School Board, Towns Ask Financial Aid To Repair Damage Caused in Flood New Type of Business

Several applications for aid in ehabilitation work in this county have been approved at various steps, according to Wayne Rat-, iff, Floyd County Civil Defense chairman, Total amount approved for the school system by Ratliff and the United States Army Engineers for debris clearance, repair and reconstruction of school buildings, sanitation and the leaning of sewers, is $43,420.

Of this total, Ratliff says, the oard of Education will put up It may not be possible to use all this money, though, it was pointed out by V. O. Turner, county superintendent, as money allocated for one category may not be carried over to other projects. If an estimate for debris clearance is a little high, this excess could not be used for repair of buildings, which may turn out to be too low.

To procure disaster aid a town must request a certificate of necessity from the health officers of Federal Civil Defense. Allen and Martin have made such requests Ratliff said. Both towns need debris clearance, sanitation work sitting down in office together and and cleaning of sewers. This cerhurriedly doing a job that should tificate is the first step in aid on

I am sure you have heard the story very few women know about a meal barrel. I have shelled corn and ridden wild mules to watermills I know corn grows on a cob. Mutual love of Christ and His church-Solomon 2:1-3: I am the Rose of Sharon and the lily of the valley As the lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters; as the apple trees of the wood, so is my eloved among the sons. Isaiah Chap. 1. Verse 8: And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden

Any Bible reader knows the first recorded work was in a garden, and Christ rose from the dead in a garden. Christ talked to the woman at the well. She carried the first message between Jews and Samaritans. He talked to a woman early in the morning in a garden. She talked to men. Too many homes, widows and gardens neglected today, and God is not pleased.

The unmarried and widows do things to please the Lord while wives do things to please their husbands. So you all know that I am the Lord's Free Woman.

CLUB HAS ART-MUSIC

The Lackey-Garrett-Wayland Wo man's Club met in the Club House at Wayland, Monday, 7:30 p.m., for a program and business meeting.

Club president, Mrs. Earl Castle, conducted the meeting, Mrs. L. B. Price, vice-president, read the Club Collect. The devotional was given by the secretary, Mrs. Delbert Sloane. Miss Thelma Daniels gave an interesting program on "Art and She discussed the many ways we express ourselves. Art records were played to illustrate the use of our imagination to see a picture as we listen to music, be cause it speaks, emotionally, amusingly, frightfully and exciting. On display in the Club room were about 140 drawings done in the art class of Miss Daniels. Some of these were wax; crayon and pencil done on ordinary typing paper, Included in Bartley, the display was a small original linoleum block-print made by David Donohoe, a former student and graduate of Wayland high school, Mrs. Dawson Bussey, Mrs. Harry and now teaching art in his own Hager, Mrs. Cortland Dahlin, and studio in Hollywood, Calif. Also in the hostesses, Mrs. Lon Hill and the collection was a pencil sketch of Sax Rohmer's Chinese character. Dr. Fu Manchu, done by Senator Doug Hays' son, Stanley, a career army man.

DAVID

An essay on the advantages of entering the teaching profession was heard by 16 members of the David Woman's Club who met Friday at the home of Mrs. Lon Hill. The essay, written by Mrs. Earl McDonald, a club member and teacher of algebra and advanced mathematics at Prestonsburg high school, was read to the group by Mrs. Ray Bradbury. In the business session the club voted to schedule a square dance later in the spring, and plans were completed for a tea to be held from 3 to 5 p.m., on Friday, March 15, at the David Club House to which members of six clubs have been invited. New officers elected and present were: President, Mrs. Ora Howard first vice-president, Mrs. Gene Mathis, second vice-president, Mrs Frances Harmon, recording secretary, Mrs. Oliver Marshall, corresponding secretary, Mrs. treasurer, Mrs. Royce Mayo. Others present were: Mrs. John Stratton, Mrs. A. C. Wilson Mrs. Pete Capelli, Mrs. Earl Willis Mrs. James Camicia.

How come the new Ford rides so smooth and solid?

It's the new inner Ford that gives you a big-car ride at low Ford prices

• Folks just naturally love Ford's lower, sleeker silhouette. And they love Ford's new Thunderbird V-8's and Mileage Maker Six. But the thing that's really got 'em buzzing is Ford's new ride. In the new kind of Ford, vital riding features team up to give you the smoothest going in the whole ride world. For example:

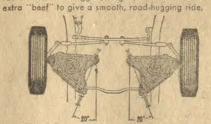

New automatic variable-rate rear springs Going from a highway to a byway in a Ford, is like springs to "soften" or "stiffen" depending on road conditions. You get a smooth ride all the way!

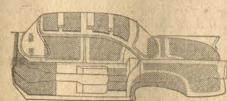

More comfortable seating There's no sag when you sit in a Ford . . . even on long trips. Comfort-contoured seats, rigidly anchored, have advanced springing for greater comfort and longer life.

New swept-back Ball-Joint front suspension up the shock of rough roads. The new swept-back design lets wheels "roll" with the bump and absorb it going

More body insulation Ford has more body insulation-protection against weather, dust, and noise—than any car in the low-price

Better bulance One of Ford's nicest back-road habits is to make believe and precise balancing let Ford iron out bumps far better

Let's Not Fight the Last Battle First

As deeply interested as we are in canalization of the Big Sandy river, we are more vitally interested in dams in the headwaters of the rivers and some of its tributaries as flood control and water control

Our interest in upstream impoundments is greater just now for two reasons:

First of all, the physical existence of whole towns and communities and farms depends on flood control. A repetition of the recent flood disaster - and none can predict how near or how far distant such a disaster may be-and Kentucky might have a "ghost valley" on its hands.

Secondly, storage of water by means of such dams will mean a steady, consistent supply of water in the river during the drouth months of every year. Water so provided in steady volume would erase the argument that the Big Sandy lacks industrial water in sufficient volume to attract new industry to the

And more important still, such a supply of water during seasonal "dry spells" would kill, once and for all, the strongest argument opponents of canalization have used in past fights for realization of that old dream of ours. This is the argument that the river dries up to a mere trickle in spots and that water would have to be pumped back upstream to provide a navigable pool behind some of the locks and dams in the proposed system.

Given flood control and water control dams, the fight for canalization will be won. To urge canalization right now to the neglect of such impoundments might be as vain as before.

On both projects our future greatly depends. We must have flood control as a defensive measure, both physically and economically; we must have canalization if our economic potential ever is to be realiz-

But wars are won, one battle at a time. Let's not try to fight the last one first.

UNCLE LEM

Adding to the atmosphere of My Old Kentucky Home is Uncle Lem, who entertains visitors to Kentucky's most famous shrine. Kentucky Negro spirituals resemble those of other Southern States. So characteristic are the Negro's own harmonic arrangements and words, that his songs may be considered native folk music. Beautiful, simple, and generally plaintive, the spirituals are the unique expression of the Negro's experience, and a distinct contribution to the development of Kentucky music.

> Very truly yours, Mrs. R. V. May For the World Day of Prayer Committee

To the People of Magisterial District No. 1

I am appealing to you for your vote and support in the May 28, Primary. I am 59 years old and have never held public office. I was born and raised in this county and God has blessed me with health and strength to make an honest, decent living, to raise and educate a fine family of six children. In all my business transactions I have never taken one five cent piece dishonest and if elected your Magistrate I promise to see to it that your tax money will be protected and spent where it should be.

We know that a lot of people in this No. 1 District send their children to school over roads that are not fit to drive a hog over and then we read in the papers where some of our officials have to be sued in of tax money. Then it is up to us taxpayers to pay that plus interest and court costs and this includes our present magistrate, Mr. Holbrook, and then they take what is left and hire a certain bunch at a large salary and put them out on an old grader or some other kind of broken-down machinery, let them go out and burn a lot of the taxpayers' gas and leave our little sheep paths in worse condition than they were without a ditch or drain pipe or small culvert to take care of the water. The people that live up the creeks where the county is supposed to keep up the roads has to park their cars out on the highways and walk home after doing a hard day's work and if you are a taxpayer they sure will collect or sell your property from under you.

So think it over and I assure you that when I am elected your Magistrate I will perform my duties as a Magistrate or any other sworn official should. Be sure and vote as that is your God-given right.

Vote for J. E. CONLEY Primary, May 28, 1957

Children's Clothing Need Pointed Out by Church

"The need for children's clothing in this area is still acute in many places even though the outside world has been generous in contributions," Rev. H. C. Church, head of the Goodwill Mountain Mission which has been in operation for 11 years and has been the means of enabling several hundred school children to return to or remain in school.

The residue of the Red Cross clothing was turned over to the Mission after the flood emergency needs were met, but Church says this clothing was primarily for adults. The Mission needs children's clothing, particularly shoes.

Right now, the Mission head says, he is completing the distribution of the last seven tons of clothing given by people outside the flood-stricken area.

It is not necessary to shrink 100 percent Dacron fabrics, as they do not shrink. If Dacron is blended with wool or cotton, the material should be shrunk.

TEMPORARY PASTURE

If permanent pasture is not available for poultry, temporary green feed may be provided. Oats and rape or kale may be sown together from now until hot weather; after this forage is eaten. Sudan grass may be sown but not earlier than corn-planting. Sudan makes good summer pasture when the weather is not too dry; it should be kept clipped so chickens can reach it.

Colorful Draperies Add To Room Interest

Well chosen draperies are one of the ways to add new interest to a room. The right color can provide an accent note that changes the entire effect, or a patterned piece can pull together the principal color already in use.

Whether to use plain or patterned draperies is determined largely by the floor covering and wall finishes. If they are patterned, then plain color draperies that repeat one of the colors used in the room will be best.

When the walls and floor covering are plain color, the use of patterned draperies in texture or color may bring pleasant relief, although they, too, may be without design, says Miss Marian Bartlett, UK Extension home furnishings specialist.

With plain color walls and floor covering, patterned draperies and furniture covering are often effective, but care must be taken in arrangement so the furniture is not placed against the draperies.

The room exposure, the number of windows, and the size of the room deserve consideration when the color is selected. The larger the room the more contrast in color may be used. If there are many windows or if they are poorly placed, they will be less conspicuous if the draperies blend with the wall. A small room can be made to appear larger by having the draperies, woodwork throughout the room, and the wall finish closely related in

Although it is a temptation for the home decorator to make draperies without linings, they will hang better, wear better and give a more professional appearance if they are lined.

Two Nice River Road Farms

NEAL'S POULTRY FARM located about halfway between Catlettsburg and Louisa. About 50 acres of ground with about 1,200 ft. of road frontage, some nice bottom and rolling hill ground. Improvements consist of a four-room house and a three-room house, 30 by 120 ft. hen house, 20 by 39 ft. brooder house, 30 by 40 ft. two-story barn and an egg cellar. This place has wonderful sub-division possibilities as it is just one mile from the Tennessee Gas and Transmission plant and about 8 miles from the Ashland Oil Refinery. Property in this neighborhood is getting more valuable all the time and this should sell at once. There is a firm price of $17,500 and some terms may be arranged.

THE BALL FARM—the first on the west side of the new bridge across Blaine as you come from Catlettsburg. There are about 103 acres including some 25 acres of bottom. There is a four-room house with running water, a large combination barn and corn crib, some fruit trees and a fresh pond, some horse-drawn implements go with the place. House is now vacant and owner says that if it doesn't sell this month it will be taken off the market. There is a firm price of $10,-000, and some terms may be arranged.

DEAR FRIENDS AND FELLOW VOTERS:

I am very thankful for the kind interest that you have shown me in the past. I will greatly appreciate you and your support in this primary election.

I have always conducted my political campaigns on a high level. I have always been aware of the feelings of my opponents and their friends and their loved ones. I have never knowingly wounded anyone's feelings, or spread unkind gossip about any of my opponents or their loved ones. It has always been my desire to be kind and considerate of others.

I have always tried to live a good clean life; to do my level best for the good of my Country and my County.

I have faith in humanity, and I have always tried to see the good that there is in everyone, and to help them achieve success and happiness in this life, and hope for a better world in the Great Beyond. Never will I lend my thoughts or my conduct to the tearing down or the destroying of the good that there is in the life of anyone, whether they be my colleague or my adversary. I firmly believe that no man can build himself up by tearng down his fellowmen. I will always work for that which is good, right and honest.

Your County Court Clerk's Office has been well kept during the period of time I have had the Honor and Privilege of serving you. I have tried to secure and to keep the very best help that I could find. We have worked long and hard and been faithful and true to your trust. We will do our best to serve you well during the next four years. Your interests will be our interests, and your welfare will be our welfare. We desire to serve you well. We will be honest and faithful, and strive to save you money and time when you have business to look after in the County Court Clerk's Office. No job will be too large or too small. It will be a pleasure if we can please you. When you are pleased with our service, we will be happy.

Having been in every precinct in the County in the past few weeks, I know that you too are well satisfied with the service we have been able to give you. I want you to know that I am deeply grateful for the hard work so many of you, my good friends and relatives, are doing for me in my race for the Democratic nomination for County Court Clerk.

May God be our keeper and our guide in this campaign.

Your friend,

Phosphorus Applications Aid Legumes in Pastures

Modest amounts of phosphorous added to soil very low in available phosphorous, produced an "excellent yield response" in pastures, and the legume content increased, say two UK agricultural Experiment Station pasture researchers.

W. C. Templeton, Jr., and T. H Taylor, agronomists, conducted an experiment for two years in Garrard county. They used soil low in available phosphorous. They believe their findings are applicable to practically any Kentucky pasture soil where available phosphorous is

Varying rates of phosphorous were applied, as well as certain potash

Results: Pasture receiving (in 1955) no fertilizer at all, a yield of 2,918 pounds dry matter per acre and a clover content of 30 percent. When 100 pounds of 20 per cent superphosphate was applied per acre, dry matter was 4,105 pounds per acre with a clover content of 37 percent Pasture receiving (in 1956) fertilizer at all, a yield of 2,490 pounds of dry matter and a clover content of 22-percent. When 100 pounds of 20-per cent superphosphate was put on, production went to 3,828 pounds of dry matter and the clover content to 41 per cent.

The researchers estimate the superphosphate applied in such small quantities cost the farmer about $1.50, and an additional $1.50 to apply it. This $3 expenditure produced an extra three-quarters of a ton of feed.

The test has not shown any favorable response to potash applications on that particular soil which was low to medium in that ele

Fiscal Courts Should Require County Records

The duty of requiring county officials to keep proper records and reports rests upon the fiscal court. Miss Mary Louise Foust, state auditor, declared last week.

She cited an opinion by Assistant Attorney General M. B. Holifield which said the fiscal court has this duty "unless the question of the amount of excess fee or collections and distribution of the county funds is before the courts."

This was pointed out by Miss Foust in a memorandum to all Kentucky county judges and fiscal court members. The memorandum stated:

"It is evident in most instances that the county officials are seeking to serve the people in a competent manner and those charged with the responsibility of handling public funds are desirous of correctly accounting to the county and state. We urge all of you who are not requiring an accounting to inaugurate the practice. Improved accounting records should result in a reduced cost to the audit to the county because the time required for the audit would be less.

"An important item that is being overlooked in some cases is making the action of the fiscal court a matter of record. In instances relating to a financial transaction it will be necessary for us to take exception If the fiscal court approval of the transaction is not a matter of rec-

Up and down, bend and stretch . . . that's the way it goes when you hang out the family wash the old-fashioned way.

If your husband did these wash-day exercises just once struggling with unwieldy baskets full of heavy wet clothes, hanging each piece up one by one - we'll bet he'd buy an electric clothes dryer.

Then, on wash days, there'd be no more unnecessary drudgery for you . . . no more backaches . . . no more clothespins to bother with . . . no more unsightly clotheslines. You'd just toss a washer load of clothes into your electric clothes dryer, set a dial, and they'd be fluffy dry pronto! And your family would save money on clothes, for you'd actually need fewer changes for children. With an electric washer and dryer, you can have clothes sparkling clean and dry - ready for use - within two hours.

If this sounds wonderful to you, see if you can get your husband to go through the wash-day lifting, bending and stretching routine just once. Odds are in your favor that both of you will soon be seeing your modern electric dealer . . . on your way to Living Better Electrically with an electric clothes dryer.

Two heads would be better than one when it comes time to plan how you are going to spend your money. One to look ahead and one to look behind! Your grocery shopping list offers a good example for two heads. A look behind can tell you such things as (1) What your family has or has not liked, (2) when certain foods are likely to be abundant or scarce and (3) what you can expect of certain foods. A look ahead will help you decide (1) how much you need (2) when you will need it, and (3)

why you will need it. Shopping lists will vary among families. In some families, both husband and wife works, thus work and time saving features may be all important. In other families economical costs per serving may be the riding concern. Still others may have special dietary needs.

With all these things in mind, you sit down and plan menus for the shopping period. Choose foods to fill out the menu (checked against a nutrition guide) on the basis of 1. Seasonality and abundance of

- Foods already on hand.
- Facilities available.
- Meals to be served.
- Money available. Family preferences.

HOWARD

County Court Clerk

In order that the people of this county may know more about who I am and who my relatives are as I ask them for their support in my race for the Democratic nomination for County Court Clerk, I give the following family connections:

I am a son of F. P. (Chick) Howard and Nora Allen Howard. My grandparents on my mother's side of the family were Reps Allen and "Aunt" Martha Hall Allen. On my father's side my grandparents were Dan Howard, a Confederate veteran of the Civil War, and Martha Handshoe Howard. My wife is the former Josephine Ellis, daughter of Mrs. Belle Laferty Ellis and the late Tilden Ellis.

Numbered among my relatives are these well-known Floyd county families, in addition to the Allens, Howards, Handshoes and Halls:

The Stumbos, Osbornes, Pattons, Sizemores, Stephenses, Moores, Mays, Baileys Shepherds, Cooleys, Turners, Martins, Halberts, Salisburys, Hayses, Gearhearts, Ousleys, Lafertys, Ellises, Grays, DeRossetts, Calhouns, Messers, Spradlins, Hugheses, Tripletts, Watkinses, Griffths, Wallens, Warrixes, Roses, Hammonds, Hintons, Hatchers, Clicks, Hales, Binghams, Crisps, Fitzpatricks, Webbs, Prestons, Nicholls, Scutchfields, Shorts, Praters, Dyers, Slones, Dempseys and others.

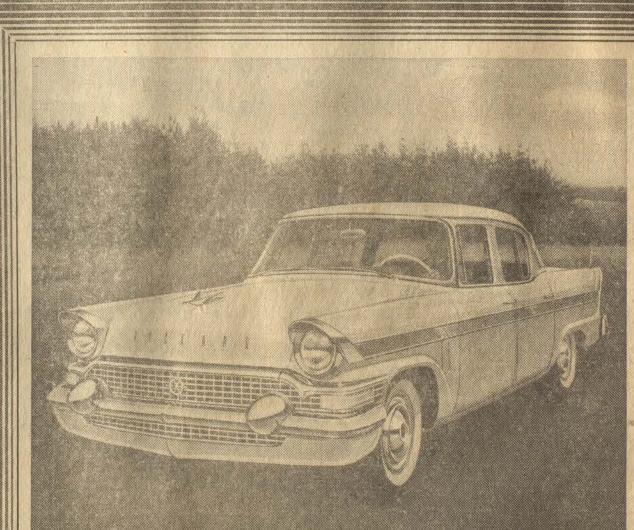

Some of those to whom I am related, by blood or marriage, may not know me personally. I invite you and all others to inquire about me, to determine if I am qualified and deserving of the position of honor and trust that I seek. And I respecifully ask each of you for your support in this, my first campaign for county office of any kind.

Sincerely,

RAY HOWARD

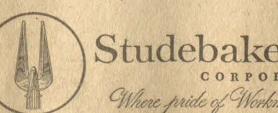

Democratic candidate for County Court Clerk
