

THURSDAY

This Town... That World

If I could get as low as my bowling score when I golf, I might be persuaded to leave off fishing.

The last time I really worried about my dress was when I wore a celluloid collar. A fellow could color up in the presence of a girl, in those days, and almost go up in flames.

Thinking of Easter and all the pother folks will make about what they'll wear recalled that preceding them. Those who worry about a new hat or suit or about emerging in new togethery, head to foot, are reminded that what they wear will not mean a thing, one way or the other, 24 hours afterward.

Would it be presuming on anybody to suggest that we all attend Sunday School and church, this Easter?

To be a witness does not consist in engaging in propaganda nor even in stirring people up, but in being a living mystery. It means to live in such a way that one's life would not make sense if God did not exist.

... THEY CAME BACK ...

We who write the news are so often hamstrung by the mechanics of the business that we seldom tell anything but the bare essentials. The result is a sad lack of color and feeling. But, last week, somebody wrote a concluding paragraph to the story of the Magoffin county tragedy in which six Floyd residents lost their lives which had a touch of pathos about it. It read:

STRIKE IDLES DAVID MINES

Walkout of Miners Aftermath of Firing Of 3 Committeemen

A strike involving more than 300 miners idled both the No. 1 and No. 2 mines of the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company this week. The walkout began with the night shift Monday at Mine No. 1. Employees at the second mine followed suit, the next day. It was said here that the strike followed the discharge of three members of the mine committee. A company spokesman said the grievance procedure under terms of the contract was in its fourth step following the discharge of the three men but that this legal negotiation was interrupted by what he termed a "wildcat" strike. He added that nothing further could be done under the grievance procedure since the men have gone on strike. Upwards of 50 supervisory personnel are idled, in addition to the miners involved.

WATER, GAS SYSTEM SALE IS PROJECTED

FIRM WOULD TAKE OPTION TO PURCHASE

Payment of $42,000, Plus $18,000 Rental Per Year Envisioned

The work of conveying the Floyd County Water & Gas System to private management and, eventually, to private ownership is well under way, it was learned this week.

The fiscal court at its March 27 meeting approved a lease-purchase agreement by which the Insurance Investors Trust Co., Louisville, would lease the system for five years, with an option to purchase. The court authorized County Judge Henry Stumbo and County Attorney Barkley J. Sturgill to execute on behalf of the county the lease and agreement to purchase.

Involved in the transaction would be the termination by the U. S. District Court of the receivership under which the system is now operating. A hearing before Federal Judge Mac Swinford was held in Lexington recently. He is expected to act in the matter soon.

Now outstanding against the system are $221,000 worth of Floyd County Water & Gas System revenue bonds. At this time the system is in default on the payment of $42,000 of this amount.

The lease-purchase agreement provides, according to County Attorney Sturgill:

1. That Insurance Investors Trust Company will pay the $42,000 now in default and pay a rental of $18,000 a year during the term of its operation of the system. This annual rental is the amount required to amortize the outstanding bonds by yearly payments, and the rental payments would be applied to that end. Then if Insurance Investors exercises its option, it would be responsible for the unpaid balance of the bond issue.

2. Insurance Investors agree to spend $5,500 a year on capital improvements of the system until such time when the loss of gas from lines does not exceed 8%. (Line loss is now 21%, it was said.)

3. Insurance Investors agree, if it exercises its option, not to apply for any increase in rates prior to October 1, 1965.

CHURCH WOMEN TO MEET

Prestonsburg Council of Church Women will meet Wednesday, April 17, at 1:30 p.m. at the Irene Cole Memorial Baptist Church. All Christian women are invited.

250 AT 'GOVERNOR'S BANQUET'

AT GOVERNOR'S BANQUET. From left—W. Clyde Glass, Louisville, Kiwanis International trustee; Isaac Bowles, Hazard, Kentucky-Tennessee district treasurer; H. M. Collins, Chattanooga, Tenn., governor of the Kentucky-Tennessee district; Marvin Music, Prestonsburg, past treasurer of the district.

Two hundred fifty Kiwanians, their wives and guests attended the banquet held at May Lodge, Jenny Wiley State Park, last Thursday evening, honoring Henry M. Collins, Chattanooga, Tennessee, governor of the Kentucky-Tennessee district of Kiwanis International. Recognized at the banquet were Clyde Glass, International trustee; Isaac Bowles, of Hazard, treasurer of the Kentucky-Tennessee district, past lieutenant-governors of Division 8 and Division 8 club presidents. Mrs. Lee Evans, of Cincinnati, the former Lee Grigsby, Miss Kentucky of 1961, was introduced and favored the gathering with two vocal solos. A feature of the meeting was the singing of the Patsy Teen-Agers, a vocal group sponsored by the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company and directed by Mrs. Kathryn S. Frazier.

Introduced by Marvin Music, of Prestonsburg, past treasurer of the Kentucky-Tennessee district, Governor Collins reported briefly on Kiwanis advances, then stressed the responsibilities which freedom entails upon those who enjoy it. "May we have the fortitude to work hard for what we pray for," he said. Mr. Music also introduced International Trustee Glass who drew a round of heavy applause when he referred to his trip to Prestonsburg via the Mountain Parkway as far as Campton. "It may be the road that doesn't go anywhere, as Happy says, but, boy, you sure get there quick," he quipped. Clubs represented from Division 8 are Salyersville, Jenkins, Prestonsburg, Martin, Pikeville, Paintsville and Wheelwright. Guests were introduced by Lieut. Gov. W. A. Stapleton, who also gave the address of welcome.

SURVEY MADE BY RED CROSS

Shows $3 Million Cost For Flood Relief Job In Three-State Area

Near-complete estimates of services to flood-stricken families in the three-state disaster area were announced in Huntington last Wednesday by George Myers, director of the Red Cross flood relief operation for West Virginia, Kentucky and Virginia.

The Red Cross official said his organization probably will give rehabilitation assistance to 9,942 families in the 45-county region. Of these, approximately 3,600 will get help in repair or rebuilding of their homes. The others will be assisted in refurbishing homes, with clothing, food, and, in a few instances, occupational tools.

Total expenditure on the three-state relief job may reach $3 million, Mr. Myers said.

In the emergency phase of the relief operation, the Red Cross spent between $50,000 and $75,000 to shelter and feed 11,553 flood victims and 3,289 relief workers. All told, 55 shelters were open to care for those persons.

A state-by-state estimate in various categories was as follows: West Virginia, families to be assisted, 3,111; homes to be repaired or rebuilt, 1,105; flood victims fed and/or sheltered, 4,289; relief workers served, 515.

Kentucky—families to be assisted, 6,053; homes to be repaired or rebuilt, 2,174; flood victims fed and/or sheltered, 6,207; relief workers served, 2,427.

Virginia—families to be assisted, 778; homes repaired or rebuilt, 323; flood victims fed and/or sheltered, 1,067; relief workers served, 347.

As of Friday, $625,000, already had been expended in the Tri-State area toward restoring flood affected families to normal living.

GROUP WEIGHS DEVELOPMENT

Plan Involves System Production; Meet Held Recently in Letcher

By Fred W. Luigart, Jr. (In the Courier-Journal)

Hazard, Ky., April 3—A small number of Eastern Kentuckians are exploring the possibility of an undertaking that could revolutionize the economy of the depressed mountain coalfields.

The group is anonymous at least until it can obtain more information.

The program would be a comprehensive development effort based on hydroelectric power. At first it would involve five counties along the North Fork of the Kentucky River—Letcher, Perry, Breathitt, Knott and Leslie.

The group held an informational meeting recently in Letcher county. Political and financial interests from three of the counties were there.

The meeting was to have remained a secret but at least one of those present has revealed the basic ideas of the scheme.

No one at the meeting is yet committed to the undertaking, he explained. Nor are they likely to make any commitment or reveal their full thoughts until they have a chance to learn more about "what we are getting into."

Basically the project involves getting up a conservancy district to launch a giant area development effort under programs available through the Interior Department.

Conservancy districts are not new. They have been used to develop multimillion-dollar hydroelectric and conservation projects on the Columbia and Snake rivers in Washington, Oregon, Idaho and elsewhere in the Far West. They are also known as public-utilities districts.

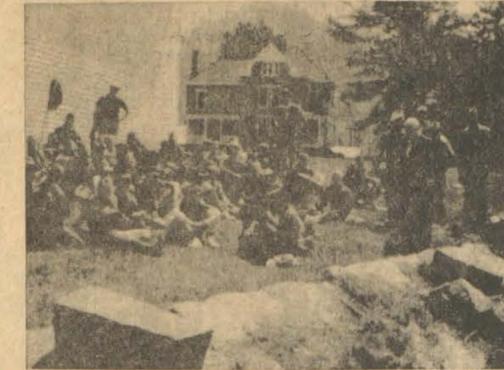

They are launched by locally elected authorities in cooperation with the Interior Department.

Two major projects involving this approach to development have attracted attention in recent years. They are the Wanapum Dam and Priest Rapids Dam in Grant county, Washington. Both are power-generating installations built at a total cost of more than $220 million.

Basic in the thoughts of the group here is Eastern Kentucky's abundance of water and coal—the two ingredients needed for massive power production geared to the needs of an expanding economy in the Eastern United States.

The springboard for the program here would be a series of coordinated hydroelectric dams and coal-fired steam electric-generating plants.

Under the method called pump storage the power plants would use both coal and water to make elec-

Boy Scout Troop No. 27, Prestonsburg, rests at the mouth of Jennie's Creek Sunday while hiking the Jenny Wiley Escape Trail. In the background is the historic Dan Davis home and on the right stand Scout leader N. M. White, Scoutmasters E. B. May, Jr., and Andrew Goble.

JENNY WILEY TRAIL HAS FIRST HIKERS SUNDAY AS BOY SCOUTS FOLLOW HISTORIC ESCAPE ROUTE

The Jenny Wiley Escape Trail had its first hikers Sunday when nearly half a hundred Boy Scouts of Troop No. 27, Prestonsburg, broke the way for what is hoped will be a flood of hikers in the years to come.

They unloaded from cars and trucks at Little Mud Lick Creek Falls, near Staffordsville, and planned to begin the trek at the cave where Mrs. Wiley escaped. If the pioneer woman could flee over the uncharted wilderness way in the late evening and night, with flooded streams impeding her way, then surely they could hike it in bright spring weather.

They didn't, but it wasn't exactly lack of Scout stamina that let them down, although several had blisters and one a sprained ankle. What deflated them was the romance and history of Little Mud Lick Creek Falls.

They had intended to explore the canyon in an hour and then be on their way. Down over the canyon sides they slid and swung by bushes until they were standing in awe of the first falls, the dark caves and the sheer passade of rocks that reached up through leafing hemlocks to rim the sky. They were an hour at the first plunge of the stream as it hurtled through the pass it had carved through Mud Lick Mountain.

Scoutmasters E. B. May, Jr. and Andrew Goble, with aid from several accompanying leaders, finally whipped the troop into a patrol organization and led them deep into the valley recesses.

When they came to Jenny Wiley Cave they stood in awe of the majestic rockhouse and the history it held but the mood didn't last. They laid aside canteens and lunches and began to climb the ledges or dig for Indian artifacts in the dusty interior.

They found a piece of flint the size of an arrowhead. After that the dust boiled.

Tired of fruitless digging, many Scouts stood at the edge of the cliff and looked down a hundred feet to the creek bottom. Others peered at the overhanging hemlocks. All asked questions. Where was Jenny tied? How did she get down the canyon-side to the creek?

Patiently the leaders repeated the story of the pioneer woman who was captured in Virginia in 1789 and, after months of wandering, was brought to Little Mud Lick (See Story No. 1, Page 8)

BOARD BACKS CLARK IN FIRING OF DRIVER

The Floyd County Board of Education had little but routine business to transact Saturday except a hearing accorded Leo Music, discharged school bus driver. (See separate story).

Several substitute teachers were employed and the successful bidders on six rural schools abandoned in the Big Mud Creek area due to consolidation were announced.

Named substitute teachers were Mary June Allen, Herman D. Pennington, Lloyd Woody, Lois Powers, Amy Lee Turner, Hollie Faye Wicker, Elizabeth M. Bailey, Howard Caddell and Geraldine Slone Jacobs.

Successful bidders on the school properties abandoned on Mud Creek were Beaver school building, Ellis Tackett, $607; Mouth of Branham's Creek school, Dewey Roberts, $76; Tackett Fork school and grounds, Trudy Pearl Hamilton, $601.01; Will Hamilton school and grounds, John B. Newsome, $149.95; Nick Branch school and grounds, Troy Hamilton, $875; Antioch school and grounds, Asa Tackett, $2,010.

Other actions of the board follow:

1. Authorized the state Highway Department to wreck the tearage at Lackey which was washed downstream by the flood.

2. Named Wayne Ratliff to negotiate with the Civil Defense organization on the amount of the recent flood damage which is preliminary to the procurement of federal aid on rehabilitation.

3. Voted an order to close the parking lot adjacent to the present school administration building on Arnold avenue. Mrs. Olga Letta and others had filed a suit to have the unpaved lot closed on the grounds that it was creating a nuisance.

4. Employed Mark Adams to audit the 1961-1962 school year records. Books for prior years were audited two years ago.

5. Hired Bill Johnson as substitute bus driver at Martin.

6. Voted to authorize Byron Nunery to negotiate for a site for the proposed new Wheelwright grade school.

OFFICIALS GET REPAIR FORMS

Floyd Among Counties To Get Federal Help Restoring Facilities

(Special to The Times)

Frankfort, April 2—Applications for Federal funds to be used in repairing public facilities damaged in the recent Eastern Kentucky floods have been mailed to county judges, mayors and school superintendents in the 23 disaster area counties, Kentucky Adjutant General Arthur Y. Lloyd, state Civil Defense director, reported today.

Lloyd said these funds are to be used as reimbursement for protective work for the preservation of life and property, debris and wreckage clearance, emergency repairs and temporary replacement of essential public facilities of local governments, and temporary housing or emergency shelter.

Only state and local governments are eligible for the assistance, Lloyd said. The term "local governments" includes counties, cities, townships, school districts and other units which qualify as separate, legal, governmental entities, he explained.

The applications have been mailed to each county judge and county school superintendent in the area, plus superintendents of 13 independent school districts (See Story No. 5, Page 8)

BOARD BACKS CLARK IN FIRING OF DRIVER

"Music's discharge had nothing to do with politics, whatever," Clark says. "I should have fired him long ago but kept thinking the man's conduct would improve."

The superintendent in his letter to Music had detailed something of the events that precipitated his dismissal.

"Lewis Campbell, transportation supervisor, called you by telephone on March 31, notifying you that you were being suspended for two weeks because of the charges," Clark wrote. "You subsequently called Mr. Campbell by telephone on April 1, demanding that you be discharged, not suspended. You advised him that if you were not discharged, you would drive the bus in spite of his notification that you were being suspended for two weeks."

Music is Floyd county co-chairman for the Chandler-Waterfield campaign.

Music alleged politics motivated his removal and replied to the Clark letter by asserting he refused to accept his two-week suspension by Lewis Campbell, transportation director, made preceding the dismissal. He charged that Clark was trying to get rid of him because he was supporting Chandler for Governor.

"When I decided to support Chandler for the Democratic nomination for Governor, I knew that my position as a school bus driver would be in jeopardy and as soon as the facts were known that you would attempt to get rid of me," Music wrote Clark.

At the hearing Saturday Music repeated the charge that his support of Chandler was the basis of his dismissal. Clark, in denying that as a reason, said that there were many more reasons for the discharge not mentioned in the letter.

Clark said that consideration of the discharge of Music had been under way for several weeks and long before the driver became a supporter of Chandler.

JOB EXPECTED TO BE OKEHED FOR CONTRACT

Project Completion Set Within One Year After Start Ordered

The Dana contracting firm of Akers & Akers is the low bidder on construction of Floyd county's new courthouse, and it is expected to be awarded the contract on the job.

Akers' low bid of $549,000 was reduced to $496,848.50 by the deduction of $52,151.50 worth of alternates.

Although the bid without the alternates, which included air-conditioning and terrazzo floors throughout the interior, was approximately $310,000 above the architect's estimate, it is expected to be accepted by both the Housing & Home Finance Agency, Atlanta, Georgia, and the fiscal court.

Four contractors submitted bids, which were opened here Friday. The Akers bid was about $29,000 below the lowest of the other three bids.

The 90x90-foot, three-story structure will occupy the lot on Third street, opposite the present courthouse, which the county recently purchased from Mrs. Jo M. Davidson. It will be constructed of limestone, with expanses of glass featuring the exterior appearance. Twenty-seven thousand square feet of floor space will be provided in the building.

U. S. IS SUED IN 3 DEATHS

Lancer Man Plaintiff In $1,153,480 Action After Span Collapse

A total of $1,153,480 in damages and funeral expenses incurred as the result of three deaths and the injury of a fourth person in the collapse of the Knotley Hollow bridge across the Big Sandy, near Lancer, has been filed by a Floyd county man against the United States.

The action was filed in the U. S. district court at Pikeville by Greeley Stephenson, of Lancer, whose wife, daughter and son-in-law died when the bridge collapsed beneath the weight of their car last July 16.

Stephenson sued as administrator of the estates of the three victims, his wife, Mrs. Cora Stephenson, his son-in-law, Phenius Vanhorn, and his daughter, Mrs. Naomi Vanhorn.

The lone survivor of the tragedy, six-year-old Deborah Vanhorn, sued by him as her guardian for $150,000 for injuries received and loss of future earning power.

The total sought in each death follows:

Mrs. Stephenson, $250,000, plus $116 funeral expense; Mr. Vanhorn, $500,000, plus $1,190 funeral expense; Mrs. Vanhorn, $250,000, plus $1,175.

The separate petitions allege in each instance that the collapse of the bridge was "the direct and proximate result of negligence of the Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, a branch of the U. S. government... in the rebuilding of such bridge by the defendant in the year 1957."

The bridge was destroyed by the flood of 1957 and was rebuilt by contractors at U. S. expense.

E'TOWN COLLEGE PLAN ADAPTED FOR P'BURG

An adaptation of the plans of the Elizabethtown community college is being rushed to completion to serve as the plans for the Prestonsburg Community College, it was announced this week by the Department of Finance at Frankfort.

The change in plans was made necessary because the design for the college here, made by Architects G. L. Shannon, of Prestonsburg, and Jack F. Hatcher, Pikeville, raised the cost of the project far beyond the $800,000 available for the college, it was explained.

The contract of Hatcher and Shannon was terminated, so that the architects who did the Elizabethtown plans could get to work immediately toward adapting them to suit the needs of the college here.

Mr. Shannon said this week that the completion of plans should not be delayed longer than two weeks.

LOOK FURTHER AT THE RECORD . . .

Governor Bert T. Combs recommended to the 1960 and 1962 Legislatures and got:

1. $4.00 increase average in Unemployment Compensation Benefits for the unemployed.
2. $6.00 per week increase in all Workmen's Compensation benefits.

THE PRESENT ADMINISTRATION RECORD

During its first two years in office, 1960-1962, the Combs administration provided $1,961,638 to Floyd County's Old Aged, Dependent Children, Needy Blind and the Permanently and Totally Disabled.

This was $224,464 more than was provided for this county's Welfare Program the last two years of the previous administration.

LET US LOOK AT THE RECORD!

In 1959 the average Old Age Assistance check in the state was $44.93. In 1962 under the present administration the average was $57.73. This was an increase of 28.6 percent.

In 1959 the average Aid to Needy Blind check was $43.61. In 1962 under the present administration it was raised to $66.89. This was an increase of 53.4 percent.

In 1959 the average Aid to Permanently and Totally Disabled was $44.19. In 1962 under the present administration it was raised to $68.80. This was an increase of 55.7 percent.

In 1959 the average Aid To Dependent Children check was $72.34. In 1962 under the present administration the average check was raised to $92.32. This was an increase of 27.6 percent.

THESE INCREASES ARE 10 TIMES MORE THAN THE RECIPIENTS PAID IN SALES TAXES.

AID TO PERMANENTLY and TOTALLY DISABLED

The average Aid to Permanently and Totally Disabled recipient today gets $24.61 more on the month than he did in 1959 under Chandler. If a Permanently and Totally Disabled recipient paid 3% sales tax on every penny of the $24.61 more he gets today it would be only 74c a month, leaving $23.87 more on the month today with the sales tax than ever before.

FLOYD COUNTY BREATHITT FOR GOVERNOR CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE

P. E. O. STATE CHAPTER MEET IS SCHEDULED AT MAY LODGE

The Kentucky State Chapter, P. E. O. Sisterhood, will hold its annual convention at May Lodge, Jenny Wiley State Park, April 18-19, it was announced this week. Mrs. Marjorie Reid, Lexington, president of the Kentucky State Chapter, will preside.

The day preceding the formal opening of the convention there will be a board meeting, also at May Lodge.

The P. E. O. Sisterhood was founded January 21, 1869, by seven college girls, students at Iowa Wesleyan College, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. Although established as a college sorority, campus chapters were discontinued when emphasis was placed on the organization of chapters in towns and cities. This change from a college group to a community group opened the way for the growth of the organization in the United States and Canada.

The P. E. O. Sisterhood is now an international organization with a membership of more than 145,000 women. Almost 3,900 chapters have been organized during the 94 years since P. E. O. was founded.

W. S. C. S. MEETS

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church met April 1 at the home of Mrs. Marshall Davidson. The president, Mrs. Richard Spurlock, presided. The secretary of missionary education, Mrs. Geneva Carter, said the first session of the study course on Prayer would be held April 9, and she urged all members to attend.

New leaders for the coming year were elected, installation service to be May 6.

Rev. and Mrs. Orin Simmerman had the program, which was on symbolism.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. H. B. Patrick, Mrs. Cecil Kendrick, Mrs. Okie Dorton, Mrs. Carl Horn, Mrs. John Forrest Brown, Mrs. Hershel Tackett, Mrs. Regina Mayo, Mrs. Richard Spurock, Mrs. Larry Blevins, Mrs. Arnold Compton, Miss Elsie Stephens, Rev. and Mrs. Orin Simmerman.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Mr. and Mrs. Hoover Harrington returned home Saturday from a Columbus (Ohio) hospital where he was a surgical patient. He is showing some improvement. Mrs. Donald Harrington accompanied them home.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE

of Drift, Ky., candidate for Representative, 96th District (Magisterial Districts 3 and 4) Democratic primary, May 28

Purposes of the P. E. O. Sisterhood are educational and charitable. For many years the major objective of the organization has been to provide increased opportunities for higher education for women. This has been accomplished through a loan fund, a junior college, and scholarships for foreign students. Charitable activities are carried on primarily by the state and local chapters. These include homes for senior members and aid to welfare agencies, such as the American and Canadian Red Cross.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mr. and Mrs. Rainley White went to Tomahawk, Saturday, to attend the funeral of a friend, Alonzo Ward.

OBSERVES 86th BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Joe M. Davidson was greeted on her 86th birthday, April 6, at her home by many relatives and friends who called to congratulate her. At a luncheon at the May Lodge, Saturday, she was greeted by Mrs. Josephine H. Browning, who was presiding at the Kentucky Women's Bankers luncheon. She was presented a corsage by Mrs. Browning and other relatives. In the evening she was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Garland H. Rice to dinner at the Starfire Cafe in Paintsville. Her daughter, Mrs. Everett H. Sowards, was an honor guest, her birthday preceding her mother's by only a few days.

Mrs. Davidson was recipient of two cakes presented by Mrs. Frank H. Layne and Mrs. Luther Shivel, as well as gifts from relatives and friends. Cards came from as far as Atlanta, Ga., and Los Angeles, California.

IN CINCINNATI

Judy Bartley and Mrs. Ed Ousley and daughter, Tanda Kaye, took their mother, Mrs. Tandy Bartley, to Cincinnati, Tuesday of last week, to consult a doctor. Mrs. Bartley is staying with her daughter, Mrs. John R. Heflin, and family.

VISITING HERE

Tandy Bartley and son Bill, of Williamson, West Virginia, were here this week-end visiting his daughter, Mrs. Ed Ousley, and family.

IN ASHLAND

Miss Delores Hunter, Mrs. Ed Ousley and daughter, Tanda Kaye, were in Ashland last week.

FISHING TRIP TO TENNESSEE

Elmer Lyons, of Paintsville, Charlie Crum and Robie Marcum, of Prestonsburg, returned home Sunday from a successful fishing trip to Rogersville, Tennessee.

GUESTS AT MAY LODGE

Among the Sunday dinner guests at the May Lodge were former residents of Prestonsburg, Mrs. Margaret Rose Salyers, and son and his bride, Mrs. Maude Rose Nunnery, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Wells, of Paintsville.

DeROSSETT

For

CIRCUIT CLERK

In this, my first race for public office, I want to say that I believe the voters are entitled to know the platform upon which I appeal for support.

Many of you are acquainted with my background, qualifications and Christian training. A sense of service has ever prompted me to assist my fellow man. I shall carry these qualities of heart and mind into the office of Circuit Clerk.

I believe in giving our young people a break in life. One break they should have is adequate driver education. This is the day of modern traffic problems and proper training will save lives and money. I pledge you to initiate and promote a driver training program in every Floyd county high school. This program will save at least 30 percent on insurance protection and, what is more important, it will save lives on our highways. Floyd county is the only one in the state that doesn't have such a program.

Enquire about me from my neighbors, friends and associates. You will find that I merit your consideration and I pledge to make you an efficient public official.

Sincerely,

FRANK DEROSSETT

District Music Contest Winner

Miss Elizabeth Sharon Collins, Wheelwright, won first place in the Seventh district music contest sponsored by the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs. She represented the Wheelwright Woman's Club.

For the contest, which was for instrumentalists only, Miss Collins played a flute solo, Handel's Sonata No. 2. Her piano accompanist was John Brock, Wheelwright high school senior, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brock, Sr.

Miss Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Collins, Sr., is a sophomore honor student and an active member of the Wheelwright high school band. She plays first chair flute and piccolo in the concert band and is the drum major in the marching band.

As winner of the district contest, Miss Collins will compete in the state contest which will be held on April 21, in WHAS-TV studios, Louisville.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS

The Prestonsburg Woman's Club met April 4 at the home of Mrs. Blaine Hall, with Mrs. Ed Music, Mrs. Orin Simmerman, Mrs. Byron Nunnery, Mrs. Harold Dicks, Mrs. Frank Conley and Mrs. Fanny Runnels as co-hostesses. Mrs. Virgil Goble, the president, presided. The installation meeting was set for May 2 at 6:30 p.m. at the May Lodge. Reservations will be closed April 30. Guild Train hostesses representing the club, April 9-10, will be Miss Alice Harris and Mrs. Regina B. Mayo. The seminar for self-improvement has been postponed.

The sewing contest will be conducted again by the Club, it was announced.

Mrs. Virginia Wright, nominee for "Kentucky Mother of the Year," will attend the Eighth Annual meeting of the Kentucky Mothers' Association at Morehead State College, April 27.

Mrs. Edith F. James, chairman of Music, presented Miss Katherine Elizabeth Roberts, educational assistant to Rev. Harold W. Dorsey, pastor of the First Methodist Church at Pikeville, who told of her work in the Pikeville community and presented a program of Easter poems and recordings of early sacred music in keeping with the Lenten season. Mrs. John K. Pitts, program leader, introduced Rufus M. Reed, retired teacher, engineer and author-naturalist, who displayed species of wild flowers, discussing each. He was assisted by R. L. Chapman. At the close of the meeting Mr. Reed and Mr. Chapman presented the club members with the live plants from their wild flower sanctuary at Lovely, Ky.

Dessert was served to Mesdames James Donahoe, John K. Pitts, Blaine R. Hall, J. H. Keenon, Virgil Goble, Tom James, E. D. Roberts, Clifford Ball, Edward C. Music, Mrs. Regina B. Mayo, Mrs. Lillian Pelphrey, Mrs. Dorothy Burke, Mrs. Fanny Runnels, Miss Alice Harris, Mesdames Orin Simmerman, Edward B. Leslie, Clyde Burchett. Guests were Mr. Reed, Mr. Chapman, Blaine Hall, Rev. Orin Simmerman, Miss Katherine Elizabeth Roberts.

SUNDAY VISITORS

Mrs. Amanda May had as her Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Langdon, Mr. and Mrs. Keene and baby, of Chesapeake, Ohio. They were her luncheon guests at the Wise Cafe.

Mrs. Harris Dies at 83
At a Louisville Hospital
After 4-Month Illness

Mrs. Lula Harris, well-known Prestonsburg woman, died April 2 at the age of 83 at a Louisville hospital following an illness of four months. She became ill while visiting a daughter at Jeffersonville, Indiana.

A daughter of Franklin and Elizabeth Butler, she was known here, where she had spent almost her entire life, as "Aunt Lou." She was a member of the Free Will Baptist Church. Mrs. Harris was twice married—first, to J. C. Shepherd, and next to Jeff Harris, both of whom preceded her in death.

Surviving her are two daughters, Mrs. W. H. Craft, Jeffersonville, Indiana, and Mrs. Bess Stone, East Lansing, Michigan, and one sister, Mrs. Mary B. May, of Frankfort. Six grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren also survive.

The body was returned here and funeral rites were conducted Saturday afternoon from the chapel of the Floyd Funeral Home by the Revs. W. D. Jagers, M. Robert Regan and William Amburgey. Burial was made in the Mayo cemetery.

Mrs. Henson Victim
Thursday at Pikeville
Of Paralytic Stroke

Mrs. Martha Cole Henson, 79, wife of F. D. Henson, of Hi Hat, died last Thursday at the Methodist hospital, Pikeville, as the result of a paralytic stroke suffered three weeks earlier.

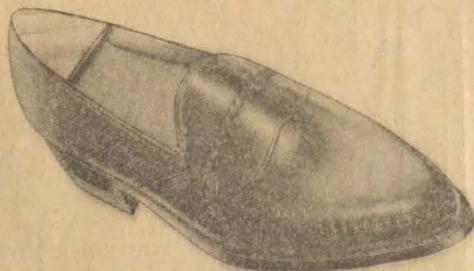

Mrs. Henson was a daughter of Albert and Adeline Cole. Besides her husband, survivors include three sons and three daughters, Norvin Henson, Mrs. Rosa Newsome, Mrs. Minnie Belle Newsome and Mrs. Edna B. Osborne, all of Hi Hat, Oscar Henson, South Bend, Indiana, and Extra Henson, Desplaines, Ohio. She also leaves a brother, Elbert Cole, and one sister, Mrs. Priddy Hall, both of Melvin, 23 grandchildren and 37 great-grandchildren.

Her funeral was conducted Sunday from the home of Estill Osborne at Hi Hat by the Revs. Hershel Huff, Jerry Hall, Charlie Jones, Hershel Hamilton, John B. Hamilton and Johnny Jones. Burial was made in the Newman cemetery, the Hall Brothers Funeral Home directing.

Why We Support Breathitt

The Floyd County Times departed from its long-standing policy of political neutrality when it editorially supported Bert T. Combs, of Prestonsburg, for Governor.

It has never regretted that stand. Now, almost four years after Governor Combs took office, we hold this to be true: When the political smoke that clouds men's vision has lifted and when time provides a true perspective, history will rank Bert Combs as one of Kentucky's greatest Governors—if not, indeed, its greatest.

It is an ironic fact, and possibly a reflection upon our own shortsightedness, that the monumental achievements of the Combs administration in the areas of education, state parks and highways have evoked greater recognition nationally than here at home.

It has happened to other Kentucky Governors as it has to Governor Combs: the good that they do, or have done, is buried in factional disputes and bitterness, in personal spite and enmity, with such commonplace things as jobs, patronage, personal favors and the like inevitably governing individual likes and dislikes.

Yet the incontrovertible facts remain:

There would be no great Mountain Parkway from Central Kentucky into the Mountains but for Bert T. Combs.

Jenny Wiley State Park would not be developed and its magnificent lodge would be only a dream but for Bert Combs.

The Community College program, including a college here to serve counties of this area, would be no more than a figment of the imagination but for Bert Combs.

What more can we ask the man to do? Has any other even dreamed of doing so much?

During these less than four years of the Combs administration Kentucky has jumped forward educationally to make the greatest advances in that area of any state in the Union. No longer do we have to hide our chagrin with the crack, "Thank God for Arkansas!"

During this time the Kentucky parks system has become recognized as the greatest in the United States, which is tantamount to being recognized as the greatest in the world. As a consequence, tourism has become the state's No. 2 industry and promises to become No. 1.

In these few eventful years, too, not only a Parkway to the Mountains—"the Promised Land," because it has for a century and a half survived on a diet of promises—has been built, but its counterpart is driving into Western Kentucky. These roads do not belong to the decadent past; they are roads for today and the future. Into these and the splendid interstate route being built through Kentucky smaller roads will merge, connecting all Kentucky eventually in a great, modern highway network.

These last four years have seen, too, more money for schools—for classrooms, teachers, textbooks; for assistance to the aged, the blind, dependent children; more for the mentally retarded, and a program of hospitalization for the needy.

Not every vice spot in Kentucky has been eliminated, but Newport, the center of organized vice and crime, was rid of its overlords in a bold move made by Governor Combs in answer to the pleas and prayers of church people of every denomination. Bert Combs could have "looked the other way," as had been done in the past. Looking the other way could have been profitable. But he chose to act.

We do not presume to claim perfection for the Combs administration. Mistakes have been made, but they were made when mistakes usually occur—when things are being done.

Because we believe in the Combs program, see in it the progressive ideas, ideals and work that Kentucky must have—

Because we are indebted to Governor Combs to the full extent of our ability to appreciate every good thing done for our section of this Commonwealth—

Because he sees in "Ned" Breathitt the man possessing those qualities of mind and heart which will impel him to make Kentucky a good Governor—

Because Ned Breathitt has committed himself to a continuance of the work which Bert Combs has in such a great way begun—

Because we hold that Kentucky cannot afford to turn back the clock—

For these reasons, and not because of any spirit of personal malice toward any other candidate, we gladly offer Edward T. Breathitt our support in his campaign for Governor.

This Is a Sound Ruling

The Times believes (1) that those who are unable to work or who cannot find work should be supplied food, and (2) that those who will not work should not eat.

So it is that we hail the ruling recently announced here to the effect that those who refuse employment and are able to work will be denied food stamps.

We do not believe that it was the intent of the federal government or, more specifically, the U. S. Department of Agriculture, to encourage any able-bodied man or woman to live on food-stamp largesse and refuse to earn a living if the opportunity is presented.

Farmers have complained that food stamp recipients have refused work and that they cannot employ help with their crops. The new ruling should correct that situation.

What this country needs is a public works program, but until that comes along it must make the best of what is at hand. And the best is not a program to encourage idleness and sycophancy.

There is idle land in this county that could make busy hands. Planting time is near, and those who can work should be supplied plots for gardens. Many need instruction, some may need seed. Give them both. But let them work. Let them have a normal human's share in this business of living.

Those who are sick or enfeebled or in any way incapacitated must be fed and clothed. We cannot excuse ourselves by a cold refusal to help because some, even many, have taken advantage of governmental agencies and even their friends and neighbors by pleading poverty and need when they could have helped themselves. The cry of real human distress must never be ignored.

But the only real help that can be given the able-bodied is work to do, a living wage, an opportunity to become self-supporting and a self-respecting member of the race and society.

(Items taken from files of The Floyd County Times of 30, 20 and 10 years ago.)

Thirty Years Ago

(April 7, 1933)

Deputy Constable Bev Scott was shot to death Sunday afternoon and on the preceding day Jack H. Hatfield was seriously wounded in the chest, both shootings taking place at Lackey within a radius of 75 yards. Robert Sammons was shot and wounded on Arkansas last week. Fiscal court, Tuesday, voted its annual appropriation of $1,750 in support of the Floyd County Health Department. Enactment of an ordinance to provide revenue for the city of Prestonsburg through legalized beer sales was made at a meeting of the city council Wednesday night. Major indictments by the grand jury this week include six murder charges. In competition here Friday evening, Miss Margaret Spradlin, Prestonsburg high school senior, won the Floyd county oratorical contest. Representative A. J. May, of Prestonsburg, last week, conferred with President Roosevelt, reopening the issue of locking and improving the Big Sandy River from Louisa to Elkhorn City. Married: Miss Dorothy Elliott, of Asheville, North Carolina, and Mr. Scott C. Osborne, of Martin, March 31, at the home of Mrs. J. C. Nixon, of Martin. There died: Judge Jay A. Vinson, 60, Sunday, at his home at Wayland.

Twenty Years Ago

(April 8, 1943)

The Howard Motor Company, Ford dealer here, was destroyed by fire early Sunday morning. Johnson county authorities Tuesday expressed the belief that Cpl. Ennis Spradlin, 30, of Spradlin Branch, near here, whose body was found late Friday night beneath a railway trestle at Paintsville, died as the result of a fall. All temporary gasoline rations were discontinued as of March 31. Of the $13,000,000-500-goal for the Second War Loan which will be conducted throughout the nation, Floyd county's quota is $463,000. Willie Hicks, 21-year-old soldier, of Middle Creek, has been reported missing in action after the first big push on the Tunisian front. The fiscal court at its special session Tuesday added the services of a home demonstration agent to the county's farm-and-home program. Funeral rites for Miss Irma Mae Vanderpool, 19, of West Prestonsburg, who was a murder-victim at Bisbee, Arizona, March 27, were conducted Sunday afternoon at West Prestonsburg. Born: to Mr. and Mrs. Billie Mayo, of Hite, a daughter; to Mr. and Mrs. Will Little, of Weeksbury, a son.

Ten Years Ago

(April 9, 1953)

Faced with the need of doing something about a variety of city problems, among them sewage disposal, an expanded water system and street repairs, the Prestonsburg City Council voted unanimously Monday night to authorize a bond issue of $1,000,000. With no more than $400,000 available for the work to be done, and the lowest bids offered totalling $475,430.63, the Floyd fiscal court and Floyd County Board of Education in joint session Tuesday were forced to delay awarding of contracts on the proposed 23-classroom county high school building here. John E. Manias, 47 years old, of Detroit, Michigan, and a native of Neon, Letcher county, drowned in Dewey Lake early Wednesday morning when his auto dropped from the road leading to the Brandy Keg dock into approximately eight feet of water. Ashland Nelson, 21-year-old Blue River man, was accidentally killed Thursday by a blast from his shotgun while hunting on Buckeye Fork of Middle Creek. The Floyd circuit court got under way slowly this week as only 13 of 36 petit jurors summoned had reported for duty as of Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Bessie Greer Mullins, 37, of Printer, was fatally injured Tuesday morning when struck by a hit-and-run driver, on the highway at Printer. Lloyd Dean Hoover, 4, of Garrett, succumbed Friday at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, of burns received when he fell into a tub of boiling water at his home, April 2. Married: Miss Beatrice James, of Endicott, and Mr. L. T. Hunt, of Woods, April 1, at the home of Rev. Isaac Stratton at Banner; Miss Gloria Sue Osborne, of Eastern, and Mr. Bledis Lafferty. There died: Dr. Gideon D. Ison, 72, of Bonita Springs, Florida, formerly of Blackey, Sunday at an Atlanta, Georgia, hospital; W. I. Myers, 57, of Detroit, Michigan, formerly of Drift, Monday at Detroit; Mrs. Mary Campbell, 81, of Prestonsburg, at the home of a step-daughter at Lanier, April 2; Mrs. Kate Wallen Hammonds, 39, of Water Gap, last Thursday, at a Paintsville hospital.

Allen Church To Offer Special Easter Program

The congregation of the First Baptist Church at Allen will be back in the church Sunday for the first time since the building was flooded during the recent flood. The occasion will be marked by special Easter programs presented by the choir, and the public is invited to the service.

While the church itself was being cleaned and repaired, services have been held in the educational building. "Our people wish to express our appreciation to all who helped in moving church furnishings out of the floodwaters and in the big job of cleaning and repairing the building," the pastor, the Rev. Cohen Campbell, said.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 7—Evidence that Kentucky's new adoption law is reducing the number of un-supervised and possibly dangerous adoptions has been reported by Miss Marge Friend, supervisor of adoptions and foster care of the State Department of Child Welfare.

Ohioans Send Clothing To Floyd County Needy

Phi Delta Phi sorority of Beta Sigma Phi, Chillicothe, Ohio, this year had as its project helping the needy of Floyd county, and the recent flood gave the group a splendid opportunity to help.

So last week the sorority sent to this county a trailer-load of clothing for distribution in the county to those in need. Accompanying the shipment here were Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Adkins and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Uhrig.

Kiwanians To Observe Easter Season at Meet

The Prestonsburg Kiwanis Club will observe Easter and Holy Week at their meeting at Wise's Restaurant on Thursday evening of this week. The Rev. O. M. Summerman, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will bring a message on "The Cross."

Next week, the program will be given by Evangelist Larry Taylor, who will be leading a revival at the Irene Cole Memorial Baptist Church, beginning Sunday.

BANK WOMEN IN ANNUAL MEETING

NEW OFFICERS for Kentucky Group, National Association of Bank Women, for 1963-'64. Miss Burieta Gearheart, assistant cashier, The Bank Josephine, Prestonsburg, hands the gavel to the newly elected chairman, Miss Beverly R. Chittenden, assistant cashier, Salem Bank, Salem, Ky. Other new officers are, from left, Mrs. Ernestine S. Roberts, auditor-comptroller, Fort Knox National Bank, Fort Knox, vice-chairman; Miss Ruth K. Donnelly, assistant trust officer, Liberty National Bank & Trust Co., Louisville, secretary; Miss Nelda Phelps, assistant cashier, The Peoples Bank, Marion, treasurer.

The Kentucky Group of the National Association of Bank Women held its annual meeting at May Lodge, Jenny Wiley State Park, April 6-7, with 36 members and 45 guests attending.

The meeting opened with a luncheon at 12:30 p.m. Saturday, with Mrs. Ely B. Browning, Sr., chairman of the board of The Bank Josephine, as hostess. The group was welcomed to May Lodge and Prestonsburg by Mayor George P. Archer, who also commissioned Mrs. Mildred Muller, regional vice-president of the Southern Division, Memphis, Tennessee, a Kentucky Colonel. H. D. Fitzpatrick, vice-president, The Bank Josephine, and president of Group IX, Kentucky Bankers Association, welcomed the group to this section.

D. H. Dorton, Sr., president of the Kentucky Bankers Association, was the speaker. Mr. Dorton outlined future plans for a new educational program sponsored by the Kentucky Bankers Association. The group was unanimous in its approval of the program.

Mrs. Annie Davidson was a guest at the luncheon for her 36th birthday. She was the oldest member of the group connected with banking. Her late husband, J. M. Davidson, was the second individual to be employed by the Bank Josephine.

Following the luncheon, the group heard an interesting panel on automation, changes which small banks need to make for automation and the value of attending the School of Banking of the South.

Mrs. Muller, regional vice-president of the Southern Division, was the banquet speaker. Entertainment was provided by the Jenny Wiley Chanters.

Miss Burieta Gearheart, chairman, closed the meeting on Sunday morning with a business meeting. The next meeting will be held in Hopkinsville.

Heart Seizure Claims Joseph McCoy, Sunday; Body Is Returned Here

Joseph McCoy, 59, of Thomas, died of a heart attack late Sunday afternoon at Ironton, Ohio, where he owned and operated an automobile garage. Mr. McCoy's passing came without warning.

He was a son of the late Harlowe and Mousie Fraley McCoy, and was a native of Thomas. Mr. McCoy had been associated with the automobile business for years and at one time was connected with a Prestonsburg dealership. He was a member of the First Baptist Church, Williamson, West Virginia.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Maggie McCoy; four daughters, Mrs. J. W. Crider, of Endicott, Mrs. R. H. Harrison, Beckley, West Virginia, Mrs. Logan Copley, Albany, Georgia, and Mrs. Jo Avenelle McNeely, Williamson, West Virginia; two sisters and one brother, Mrs. J. A. Runyon, Pikeville, Mrs. Hezi Shuler, Baltimore, Maryland, and Henry McCoy, Orlando, Florida. He leaves 15 grandchildren.

Funeral rites were conducted here Wednesday afternoon from the chapel of the Floyd Funeral Home, the Rev. W. D. Jagers officiating. Burial was made in the family cemetery at Thomas.

Good quality frozen fish should have the following characteristics, U.K. home economists say. Fish should be solidly frozen when bought, with no brownish tinge or discoloration in the flesh. The fish should have little or no odor; a strong fishy odor means poor quality. The wrapping on frozen filets should be of moisture-vapor-proof material with little or no air space between the fish and the wrapping.

HUMILITY

We have heard the saying and the song, "Be it ever so humble, there's no place like home," and that is true. A home is not just a house—four walls where we stay—but a place of love, happiness and contentment. It can be a place where the love of God is. He can dwell and reign supreme in our hearts. Humility is something that goes along with contentment but we may be mistaken sometimes as to just what God means when he wants us to be humble. He wants us to humble ourselves in the sight of God and then we will be lifted up. We must not follow after man but serve God, and He will give us wisdom and we will know what to do to please Him. Let us not do as man says unless it is the word of God.

It is good for us to listen to the instructions of a wise man—that is someone wise in the things of God; James 3-13 "who is a wise man and endowed with knowledge among you? Let him show out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom." Also James 4-10, "Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He shall lift you up."

When we are discouraged and it seems we are almost to the place where we cannot go on God will lift us up. Sometimes we let other people discourage us but it is then we need to humble ourselves to God and trust Him more completely. Job 22-29: "When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, there is lifting up; and He shall save the humble person."

FERTILIZER NEEDS

Lexington, Ky.—Buy fertilizers on the basis of which nutrients (nitrogen, phosphorus or potash) are needed by the plant. Don't just order by the ton or the bag. That way, says George D. Corder, U. K. Ag Extension Service soils specialist, farmers will get a return on their fertilizer investment.

Floyd County Times, April 11, 1963 — Sec. 1, Page 5

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 7—The Kentucky Department of Economic Security has launched a statewide study to re-check the eligibility of families receiving public assistance funds in the Aid to Dependent Children category. Commissioner Earle V. Powell has reported.

In the Nelson county area 50 persons will be trained as sewing machine operators with an $8,700 federal grant financing the project. In the Green and Adair counties area, 15 persons will be trained as nurse aides. The federal grant for this project amounts to $3,884.

FRED GEARHEART Of Harold, Ky., As A Candidate for State Representative Dist. 96 Democratic Primary, May, 1963

William C. Johnson, 92, Resident of Minnie, Succumbs at Hospital

William C. Johnson, of Minnie, died Monday at the McDowell Memorial hospital at the age of 92. He had been seriously ill the last five months.

Mr. Johnson formerly was employed as a miner at Heller, Pike county. He was a son of Isaac and Nannie Burchett Johnson.

His wife, Mrs. Mary Ellen Compton Moore, preceded him in death. Survivors are his four daughters, Mrs. Lorraine Turner, of Minnie, Mrs. Opal Moore, of Hindman, Mrs. Laura Johnson, of Frenchburg, and Mrs. Beatrice Francis, Clintwood, Virginia.

Funeral rites were conducted Wednesday from the home of William Turner at Minnie by the Revs. Hershel Huff, Henry King, Mitchell Chaffins, Troy Nickless and others. Burial in the Martin cemetery at Drift was directed by the Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

Who Are The "Citizens For Educational Freedom"?

Approximately five years ago, a new name began to appear. It was "Citizens for Educational Freedom," or CEF, as they are commonly known.

Whether this group was a tool of the Roman Catholic Aid For Parochial Schools hierarchy, or representatives of Protestant Parochial School Churches, a few Jewish private school leaders, plus a few others that have been duped into thinking that tolerance demands that "All school children deserve tax money for their education," is a little hazy. The group is still too small to be able to determine. However, some of its literature has been connected with a Jesuit priest writing under an assumed name.

The stated aim of this group is "Educational Freedom," by which is meant education for all at taxpayers' expense, whether they take advantage of their opportunity to attend the public schools, or go to an independent, secular (socialistic or communistic) or religious school. (Naturally, they make no mention of the communistic schools in their literature or pressure on political leaders, but to be just they must include them in their claims for aid).

In order to circumvent the constitution, they are advancing the Roman hierarchy scheme of having the money paid to the pupil who will then use it to pay his "tuition" to the school of his choice.

How much longer we in the United States will tolerate a multiple school set-up, with its multiple teachings of history, morals, psychology, science and, in its higher branches, medicine, law and ethics is a question. Certainly we need to teach one complete United States history, if not all branches of history, and behavior and morals should all have the same basis. Historical facts are facts, stealing is stealing—whether one dollar or fifty

Fred N. Caudill, 50, Former Floyd Miner, Dies at Warsaw, Ind.

Fred N. Caudill, 50, former Floyd coal miner, died Monday at Warsaw, Indiana, after an illness of five months.

He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Caudill and had been a member of the Church of Christ 25 years.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Veda Fields Caudill, of Warsaw; seven sons and two daughters, Willis E. and James E. Caudill, both of Sidney, Ohio, Billy, Donald and Fred Caudill, Jr., all of Warsaw; Arnold Caudill, of the U. S. Air Force in Illinois, Paul Caudill, of Eastern, Miss Brenda Kay and Linda Sue Caudill, both of Warsaw. He leaves one brother, Orville Caudill, of Greenville, Indiana, and one sister, Mrs. Reuben Turner, Kopperston, West Virginia, and the following half-brothers and half-sisters: Raymond, Frank and J. T. Caudill, all of Jeremiah, Kentucky; Mrs. Roma Ambury and Georgia Caudill, both of Letcher, Kentucky.

The funeral will be conducted at 2 p.m. Friday from the Martin Church of Christ, the Revs. Frank Binford and Bennie Blankenship officiating. Burial will be made in the family cemetery at Eastern under direction of the Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

Survivors include three sons and one daughter, Russell and Clarence Hayes, both of Langley, Glenn Hayes, of Wheelwright, and Mrs. Audrey Cairns, Jacksonville, Florida; three brothers and four sisters, Dick and Bill Hinton, both of Allen, John Hinton, of Florida, Mrs. Lizzie Woods and Mrs. Jane Porter, both of Allen, Mrs. Amy Music, of Prestonsburg, and Mrs. Grace Harris, Princeton, West Virginia. She also leaves six grandchildren.

Funeral rites were conducted Tuesday from the Maytown Methodist Church by the Revs. H. M. Wiley and Logan Whalen. Burial in the Hayes cemetery at Langley was directed by the Floyd Funeral Home.

Howard-Baldrige Vows Said Here on April 8

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baldrige announce the marriage of their daughter, Emma Lois, to Mr. Timothy Howard, on April 6, at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Howard, on Arnold Avenue.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. W. Chisholm, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church. Their attendants were O. R. Howard, brother of the groom, and Mrs. Howard.

The bride wore a street-length crepe dress of rose pink, with a head-dress of pink roses with short veil, and carried a nosegay of white carnations. Mrs. Howard, matron of honor, wore a beige dress, with beige head bandeau, and white carnation corsage.

A reception followed the nuptials with only the immediate families attending.

Mrs. Howard attended Mayo Vocational School, Paintsville. Mr. Howard attended Eastern State College. Both are graduates of Prestonsburg high school. They are associated with the Ray Howard Furniture Stores. After a honeymoon touring Kentucky, they will return to their home on Westminster street.

tricity. During the day, when the demand for electricity is at its peak, waterdriven turbines would produce the power. At night a steam plant would be switched on, the turbines reversed, and the water pumped back into the reservoir for reuse the following day.

"This thinking necessarily involves a chain of lakes and dams working together in a coordinated power production program," a spokesman said.

Eastern Kentucky coal, instead of being shipped out of the area, would be used at home.

The conservancy district might be involved in other projects, including flood control, land conservation, reforestation, tourism, and possibly mine-mouth power.

Money for the projects would come from revenue bonds issued by the district. The sale of power and water and proceeds from other projects would pay off the bonds.

Enabling legislation would have to be passed in Frankfort before the district could be established. After that there would be a referendum in the five counties to determine whether residents desired to form the district. If the referendum should win approval a local authority would be elected to determine and finance projects.

A member of the group said, "If it likes what it learns, it plans to formally contact the Department of Interior about setting up a conservancy program in the area."

The spokesman confirmed that the group has invited the director of one of the largest conservancy projects in Washington to meet with it soon.

and the mayors of 31 cities. In addition, Lloyd said, he has requested the county judges to furnish lists of affected cities in their county so that all eligible agencies may be contacted.

All applications must be returned to State Civil Defense headquarters in Frankfort by June 11.

Counties included in the disaster area are: Floyd, Bell, Boyd, Breathitt, Clay, Harlan, Johnson, Knott, Knox, Lawrence, Lee, Leslie, Letcher, Livingston, Magoffin, Martin, McCracken, Owsley, Perry, Union, Whitley and Wolfe.

Congregation Members Join Pastor in Inviting Public to Baptist Revival

REVIVAL SONG LEADER

Members of the congregation of Irene Cole Memorial Baptist Church this week joined the pastor, the Rev. W. D. Jaggers, in visiting homes to invite Prestonsburg residents to attend the revival worship service.

A series of cottage prayer meetings also will be held Friday evening as a prelude to the revival which will be led by Evangelist Larry Taylor, of San Antonio, Texas.

Music at the services, which will be held twice daily, at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., will be led by Gus M. Kalos, minister of music, Beechmont Baptist Church, Louisville.

The Rev. Taylor, since his conversion eight years ago, has led more than 200 revivals and the result has been the addition of more than 12,000 persons to the church. His one previous Eastern Kentucky revival was at First Baptist Church, Hazard, where 100 professions of faith resulted.

Nursery facilities will be provided for the convenience of parents of young children. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend each service.

All county offices, including the county courtroom, will be located on the first floor, George Lee Shannon, architect, said. Commonwealth offices and the circuit courtroom will occupy the second, and the third will be devoted to the county jail and the jailer's living quarters. Plans call for a private restroom for each office, with public restrooms on the first floor.

Both courtrooms will be finished with walnut panelling and acoustical ceilings.

The contractors will have 365 days in which to complete the building after the work order is issued. Akers & Akers were contractors on the May Lodge which was completed this year at Jenny Wiley State Park and has the contract on the amphitheatre to be built there this summer.

The old courthouse site will become the principal part of one of two urban renewal projects here, if applications already filed with the Urban Renewal Administration are approved. The old building, which has by succeeding grand juries been termed unsafe, will be available for use, however, until the new courthouse is ready for occupancy.

Federal aid on the building itself will be not less than 50%, with urban renewal participation in the amount of $100,000 or more, if the urban renewal project is approved.

The courthouse here will be the fourth to be built in an Eastern Kentucky county within the last few years. Johnson and Magoffin county's courthouses are already in use, and bids have been accepted on Breathitt's.

NOTICE

The B. & H. Gas Company, Inc., Stanville, Kentucky, has applied to the Public Service Commission, Frankfort, Kentucky, for an authorization to charge these rates:

1. First 1,000 cubic feet of gas, $1.00.
2. All more than 1,000 cubic feet at 60c per cubic feet.
3. Minimum charge to be $1.00 per month.

A hearing is scheduled before the Public Service Commission, Frankfort, Kentucky, on April 29 at 2 p.m. at which time any interested person may appear and be heard on said application.

Creek by the Indians. Scoutmaster May pointed to an avenue of descent from the cave and to Little Mud Lick Creek in which she waded to hide her trail.

It was nearly noon when the Scouts left Jenny Wiley Cave and trekked down Little Mud Lick to where it enters Big Mud Lick Creek. Most of them crossed the stream on a plank that broke with Scoutmaster May and dropped him in the creek. They came out on Ky. 172, hiked to the mouth of Jenny's Creek and had their pictures made at the newly-erected historical marker commemorating a Civil War battle. Still full of energy, they frolicked on the lawn of the old Dan Davis home. Several of them built a pyramid of their bodies and yelled with delight when the top-most Scouts fell, crumpling everybody into a mass of laughing youth.

The sun was descending, there was a long way to go and May hurried them along. Crossing Big Paint Creek on a bridge, they began the ascent of the stream that bears the name of the area's greatest pioneer heroine. When they emerged onto U. S. 23 the day was nearly spent. The boys were loaded into cars and trucks and brought to the mouth of Little Paint Creek where Mrs. Wiley came to the Big Sandy River and a short distance from Harman's Station which became her refuge.

Soon they will try again, and successfully, for the trail is now known. Rigid rules of departure, marching and road safety will be observed. Medals will be issued to those who successfully complete a hike on the Jenny Wiley Escape Trail.

Scoutmasters May, Goble, Ezra Robinson, veteran Scout leader N. M. White and the officers of the Floyd County Historical Society and the Johnson County Historical Society who are sponsoring the development of the trail, envision it as the most popular Boy Scout hike in Kentucky.

It could very well be that, for the route has some of the most impressive scenery in the Big Sandy valley and the area is deep with legend and history.

Miss Allen Is Named Campaign Chairwoman

Mrs. J. Murray Blue, state women's campaign chairman for the Chandler-Waterfield organization, Tuesday announced the appointment of Miss Eloise Allen, of Hueysville, as campaign chairwoman for Floyd county.

Miss Allen has been a teacher at Maytown high school the last eight years, is a graduate of Morehead State College and is president of the Floyd County Morehead Alumni Association. She served in the 1959 campaign as Floyd chairwoman for Harry Lee Waterfield.

Boat Owners Reminded Boat Licenses Are Due

Boat owners are reminded that the fiscal year on boat licenses runs from May 1 of one year to April 30 of the next. This means all 1962-63 registrations expire this month, April 30, says Boating Director, Bud Calman.

The Boating Division started accepting registrations January 21st, so there will be no extension of time, says Calman.

Water patrolmen started checking boats April 1 for required equipment and May 1, will start issuing citations for lack of proper equipment or expired registrations.

HISTORIC AND SCENIC LITTLE MUD LICK CREEK FALLS

Little Mud Lick Creek Falls, Johnson county, Kentucky, near where Mrs. Jenny Wiley was held captive in early 1790 and from which she escaped to Harman's Station at the mouth of Johns Creek, was a favorite recreation spot in the last decade of the nineteenth century. This photograph, made about 1895, shows the falls in mid-summer when the stream was dry.

The Jenny Wiley Trail, sponsored jointly by the Floyd County Historical Society and the Johnson County Historical Society, is being established by Boy Scout Troop No. 27, Prestonsburg.

The First National Bank salutes the Boy Scouts of the Jenny Wiley District for their devotion to history and their program of developing our youth into outstanding citizens of tomorrow.

JARVIS ALLEN ANNOUNCES FOR COMMONWEALTH'S ATTY.
 I have decided to become a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney in the Democratic Primary election to be held May 28, 1963.
 I have talked to numerous citizens and voters in this county and believe that they want to vote for a candidate who is independent and free to enforce the law by prosecuting all crimes and criminals that may come before the circuit court, without fear, or being influenced by any politician, political group or faction.
 I do not believe that the citizens of this county will agree for a group of local politicians to dictate who shall serve as public officials in Floyd county, especially when their motive is to gain control of all law enforcement and remove any opposition to organized crime in which they may be interested.
 I am sure the citizens of this county know that I have always done exactly what I believed to be right and that no politician has ever been able to persuade or influence me to do otherwise.
 Numerous citizens of this county have stated that I was too honest to be a politician. I have never desired to be a politician but I firmly believe that no man can be too honest to serve in a public office.
 If elected Commonwealth's Attorney I will prosecute all criminals that may come before me, on an impartial and equal basis, regardless of wealth, political power, race or color. I firmly believe every man should have equal rights as guaranteed by the United States Constitution and will do all in my power to see that such rights are protected.
 As a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney I do not intend to take an active part in any other race, either local or state. I firmly believe that it is my duty as a candidate to confine my actions to my race and allow the citizens and voters of this county to decide for whom they will vote in other races. I will vote for those candidates that I believe will best serve my county and my neighbors, and I believe others will use the same guide in casting their vote.
 I have always voted and fought for what I thought was best for my county. In 1955 and 1959 I did everything in my power to help elect a local Floyd county man to the office of Governor.
 My announced opponent, Harold Stumbo, did everything in his power to prevent the election of Governor Combs. Maybe he has an explanation and can justify his motive in making the misleading statements on television against Governor Combs in 1959.
 I was admitted to the bar in 1952 after serving four years as County Court Clerk. I have been practicing law for more than ten years. During the past three years as Trial Attorney for the Department of Highways I have appeared before a jury in the trial of cases in half of the counties in the state of Kentucky. I feel that such trial experience qualifies me to handle the prosecution of cases that may come before the court.
 I pledge to you, the citizens and voters of this county, that if elected to the office of Commonwealth's Attorney I will do everything in my power to suppress crime and to make Floyd county a better county in which to live. I will be in a position to work with and aid any official, person or group interested in reducing such crime. On this basis and pledge I earnestly solicit the vote and support of all voters of Floyd county.

LIONS CLUB HERE SPONSORS MAN FOR OPTIC SURGERY

Troy Hamilton, 31, of Teaberry, who has been losing his eyesight for several years due to inability to pay the high cost of optic surgery, will enter a Louisville hospital next week under the sponsorship of the Prestonsburg Lions Club. Arrangements were made recently through the Kentucky Eye Foundation, Louisville.

Mr. Hamilton, who was told by doctors that surgery two years ago would have completely saved his vision, will have an operation on one eye which, it is thought, will be restored to normal vision. One eye will be completely removed, it was said.

Eye surgery, especially corneal transplants, is a nationwide program of the Lions and this sponsorship of Hamilton is the first opportunity of the newly-organized Prestonsburg Lions Club to be of service in the field. The need of surgery for the Teaberry resident was brought to the attention of Richard Harmon, a Lions official, by County Judge Henry Stumbo.

The Lions completed organizational work Thursday of last week by naming three new committees. Appointed by President Fred A. James were Russell May, Carl Riffe and Wayne Hatliff to the program committee; Hardin Short, David DuPont and David Stephens to the finance committee; and Richard Harmon, Jody Fannin and James Lafferty to the membership committee.

Scientists In Two States Breed Blight-Resistant Chestnut Trees

America's lordly chestnut trees, almost wiped out by a mysterious fungus from the Orient, are coming back, thanks to the breeding of blight-resistant varieties of the tree by scientists in Connecticut and Pennsylvania.

J. C. Furnas, well-known Lebanon, New Jersey, writer, describes the patient development in an April Reader's Digest article, "They Are Bringing Back the Chestnut Tree."

Revival is being accomplished by planting of shoots from the few surviving trees onto healthy Asian trees. Dr. Jesse D. Diller of the Northeastern Forest Experiment Station at Upper Darby, Pennsylvania, has confirmed some 120 genuine survivors. Scions cut from these are sent to volunteer "cooperators" in 17 states for grafting and cross breeding.

A chestnut breeding project on Sleeping Giant Mountain near New Haven, Connecticut, has produced several combinations of American and Asian chestnuts. Rising mast-like to 40 feet, these chestnuts are worthy of the old tradition. They are free of disease and some produce palatable nuts.

This spring, Dr. Richard A. Jayne, of Sleeping Giant, starts cutting scions for distribution to commercial nurseries. The call is out, however, for surviving American chestnut shoots within the old natural range. Tree enthusiasts are asked to send them to Dr. Jayne and Dr. Diller at their respective stations. Dr. Diller's address is 102 Motors Avenue, Upper Darby, Pennsylvania, and Dr. Jayne's is Box 1106, New Haven 4, Connecticut.

Shoots would consist of a twig and two leaves from a part of the tree that has had sunlight. The stations, however, cannot use horse chestnut shoots, or those from the Japanese variety with big, bitter nuts, or the Chinese variety with smaller nuts and sprawly shape.

Dingus Is Honored By Insurance Firm For Sales Record

At a recent sales meeting in Cincinnati, Ohio, of the American Hardware Mutual Insurance Company, Tom G. Dingus, of Highland Avenue, Prestonsburg, was presented the AHM Honor Award. The bronze plaque he received is emblematic of his company's highest award for sales achievement and service to his customers in this area. He also received recognition for other sales accomplishments during the year 1962.

The Dinguses are lifelong residents of Prestonsburg. They have three children. Elizabeth, 16, attends Prestonsburg high school; James, 12, attends Our Lady of the Mounts School at Paintsville, and Gwen, 7, attends Prestonsburg grade school.

SEARCH FOR GIRLS TO VIE FOR TITLE OF MISS EAST KY.

Miss East Kentucky will represent Floyd and Pike counties at the Miss Kentucky Pageant in Lexington this summer, it was announced recently by Bill Gibson, chairman of the local pageant and an employee of Southern Bell Telephone Company.

Gibson said the Jaycees plan to select a talented beauty from this area to enter this Miss America preliminary contest. Ben Davis, assistant Pike county agricultural extension agent, and Bob Staggs, teacher in the Pikeville city schools, are co-chairmen of the entrants committee and announce that entrants are now being sought for the pageant.

To be eligible for the Miss East Kentucky Pageant, a contestant must be between the ages of 18 and 28 on September 1. She must be a high school graduate by September 1; must never have been married.

She must possess talent, either trained or potential, which may include playing a musical instrument, dramatics, dress designing, singing, or any of the fine arts. If she wishes to pursue a professional career, such as nursing, she may present a three-minute talk on her reasons for selecting such a career or on her training to date and her aims in that profession.

Entry blanks may be procured at the three banks in Pikeville and at the Pikeville Chamber of Commerce Office. Upon completion of the blanks, mail to Post Office Box 2303, Pikeville, Kentucky. For more information, call either Davis, at GE 7-7476, or Staggs, at GE 7-6677. Entrants will be contacted upon receipt of applications and will receive instructions for interviews.

The pageant will be held at Faith Chapel, Pikeville College, on Saturday, May 25, at 8 p.m.

Avalanche In Italy Kills 6, Injures 1

Bolzano, Italy, April 9—An avalanche crashed down at the entrance to a tunnel under construction near here Monday, killing six workmen and injuring a seventh.

The men were working on the tube, in the Cesen Valley, when the avalanche struck shortly after noon.

The winner will receive a $100 scholarship, presented by East Kentucky Beverage Company, and the Pikeville Jaycees will present her with a trip to Lexington, to compete in the Miss Kentucky Pageant.

Miss Kentucky for 1961, Mrs. Lee Grigsby Evans, is in Pikeville this week, assisting the Jaycees in planning their pageant, and will be making several appearances before local groups.

Floyd Advisory Group To Help SBA on Loans Announced This Week

The Small Business Administration has announced the appointment of members to local advisory committees who will assist the personnel of SBA disaster field offices in carrying out their services to the eligible loan applicants who have suffered losses during the recent flood.

Those appointed to the SBA Disaster Advisory Committee in Floyd county are:

Burl Spurlock, H. D. Fitzpatrick, Jr., and Gordon Francis, all of Prestonsburg; Glenn Spradlin, Martin, and Robert Griffith, Garrett.

DELAY PLANTING

Wet soil is a good reason to delay planting roses, shrubs and trees now offered for sale. When holes are dug, wet clayey soils can puddle easily. Puddled soils hold water around the plant roots. The roots drown and the plant dies.

DeROSSETT APPEALS TO VOTERS

To the Young... To the Old... To the Veterans:

I am a son of John Derossett and Anna Calhoun Derossett of Bull Creek, a lifelong resident of this county. My father is now 82 years old. He is a former teacher and former employee of the Kentucky-West Virginia Gas Company. He is a lifelong resident of the county and a life member of the Regular Baptist Church.

I was born in 1922, attended our local schools, served in the U. S. Army 5 years in the European Theatre.

I do not make any hero's claim but I was awarded the Bronze Star and five Battle Stars, one for the Normandy Invasion. I am a member of the Free Will Baptist Church.

My family connections include many well-known Floyd county names, to mention a few: Calhoun, Lafferty, Robinson, Rowe, Mayo, Rorrer, Wallen, Shepherd, McGuire, Sizemore, Meadow, Miller, Slone, Warrix, Tussey, Parrott, Wells, Thornsberry, Webb, Montgomery, Flannery, Sprigg, Hall, Mosley, Peters, Anderson, Sammons, Skeans, Smith, Ellis, Prater, Moore, Nelson, Ousley, Patton, Sparlock, Baisden, Baldrige, Banks, Hicks, Bingham, Blackburn, Burchett, Conn, Crisp, Crum, Davidson, Dingus, Dotson, Ford, Frasure, Howard, Hubbard, Bayes, Campbell, Clifton, Scutchfield, Barnett, Younce, Gunnell, Merritt, Ramey, Garrett, Goble, Gray, Harmon, Hayes, Herald, Holbrook, Hobson, Layne, Horn, Jarrell, Marshall, Osborne and Clark.

This is my first time to ask for a public office and I do now, knowing that I can perform the required duties, and I will go beyond that call and establish a Driver-Training Program in every Floyd county high school. I believe Floyd county owes this to our younger generation. It will eliminate many highway accidents.

I trust your good judgment and beg to remain your friend.

TOTAL PERFORMANCE:

FORD GALAXIE 500/XL SPORTS HARDTOP

YOU'LL KNOW WHY FORD SWEEPED THE FIRST FIVE PLACES AT DAYTONA...WHEN YOUR '63 FORD IS STILL GOING STRONG YEAR AFTER YEAR

Daytona's big, banked oval puts unbelievable stresses and strains on engines, steering gears and frames. The Fords that won at Daytona took all the punishment this famous track could dish out over 500 miles of grueling competition without missing a beat.

In this toughest of all stock car events, mechanical failures claimed over fifty per cent of the starting field. But of twelve Fords entered, nine went the distance. Ford took six of the first ten places.

Five-hundred-mile events like Daytona are a public demonstration of toughness, reliability and sheer engineering excellence that are part of the new generation of Fords. A test like this can't be duplicated on anybody's testing grounds—it's run right out in the open. Any car can enter. But only the car that has the best total combination of strength, balance, precision control and road-clinging suspension can win... that's what we mean by total performance.

Visit your Ford Dealer before you buy any other new car. Here's what you'll find: a new kind of total-car durability, a new kind of handling ability, a suspension that is startlingly smooth yet sticks to the road like tar. GUY HISLE
Your Telephone Manager

VISITORS TO THE MUSEUM OF SCIENCE AND INDUSTRY IN CHICAGO are using telephones to learn more about the exhibits and displays in the museum. Tape-recorded messages played over more than 1000 telephones give descriptions of the exhibits, correct pronunciation of new words, interesting facts about items on display. Result? Learning made more pleasant . . . and easy for museum visitors.

GETTING THE HOUSE READY FOR SPRING AND SUMMER LIVING? Why not do the job all the way? Clean, paint, re-arrange . . . and order extension phones in lovely spring colors. Be your own decorator. A gay yellow phone in the kitchen, perhaps. Or a turquoise phone in the den. And consider the Home Interphone that ties all your phones into an inter-communicating system, or the Bell Chime that gives your phone a musical ring. So, while you're busy with Spring brightening, add to your home the special sparkle and step-saving convenience of extension phones . . . in color. To order, call our Business Office or ask your telephone serviceman.

THE AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY has designated April as Cancer Control Month. Year round, cancer researchers work hopefully toward prevention, control and eventual cure of this terrible disease. Year by year they come closer to winning the fight against cancer. This month, you—all of us—are urged to support the work of the Cancer Society by giving our time and our dollars to cancer research. One hundred and five thousand deaths from cancer will occur in the working force of the nation this year. There will be over 200,000 new cases. Cancer will cost business and industry nearly 50,000 man-years of productivity. The answer to this problem lies in the work of doctors and researchers, and in the dollars you give to support their work. Give generously to the American Cancer Society.

SONS OF PIONEER STEPHENS WERE DIVIDED IN CIVIL WAR

(This is the second in a series of articles on the Stephens family compiled from data gathered by Henry Stephens and his son, Edgar P. Stephens.)

The years, between 1821 when Samuel Stephens and Florence Patton were married and the outbreak of the Civil War, was a period of time that historians designate as the log cabin development period in the Big Sandy valley.

The pole cabin of the pioneer settlers disappeared and the more commodious hewed-log home appeared in its place. There were a few added, utilitarian comforts in these homes all produced with great labor. The Stephens home, typical of those built by the landed settlers, grew to large proportions to house the 16 children.

Early, though, many of this big family began to wander and left the paternal hearthstone, but the younger grew and it is a fair inference that the Stephens Branch home was full for years. There was talk of war and the young men, some married, chose sides in the bitter sectional strike, imitating their elders who were vocal on the questions of the day.

Came 1861 and Col. Andrew Jackson May began recruiting soldiers for the Confederacy at Prestonsburg. Although George had been married since 1844 and William had taken a wife four years before they both enlisted to fight for the South. Alexander didn't share the pro-southern sympathies of his two older brothers and left home to cast his lot with the Union.

Tradition, usually unreliable but often indicating the basic truth, asserts that Alexander was a brilliant man and had acquired considerable education. He taught school for several years and it is said that a few years before the Civil War he, George and Reuben went west. They became separated, according to this tradition, and the three never saw each other until after the close of the war.

George Stephens had several children before he entered the Confederate army but we are unsure as to the number. Both George and William joined Co. B 13th Cavalry Regiment, C.S.A. that Col. May had formed. The date was October 9, 1862. The next day, the reason not stated, both men left Co. B. went over to Company F and remained in that group until the war ended. Alexander, their brother was out west, in either Ohio or Illinois, and soon joined the Federal forces. Neither were to see each other until after Lee surrendered when Alexander came back to Stephens Branch, found his brothers, perhaps others of the family, cool to his service as a Union soldier. He left again for the west and only vague rumors came back that he went to Indian Territory, married an Indian chief's daughter, and lived out his life on the Oklahoma prairie.

George Stephens, who married Margaret Handshoe, settled on the Caney Fork of Middle Creek. Little is known about Margaret Handshoe's family, except that she was from Salt Lick, on Right Beaver Creek. Her mother was a Prater and one of her sisters married William Coburn, and another married Alexander Coburn.

Children of the union of George and Margaret Stephens were Alexander, married Della Hale, daughter of Samuel Hale and Eda Helton Hale; Harrison married Rebecca Allen, daughter of James Allen who lived in the head of the Left Fork of Middle Creek; Martha married Morgan Baldrige, and settled on Jones Fork, near the present Lackey but left years later and went to Rowan county; Henry C. married first to Fannie Hicks and after her death Alice Risner; Darcus married Daniel Wicker, of Jones Fork where they lived and died; Florence married James Bradley; Minerva married Alexander Hamilton and went to housekeeping on the Caney Fork of Middle Creek where they lived and died; Cynthia married Jefferson Justice, and upon his death remarried Joe Morgan Thornberry; Polly Ann married Hager Ousley, lived and died on Caney Fork; Samuel married first Catherine Coburn and after her demise married Rachel Bradley.

Jennie, the foster child of Samuel Stephens and daughter of his wife Florence, married John Stone and to them were born these children: Cynthia Stone married a Goodman; James married Polly McDaniels; Sally died not married; Nancy married Henry Patton and after his death married Jack Howard; and Florence who married Thomas Conley. After the untimely death of John Stone from an accident on Turkey Creek she remarried Andrew J. Canady and to them were born four children: Dave Canady married Florence Stephens, daughter of Thomas and Nancy Jane Hicks Stephens; Mary Canady married Gobe Compton; Lige, a great fiddler and variety musician, who was never married; Rebecca married Jack Hale.

Rebecca Stephens, who married George W. (Hopkins) Allen in 1840, was the first of the many children of Samuel Stephens to die. She and George Allen were the parents of 16 children: Mary married Edward Halley; Louisa married James Halley; William; James P., born 1859, married Sally May, born 1854, died 1921, Amanda married B. L. C. May, born November 4, 1859, died January 8, 1952; John B.; Florence married William Pratt; Susan married Milton Spears; David; Darcus married John Galloway; Robert; Andrew married Florence Stephens, daughter of Reuben; Alexander married Elizabeth Stephens, of the William Stephens line, August 8, 1884; Rebecca married S. P. (Boge) Ratliff; Reuben died young; and Samuel who also succumbed in his youth.

Reuben M. Stephens, who married Nancy Jane Hicks in 1859, resided on Stephens Branch. Their 12 children were Solomon G., married Martha Hale; Mary Ann married Wilson Shepherd, December 7, 1887; Cynthia married Johnnie Patton, March 16, 1898; Francis married Joe Shepherd; John E., married Mary Hale, sister to Martha Hale who married Solomon G. Stephens; Florence married Andrew Allen; Rebecca married Jake Crisp; Darcus married Will Haywood and lived and died on Spurlock Fork of Middle Creek; G. C. (Cleve) married Catherine Bailey, who died in 1956; Malcolm married first to Mary Howard, second to Rebecca Maggard, third to Della Moore and fourth to Draxie Vance; Jennie married George Bailey; and Isabelle who married Lewis Howard, November 24, 1898.

James P. Stephens, born January 25, 1825, died February 25, 1904, married Cynthia May, who was born June 7, 1835, died December 9, 1889. Ten children were born to this union before Cynthia died. James P. and all of his children with the exception of James A., a babe, left Beaver Creek soon after the mother's death and moved to Kansas. James A. was reared by his uncle and aunt, George and Mahalia Hazans May and assumed the name of his foster parents.

Sons and daughters of James P. and Cynthia May Stephens were George J. married Alma Hynlee Vaughan, October 23, 1901; William H. married Levisa Jane Stuffleben, April 12, 1893; David married Cousetta Osborne, December 31, 1891; Solomon married Hettie Epley, March 1, 1890; Reuben and John died in infancy; Daniel W. married Martha Patton, February 8, 1872; Marcus L. married Anne May Constable, Solomon May and a few members of his immediate family returned to Kentucky three years ago after an absence of half a century.

William Stephens, who married Rebecca Bradley, was the father of 11 children: Susan married Felix J. May; Samuel married Mary Hale; Isaac N. married Ann Flannery; Dollie, married Pharis Crisp; Elizabeth married Alexander Allen; Polly

The office of Circuit Judge is one of the most important offices in our system of government. Its powers, duties and responsibilities affect the lives, liberties and property of the people as no other office. The legal qualifications of one aspiring to be Circuit Judge equal or exceed those for any other office.

I believe your Circuit Judge should not get involved in political obligations.

I believe any boy or girl has a right to seek a job or position upon his or her merits, without having to go through a political boss.

I believe liquor violations should be prosecuted beginning with the top operator, who is getting rich at the expense of the small ones.

I believe in equal justice, to the little man as well as to the powerful.

I believe your Circuit Judges should not encourage one class against another. We need unity, for in unity there is strength.

Upon these fundamental principles I base my plea for your support for reelection to this office. In this case you are the JUDGE. I trust your decision.

Respectfully yours,

EDWARD P. HILL

SAVE OUR SCHOOLS

The loss of 36 million dollars a year in revenue would wreck our school system.

Do we want to jeopardize our children's future by not giving them the education that they so justly deserve? Our children deserve good, adequately supplied schools. Our children deserve and should have qualified teachers in every classroom.

Let us as Floyd countians who love our children pledge to help continue the progress made in education in the past three years. We can continue that progress by electing a man for Governor who has crossed the length and breadth of Kentucky, crying out that education is the No. 1 issue of this campaign. NED BREATHITT has called for "an adequately financed, constantly improving educational program, with qualified teachers."

This is one of the many reasons why the teachers of Floyd county are solidly behind the nomination and election of NED BREATHITT, a man who has the interest of our children at heart.

"A vote for BREATHITT is a vote for our children's future."

ALFALFA FIELDS

Here are some pointers on fertilizing Kentucky alfalfa fields.

Most alfalfa fields in Kentucky need an annual application of phosphate and potash. This fertilizer application can be made almost any time during the year.

However, if an alfalfa field did not get any fertilizer last year or winter, a good time to do it is after the FIRST spring harvest. Most alfalfa crops now have quite a bit of growth and fertilization may not be best.

If phosphate and potash are needed, an application of 60 pounds of phosphate and 120 pounds of potash are recommended. No nitrogen should be put on. Six hundred pounds an acre of an 0-10-20 fertilizer (or equivalent) will do the job. Also recommended applying 15 to 20 pounds of borax an acre annually to alfalfa fields; this borax can be put on separately or in borated fertilizer.

Soil tests will decide the nutrient and limestone needs. Soil tests are urged because some fields will need phosphate only, others potash only, some both phosphate and potash, while a few fields will NOT need either one.

CLOVER MITE PEST

The clover mite pest already has been reported "invading" Kentucky residences.

The main problem with clover mites in houses—they do not bite humans nor otherwise bother them—is that they congregate on walls. When housewives try to sweep them off, the mites leave an ugly, reddish stain from the crushed bodies. They appear on walls as tiny (pin-point size) reddish-brown specks.

Control measures, according to R. L. Miller, U. K. Ag Extension Service entomologist; Inside the home, use an aerosol bomb containing pyrethrins. Spray directly on the insects.

Outside the home, use Malathion. Mix one tablespoonful of 57 percent strength emulsifiable concentrate with a gallon of water. Spray foundation walls and outside walls of buildings. Lawns may have to be sprayed if the clover mites are abundant.

GARDEN RAKE ON LAWN

The garden rake is used too often on lawns in the spring. Serious damage can be done to the grass plants themselves for the rake will loosen or pull many of them up. Use only a broom type lawn rake. Go over the lawn very lightly. Remove only sticks, stones, or thick covering of leaves. Mulched leaves, if not too thick, dead grass tops, and old clippings should be left.

GRUB WORMS INJURE LAWNS

Grub worms are the larvae of hard shelled beetles. They are whitish with brown heads and usually lie in a curled position in the soil around grass roots. The grub worms eat the grass roots. If a large number of grub worms are present they eat enough grass roots to kill patches of grass. These patches of dead grass usually are first seen in April or May or in October and November. However, most of the injury is done several weeks before the dead patch of grass is noticed. A good way to test for grub worms is to take the bare hands and tear the dead grass loose from the soil. In event of severe grub worm injury the roots have all been eaten off and the dead grass can be rolled up like an old thick rug.

After the dead grass is rolled up and removed look for grub worms on the soil. If more than two grubs are found per square foot it will be advisable to poison them by using Aldrin, Heptachlor or Dieldrin. These may be used in either liquid form or as granules.

The Aldrin, Heptachlor or Dieldrin must be applied exactly according to directions on the container and is best used in early March so the spring rains will wash it into the soil. In event the material is used in late March it will probably be necessary to water it thoroughly into the soil. If any of these materials are used as a spray, be sure to water in thoroughly after spraying and see that pets and children are kept off the lawn until the spray dries. It is also necessary to avoid spray drift on yourself or on edible crops. The best time to apply to the soil is in late afternoon.

GRUB CONTROL

Lexington, Ky.—The standard materials used for control of cattle grubs, tested last season by U. K. Ag Experiment Station entomologists, performed very satisfactorily. Fred Knapp, entomologist, said the materials were tried in two types. One was the pour-on and the other was added to cattle feed.

SOIL TESTS

Soil tests are the best way to determine the "nutrient-needs" of crops. Using soil test data, farmers can order the proper grade (nutrient proportions) and proper amounts to supply the nutrients in proper balance for phosphorus, potassium and limestone. There is no soil test for nitrogen, therefore, farmers must determine this need from past cropping and treatment history.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

SHE'S SO RIGHT!

EDITOR, The Times:

I am sure that you have heard that saying about "this country's going to the dogs." Well, after what I have just heard about putting clothes on animals, I believe it.

I have never heard of anything so stupid in my life. If the Lord had intended for the animals to wear clothes, he would have put clothes on them in the first place.

I think it's a shame that strong, able-bodied men have nothing more to do than parade up and down the streets, carrying signs about clothing animals. If they would carry signs about clothing the women who are walking around, half naked, it would be a more worthwhile cause.

SCHOOL PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL BUS DRIVER COME TO BLOWS

BUS DRIVER'S VERSION

I have been school bus driver in Floyd county for 2 years and the Transportation Supervisor will tell you he had no complaints as to the manner of my driving or otherwise until recently when the school principal, Phillip Dingus, of Allen Graded School and the Superintendent of Schools learned that I was supporting A. B. Chandler and Harry Lee Waterfield. I was first called into the Superintendent's office and questioned concerning certain political items which I had signed as Co-Chairman for Chandler and Waterfield. I informed him of my rights as a citizen to support the candidate of my choice and that I was supporting Chandler and Waterfield.

Mr. Dingus boarded my bus after school that same afternoon, after the students had entered and I was ready to start off, and caused a great disturbance among the students. This he had never done before. I asked him to move out so I could proceed on my run and he then turned the ignition key, he was so wrought up in presence of all the students. I pushed him off the bus and continued on my run. I probably used him rough, but he deserved it, since his action brought on the whole thing.

More than 50 parents have called, sympathizing with me and denouncing such tactics in our schools. They know politics caused the Superintendent's and Board's action in firing me.

I am sure many employees of the school system, whether maintenance laborers, janitors, or teachers feel the same as I, and would like to express their views as to their support of a candidate of their choice but are intimidated, threatened, and coerced into silence.

I say we are free people, the Taxpayers are paying the bill—We should stand up for our individual rights —If you don't this time then next time may be too late.

I CHALLENGE MR. DINGUS AND MR. CLARK TO GIVE THEIR VERSION OF MY BEING FIRED IN NEXT WEEK'S ISSUE.

God's Only Gift Which ALL SHARE EQUALLY

Anyone can see, of course, that the good things of life are not equally distributed.

Some are born to good health; others with physical or mental afflictions. Some enjoy in abundance the fruits of God's earth; others struggle through a lifetime of poverty. The unscrupulous often gain wealth and power; the virtuous find "virtue its only reward."

An all-wise and just God would obviously not allow such inequalities to exist without providing for their ultimate compensation. And we have His Word as to how this justice will eventually be meted out to both the mighty and the meek, the rich and the poor, the evil and the virtuous.

In one thing only, does God make us all equal. To each of us He gives a soul... to each the promise of everlasting life. Where the durability of our body may affect the years and the joys of life on earth, the purity of our soul will alone determine our eternal destiny.

Because it is not a physical thing that can be seen or touched, some refuse to believe that there is a soul.

Others neglect its care even though lavishing attention upon the health, nutrition and beauty of the body, whose ultimate destiny is only dust.

Even if we choose to reject God's certain promise of judgment, reward and punishment... as related in both the Old and the New Testaments... common sense must tell us that we have an immortal soul.

For unless we have a soul, why should we have been endowed also with a conscience... why should we even think of trying to choose between right and wrong?

Conscience tells us that we must pay for our misdeeds. Yet in this life, the wicked are often the most prosperous; the just man the most afflicted. The world cannot compensate for such injustice, so where is justice to be done if not at the hands of God in the life after death which He has promised?

There is nothing more important in your life than an understanding of the nature of your immortal soul, and the functioning of its warning bell—your conscience. Whether you are religious or not, it will reward you greatly to read our pamphlet on the subject, which we will gladly send you free upon request. It will be mailed in a plain wrapper; nobody will call on you. Write today—ask for Pamphlet No. KC-10.

ARCHER JOINS MAYOR GROUP

*Supporting Breathitt
In Governor's Race,
Announcement Made*

Dr. George P. Archer, mayor of Prestonsburg, this week was named to a 33-member Mayor's committee for Democratic gubernatorial candidate Edward T. "Ned" Breathitt.

In accepting the appointment, Dr. Archer stated that he was supporting Breathitt, because "in my opinion his views are consistent with good government for the entire state, not just one section."

"Breathitt will continue the program of Governor Combs," Dr. Archer said, "and see to it that Eastern Kentucky gets its just and fair share. This has never been true in the past."

Selection of Dr. Archer to serve on the Mayors' Committee was called by Breathitt "a typical example of the progressive, reliable people we are getting on our team."

"With these hard-working, well-informed people serving with us, we feel assured of victory in the primary election," Breathitt continued. "This appointment of Dr. Archer is just another example of the many excellent leaders who are serving in our organization."

Caney Junior College
Sets Summer Opening
To Fit Needs of Area

Pippa Passes, Ky.—Alice Lloyd College, at Pippa Passes, Kentucky, announced today summer term opening June 17 to accommodate a student body drawn almost exclusively from the flooded Eastern Kentucky area.

About 160 summer students are expected from high schools in the mountain counties of Knott, Floyd, Letcher, Perry and others. Some schools in this area are closing as late as June 8, or, in one instance, June 12, to make up school days lost this winter due to icy roads and floods.

The summer term serves a very important function of adjustment into college work for many high school graduates, thinks Director William Hayes.

Testing and registration will be conducted at the college, June 14-15. Registrar William R. Hughes is in charge of registration.

FLOOD RELIEF FROM ALUMNUS

Received at Alice Lloyd College was the personal check for $100 of former student Jimmie Mongiardo, of Brooklyn, N. Y., for "Flood Relief." It was mailed to the mountain college by Congressman Carl D. Perkins, also an alumnus. This help will very basically keep three or four flood-hit students in college.

Many Alice Lloyd College students attend without cash cost, if they lack funds. Some, already financially distressed, saw possessions and homes lost in the floods. With fellow students, they went in work teams to help others in the communities, scrape mud, collect bedding and clothing for others, when they had done what they could for their own families.

This is not the first time Mr. Mongiardo has helped his college. When he was a student in the 1930's, he knew the Italian way of laying up creek rock in cement, and under his leadership the college boys built the library that is now being enlarged by student work.

Mr. Mongiardo visited Pippa Passes last August with his daughter, a gifted musician.

BLACK CATS NOW 3-1

The Prestonsburg high school baseball team opened its 35-game schedule with a 12-4 win over Oil Springs last Wednesday afternoon.

Junior righthander Mike H. Wells gave up three runs and six hits before being relieved in the sixth inning by Lonnie Penix.

First baseman Jimmy Setser was the leading hitter for the Black Cats with a double and three singles in four trips to the plate. He drove in three runs and scored the same number.

Second baseman Garry Goble and third baseman Danny Hamilton, along with pitcher Mike H. Wells, hit two for three in the 12-hit attack.

Saturday, the Black Cats stopped Wheelwright in a doubleheader, 9-2 and 11-3, and then dropped an extra-inning game to Paintsville high, 3-2, Sunday afternoon.

In the Wheelwright doubleheader, centerfielder Raymond Schoolcraft poked two home runs and catcher Mike E. Wells and outfielder Bill Campbell each posted a roundtripper.

The winning pitchers were sophomores Johnny Wright and Freddie Setser.

Wheelwright high school has completed the field for its first annual invitational tournament that will begin on Christmas Day and run through December 28.

The eight-team field will include two of this past season's regional winners—Breathitt County from the 14th and Garrett from the 15th, along with Virgie, McDowell, Martin, Betsy Layne and Wheelwright. Officials will be Sid Meade, Don Sullivan and E. B. May, Jr.

The Floyd County Coaches Association has voted to make the 58th district a unit conference, with only games within the county to count.

Location Shooting Ends For "Youngblood Hawke"

Location shooting for the movie, "Youngblood Hawke," has been made in the Pikeville area. A Warners Brothers crew began work Monday and completed activities Wednesday. James Franciscus, star of the movie which is based on a book by Herman Work, was a recent visitor to Pikeville.

The book is about a fictitious Letcher county miner who made good in the playwright field.

A few local people were used as extras in the filming.

The book is available at the Regional Library, it is said by Robert J. Wallace, librarian.

Smallpox Protection Is Dangerously Low

Protection against smallpox has reached a dangerous low in the United States. Discussing this fact at a recent meeting of the Public Health Committee of the Kentucky State Medical Association, the committee urged physicians and the public to reverse the declining immunization level against this serious epidemic.

According to Dr. Delmas M. Clardy, Hopkinsville, chairman of KSM's Public Health Committee, maintenance of protection against smallpox requires vaccination at five-year intervals. Recent outbreaks in other western nations and a growing amount of international travel emphasize the need for attention to this problem. Smallpox, although one of the easiest diseases to prevent, is highly contagious. The virus can be spread by coughs, sneezes, or even in dust.

In the interest of national safety, the committee urges physicians and their patients, particularly those who may be in contact with possible carriers, to maintain the needed protection against smallpox.

Hollie Conley As Judge Offers Justice, Personal Morality, Firm Decisions, Dignity and Respect

As your Commonwealth Attorney I have prosecuted with vigor those whom the facts indicated were guilty. Despite our best efforts, there is still much to be done in our county in eliminating crime. Perhaps the illegal liquor traffic lurks in the background of most criminal activities in our county. I have never flinched as Commonwealth Attorney in prosecuting those charged with this evil offense. It is my thought that our Grand Juries may have been unable to completely investigate this particular type of crime because of the many other crimes coming before them. I WOULD PROPOSE TO CALL SPECIAL GRAND JURIES TO DO NOTHING BUT INVESTIGATE THE BOOTLEGGING TRAFFIC.

Citizens are entitled to have their cases in court decided honestly and promptly. The issues should be met head on and a firm decision rendered, in a judicial, conscientious and fearless manner.

This type of service to all I honestly pledge.

Your vote and support are earnestly solicited.

SOIL CONSERVATION

By L. R. JOHNSON

With permission, I submit the following, written by C. W. Gee, as a creed worthy of the minds of us all, and one which every landowner and operator should carefully consider.

I believe God created the earth by His divine processes for the benefit of man, not one man, nor one generation, but mankind for all time.

I believe the Almighty gave man an inheritance of the earth, not to be hoarded as a miser guards his treasure, but to be used with wisdom and in the fullest for the perpetual benefit of all men.

I believe all of mankind, regardless of race or creed, are entitled to a fair and equitable share of the earth's bounty commensurate with their own efforts. But in so believing, I hold the irrevocable conviction that man himself owes earth a debt of respect and fealty.

I believe that whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap; that he who manages his fields, pastures, woodlands, and streams with respect and wisdom shall reap the bountiful harvest and so shall his descendants, while he who used them selfishly, thinking only of his own immediate gain, shall bring to grief his land, himself, and his children's children.

Holding these beliefs to be true, I dedicate myself to the task of helping my fellow men realize their own personal responsibility in conserving the earth for the generations which follow them. To this end I shall devote my best knowledge in guiding the best efforts of those who till the soil so that the land which nurtures us shall be fruitful without end.

For, truly, the earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof, but the responsibility for its stewardship is vested in man.

HUGE RESERVES OF COAL STILL IN EAST KENTUCKY

Lexington, Ky., March 31—Only 5 percent of available coal in Eastern Kentucky has been mined, a geological survey reported Sunday.

The survey underlined efforts to find new markets for coal, the major economic crutch in the depressed Eastern Kentucky area.

The United States Geological Survey, in cooperation with the Kentucky Geological Survey at the University of Kentucky and the U. S. Bureau of Mines, made the report.

It shows that up to the late 1950's, about 1.7 billion tons of coal had been taken out of Eastern Kentucky and that more than 33 billion tons still were in the ground.

The line on statistics was drawn at January 1, 1956, representing the first major research covering the entire Eastern Kentucky coalfield since 1929.

The report said about 73 percent of the remaining coal reserves are in Pike, Harlan, Knott, Perry, Leslie, Letcher, Breathitt, Floyd, Martin and Magoffin counties.

The other 28 counties that make up the field have less than one billion tons, the report said.

The survey showed that the 33.5 billion tons of coal reserves are in beds more than 14 inches thick, with about 20 billion tons in beds more than 28 inches thick.

The 243-page report details how estimates were prepared and presents information on production and methods of mining.

In a pocket in the back of each copy of the survey are maps and a chart showing the amount of coal mined in each county between 1790 and 1955.

The first commercial mining project reported, the survey says, was on Sturgeon Creek in Lee county in 1790 when more than 14,000 tons of coal were shipped, by way of the Kentucky River, to the Lexington area.

"Although the records of early production in the Eastern Kentucky coalfields are incomplete, it is apparent that the amount of coal mined annually before 1880 was small," the survey says.

Production increased during the 1920's, declined in the next decade, and boomed during World War II. The peak production year was in 1947 when 66 million tons were mined.

Total production, up to 1956, for the top producing counties in millions of tons included Harlan 424, Pike 281, Letcher 207, Perry 193, Floyd 178, and Bell 108. Production in the other 32 counties for the same period was estimated at 309 million tons.
