberty Baptist church, accompanied him to Floyd county where he said he now lived. —(Licking Valley Courier.)

Warrens Rites Held At Goose Creek Home; Farmer, Dropsy Victim

Funeral of Jack Warrens, 78 years old, well-known Goose Creek farmer who died at his home Wednesday night last week, was conducted Saturday night from the residence.

Mr. Warrens, who had been ill since last February, was a victim of dropsy. He was the last of the family of Reuben and Cinda Rattliff Warrens, and was a native of the community in which he died. He was married 38 years ago to Miss Cissy Moore, and she and the following sons and daughters survive:

Willie Warrens, Eastern, Hawley Warrens, Ray, O., Everett Warrens, Sandusky, O., Mrs. Alvin Turner, Garrett, Laura Warrens, Mrs. Maude McCombs, Mrs. Tobe Salisbury and Mrs. Ellis Gearheart, all of Eastern. He also leaves 34 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Officiating at the funeral were the Revs. M. C. Wright, Hawley Warrens, Mitchell Chaffins, Banner Manns, Rich Griffith and Alex Coburn. Burial in the Allen cemetery on Goose Creek was directed by the Arnold & Hall Funeral Home.

CALLS ON CHURCH PEOPLE TO SUPPORT CARL PERKINS

Regular Baptists, the day has come when you should move forward and exert your influence as free men in national as well as in local affairs. Are you ready to do it? You can if you will. You surely will do it.

Do you remember during the last war that Regular Baptist preachers were unable to get gasoline to operate their automobiles unless they would sign an affidavit that they were using their cars three-fourths of their time in their church work? Preachers who were preaching for a salary could sign the affidavit and get gasoline plenty. If any man should have gasoline to operate his car at any time in war or out of war, it should be the preacher who works with his hands to earn his living and then goes and preaches the Gospel without charge.

Today you once more see war clouds hanging low, heavy and dark over all the earth and some of our American boys—God bless them—are fighting and dying in battle on foreign soil, that liberty may be preserved and communism dethroned and crushed into oblivion.

The call to arms has been sounded. The draft call has already reached many homes and rationing of most everything, including gasoline, is in prospect. Then Regular Baptist preachers, with all other preachers who refuse to preach for money, will be discriminated against again unless it can be stopped.

Over a year ago, the writer had a talk with Hon. Carl Perkins, our present Congressman, about this awful discrimination against our ministers and he promised to use his influence in any capacity needed to see that this does not happen again. Carl Perkins will do this. He knows us. His wife's mother, Mrs. Russell Johnson, of Mousie, Kentucky, is a member of the Regular Baptist Church. In view of the present world crisis and the promise by Carl Perkins over a year ago, also in view of his acquaintance with officials of the national government, his already established influence which is very great, and his indomitable courage to fight for the right, the writer will work for and hope for the nomination of our good friend and neighbor, Carl Perkins, and he hopes that everyone of our brothers will go to the Primary election on Saturday, August 5, and cast their vote for Carl. Will you do this, please?

Humbly yours,
WILLARD S. AKERS,
Martin, Ky.

Expressing his gratitude for the honor, Col. C. B. Richmond, president of Kentucky Military Institute at Lyndon near Louisville, received the honorary title of "Grand Sir" of Floyd county at a meeting of the KMI Alumni Association Big Sandy chapter meeting, July 21 at Paintsville.

The title, awarded by Prestonsburg Mayor Curtis Clark in behalf of the Floyd county fiscal court, was bestowed upon the school head in recognition of his contribution to Kentucky education.

The Paintsville meeting, which was held at the Howard hotel, heard Col. Richmond praise Floyd county students of past and present at KMI. He said that approximately 35 Floyd countians had attended his school. Major Hodgins, of the KMI faculty, and other notable guests were present. Movies of the school were shown.

Approximately 40 convening alumni members named Curtis Clark, Prestonsburg, president, and R. D. Francis, Prestonsburg, vice-president, among officers elected for the coming year.

The group, with about 200 members, represents 15 counties in Eastern Kentucky and West Virginia.

According to reports emanating from Pikeville this week, Pope is the eighth mine fatality for the year in the Big Sandy-Tug rivers coal field and the 36th so far in the state.

Funeral services for Pope were conducted at 10 o'clock Sunday morning at Duran Pope's residence at the mouth of Newsome Branch in Pike county. Burial followed in the Newsome cemetery there.

Two Floyd county mine employees were seriously hurt in accidents Monday. Tom Spradlin, about 50, suffered broken ribs and cuts about his head when a motor ran into him while he was at a welding job for the Elk Horn Coal Corporation at Wayland, and was removed Wednesday morning from Our Lady of the Way hospital, Martin, to a Lexington hospital. He was said to have developed pneumonia. Ed Layne, of Tram, motor brakeman for the Turner-Elkhorn Coal Company at Drift, sustained a fractured pelvis when he was rolled between the mine roof and the moving motor. He is in the Methodist hospital, Pikeville.

Even Floyd county officialdom did not miss the plague of thievery during the week-end. When Magistrate J. E. Harris sent workmen to begin operation of his steam shovel in the Dewey reservoir area Tuesday, they found the air compressor missing from the shovel and the distributor cap and wiring gone from his truck.

AUTOMOBILE CLUBS QUESTION FURTHER DRAIN ON ROAD FUND

John W. Manning, Commissioner of Finance for the State of Kentucky, took time out last week to answer several questions put to him by two Kentucky automobile clubs, the Blue Grass Club and the Louisville Club. Manning assured the clubs there was nothing wrong with the financing arrangements of the highway department and offered to answer further questions about fund allotments.

Manning had been asked several questions by the Boards of Directors of the Louisville and Lexington Clubs. Briefly, they were these:

Why was $342,000 taken from the road fund and put into the Agricultural and Industrial Development Board? Was this transfer of funds legal?

Why the appropriation of $1,344,000 to the Department of Revenue, an increase of 144.4 percent over the last biennium?

Why were appropriations to other departments of state government increased by 104.7 per cent for the present biennium? This was a dollar increase of $2,424,310.

The Clubs wanted to know too, aside from the appropriations to the State Police, why other state agencies should have "an amazing 218 per cent increase" take from the highway fund for the two year period beginning July 1.

The automobile clubs have been concerned with the whopping increase in administrative costs to be paid out of highway funds. They questioned if these appropriations were in violation of the Kentucky Constitution which prohibits diversion of road money.

In Manning's reply, he said that the Agricultural and Industrial Board was more than it seemed. It aids highway construction, reconstruction, maintenance and repair of public highways and bridges and is an item which can be charged either to road construction or to the cost of administration, he said. Manning said further that since the Federal government matches funds to the Board, the present transfer of road funds between departments "is merely a matter of convenience."

Manning claimed for the first time the state accurately computed the cost of tax administration for the several funds of the state. Each fund was supposed to "pay its own way," and figures showed the road fund should contribute $1,344,000 to the Department of Revenue as its share of the administrative cost. "I must confess that this is quite an increase over what the allotment has been in past years," he said.

The Commissioner said every allotment from the road fund to another government department was made after administrative costs were accurately determined. The treasurer's office keeps records and writes checks for both the road fund and the general fund. Before it was decided how much the Department of Finance should get, the state actually counted all the documents processed for the road fund, Manning said.

STRENGTH..
FOR WHOM?

The people of Floyd county, just now, are being told by a few office-holders and State Administration hangers-on that in the man from Union county—Governor Clements—lies the Democratic party's strength.

In Union, then, we might say there is strength. Then we might follow that up with the question, "Strength for whom?"

Not for the common people, certainly.

Not for Labor, nor for Education. Nor for Constitutional government.

Then for whom this strength? The answer is—FOR EARLE C. CLEMENTS AND HIS GANG.

Has his "strength" been expended for the people of Floyd county in proportion to that given for other counties? Consult the record:

Not until this election year was a road contract of any importance whatever awarded in Floyd county, and even now, although an eleventh hour attempt is being made to fool the people by asking road contract bids and starting some work which should have been done, long ago, the highway work promised Floyd county is insignificant in comparison with the road favors granted other counties of the state.

Your taxes haven't been lowered. On the contrary, they are going up. And you're getting little in return except promises on which we all have lived in hope and died in despair for these many years.

At the recent session of the Legislature, you will recall, the people even were robbed of the Constitutional procedures of government on which our fathers before us had depended. That was only a few short months ago when the Constitution of Kentucky became "another scrap of paper." Remember?

Floyd county and the entire Big Sandy section also lost, partly because this strong man from Union failed us, to win their fight for canalization of the Big Sandy river, the one hope of economic salvation we have. It is true, the Governor said he was "for it" and that he sent a few telegrams. But, except for lip tribute, he gave no strength to that great cause.

The people of Arkansas won their fight for river improvement, a project much below the economic ratio of Big Sandy canalization, BECAUSE THE GOVERNOR OF ARKANSAS WENT TO WASHINGTON AND THERE PERSONALLY LED THE FIGHT.

The teachers of Floyd and every other county, unless their memories are more fickle than we think they are, have not forgotten the scorn with which their pleas for higher salaries were met by this same Strong Man from Union. At the same time, the Governor was the leader in seeing that the salaries of elective officials—men who had spent perhaps thousands of dollars to get their jobs—are greatly increased.

The people also will doubtless recall the petty spirit which prompted the Governor to beat down every bill introduced by Harry Lee Waterfield, regardless of the merit of the Waterfield legislation, simply because Waterfield had dared oppose him for office and had declined to bow the knee to him.

From Union there comes Strength only for the "elect," the members of the inner circle who bask in the sunshine of the master's smile because they roll over and play dead at the snap of a finger, or spring to his beck and call.

And Labor, the miners in particular, surely remember that the man from Union county gave to them none of his strength. Only a few short months ago, when the fight led by Floyd county legislators and Harry Lee Waterfield for a Mine Safety bill had been beaten down by Administration forces, Sam Caddy told newspaper men the United Mine Workers of America backed the wrong man when they supported Clements for Governor. Does he expect the miners now to believe they would be backing the right man for Senator if they support this same Earle Clements?

The men who do the work in the mines are not fools. They are as capable of doing their own thinking as anybody. They know that men do not change their sympathies over-night. They know that if Earle Clements wasn't their friend, last January, he isn't their friend these last few days before a primary election is held, and will not be their friend later.

In Union there is strength? For whom? You answer that one.

We lift up our eyes unto the Hills whence cometh our strength. George Glenn Hatcher, now Kentucky's Secretary of State, was born and reared in these Hills—in Floyd county's hills—and the loyalty and voting power of all of us of Floyd county belong to him.

We beg of you—Do not throw your own down and embrace the occasional visitor whose only interest in you lies in what you can do for him at the polls.

Go to the polls Saturday, August 5, and show Kentucky that mountain men and women still are loyal and that no man is so powerful as to make them afraid to express their loyalty. VOTE FOR GEORGE GLENN HATCHER FOR U.S. SENATOR!

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES!

IF YOU'RE PALE AS A GHOST!

When your skin has a pallor (sallow complexion) with that faded-out look, or your nerves are jaded and you have that "all-in" feeling, it is usually due to one thing, that is: BLOOD POVERTY

Your blood cells may be fagged-out or shrunken, and you might not realize it. Even if you eat the "best" foods you may not be getting all the good out of your meals simply because you have SLOW Digestion without knowing it (or gassy stomach) and as a result you are a victim of Blood Poverty! In other words, your blood is not getting the fullest good out of what you eat. So your blood-cells become worn-down and you have only half as much energy as you really need, you get up in the mornings still tired, and your nerves become dull.

Hundreds here in Prestonsburg suffered with "faded-out" blood and stomach gas until they got CERTA-VIN. This is the new medicine containing 12 herbs blended with Vitamin B and Iron; you take it before meals and it works with your good. Benefit comes quickly. Your food digests PASTER, with less gassiness, and you get more good out of your meals and it works with your food, energized with new red cells and your nerves become stronger. Weak, rundown people tell us they soon feel different all over. And best of all, our price on CERTA-VIN is reasonable. You can actually take this new, modern medicine for only a Few Cents a Day! So don't go on feeling half-sick and half-well. Get Certa-Vin—W. A. ROSE DRUG CO. (Formerly Hughes Drug Store.)

Floyd County Times

Official Organ for Floyd County, Ky.
Published Every Thursday by Prestonsburg Publishing Co.

Entered as second class matter June 19, 1927, at the postoffice at Prestonsburg, Ky., under the act of March 3, 1879.

Vote!

Over in a place called Korea young Americans are dying, this very moment, for American ideals of freedom and independent government. Among our freedoms is the right to vote as we please.

If these young men are to be sacrificed on the altar of freedom, cannot we left at home take time out long enough to exercise these blood-bought rights?

Don't you think you should take time to vote?

This lackadaisical attitude adopted by so many who seek an excuse for their lack of interest in their government by saying the politicians will count the votes as they want to, anyhow, is what makes it possible for men who would steal votes to be elected to office. The men in uniform are bearing arms against a foe who would destroy the free ballot; we at home have the tools at hand with which to fight those who would undermine clean government and freedom by election thievery and treachery.

There is no excuse for failing to vote, and to vote as you please. You may not be interested in this election, but you should be interested in your rights as citizens.

The Times does not presume to tell any person how to vote, but it does urge you—vote your honest sentiments at this election and every election.

An Act of Anarchy

If there is anybody still in this section of Kentucky who believes that bootlegging is merely a "pocket business" and that gambling is a hit-and-run, pickayunish matter, he or she is referred to Pike county where only last Thursday night Sheriff Roy Conway, arch-foe of both, was assassinated.

This should convince all of us that the criminal elements of our population are, in some way or another, organized, that they mean to stay in business and that, meaning business, they intend to get around the law if possible, one way or the other.

Roy Conway, apparently, would not compromise with those who had big money at stake in the game. Therefore, somebody decided, Roy Conway must go.

This is a challenge to the forces of law and order in Pike county, and it is a warning to the same forces in every other county. Assassination of a public official marks a breakdown in the orderly processes of government. Men desperate enough to murder the chief enforcement officer of a county are ready, if necessary, to wipe out every individual cloaked with authority. That way lies anarchy.

One or more events which have taken place in Floyd county recently indicate that some of the lawless elements here are in the same anarchistic frame of mind. There was reported the attempted dynamiting of the home of a deputy sheriff, and threats, more or less vague, against at least one other deputy.

There is no compromise with the planners of murder. The Times trusts the cowardly killer of Pike county's Sheriff is captured—that every reasonable doubt as to his guilt will be removed—and that he will face twelve jurors of sufficient moral courage to give him the extreme penalty which he so richly deserves.

The law and the people have the weapons at hand with which to fight back in defense of good government and decency—if they will use them.

TAXES TO HIT WAGE EARNER

Higher taxes probably will take a bigger bite out of wage earners' pay envelopes before the end of the year, Secretary of the Treasury Snyder said in Washington last week.

Snyder told a news conference he is "sure" President Truman will ask Congress this week to raise individual and corporation taxes. The money would go to pay costs of defense to meet Communist aggression in Korea and elsewhere.

Congressional approval would mean bigger withholding taxes from employe paychecks.

Snyder said Mr. Truman's request would be for an "interim" tax increase to go into effect as soon as possible.

He indicated the President will send a more comprehensive tax request to Congress later this year, including a proposed tax on excess profits.

The Secretary said he is in accord with congressional leaders that no excess profits tax on corporations should be included in the interim bill because the measure should be passed quickly. He said excess profits tax proposals are so complicated they would mean extended and delaying debate.

Snyder made it clear that the interim bill being considered will not seek a change in the split-income tax practice put into effect in 1948. Under this married couples are given options in reporting income to permit savings on taxes.

The Secretary gave some indication the tax increases—but not necessarily those in the interim proposal—will amount to well over $5 billion a year. He declined to say exactly how much.

Allen Couple Married Here Saturday

Smith officiating.

Mrs. Clifton was attired in a blue street length dress with matching accessories. She has been a waitress in the Laferty restaurant at Allen for the past five years. Mr. Clifton is employed by the C & O railway company. They are now at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Clifton.

Fishing Reported Better Than Isaak Walton Dream At Kentucky Dam Vicinity

"Old Isaak never dreamed it could be this good." That's the word coming from Kentucky Lake and Kentucky Dam where exponents of the laudable art advocated by Mr. Walton are pulling them in with everything from a royal coachman to a bent pin and a silver minnow. But the best is yet to come. At least that's the information received Monday from the Division of Game & Fish at Frankfort as they made preparations for the expected mid-summer bonanza of bass and crappie.

With the season's hottest days coming on, lake experts are touting local and out-of-state fishermen to the fast waters below Kentucky Dam where exceptional catches of crappie have been recorded in the past two weeks.

Camp attendants say that better than good strings of bass and crappie have been taken in the last 10 to 12 days on surface lures and minnows. Should the weather remain fair, bass fishing is expected to hit its peak in the next two weeks.

Pointing out that during this time of the year most lakes become poor fishing spots, experts assure anglers that catches in Kentucky lake should not diminish. Game fish, throughout most of the summer months, seek to avoid hot surface water by lying idle in the deepest holes, thereby limiting the effectiveness of bait fishing and casting. However, Kentucky Lake offers an alternative.

"Kentucky Lake will remain the best fishing spot in the state," says Earl Wallace, director of the Division of Game & Fish. "In seeking cool waters, large droves of crappie and bass have moved into the area around Kentucky Dam and immediately below it in the Tennessee river. It is not unusual to catch the limit of 30 crappie in an hour or so."

Catering to the likes of fishermen who prefer comfort with their sport, the state has installed many modern cabins at both Kentucky Lake State Park and Kentucky Dam Village. A community center, comfortable cabins, tennis courts and swimming add to the attractions at Kentucky Dam Village. Rambling cottages and excellent boating facilities are an added incentive to anglers at Kentucky Lake State Park.

Easily accessible, the lake can be reached by following U.S. 68. Kentucky Dam Village is 26 miles southeast of Paducah, via U.S. 68 and Route 453, Kentucky Lake State Park is on the west bank on U.S. 68 at Egger's Ferry, 15 miles from Murray.

First of the Fine Cars in Value

Even Wiser than He Seems

PLAINLY, here travels a man wise in the ways of fine motorcars.

You know that, by the four Ventiports and the rich sweep of chrome which mark his car as a ROADMASTER.

You know it, should you trail him on the highway, by the smooth lift of the big Fireball power plant at his toe's command, by the obvious levelness of the ride he enjoys, the swift ease with which Dynaflo Drive solves his traffic problems.

What is not so plain from what you see is that here also is a man very wise in what today's dollar should buy!

For this man has all that a fine-car owner can ask for—brilliant performance, a ride without equal for gentle softness, finger-easy handling, abundant room all around him, styling that is easily the most distinguished on the highway.

Yet he paid considerably less than comparable merit costs elsewhere.

He found fewer extra charges in his delivered price, with such things as Dynaflo Drive, foam rubber cushions, windshield washers, electric clock, even non-glare rear-view mirror included in the price.

If you know fine cars, it won't take fifteen minutes behind a ROADMASTER wheel to see that here is one of the finest.

If you have inquired about prices, a single glance at the delivered figures establishes this as the big buy of the field.

Why not make both checks—especially since your Buick dealer will be glad to arrange a trial run in a ROADMASTER any time you care to call on him?

Only BUICK has Dynaflo-DRIVE* and with it goes:

HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines. (New F-263 engine in SUPER models) * NEW-PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD fenders, taper-through fenders, "double bubble" taillights * WIDE-ANGLE VISIBILITY, close-up road view both forward and back * TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and garaging, short turning radius * EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles * SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steadying torque-tube * WIDE ARRAY OF MODELS with Body by Fisher.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Dr. Paul B. Hall

FOR

REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS

FROM THE SEVENTH DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY, DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY, AUGUST 5

A SELF-MADE MAN

- He worked in the coal mines loading coal and earned enough to enable him to enter medical school.
- He taught in the public schools to help finance his medical course.
- After graduation he has devoted his entire time and efforts to the health and comfort of the people of this locality without regard for their ability to pay for his services.
- During World War I, he served his country in the United States Navy until the close of the war.
- He is well acquainted with the problems of the veteran, the coal miner, the teacher, and the people of his locality generally and is well fitted to represent them in Congress. He will advocate such legislation as will be beneficial to the people as a whole.
- Dr. Hall has thousands of relatives and friends throughout the Seventh District who will enthusiastically support him in the coming primary election.

All-Out SUPPORT of CANALIZATION of the BIG SANDY is An IMPORTANT PART of DR. PAUL B. HALL'S Platform.

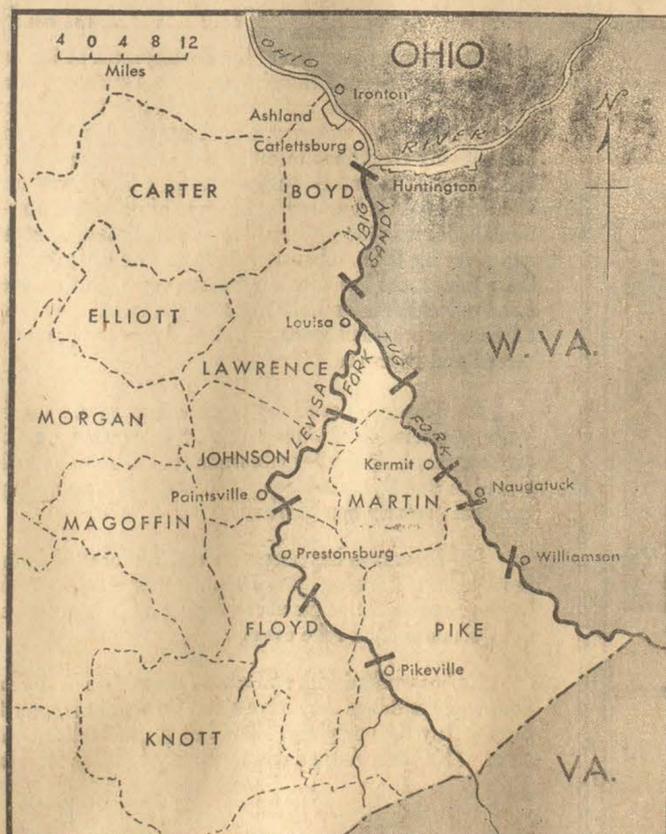

IMPORTANT FACTS AND STATISTICS ABOUT CANALIZATION OF THE BIG SANDY RIVER:

1. The project has been designed "one of the most important in the U. S." by the National Rivers and Harbors Congress.

2. The lives of more than 500,000 residents of the Big Sandy Valley are tragically affected by lack of cheap water transportation.

3. Coal shipped from the Valley by rail is sold on competitive markets with other coal shipped from neighboring states by water. The result is economic disaster although the Valley has the finest coal to be found.

4. The present emergency needs for the materials of war; the possibility of an all-out war with Russia leave no doubt that canalization not only should be a part of a national preparedness program, but is urgently needed NOW in order that the output of coal may meet our demands for any emergency.

5. Dr. Paul B. Hall will work diligently and earnestly for locks and dams of the Big Sandy River and its branches, the Tug and the Levisa Forks. The people of the Big Sandy have long looked for Congressional approval of canalization. Dr. Hall will leave no one guessing about how he stands on this issue; he will do everything in his power to see the Big Sandy Valley with its rich coal area opened up to low-cost river transportation.

6. Dr. Hall has proved by all past records that he understands the problems of the people of the Seventh District. He will fight for their welfare if he is permitted to go to Washington as their Representative.

GO to the polls on Saturday, August 5, and vote for DR. PAUL B. HALL

Five Students from Floyd Among Summer Graduates At Pikeville Jr. College

Pikeville, Ky., July 23 (Sp.)—Three young women and two men from Floyd county are among the 49 students who will be graduated from Pikeville Junior College at the school's summer commencement, August 4, President A. A. Page, of the college, announced this week. They are C. L. Akers, Grethel; Magdalene Bentley, McDowell; Forrest L. Elliott, Weeksbury; Geneva Prater, Hueysville; and Clara Helen Reynolds, Allen.

Commencement exercises for the class will begin at 8 p.m. on August 4, Dr. Page said. Dr. Lowell H. Palmer, of Cincinnati, Presbyterian minister and writer who is Stated Clerk and Executive Secretary of the Cincinnati Presbytery of his church, will deliver the commencement address.

Forty former "emergency" public school teachers, including three Floyd countians, in the class will receive their Provisional Elementary Teachers' Certificates upon graduation, according to Dr. Page. They have previously held emergency certificates, which entitled them to teach with less than the amount of college preparation normally required.

A native of Floyd county, now a resident of Lebanon, Ky., will be among the graduates, Dr. Page said. She is Mrs. Maurice Clark, a granddaughter of the late Mrs. May Stanley, of Tram.

Akers, Miss Bentley, Mrs. Clark and Miss Prater will be graduated from the teachers' course, and Elliott and Miss Reynolds from the business administration course of study at the college.

In addition to those of Floyd county, there are representatives from Pike, Johnson, Martin and Marion counties in Kentucky, and of the states of Virginia and Pennsylvania in the graduating class. Thirty-seven of the group are from Pike, three from Martin, and one from each of the others.

School Bus Drivers May Take Training

FRANKFORT, Ky. — The state may require school bus drivers to take training courses. Assistant Attorney General W. Owen Keller has informed State Superintendent of Public Instruction B. Swell B. Hodgkin that the State Board of Education has that power.

Hodgkin asked whether tests could be given to determine drivers fitness to control pupils and whether they could be required to take a police course in handling a car.

Keller pointed out state law empowers the Board of Education to require a higher type of certificate of ability from teachers than the minimum set up by the statutes. He said that would apply to bus drivers. He added North Carolina requires special training for school bus drivers between the ages of 18 and 21.

The assistant attorney general also pointed out that school bus drivers are not required to hold chauffeurs' licenses, but simply ordinary drivers' licenses.

DR. O. W. THOMPSON

PIKEVILLE, KENTUCKY

Champion of the People and for the People

Dr. Thompson is a citizen and resident of Pikeville, Pike county, Kentucky. He was born at Zebulon, Kentucky, the son of Richard and Nancy Charles Thompson. He was married to Hattie Weddington, a daughter of Ella Brown Weddington and the late Ballard Weddington. There was born to Dr. Thompson and Hattie one son and one daughter, Tommie and Betty.

While Dr. Thompson was born and reared in Pike county he has been a champion of the development of the natural resources of Eastern Kentucky for a good many years and is still giving of his time, energy and money to try and develop the riverways and waterways of Kentucky; to try and give better living conditions to all of us; to preserve our forests and wild life; to preserve our waterways in the way of locks and dams and ridding our waterways of pollution, etc. He is a full believer in the preservation of all our natural resources and gives his time and energy daily to that end; he is doing these things and has been for twenty years, so that you and I and our children and our children's children may have the advantages provided for us by nature if they are properly preserved and improved.

Dr. Thompson resigned as president of the Big Sandy Valley Association on June 12, 1950 to become a candidate for Congress from the Seventh District of Kentucky and he resigned so that this group could not be called a political group and could remain non-partisan.

Dr. Thompson has been very much interested in the improvement of farming conditions, having worked with and having been an active member of different farming organizations in and around Pike county.

He has worked with and among the miners in their ambitions and the things they have stood for and has never failed them at any time or place. The fact of the matter is he has given of his time, energy, and the most of his life working for the betterment of his immediate community and the state at large.

The Pikeville dentist was one of the founders of the 60,000-member Big Sandy Valley Association. In announcing his resignation President Dr. Thompson said:

"I hereby submit my resignation as president of the Big Sandy Valley Association, effective today, in order that the organization may continue to function as it has in the past as a non-profit and non-partisan group devoted to canalization of the Big Sandy River, and the promotion of Agriculture, commerce, and industry in our area for the economic well-being of our people."

It is Dr. Thompson's first venture in politics. For eight years he has been president of the Big Sandy Valley Association and was president of its forerunner, The Pike County Economic Improvement Association.

He is the former president and one of the organizers of the League of Kentucky Sportsmen, and was chairman of the State Fish and Game Commission under Governors A. B. Chandler, Keen Johnson and Simeon S. Willis.

Dr. Thompson was in the army from 1917 to 1922 and spent two years overseas. He is a member of the American Legion.

Dr. Thompson headed a group of 93 men from Kentucky and Virginia who went to Washington several years ago in the interest of obtaining a national park for the Breaks of the Big Sandy River. At that time the government bought thousands of acres in the area for a national forest.

He served several years as a director and official of the Eastern Kentucky Reforestation Association.

He will appreciate your support in order to be of further service to the people of this section.
