Superintendent's Message

It has been a great challenge to me to have served for sixteen years as Superintendent of Schools for Floyd County. During this period we have endeavored to furnish leadership for a very fine "education team" in its work for the sons and daughters of the finest people on the face of the earth. It has always been my viewpoint that our mountain youth compare favorably with any young people anywhere and if properly educated their social contribution would be excelled by no others.

Since I will retire June 10, 1976 this "education team" will have a new, more youthful leader and I would challenge him and you to make the next few years the brightest period in the history of our school system. Remember, this can happen only if you truly believe that young people are worth your greatest efforts in all cases.

Board of Education

The citizens of Floyd County are deeply indebted to these dedicated Board Members for their sincere efforts to improve the educational facilities of our county.

May they continue to render great service to our schools by capably determining board policy of our educational system, and to reach out for more and better opportunities for our youth of tomorrow.

Remedial Reading Coordinators

Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Act, the largest Federal aid to education program, was passed in 1965 to provide financial assistance to local school districts in planning and operating special programs for educationally deprived children. It is a supplementary program, designed to up-grade the educational opportunities of children from disadvantaged backgrounds, and not a general aid program.

The Reading Coordinators work with thirty-six Special Reading Teachers serving 2070 elementary children in 20 elementary schools.

Public School Health

Elsie Stephens

We, as school nurses, hope to obtain optimum health of a child as a prerequisite of modern education. Thus, we place ourselves in the school setting to assist children in acquiring health knowledge in developing attitudes conducive to healthful living and meeting their needs resulting from diseases, accidents, congenital defects or phycho-social maladjustments.

Neighborhood-Youth Corps

NYC Program, funded by the Department of Labor and sponsored by the Floyd County Board of Education provides 188 deserving high school boys and girls with 5 hours of work training per week, at $2.30 per hour. The earnings from this training is used to buy school supplies, pay doctor and dental bills, buy clothes and take care of personal appearance. They work as teacher, clerical, custodial, lunchroom, library and hospital aides. Satisfactory school attendance and good conduct and grades are stressed.

Forty—Seven Years of Footprints In the Sands of Time

Nearly 48 years ago Lewis Campbell graduated from Prestonsburg High School and the same year began a career in teaching that was to take him through June of 1975 when he retired. Forty-four years he spent in the teaching field; forty of these he served as elementary principal. Three years he was transportation director of Floyd County Schools.

During these years as an educator he actively participated in various teacher organizations both local and state. For many years he served as a delegate to E.K.E.A. and K.E.A. He always served his professional group faithfully and well. He also served on the nominating committee for trustees of the Kentucky Teacher Retirement Board.

The schools that he has been associated with are Turkey Creek, McDowell, Drift, Weeksbury, and Allen.

Lewis, as most of us know him, is a great family man to his wife, Irene, his two daughters and 3 grandchildren. He is also an active member of the First Baptist Church of Allen, Ky.

With Pleasure we dedicate this yearbook to a man so devoted to the children of our county. What could be a greater investment in our heritage than a life dedicated to the development of our children?

In Memoriam

Music, when soft voices die, Vibrates in the memory; Odors, when sweet violets sicken, Live within the sense they quicken.

Rose leaves, when the rose is dead, Are heaped for the beloved's bed; And so thy thoughts, when thou art gone, Love itself shall slumber on.

LARRY E. BENTLEY 1960-1974

Farewell, dear voyageur--'twill not be long Your work is done--now may peace rest with thee Your kindly thoughts and deeds--they will live on This is not death--'tis immortality

Each year the last home game of the season is Senior Night. This is the night we pay tribute to the seniors who have given so much to the school through their participation in band, majoretting, cheerleading, managing, and ball playing. We miss these people and wish them the best in their chosen fields.

Athletic Outing

Excitment! From the first sound of cutting wood, to the first smell of rising smoke, the Athletic Outing brings excitment to all. The waiting for the hot dogs to roast, the eagerness of the awards being accepted, the members of the ball teams, tennis team, cheerleaders, and mascots alike look forward to this special event.

BECAUSE I COULD NOT STOP FOR DEATH

Because I could not stop for Death, He kindly stopped for me; The carriage held but just ourselves And Immortality.

We slowly drove, he knew no haste, And I had put away My lavor, and my leisure too, For his civility.

We passed the school where children played At wrestling in a ring; We passed the fields of gazing grain, We passed the setting sun.

We paused before a house that seemed A swelling of the ground; The roof was scarcely visible, The cornice but a mound.

Since then 'tis centuries; but each Feels shorter than the day I first surmised the horse's heads Were toward eternity.

Blackcat Yearbook 1975-76

To celebrate the Bicentennial year the Yearbook staff has decided to dedicate this year's annual to the graduating seniors . . . an enthusiastic group of young adults who really live up to the title . . . the Spirit of '76

How the Modern '76 lives! We study, we clown, have parades, talk, undergo bomb threats, ALMOST make it to the state tournament in basketball, use the art room, get ready for that big game, present the Junior and Senior prom king and queen, and proceed to dance the night away. No wonder we're tired sometime!

Whether they are typing, studying, working, or rushing to their next class, the students always try to keep up the good attitude of the Spirit of '76!

Time

Time is ever moving It will not stop or stay, To have a chat, a cup of tea Or rest a single day.

Tomorrow is the future. Yesterday the past. Today is what we live for, Let's hope it's not our last. Even as the years go by There'll always be a place, Deep in the mind for memories Of old and dear school days.

So keep in mind these words my friend. Enjoy each new school day, And keep in mind the golden rule, For just once we pass this way.

The Spirit of '76 shows modern-day girls C. George, L. Brackett, M. Stumbo, V. McGuire, P. Lynch, G. Shepherd, B. Hunter, D. Garrett, D. Pow-ers, L. Stephens, K. Burchett, L. Howell, L. Baldridge, L. Fowler, N. Daniels, K. Alexander, D. Vaughan, L. Cox, A. Setser, C. Wells, D. Cornelison, and P. Goble being a little different from their great, great, great, great, great grandmothers, very few of whom could attend school or hope to have any career other than marriage or perhaps be a school teacher! !! Times have changed in 200 years-for better or worse-we're not sure.

Are the seniors in Mrs. Neeley's English IV Class working THAT hard, or are they pretending?

How intently one of our sunny senior men, Tim Sammons, listens in Mr. Neeley's Art class. What will Mrs. Brackett do without you to run errands for her next year, Tim? You're one of her favorites, you know!

Mike Dixon, Leslie (Bear) May, and Kim Alexander are definitely the Most Athletic. Muscles, man!

Kermit Joseph and Vivian Haywood surely deserve Best Dancers as they get it together in the hall at PHS.

Football Homecoming '76 was really an exciting event this year at P.H.S. with our Prestonsburg Fighting Blackcats whipping the West Carter Comets 38-13! The festivities started on Thursday night with a motorcade through Prestonsburg that ended with a bon-fire at Archer Park. Friday afternoon a pep rally was held in the gym and the annual Homecoming Parade followed with the court, football team, band, and various clubs from school. That night during halftime, Cathy George, escorted by Doug Hicks and driven by Joey Hyden, was crowned the new 1975 Football Homecoming Queen. Her court consisted of:

Prestonsburg High School has always had a good Junior Varsity cheerleading squad. This year's squad has done exceptionally well.

At camp the cheerleaders received several blue ribbons and brought home a Spirit Stick, the highest award given at camp. In the Tom Wiley Girls Tournament our J.V.'s received the first place award in competition.

This year the Junior Varsity will be cheering for our girls' basketball team, boys' B team, and helping with the Varsity games.

These girls have a lot to look forward to in the coming years. Good Luck, Girls!

The world stands out on either side No wider than the heart is wide; Above the world is stretched the sky.—

No higher than the soul is high. The heart can push the sea and land Farther away on either hand;

The soul can split the sky in two, And let the face of God shine through.

HEALTH CAREERS

Mary Anderson, R.N. Melvina Thomson, R.N.

The first semester is primarily a class room situation in which the students study basic health subjects. The students also investigate the many health occupations and opportunities available in the health field. The regular classroom work is supplemented by both field trips to hospitals, nursing homes, and other health facilities and by laboratory experience.

The second semester exposes the student more thoroughly to actual work experience. After the student reaches an acceptable level of performance in the school laboratories, the student participates in selected activities in a live situation. The student, under the close supervision of the certified vocational instructor, utilizes the training facilities of local hospitals, nursing homes, and other local health agencies.

AUTO MECHANICS

Lonzo Lafferty

This program deals with the fundamentals and principles of the internal combustion engine. Areas of instruction include the fuel system, ignition system, cooling system, transmission, braking system, wheel alignment and others. Our modern transportation system is dependent upon well trained service workers who know the latest technology.

CARPENTRY

George Barker

The course being taught in carpentry is designed to provide the basic and fundamental training needed to enter general carpentry, cabinet making, and masonry work. Units of instruction include building construction, blueprint reading, estimating costs, drawing plans, science and related math. Building new homes, factories, churches, and other structures will require trained personnel to fill the jobs of the future.

INDUSTRIAL

James Montgomery

Garth Students at State Fair

Brian Hall and Tommy Boyd, both of Banner and students at Garth Vocational School, are pictured above demonstrating an electronic ignition system at the Kentucky State Fair, recently. Garth is the first school in the state to have a portable electronic ignition unit which is the system used on all 1975 American made automobiles. Hall and Boyd also presented this demonstration at the State Vocational Education Conference held at Bowling Green, August 5-8.

ELECTRICITY

Ezra Mitchell

This program begins with the fundamentals of electricity and includes circuitry, electromagnitism, motors, house wiring, principles of radio and other leads to more complex fields such as T.V. and solid state circuitry, more advanced electronics and electrical engineering. Electri city will play an important role in the energy sources of the future.

MACHINE SHOP

Clifford VanHoose

The machine shop class is designed primarily to introduce students to the metal working trade as practiced by the machinist. Practically all the necessities of life are made by machines, and the machinist is directly responsible for their production.

The chief function of the machine shop class is to teach the intelligent and safe operation of the basic machines such as, power saw, drill press, metal working lathe, grinder, shaper, and milling machine. Manual skills are learned primarily through practices. The class in machine shop is designed to advance these skills through basic operations and the actual making of many projects from metal.

WELDING

John C. Frazier

The primary purpose of this course is to provide a sound training program that will enable youth to obtain skills involved in welding along with a background of technical information needed by the modern welders.

The curriculum is designed to give the student a sound foundation in the principles and safe practices involved in becoming a skilled craftsman in the welding field. At the same time the student will be subjected to related courses that should prepare him with the technical background and the use of modern up-to-date equipment and tools which will enable the student to learn the trade as it is used in industry.

DRAFTING

Jerry May

This course deals with the skills and techniques of drawing. Before an industry builds any product a detailed plan must be made. Students learn line technique, lettering, shape description, blueprint production and make numerous drawings of items that would be produced in industry. It is a universal language used in industry to interpret to the craftsman the ideas and plans developed by the engineer staff.

BUSINESS & OFFICE MODEL OFFICE (Apex Employees) Alice Williams

The Model Office program provides realistic work experience to students as they become employees and work in a classroom-laboratory designed as a modern business office. Model Office is based on true-to-life and businesslike materials within a framework of sound educational principles.

The office is supervised by the teacher who assumes the role of office manager. Students assume the role of employees and experience the operation of office procedures through participation. As employees, students use modern business equipment and experience realistic business situations, thus they begin to develop an understanding of what office work is all about.

Students make application for the following entry-level positions: payroll clerk, copy clerk, billing clerk, file clerk, regional clerk. Applicants are hired to fill one of these entry level positions with the knowledge that they will be promoted to another position within a four to five week period. An increase in pay accompanies each promotion. This gives students an opportunity to perform a variety of office tasks. Model Office students are challenged by a heavy work load, the pressure of deadlines within a businesslike atomosphere.

BUSINESS ACCOUNTING—

SECRETARIAL

Doris Lawson

The secretarial program student will learn to apply his typing knowledge and skill with speed and accuracy to many business situations; to develop business communication skills; to operate various office machines; to file and retrieve business correspondence and reports; to make and accept business telephone calls; to handle incoming and outgoing mail and a multitude of other office activities. Instructional emphasis is placed on office dictation speed and the ability to transcribe quickly and accurately.

We wish to thank Mayo State Vocational-Technical School for taking and processing our pictures.

& OFFICE JR. MANAGEMENT

Linda J. Turner

The student enrolled in the accounting-junior management program will learn to type with accuracy; will learn to add, subtract, multiply and divide with and without calculating machines. A more thorough knowledge and skill of accounting practices is emphasized along with instruction in business law, business communications, business economics and types of business organizations. The student is encouraged to develop competence in leadership abilities and to develop attitudes and behavior patterns which are necessary for managerial jobs.

CLERICAL

The clerical program is designed to help the student to attain the basic skills necessary to become a more efficient clerical worker. Our students learn to operate display calculating machines; learn basic bookkeeping skills and knowledge; learn to become more confident in their use of different business arithmetic skills; learn to apply the typing knowledge and skills to business situations with accuracy and speed; and to learn to develop the proper business behavior and attitudes required of a clerical worker.

EARLY DEATH

She pass'd away like morning dew Before the sun was high; So brief her time, she scarcely knew The meaning of a sigh.

As round the rose its soft perfume, Sweet love around her floated; Admired she grew—while mortal doom Crept on, unfear'd, unnoted.

Love was her guardian Angel here, But Love to Death resign'd her; Tho' Love was kind, why should we fear But holy Death is kinder?
